MINUTES

First Day

Charlotte, North Carolina, April 24, 1958

The ninety-eighth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States met in the city of Charlotte as guests of the First Presbyterian Church.

The opening Session, convening the Assembly, was held in the Covenant Church at 7:30 P.M.

Following a worship service led by the Ministers of the Covenant and First Churches, Rev. William M. Elliott, Jr., Moderator, preached the opening sermon on the subject "A Glorious Church" using as a text, Ephesians 5:25, 27.

The Stated Clerk advised that three Synods had effected changes in the boundaries and names of Presbyteries as follows:

1. Synod of Oklahoma:

This Synod has altered the boundaries of the Presbyteries and the names have been changed to read as follows: Indian, Shawnee and Southwest Oklahoma.

2. Synod of Texas:

A general rearrangement of churches has resulted in the reduction of Presbyteries from seven to six, named as follows: Brazos, Central Texas, John Knox, Northeast Texas, South Texas and Southwest Texas.

3. Synod of Virginia:

East Hanover Presbytery has been renamed Hanover and West Hanover becomes Appomattox.

The presence of a quorum was declared and the Assembly was called to order and opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The following Commissioners were enrolled:

ELECTION OF MODERATOR

The Stated Clerk reviewed the rules of the Assembly governing the election of a moderator. Ruling Elder, Philip F. Howerton, a commissioner from the Presbytery of Mecklenburg, was elected Moderator.

During the interval while the clerks were counting the ballots a number of items were brought to the attention of the Assembly.

MODERATOR'S REPORT

I wish to report to the 1958 General Assembly concerning my activities and observations during the past twelve months. It has been a strenuous but exceedingly happy and fruitful year for me personally, and I hope that my labors have been of some help to our Church.

I would report that during the year I traveled, mostly by air, and including the trip which I made to the Far East last summer, a total of more than 60,000 miles. I filled engagements in all of our sixteen synods. I spoke in 71 individual churches, in 10 colleges and universities, and in each of our four theological seminaries. I delivered a total of 124 sermons and addresses, exclusive of those delivered in my own pulpit in Dallas. I prepared and recorded on tape ten messages for the Protestant Hour. One man who had some knowledge of my travel and speaking schedule observed that evidently the Moderator was making a determined effort to obey St. Paul's injunction, "Let your moderation be known unto all men."

It meant much to me, and I hope something to our World Mission enterprise, to be able to visit three of our Far Eastern fields during my moderator year. The office which the Birmingham Assembly conferred upon me enabled me officially to carry the appreciation of our entire Church to approximately 125 of our fine staff of missionaries, and our fraternal greetings to the national Christians of three foreign countries—Korea, Japan and Taiwan. The Moderatorship undoubtedly gave me an entree and a voice in negotiations with the Church in Korea which I would not otherwise have had.

I have been received in all places with unfailing courtesy and genuine cordiality. The "red carpet" of warm hospitality was rolled out for me everywhere I went, not only in the Orient, but here at home also. I am grateful beyond words for the hundreds of invitations which came to me to speak and to counsel informally with groups of ministers and laymen. I regret that, although I was "on the go" approximately two-thirds of the time these past twelve months, I was able to accept only a few of the invitations which came to me from all over the Church.

The Session and Congregation of the Highland Park Church in Dallas have been most understanding and generous. They virtually gave me a free rein to be away from my pulpit and from my pastoral and administrative duties as much as I felt was necessary. I want to record my genuine appreciation to them, and also to my colleagues on the Staff of the Highland Park Church who assumed extra responsibilities because of my absences from the work. I also wish to thank our Stated Clerk, Dr. E. C. Scott, and his assistant, Dr. Archie C. Smith, for their helpfulness during the year.

Let me report to you now, regarding the state of our Church as I have observed it during the past year. There are many heartening features which are most encouraging. The pastors of our churches are a wonderful group of spiritually-minded and sacrificially devoted men. Some of them are working under difficult, discouraging and frustrating circumstances, and merit our intercession. Our ministers are appreciated by their people, and are, with rare exceptions, happy and content in their work. There certainly are not many who, as one friend put it, would hand you a card with the words printed, "Have sermon, will travel!"

The laymen of our churches are more interested and active in the life and work of the Kingdom than I have ever known them to be. Men's Work is going forward in a thrilling manner. The great Men's Convention in Miami last October was but a symbol of the developing churchmanship of our men. Of course the women of our churches continue their magnificent loyalty and service.

I have been inspired in my travels to observe the strong emphasis upon evangelism and upon church extension in our presbyteries. New congregations are springing up all over our Assembly, and are rapidly coming to full self-support. We still have a long way to go in this important phase of our witnessing responsibility, but there has been real progress.

I have been impressed too, with the improvement in the physical equipment of our churches. Many congregations have built entirely new plants, and others have greatly improved their facilities by the erection of additional buildings, and by the remodeling and redecorating of older ones. This, too, is cause for rejoicing, and we should be grateful to God for the period of material prosperity which has made this possible. It is hoped that the flood of generosity which has been poured out for new buildings in recent years will be continued and channeled into our benevolent causes. Most churches report an enlarging membership and increased attendance at the Church School and worship services. The Presbyterian Church in the South is growing rapidly in numbers, in zeal and in effectiveness.

Of course, all is not "sweetness and light." There are instances of low spiritual vitality, of complacency, inertia and disharmony. Some pastors and congregations are discouraged and unhappy. I believe, however, that the number of these instances is steadily decreasing Our Church is, on the whole, in a state of robust health. It is spiritually vibrant, progressive, harmonious and enthusiastic.

The needs and opportunities confronting our Church in these days are, of course, unprecedented. This country and other lands need our evangelical witness as never before. Countless millions are spiritually and morally bankrupt, and in desperate need of the gospel. Are we adequate for the task?

If we Presbyterians are to do our share in meeting the need of this hour we must have a rededication of brains, energy, time, ability and money. Such resources are present in our Church in abundance. Let us recognize Christ's lordship over them, and pour them out upon the altar without reserve or stint! We must be aggressive, imaginative and creative, ready to think new ideas and to try new programs and methods in a rapidly changing world.

And if we are to meet the need of this hour we must, as a denomination, maintain a strong spirit of unity. There are some disquieting signs of a growing disunity. If allowed to go unchecked, this divisiveness which is now a wavelet could become a vicious tide which would engulf and destroy our Church. We must all strive with greater diligence to strengthen our basic unity. This does not mean that we must achieve complete agreement in all matters. That is too much to hope for. What we must maintain is our sense of oneness in Christ and as Presbyterians, and determine that nothing—absolutely nothing—shall break it!

Presbyterians certainly have the right to hold opposing views on ecclesiastical matters and on controversial social issues. They have the right to differ and debate—even to argue—so long as they do so in mutual respect, considerateness and good will. There is room within the Christian fellowship for a difference of opinion, but there is no room for bitterness or detraction. We have a right to differ, but none of us has the right to be disruptive, or to throw suspicion upon other committed Christians. Increasingly we must learn to disagree without being disagreeable. We must learn to hold opinions, however strong, in love, forbearance and humility, ready at all times to acknowledge our own sinfulness and fallibility before God. And we must learn constantly to test our views and attitudes by the teachings and spirit of the New Testament.

And finally, if we as a Church are to be adequate for this hour, we must recommit ourselves to Presbyterian polity and procedure. A form of individualism and of congregationalism, completely at variance with historic Presbyterianism, is rampant in some areas of our Church. There has been, on the part of a few, a tendency to neglect or repudiate our constitutional processes. There have been veiled and open threats against the agencies of our Church. Some would deny freedom to the pulpit, and would make personal views on social, moral and ecumenical issues a test of a man's fitness to preach the gospel or to lead a congregation. Some would, if they could, drive a wedge between our teaching and ruling elders. Could anything more tragic happen to our Church than that?

There is, on the part of some, an attitude of hostility and/or indifference toward the courts of our Church, particularly her highest court, which is dismaying. Of course, no single individual or session is required always to agree with the actions or pronouncements of any General Assembly, for no Assembly is infallible. But all true Presbyterians will respect our church courts, will take their deliverances seriously, and will study them carefully and prayerfully. God can and does speak through His Church.

As I see it, there is great need just now for us ministers and ruling elders to refresh our minds concerning the principles and procedures of our Form of Government, and to recommit ourselves to them. There is a need for us to reaffirm our ordination vows to work for "the peace and unity of the Church," and to resist with stout hearts any movement, however pious its claims, which would weaken or divide us before a stricken world.

In the Presbyterian system great and heavy responsibilities are committed to ordained pastors and ruling elders. The harmony and effectiveness of the Church is supremely in our hands. I would plead therefore, for a deeper commitment to Christ and to our Reformed faith and order. I plead for a greater love between us, and for a stronger spirit of unity which shall transcend our differences and weld us together in one body to do the Master's work.

WILLIAM M. ELLIOTT, JR.

Acting Mayor Herman Brown of the City of Charlotte extended a warm welcome to the Assembly expressing the city's pleasure at being host to the Assembly.

Rev. Malcolm McIver, Director of Campus Christian Life of the Board of Christian Education, presented Steve Bacon, Moderator of the Assembly's Youth Council. Mr. Bacon brought greetings from the Youth of the Church pledging their loyalty and devotion to the task of the Church.

Mr. R. Graham White, Executive Secretary of the Assembly's Committee on the Minister and his work, introduced Dr. Howard L. Hamilton, Executive Secretary, Department of Ministerial Relations of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

Rev. James R. Crook, Moderator of the Presbytery of Mecklenburg, brought greetings to the Assembly and welcomed a number of the ministers in attendance at the Assembly to the pulpits of the churches in the Presbytery.

Rev. E. Lee Stoffel, pastor of the host church, welcomed the Assembly to the First Church pledging every effort to meet the needs of the Assembly.

The report of the tally clerks was received and the newly elected Moderator was conducted to the chair.

The report of the permanent committee on Worship was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WORSHIP

1. The worship services for the meeting of the General Assembly are printed in the Blue Book for the convenience of the commissioners. They were prepared by Rev. Kenneth G. Phifer.

2. It is recommended the General Assembly approve the arrangements for the following services on Sunday morning.

The Assembly Communion Service at the First Presbyterian Church at 8:30 A. M., arrangements for which are in the hands of the Presbytery of Mecklenburg.

Morning worship in the First Church at 11 o'clock.

The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Wallace M. Alston.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. ELLIOTT, JR., Chairman

Rev. J. G. Patton advised the Assembly of the death of Ruling Elder E. L. Repass, of Salem, Virginia. The committee on Resolutions was instructed to convey the sympathy of the Assembly to the members of the family.

OVERTURES

The Stated Clerk presented the following Overtures which were referred as indicated:

The General Assembly directed the Stated Clerk to indicate in the Blue Book the reference which he suggests for each overture. If there is no objection they shall be referred as a whole, as recommended, without formal vote.

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures, (1)-(7), (50) and (53)

Replies are found on pages 53, 54.

(1) The Presbytery of St. Johns respectfully overtures the General Assembly to rule as to whether the Baptism of the Roman Catholic Church should be honored, when members, formerly affiliated with that Church, are received into the fellowship of our Presbyterian Church.

(2) The Presbytery of Charleston overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to make an in thesi deliverance on the following subjects:

1. Shall an elder who is on inactive status due to the limited service plan be elected to the Board of Deacons? If so, what is his status as an Elder?
2. When a person on inactive status as either Elder or Deacon is again elected to active status, shall he be re-examined before his installation or not?
3. We ask that the General Assembly plan to make whatever constitutional changes that might be necessary in the light of the above, since they do not appear in the planned revision with the above answered.

(3) WHEREAS, Candidates for licensure and ordination are often in need of guidance in determining the fundamentals of the Westminster Confession of Faith, which they are required to accept, and

WHEREAS, The length and form of the Confession render it difficult to present clearly and persuasively to prospective elders and deacons, and

WHEREAS, For the same reasons, the Confession is of limited use in instructing laymen who are increasingly desirous of learning the beliefs of our Church, and

WHEREAS, Piecemeal modification of the Confession is not a feasible way of meeting the needs indicated, and

WHEREAS, The brief statement adopted by the 1913 Assembly and bound with the Confession and Catechisms by the order of the 1931 Assembly is no longer fully adequate for the needs indicated above, and

WHEREAS, A Committee of the Presbyterian Alliance, with which fruitful communication might be established, is at present working on a brief statement of the Reformed Faith, and

WHEREAS, Our Church is looking forward to the observance of a Centennial in which we shall seek to relate our heritage constructively to the future.

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Hanover overtures the forthcoming General Assembly as follows:

1. That the Assembly create an ad interim committee, not exceeding 15 in number, composed of persons loyal to our tradition, competent in theology, and gifted in addressing the lay mind, to draw up a brief statement of faith.

2. That this statement be presented for adoption by a subsequent Assembly, not as a standard of the Church, but for purposes of guidance and instruction.

3. That the Assembly delegate to its Nominating Committee the responsibility of selecting and appointing the persons to compose the proposed ad interim committee.

4. That the ad interim committee be instructed to present progress reports to each succeeding Assembly and a final report, if possible, to the 1961 Assembly.

(4) WHEREAS, in the Presbytery of Winchester there are 44 churches comprising 16 fields, and this makes for multiple representation with reference to Ruling Elders at Presbytery, and

WHEREAS, our system of government is that of representation, our present system of representation does not appear quite equitable where larger congregations are concerned; for example, these figures are the sum of communing members served by one pastor with the number of ruling elders representing them at presbytery: 225 by 3, 153 by 3, 245 by 3, 212 by 3, 144 by 3, and 85 by 4.

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Winchester respectfully overtures the General Assembly to amend the Book of Church Order, paragraph 70, to provide for a more equitable representation for larger churches, as the present ratio does not appear equitable.

(5) The Presbytery of Brazos respectfully overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to amend the Confession of Faith by approving the deletion of sections III, IV and VII from Chapter III.

(6) WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church in the United States proclaims a Gospel that is universal and not regional in its application; and

WHEREAS, the Commission of the Church is to proclaim the Gospel wherever and in whatever place there may be persons who have not received Jesus Christ as Savior; and

WHEREAS, Presbyterians not only number less than 2% of the total population of these United States, but also exhibit a far smaller rate of growth than many other Evangelical denominations; now therefore;

The Presbytery of Louisiana does hereby respectfully overture the General Assembly to appoint an ad interim committee to study the feasibility of enlarging the territorial boundaries of the Church.

(7) The Synod of Georgia overtures the General Assembly that, if the way be clear, it erect for the Negro churches of Georgia, a separate presbytery known as the Presbytery of Georgia which shall be a presbytery of this Synod.

(50) WHEREAS, increasing cooperation between the Presbyterian Churches, U. S. and U. S. A., is now taking place in many of our synods; and

WHEREAS, some of the U. S. and U. S. A. churches are grouped together in larger parishes, so that it is necessary for the U. S. A. ministers to perform pastoral functions in certain U. S. churches; and

WHEREAS, the performance of these functions is seriously hindered by present provisions of the Book of Church Order;

THEREFORE, the Synod of Missouri respectfully overtures the General Assembly to amend the Book of Church Order as follows:

Add to Paragraph 62: In certain exceptional cases the Presbytery authorize a minister of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. to supply a church and have authority to act as moderator of its Session, without the right to vote.

Add to Paragraph 149: In cases where Presbytery has authorized a minister of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. to supply a church, the congregation shall be permitted to elect him to moderate congregational meetings, without the right to vote.

(53) The Presbytery of Indian overtures the General Assembly as follows:

To interpret whether the Book of Church Order will permit the issuing of a pastoral call by a Larger Parish Council when the congregations involved have through regular call procedure specifically authorized the Council so to do, and when said congregations have acted affirmatively on the definite terms of the call to a particular minister, and in the event the Assembly should respond in the negative, to establish an ad interim committee to study the matter of pastoral calls to larger parish work with a view toward possible recommendation for amending the Book of Church Order to facilitate the issuing of pastoral calls when a Church Extension Committee and/or two or more churches are involved in providing the assurances for the terms of the call.

To the Standing Committee on Judicial Business, (8) and (9)

Replies are found on page 55.

(8) The Presbytery of Savannah overtures the General Assembly to suspend the change in the Book of Church Order (Par. 107, Book of Church Order), if it becomes the law of our Church, in regard to the Independent Presbyterian Church of Savannah, Georgia, so that this church may be regarded as a church of the Presbyterian Church in the United States as far as its Candidates for the Ministry are concerned. (If this be done, young men of the Independent Presbyterian Church, Savannah, may be taken under the care of Savannah Presbytery without changing membership to one of our churches).

(9) The Presbytery of Central Mississippi overtures the General Assembly to take such steps as are proper to see that agency secretaries and others in places of leadership in the conduct of its affairs uphold the dignity and sanctity of our Church.

To the Standing Committee on Office of the General Assembly, (10)-(12)

Replies are found on page 58.

(10) WHEREAS, we, the Presbytery of North Mississippi, have discussed the report of the Council on Christian Relations entitled "Freedom—the Christian Concept," we sincerely believe that the solution to all problems lies in the conscience of each person and that that conscience will grow, develop and mature as the individual person learns the truth about God; and

WHEREAS, we believe that by far the greater majority of our members would agree that it would be better for such reports to be in the hands of commissioners and receive as wide a circulation within our denomination as possible before coming to General Assembly for action; and

WHEREAS, we are certain that such previous information would make the task of every conscientious commissioner an easier one;

THEREFORE, we, the Presbytery of North Mississippi, respectfully overture General Assembly to REQUIRE all reports of such nature to be included in the Blue Book, and to consider the possibility of publishing the Blue Book in two sections, the first to contain material of the character which by its nature calls for mature, sustained consideration and deliberation, and that this section be published and circulated at a date early enough to be in the hands of the commissioners at least before the spring meeting of the various presbyteries; the second, to contain all of the detailed reports of the various agencies, and which cannot well be prepared until after the close of the church year.

(11) The Presbytery of Mississippi respectfully overtures the General Assembly to change the method of setting up Chairmen of the Standing Committees from appointment by the retiring moderator, to appointment by a committee consisting of the retiring moderator as chairman, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, and the Chairman of the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly.

(12) The Presbytery of Greenbrier overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States as follows:

In view of the greatly increased cost and inconvenience of holding the meetings of the General Assembly in various cities, we request the General Assembly to confer with the administration and trustees of Montreat College to the end that arrangements be made which will make it possible for the General Assembly ordinarily to hold its stated meetings at Montreat, the conference site of our Church.

To the Standing Committee on General Council, (13)-(17) and (55)

Replies are found on pages 51, 52.

(13) The Synod of Texas overtures the General Assembly to create an Ad Interim Committee of capable and apt persons to study the feasibility and desirability of—

a. Maximum reserves required and/or permitted to be held by each agency.
b. Distribution of existing reserves, as determined to exceed the maximum quantity defined in section (a) above.
c. The creation of a central investment agency for endowment funds and the operation of a Presbyterian Mortgage Agency.
d. A plan of more fully equalizing receipts among General Assembly's Agencies and a Central Treasurer to handle such funds.
e. Uniform practices of auditing and accounting for all agencies.
f. Separation of the business activities, such as printing and annuities, from the program phase.
g. Restrictions upon the Boards concerning the transfers of undesignated funds to endowment funds.

(14) The Presbytery of Central Mississippi overtures the General Assembly of 1958 to take the following action:

Take all needed steps to see that the agencies of the Church abide by the standards of our Church in literature and plans presented to our churches.

(15) The Presbytery of Central Mississippi adopted the following as an overture to the General Assembly:

THE PETITION AND OVERTURE

The Session of Central Presbyterian Church earnestly requests the Presbytery of Central Mississippi to send the following petition as an overture from this Presbytery to the General Assembly.

The concern of this petition is for "the peace, unity, edification, and purity" of our local church and all others in the Assembly.

The Session of the Central Church in making this petition to the Presbytery seeks to have its voice heard through this proper and official channel of communication between a local church and the General Assembly.

In the making of this plea we want to reaffirm what we trust is recognized as being true of this church—namely, that under no condition are we willing for any message in the Word of God to be silenced. Our earnest plea is for a continuing opportunity to live and serve as a congregation under a true and balanced interpretation of God's Word.

We do want it understood that we are not trying to speak for any other church. We believe that others share our present concern, but we do not presume or infer that we speak for them.

Our major concern consists of three elements, on each of which we have endeavored to take a constructive and Christian approach. These matters of our concern are as follows:

I.

Our concern is for A RETURN TO CHRISTIAN PERSUASION AND MODERATION.

The power of Jesus over men was, and has always continued to be, the power of persuasion. History teaches that when the church has departed from Christ's example it has lost its unity, its purity and its spiritual power.

The practical meaning of this Christian attitude of persuasion and moderation has been expressed in these words: "We cannot make living things grow with a sledge hammer no matter how hard we pound."

We believe that since the General Assembly took its original action on the race question in 1954 there has been a growing tendency to pressure the Church to accept the integration of the races, and as time has gone on, culminating in 1957, the efforts to have the churches accept integration have been carried to the extreme. We realize that we are a part of the deep south where the attitudes toward the race question run deep with much feeling, but the subject of this petition is not what should be done about the race problem but the ways and means that are being used in presenting this controversial issue.

In behalf of understanding on our part and in fairness to the Boards and Agencies of the General Assembly, we remember that over three years ago the decision was made to have a special emphasis each year in the program of the church. So three years ago the emphasis of Christian Citizenship was scheduled for the year 1957. It is clear that those responsible for promoting Christian Citizenship this year did not hastily and impulsively determine to promote Christian Citizenship at this particular time of crisis.

However, with the former declarations of the Assembly and with the incorporation of that material into many of our church publications, plus the materials for the emphasis this year on Christian Citizenship, plus the report of the Council on Christian Relations on "Freedom—the Christian Concept"—all of which, when added together, have had the practical effect, we believe, of pressurizing beyond the full limits of Christian persuasion and moderation.

We understand that the emphasis for 1958 is on the Church. There is ample evidence to believe that we stand in great need of a truer and fuller understanding and appreciation of the nature and the function of the church. We make a plea that this emphasis on the Church be so presented that this study may not be resisted and neglected because of the constant injection of the race problem, and in doing so we will not miss the mark of Paul's appeal: "Let your moderation be known unto all men."

II.

Our concern is for CERTAIN REVISIONS IN OUR CHURCH SCHOOL MATERIALS.

The Central Church believes that our Church School materials should be the best available for our spiritual growth, and we are making a sincere effort to use our Presbyterian materials throughout our Church School. But these materials have become more and more objectionable and less adequate. We believe that the Word of God is being shifted from the center toward the circumference and that our Presbyterian doctrines are not receiving the historic and proper emphasis. We believe that our people must be trained to live and serve in a modern world but we cannot see how this is to be done if the by-products and the circumference benefits are to occupy the primary focus in our Church School literature.

To us the most objectionable and least adequate of our Church School materials are the PIONEER TRAILS and PRESBYTERIAN YOUTH, and for these we are given no option as they are the only publications for this part of the training of our youth.

As it happens our whole attitude toward our Church School materials, including our spirit of "brotherly love and affection," has been stated in a splendid way by the Elders of the Trinity Presbyterian Church of Montgomery, Alabama, in their communication to the Board of Christian Education. And we ask that this Trinity Church statement, a copy of which is attached hereto, be considered as supporting evidence for this petition.*

III.

Our concern is that WE BE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO CONSERVE THE GOOD IN OUR CHURCH.

Under God's blessing we have been given a church with a worthy degree of unity, purity, and consecration and we believe it to be our duty to conserve those God-given gifts. We have believed and continue to believe in living according to our Presbyterian principles in great devotion and loyalty to the Assembly and its causes and programs. We are concerned about the preservation of this kind of a church. We are fearful that as we live under the conditions indicated above that the wheat will be destroyed with the tares and we will lose many of the gains that we have made. A very wise man has asked this question in his exposition of the parable of the tares: "When has the church undertaken to uproot her heresies without uprooting also her gentleness and her courageous quest for truth?"

If we are not given a better chance to conserve the good of our Church certain inevitable consequences may fall upon us.

Specifically, we mean this: Our loyalty to the General Assembly in the minds and hearts of our people may be shaken; our confidence in our Church School literature may be so weakened that we will have no choice but to turn from it, even though we do not know of an adequate substitute; the stewardship of our possessions may be so jeopardized that our contributions to the Assembly's causes will fall far below a worthy standard of giving; and with all of this, we too may lose our "gentleness and our courageous quest for the truth," thus becoming a part of that which we now strive and plead against.

With the greatest devotion for Christ and His Church, we have made a sincere effort to state our loyalties, hopes, fears and needs. We make our plea to the General Assembly and to the Boards and Agencies of our Church to give due consideration to us that we may continue to work together one for all and all for one in and for the Church of our Lord.

Since our sole aim and purpose is to find a good solution to our problem we are not zealous for any particular method so long as it is tempered with love and fairness to all. However, in so far as we can see, it would be the part of wisdom for the services of the General Council to be called upon since the General Council, with its position among the Boards and Agencies and its knowledge of Assembly matters, is in a position to give great assistance in bringing about some corrective measures in the near future.

Therefore, the Session of Central Presbyterian Church of Jackson, Mississippi earnestly requests that the following overture, with the preceding petition attached, be sent from the Presbytery of Central Mississippi to the General Assembly:

> Resolved, that the Presbytery of Central Mississippi respectfully overtures the General Assembly that the General Council be authorized and instructed to proceed at the earliest possible moment to a study of the matters mentioned above and other related matters, and to bring about as soon as possible any corrective changes mutually agreeable between the General Council and any Board or Agency in so far as the changes agreed upon lie within the framework of the standards and authorizations placed upon said Board or Agency by the Assembly, and that the General Council report to the General Assembly at its 1959 meeting the changes that were agreed upon and executed, and recommendations to the Assembly for additional changes agreed to by the General Council but not approved by the Board or Agency concerned. And also, that the General Council study the functions of each Board and Agency concerned in these matters and make such recommendations, if any, for needed changes in their respective functions as formerly approved by the General Assembly. And further, that in the fulfillment of this task that the General Council be authorized to secure help from others who are not members of the General Council in any way that it may see fit.

> Respectfully submitted,

(16) The Presbytery of Central Mississippi overtures the General Assembly as follows:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly in its meeting at Orlando, Florida, in 1951, adopted a procedure for "equalizing" the benevolence causes of our Church by diverting 5% of the funds from their original causes into an Equalization Fund (M.G.A., 1951, pp. 88-89); and

WHEREAS, we do not believe that it is proper to divert funds from their original causes and to redistribute them; and

WHEREAS, we believe that this procedure has worked to the detriment of certain causes; (in 1956 World Missions contributed $152,381.16 to the Equalization Fund, and Annuities and Relief contributed $28,976.89, and received nothing back; while the other Boards and Agencies received back much more than they contributed.)

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Central Mississippi respectfully overtures the General Assembly to abolish the Equalization Fund as a means of financing the causes of the Church which are behind in their budget receipts.

(17) The Presbytery of Mississippi overtures the 1958 General Assembly as follows:

WHEREAS, the General Assembly in its meeting at Orlando, Florida in 1951, adopted a procedure for "equalizing" the benevolent causes of our Assembly by diverting 5% of the funds from their original causes into an Equalization Fund (G. A. Minutes, 1951, pp. 88-89): and

WHEREAS, we do not believe it proper to divert funds from their original causes and to redistribute them; and

WHEREAS, we believe this procedure has worked to the detriment of certain causes; (in 1956 World missions contributed $152,381.16 to the Equalization fund, and Annuities and Relief contributed $28,976.89, and received nothing back; while the other agencies received back far more than they contributed.)

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Mississippi respectfully overtures the General Assembly to abolish the Equalization Fund as a means of financing the causes of the Church which are behind in their budget receipts.

(55) The Presbytery of Pee Dee respectfully overtures the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, we believe that all our offerings for the benevolent causes of our Church should go to the causes for which they were given; and

WHEREAS, the Equalization Fund set by the Assembly of 1951 diverts funds from these original causes to the great detriment of certain causes, notably the great causes of World Missions and Annuities and Relief; and

WHEREAS, this has created widespread dissatisfaction in our Church, and could well result in drying up the springs of benevolence in our members;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Pee Dee respectfully overtures the 98th General Assembly to abolish the Equalization Plan as a means of financing the causes of the Church which are behind in their budget receipts, and find some other and more just way of helping these lagging causes.

Replies are found on page 83.

(18)-(27) The Presbyteries of Birmingham, Florida, Suwannee, Westminster, Athens, Guerrant, New Orleans, Albemarle, Bethel and Hanover overture the General Assembly as follows:

WHEREAS, Industry in the South has been growing at a tremendously rapid rate in recent years, and all indications point to an even greater industrial growth in the future; and

WHEREAS, This industrial growth means a corresponding increase in the number of industrial workers in the South, for whom the Presbyterian Church, U. S., is responsible through the Commission of Christ our Lord; and

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Church, U. S., is by and large failing to provide such a ministry; and furthermore is ill-prepared and untrained, and generally is unaware of the need, for reaching this great segment of our population for Christ;

THEREFORE, we ask the General Assembly to request the Board of Church Extension

(1) to undertake immediate action of such a nature as will lead our Church, and guide its ministry, in effectively reaching the great numbers of southern workers in industry who are generally untouched by the present ministry of our Church; and

(2) to take steps looking toward the establishment of a Division, or Department, in the Board's executive organization for the purpose of providing that full-time, competent staff assistance which even now is greatly needed.

(28) WHEREAS, Industry in the South has been growing at a very rapid rate in recent years with a corresponding increase in the number of "laboring people" in the South, for whom the Presbyterian Church, U. S., should feel a direct and definite responsibility; and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church, U. S., has lagged in reaching this segment of the population because of a lack of understanding, a lack of information, and a lack of concern for these potential brothers in Christ;

THEREFORE, The Presbytery of Brazos respectfully overtures the General Assembly to request the Board of Church Extension:

(1) to undertake immediate action of such a nature as will lead our Church, and guide its ministry, in effectively reaching the great numbers of Southern laboring people who, as yet, are generally untouched by the present ministry of our Church; and

(2) to take steps looking toward the establishment of a Division, or Department, of Industrial Relations, in the Board's executive organization for the purpose of providing that full-time competent staff assistance which even now is greatly needed can be made available.

(29) & (30) The Presbyteries of Kings Mountain and Montgomery overture the General Assembly as follows:

WHEREAS, Industry in the South has been growing at a tremendously rapid rate in recent years, and all indications point to an even greater industrial growth in the future, and

WHEREAS, this industrial growth means a corresponding increase in the number of "laboring people" in the South, for whom the Presbyterian Church, U. S. is responsible through the Commission of Christ our Lord; and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church, U. S. is in many places failing to provide such a ministry

THEREFORE, we ask the General Assembly to request the Board of Church Extension

(1) To undertake immediate action of such nature as will lead our Church, and guide its ministry, in effectively reaching the great numbers of southern laboring people who, as yet, are generally untouched by the present ministry of our Church.

(2) To take steps looking toward the establishment of a Division, or Department, in the Board's executive organization for the purpose of providing that full-time, competent staff assistance which even now is greatly needed.

(31) WHEREAS, industry in the South has been growing at a tremendously rapid rate in recent years, and all indications point to an even greater industrial growth in the future; and

WHEREAS, this industrial growth means a corresponding increase in the number of "laboring people" in the South, for whom the Presbyterian Church, U. S. is responsible through the commission of Christ our Lord:

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of St. Johns respectfully overtures the General Assembly to request the Board of Church Extension to:

1. Undertake immediate action of such a nature as will lead our Church, and guide its ministry, in effectively reaching the great numbers of southern laboring people who, as yet, are generally untouched by the present ministry of our Church.

2. Take steps looking toward the establishment of a Division or Department, in the Board's executive organization for the purpose of providing that full-time, competent staff assistance which even now is so greatly needed; and

3. Request the supporting synods of our four Theological Schools to urge our seminaries to consider directing field work in industrial areas, training classes for students, and the establishment of a chair on the Industrial Ministry.

(32) WHEREAS, Industry in the South has been growing at a tremendously rapid rate in recent years, and all indications point to an even greater industrial growth in the future; and

WHEREAS, This industrial growth means a corresponding increase in the number of "laboring people" in the South, for whom the Presbyterian Church, U. S. is responsible through the Commission of Christ our Lord; and

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Church, U. S. needs a structure for preparing, training and reaching this great segment of our population for Christ;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of South Texas respectfully overtures the General Assembly to request the Board of Church Extension to undertake immediate action of such a nature as will lead our Church, and guide its ministry, in effectively reaching the great numbers of Southern laboring people who, as yet, are generally untouched by the present ministry of our Church.

(33) & (34) The Presbyteries of Lexington-Ebenezer and Mecklenburg overture the General Assembly as follows:

(1) to undertake immediate action to lead our Church and guide its ministry in effectively reaching the great numbers of southern laboring people who, as yet, are generally untouched by the present ministry of our Church.

(2) to take steps looking toward the establishment of a Division or Department, in the executive organization, for the purpose of providing the full-time competent staff assistance which is even now greatly needed.

(35) Recognizing the rapid industrial development within the bounds of our Church, and realizing that the ministry to the industrial workers of the South is an increasing and challenging part of our Home Mission work, the Presbytery of Lexington respectfully overtures the General Assembly to request and authorize the Board of Church Extension to give increased guidance to our churches in this ministry, particularly through a Department in the Board, with staff leadership which would be equipped for this important service.

(36) Believing that the industrial development within the area served by our General Assembly presents an opportunity and a challenge to extend the work of the Church into these areas, and that such an undertaking can best be planned, promoted and carried out from the Assembly level, the Presbytery of Charleston overtures the General Assembly to authorize a "Department of Industrial Church" within the organization of the present Board of Church Extension.

(52) WHEREAS, Industry in the South is growing now, and promises to contain 30% of the Nation's industry by 1965, and

WHEREAS, the number of laboring people in the South will grow proportionately, people for whom we are responsible through the commission of our Lord, and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church in the United States is largely failing to provide a ministry to laboring people to reach this increasingly large proportion of our population for Christ;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Granville does respectfully overture the General Assembly to request the Board of Church Extension

1. To undertake immediate action of such a nature as will lead our Church and guide its ministry in effectively reaching the great numbers of Southern laboring people who, as yet, are generally untouched by the present ministry of our Church.

2. To take steps, if the way be clear, looking toward the establishment of a Department in the executive organization of the Board of Church Extension for the purpose of providing that full-time, competent staff assistance which is so greatly needed.

(54) The Presbytery of Appomattox overtures the General Assembly as follows:

WHEREAS, industry in the South has been growing at a tremendously rapid rate in recent years, and all indications point to an even greater industrial growth in the future; and

WHEREAS, this industrial growth means a corresponding increase in the number of "laboring people" in the South, for whom the Presbyterian Church, U. S., is responsible through the Commission of Christ our Lord; and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church, U. S., is by and large failing to provide such a ministry, and furthermore is ill-prepared and untrained, and generally is unaware of the need, for reaching this great segment of our population for Christ;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Appomattox overtures the General Assembly to request the Board of Church Extension:

(1) To undertake immediate action of such a nature as will lead our Church, and guide its ministry, in effectively reaching the great numbers of Southern laboring people who, as yet, are generally untouched by the present ministry of the Church; and

(2) To take steps looking forward toward the establishment of some means of carrying on this work full-time, through the Board's executive organization, with competent leadership and assistance which is even now needed.

Reply is found on page 72.

(37) The Synod of Mississippi overtures the General Assembly to ask its Board of Christian Education to seek ways and means of more effectively teaching the catechisms.

To the Standing Committee on Annuities and Relief, (38)

Reply is found on page 67.

(38) WHEREAS, the Board of Annuities and Relief is the custodian of vast sums of money for our Church which must be conservatively invested and held against the day of claim; and

WHEREAS, congregations in every part of the Assembly are continually borrowing funds for construction and expansion; and

WHEREAS, it would appear to be mutually helpful for the Board to derive a higher rate of interest from loans than it is now getting from investments, and for congregations to be able to borrow money for construction purposes at a lower rate of interest than now charged by banks;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Holston overtures the Ninety-eighth General Assembly to direct and instruct the Board of Annuities and Relief to take the necessary steps for the establishment of a Loan Department through which a portion of the funds held in trust can be made available to churches for construction purposes with such securities required as may be needed to safeguard the funds.

To the Standing Committee on Christian Relations, (39)-(49) and (56)

Replies are found on pages 89, 90.

(39) The Presbytery of Charleston respectfully overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to remove the Division of Christian Relations from under the Board of Church Extension.

(40) The Presbytery of Florida overtures the General Assembly to take such steps as are necessary to separate the Department of Church Relations from the Board of Church Extension.

(41) The Presbytery of Harmony respectfully overtures the General Assembly to dissolve the Committee on Christian Relations of the Board of Church Extension.

42) The Presbytery of Central Mississippi adopted the following as an overture to the 1958 General Assembly:

WHEREAS, the Ninety-Seventh General Assembly approved a report entitled "Freedom—The Christian Concept," prepared by the Council on Christian Relations; and

WHEREAS, said report was not published in the Blue Book for commissioners for that General Assembly so as to give said commissioners an opportunity to study same before being called upon to approve said report; and

WHEREAS, said report purports to speak for the Church on current social, political and economic matters, about which individual Christians, exercising the right of private judgment, may conscientiously and sincerely differ; and

WHEREAS, such deliverances by the Church are expressly prohibited by Chapter XXXIII, Section IV of the Westminster Confession of Faith, as follows:

> "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical: and are not to inter-meddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary; or by way of advice for satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the civil magistrate;" and

WHEREAS, such deliverances by the Church are also in direct conflict with Section XII of the Brief Statement of Beliefs drawn from the Standards of the Church, as same appears in the bound volume of said Confession of Faith, wherein the mission of the Church is set forth as follows:

". . . The Church exists to bring to Christ those whom the Father has given Him and to establish the Redeemer's kingdom. The mission is spiritual, and its work is to witness to the truth of God to the ends of the earth and to preach the gospel to all men in every generation. We believe in the separation of church and state . . . ."; and

WHEREAS, the Council on Christian Relations is an agency of the Church which is a source of unnecessary friction and strife within our Church, and one which is harming our Church more than it is helping it;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Central Mississippi respectfully overtures the Ninety-Eighth General Assembly:

1. That necessary steps be taken to insure that in the future no reports of Church Boards, Councils or Agencies, requiring action thereon by the General Assembly, shall be eligible for consideration by such General Assembly unless such reports are published in the Blue Book for commissioners to that General Assembly, so that the commissioners will have an opportunity to read and study such reports before being called upon to vote for the approval of same.

2. That it (the General Assembly) go on record as disapproving the action of the Ninety-Seventh General Assembly wherein it approved said report "Freedom—The Christian Concept."

3. That the Assembly abolish the Council on Christian Relations.

(43) The Presbytery of Mississippi overtures the General Assembly to abolish the Council on Christian Relations, for

WHEREAS, this council has embarrassed the good name of our Church, and by its radical departure from the separation of Church and state has entered into the field of socialism and politics and has used pressure on matters in which there is considerable disagreement as to the teaching of the Word of God; and

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church in the United States should not take action with reference to current social, political and economic problems, but that said Church should confine itself to its mission as set forth in Section 12 of the Confession of Faith which provides as follows:

> ". . . The Church exists to bring to Christ those whom the Father has given Him and to establish the Redeemer's kingdom. The mission of the Church is spiritual and its work is to witness to the truth of God to the ends of the earth and to preach the gospel to all men in every generation. We believe in the separation of Church and state. . . ."

The Church's mission is more specifically set forth in Chapter XXIII, Section IV, which provides as follows:

> "Synods and councils are to handle and conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary; or by way of advice for satisfaction of conscience if they are thereunto requested by the Civil magistrate."

WHEREAS, this Council keeps our Church stirred up in a most distressing manner and is dividing our Church and hurting the different benevolent causes of the Assembly (this is proved by overtures sent to Presbytery stating "the session of this church feels that it will be at liberty to withhold any portion of the Assembly's benevolences which might be used to provide support for said Council on Christian Relations, until such further time as the Assembly may see fit to abolish said Council on Christian Relations.")

WHEREAS, our General Assembly in committing our Church to deal with such political, social and economic matters not only violates the spiritual mission of the Church, but has virtually denied the right of the private and individual judgment to its members and thus under the pretext of defending and protecting freedom in undertaking to bind the consciences of the members of the Church with these man-made opinions and judgments;

The Presbytery of Mississippi believes that for the peace and purity and harmony of our Church this Council must be dissolved and the Church allowed to move "Forward with Christ."

(44) WHEREAS, the report of the Council on Christian Relations to the Ninety-Seventh General Assembly dealt solely with the so-called social gospel, and making no reference to the Gospel of Redemption, and

WHEREAS, this Council through its Secretary continues to circularize the Church with literature for the evident purpose of overriding the conscience and uprooting Christian principles of long standing, and

WHEREAS, a recent pamphlet entitled "Freedom—The Christian Concept" has been sent to the Women of the Church which advocates integration as a Christian duty, together with study books, many of which deal with social, economic and political questions primarily, and

WHEREAS, the use of our Assembly literature by all organizations of the church is mandatory, and yet the source of much of this literature comes from such institutions as Yale, Harvard and Columbia, rather than from those of our own Assembly who are well grounded in the faith and historic principles of our own Church, and

WHEREAS, not only the funds of our own Church are used in these divisive tactics, but thousands of dollars from an outside organization whose ideologies are antagonistic to the principles which have guided our Church for almost a century, and

WHEREAS, if this Christian Relations Council is allowed to continue in its well-fixed purposes, a rift in the life of our Assembly will become irreparable, and much of the efforts needed in all the important work of evangelism will be dissipated in ill-will and useless strife, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, in no uncertain terms, records our displeasure and disapproval of the action of this committee and its Secretary, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we hereby humbly and respectfully urge all others of our Church at large not to remain silent and submissive, but to raise a voice of protest against this unwarranted interference with what we believe to be the spiritual convictions of a large majority of the membership of our Church, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we request that the General Assembly completely dissolve its Division of Christian Relations of the Board of Church Extension.

(45) Because of the broad scope and controversial nature of the issue rising out of the relationship of the races in our Southland with its close ties to so much of our Christian heritage and present life; and

WHEREAS, during the past few years there has been a rising level of controversy on matters of this nature, and more particularly last year at Montreat our leadership permitted a speaker the privilege of addressing the Women's Conference on an issue of this nature, and the speaker disregarded and ignored the views of a number of those present, with a lack of normal courtesy;

The Presbytery of Enoree overtures the General Assembly as follows:

> That the Assembly take proper steps to instruct the Executive Secretaries of its several boards to use extreme care and diligence in selecting its speakers and developing its programs in order to insure a high level of Christian harmony within the Church.

(46) WHEREAS, the General Assembly has taken the position "that enforced segregation of the races is discrimination which is out of harmony with Christian theology and ethics and that the Church, in its relationship to cultural patterns, should lead rather than follow" (Minutes of the Assembly 1954 p. 193) and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly "urges all our people to lend their assistance to those charged with the duty of implementing the decision, and to remember that appeals to racial prejudice will not help but hinder the accomplishment of this aim," (Minutes of the Assembly 1954, p. 197) and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly commends "to all individuals in our communion and especially to all leaders of our churches the earnest cultivation and practice of Christian graces of forbearance, patience, humility and persistent good will," (Minutes of the Assembly 1954 p. 194) and

WHEREAS, many of our ministers have supported this position of the Assembly out of loyalty to the Church and in obedience to conscience, and

WHEREAS, some of these same ministers have been subjected to strong pressures to resign their pulpits, be morally neutral or remain silent in such a way as to endanger the personal integrity of our ministry, limit the freedom of the pulpit and substitute the power of public opinion for the authority of the Word of God, The Presbytery of Potomac respectfully overtures the General Assembly:

1. That the General Assembly proclaim to the Church the duty and freedom of our ministers to preach the Word of God as they understand it in their ministry of racial reconciliation.

2. That the General Assembly make some special provision to render moral support and material assistance to those ministers who are sacrificing themselves for the honor of truth and the unity of the Church.

3. That the General Assembly duly recognize the responsibility of all individual members of our Church to form personal judgments in the light of the Word of God in our racial situation, and urge that both ministers and lay people cultivate self restraint, bear with one another's infirmities and respect every honest intention to do the will of God.

(47) WHEREAS, the General Assembly of 1954, and of each subsequent year, has taken action supporting the ruling of the Supreme Court of the United States, which declared unconstitutional the maintenance of public schools segregated on the basis of race, and

WHEREAS, in order to circumvent the ruling of the Supreme Court, citizens in some areas served by the Presbyterian Church in the United States have proposed the use of church buildings to conduct private segregated schools, supported either by private or public funds, and

WHEREAS, the Book of Church Order, paragraph 60, states, "Every Court has the right to resolve questions of doctrine and discipline seriously proposed, and in general to maintain truth and righteousness, condemning erroneous opinions and practices which tend to the injury of the peace, purity or progress of the Church,"

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Lexington respectfully overtures the General Assembly, for the guidance of pastors and sessions facing this issue, to rule as to whether or not it is proper for member churches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to permit the use of their buildings and facilities for schools designed to circumvent the Supreme Court ruling through the maintenance of segregation on the basis of race.

(48) The Presbytery of Potomac respectfully overtures the General Assembly to record opposition to the use of any facilities owned by a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for the establishment of schools, public or private, supported as a whole or in part by state or community funds for the purpose of evading decrees of the Courts of the United States relative to segregation of the races in the public schools, such usage being contrary both to the Assembly's deliverance on segregation and to the historic tradition of American Presbyterianism regarding the separation of Church and State.

(49) WHEREAS, the General Assembly in 1954 affirmed "that enforced segregation of the races is discrimination which is out of harmony with Christian theology and ethics and that the Church, in its relationship to cultural patterns, should lead rather than follow"; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly in 1954, having in mind the then recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States concerning segregation, commended "the principle of the decision" and also urged "all our people to lend their assistance to those charged with the duty of implementing the decision"; and

WHEREAS, these basic positions have been consistently reaffirmed by each subsequent General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, in some areas of our church groups of citizens have proposed the use of church buildings and facilities for private schools, supported either by private subscription or by public funds, whose primary purpose would be to circumvent the decision of the Supreme Court that segregation in the public schools on the basis of race is unconstitutional;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Montgomery respectfully overtures the General Assembly to answer the following question:

> "Is it in accord with the policy and position of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for its member congregations to allow the use of their church buildings and facilities for private schools, supported either by private subscription or by public funds, whose primary purpose is to circumvent the decision of the Supreme Court that segregation in the public schools on the basis of race is unconstitutional?"

(56) The Presbytery of Pee Dee respectfully overtures the General Assembly:

WHEREAS, we believe that certain deliverances and actions of our recent Assemblies—1954 through 1957—are expressly prohibited by Chapter XXXIII, Section IV, of the Westminster Confession of Faith; and

WHEREAS, our standards have clearly set forth the mission of the Church as spiritual and have expressly stated that the Church should not take action with reference to current social, political and economic problems and that it should not intermeddle with civil affairs; and

WHEREAS, the Council on Christian Relations is an agency of our Church which has stirred up friction and strife through its reports, which we are sure do not express the mind of the majority of our membership and are thereby hurting seriously the whole life of our Church; and

WHEREAS, said actions and deliverances have virtually denied the right of private and individual judgment to its members;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Pee Dee, for the sake of the peace, purity and harmony of our Church, overtures the Assembly that the Council of Christian Relations be dissolved, lest the rift in our Church become irreparable. We deny that the Council on Christian Relations, or any other Committee or Council, has any authority to tell us what is Christian and what is not Christian.

(51) WHEREAS, the General Assembly has transmitted to the Presbyteries for study and comment a rough draft of a revision of The Form of Government of this Church, and

WHEREAS, The Presbytery of Tuscaloosa has given consideration to the same, and

WHEREAS, from the face of the proposed revision it is readily apparent that many changes of greater or lesser significance are proposed, and

WHEREAS, the peace of the Church will be better served by a submission of the proposed changes separately rather than by a submission of the same as a whole: now

THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa that it is earnestly and respectfully urged and submitted to the General Assembly that the proposed changes be considered by the General Assembly, separately, and not as a whole:

To the end that such changes may be submitted to and considered by the presbyteries either singly, or in appropriate groupings of related changes, thereby permitting the presbyteries to approve changes that are good, and to reject changes that are bad, without the necessity of rejecting desirable changes because they are inseparably connected with changes which are not acceptable.

DOCKET

The Docket as printed in the Blue Book was amended to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the General Council before or at 10 A.M. Monday. The hours for the morning sessions were fixed as from 8:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M.; the afternoon sessions as from 2:00 P.M. to 5:30 P.M., the evening sessions from 7:30 P.M. to the will of the court.

Rev. J. Cecil Lawrence, Chairman of the Standing Committee on the General Council, introduced Rev. E. B. McGukin, Chairman of the General Council, who spoke prior to the presentation of the report of the Standing Committee. The report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL COUNCIL

The following matters have been considered by this Committee:

I. The Minutes of the General Council
II. Annual Report of the General Council
III. Overtures 13-17 and 55

IV. Recommendation 5 in Report of Presbyterian Survey
V. Recommendation 2 in Report of Board of Christian Education
VI. Recommendation 4 in Report of Board of Woman's Work
VII. Report of Nominating Committee

I. THE MINUTES OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

Your committee has reviewed the minutes of the General Council for the year 1957, and recommends their approval.

II. RECOMMENDATION GROWING OUT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

A. STEWARDSHIP PROMOTION

The General Council is concerned not only with the preparation and recommendation of the annual budget, but also with the whole field of stewardship promotion. We are grateful for the acceptability of our stewardship materials which are prepared with the approval of our Committee on Materials. We are concerned about the acceptances of the presbyteries of the 1958 budget, 83% as against 93% acceptance of the 1957 budget. We believe that one reason for this was the lack of assurance on the part of some synods and presbyteries of the real need for the 20% increase which was added by the 1957 General Assembly. Only six synods accepted the apportionment recommended by the Assembly, six other synods accepted the apportionment without the 20% increase, and four synods failed to accept even the apportionment without the 20% increase. In the six synods which accepted the entire apportionment, seven presbyteries failed to accept 100%. In the six synods which reduced the apportionment by 20%, eight presbyteries declined to accept 100% of their apportionment, and in the four synods whose acceptances were below 80% of their apportionment, five presbyteries declined to accept 100% of synod's apportionment. It has been the desire of the Council to establish confidence in the minds of all those charged with budgetary matters of the realism of the proposed budget for the Assembly's Boards and Agencies. It was in the light of this desire that the Council undertook its study of the proposed budgets for 1959. We regret that we were not able to recommend a budget which would cover all of the needs of the agencies. We have on file requests for $2,222,974 beyond the budgets which we are recommending. We face the responsibility of impressing the Church with the fact that the proposed budget will meet only the minimum needs of most of our agencies, and in this responsibility we feel that the entire General Assembly has a share.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the Stewardship Emphasis Season begin October 1, 1959 and continue through November 15, 1959, and that November 8 be designated as "Dedication Sunday," the theme of the Canvass to be "His Love—My Response."

2. That the Every Church Canvass be used by presbyteries as an effective means of informing local church officers of their responsibility for work beyond their own congregations, and that the apportionments of each presbytery be recognized as the floor, and not the ceiling, of the benevolence responsibility of its constituent churches.

3. That presbyteries be urged to conduct conferences on Stewardship Promotion, emphasizing benevolences, the Every Member Canvass and all other matters relating to the stewardship program, for pastors, elders, deacons and key laymen under the auspices of presbyteries' committees or councils.

4. That since the successful promotion of the benevolence budget is a concern of all the Boards and Agencies, they be requested to make their personnel available for the promotion of the entire church budget during the stewardship season under the direction of the General Council.

5. That "The Pre-Budget Canvass Manual," now available from the General Council, be commended to all churches as a helpful tool for the successful conduct of the Every Member Canvass.

6. That, as the work of the Church must go on throughout the year, we urge all local treasurers, and central treasurers, to remit their benevolences as collected—monthly if possible. This will enable our agencies to meet fixed monthly obligations without the necessity of borrowing money.

7. That the stewardship of possessions, the giving of our money, be recognized as a vital part of the Christian experience, and not simply a money-raising effort. That it be undergirded by prayer in every church, and that the tithe—God's Separated Portion—be recommended to all churches as a means of developing the spiritual life of its members.

B. FINANCE

8. (a) The General Council has carefully studied the needs of the Boards and Agencies of the General Assembly, and we recommend a minimum benevolence budget for 1959 of $9,061,422 as follows:

BUDGET 1959—$9,061,422

Board of World Missions		$4,530,000
Board of Church Extension		1,823,644
Board of Christian Education		839,985
Board of Annuities and Relief		508,780

American Bible Society	48,550
Presbyterian Foundation	40,000
Administrative Expense	7,500
Interchurch Agencies		23,595
National Council	$ 10,200
World Council	8,295
Geneva Building	2,100
Lord's Day Alliance	1,000
Religion in American Life	2,000
Total Budget		$9,061,422

(b) That, growing out of this action, we recommend the adoption of the following additional standing rule of the Assembly to the second paragraph under Section 13 (3).

Ad Interim Committees when proposing the budgeting of benevolence funds, shall submit such requests to the General Assembly, through the Budget and Stewardship Committee, in advance of the Assembly which is to consider its proposals, so that the Budget and Stewardship Committee can study each financial responsibility in the light of the whole program, and make considered recommendations to the Assembly.

9. That the foregoing budget be apportioned to the synods on the basis of one-third for membership, one-third on contributions to the Assembly's agencies for the last three years and one-third on total contributions, less building expense, for the last three years, as follows:

APPORTIONMENT TO SYNODS — 1959 BUDGET

In making the foregoing recommendation as to the apportionments, we would assure the Church that the General Council has most carefully studied the budgets of all of the agencies. We consider the amounts recommended above to be the absolute minimum amounts needed for the security of our work. It is, therefore, highly essential that all efforts be concerted to see that the full amount is secured for each agency. In addition to the amounts recommended above for the agencies of the General Assembly, we would call the attention of every congregation to the needs of its Synod's and Presbytery's agencies, as represented by the amount apportioned to it by the Presbytery's Stewardship Committee or Council. This responsibility should be fully met before over and above gifts are made to any cause or causes.

The General Assembly reaffirms its position that the foregoing apportionments shall be total minimum amount expected from the Church by the Every Member Canvass and supplementary gifts, and recommends that each church choose either of the following methods best suited to raise its funds:

(a) By including in its local budget a certain portion of its benevolence apportionment to be contributed through the budget, with the balance to be secured by supplementary offerings to certain causes, or

(b) By including the total apportionment in the budget without supplementary offerings.

In making the above statement, the General Council would call attention to the Church, and to local congregations, that the annual Birthday Offering of the Women of the Church and the Easter Offering are not for items included in the budgets of any agency and should, therefore, be handled as special offerings apart from the budget. That Capital Funds, approved by synods and presbyteries, be undertaken by congregations, as additional gifts, rather than regular Budgeted Benevolences.

10. That a special Easter Offering be received in 1959 for alleviating suffering and need in the name of Christ throughout the world; the funds to be administered by the Board of World Missions through its Department of Overseas Relief and Interchurch Aid for work not included in its budget, working cooperatively with other Protestant denominations in Church World Service, C.R.O.P. and the World Council of Churches.

C. PROGRAM

11. That the program emphasis for 1962 be "Christian Vocation" and that the following objectives be approved:

To help persons:

a. Understand the concept of Christian Vocation as the call to serve God and fellow-man through every area of life.
b. To interpret the place of work within the vocation of a Christian.
c. Seek the will of God in every choice of work.
d. Understand that their work and their working relationships witness to their Christian faith.
e. Deal creatively with retirement within the concept of Christian Vocation.

12. That the following recommendations concerning the Seventh Quadrennial Youth Convention be approved:

a. That the Assembly approve the holding of a Seventh Quadrennial Youth Convention on the World Mission of the Church, the Convention to be held at Christmas time, 1960, at a suitable place.

b. That the General Assembly appoint the following Planning Committee for the Convention:

Rev. Lawrence I. Stell, Chairman
Rev. Eugene Daniel, representing Board of World Missions
Rev. James W. Newton, representing Board of Church Extension
Rev. Malcolm C. McIver, representing Board of Christian Education
Mrs. J. Cecil Lawrence, representing Board of Annuities and Relief
Mrs. Mabel Morley, representing Board of Women's Work
Rev. Oliver Carmichael, representing local pastors
Miss Martha Beggs, representing Directors of Christian Education
Rev. William J. Fogleman, representing Regional Directors
Rev. William W. Rogers, representing Campus Christian Life Members
Two Senior High and four College students to be named by Assembly's Youth Council

c. That the planning committee, as appointed, be instructed to work out a program that will give proper emphasis to our own Church's evangelistic mission at home and abroad.

d. That the organizational and promotional work of preparing this convention be made the special responsibility of the Board of Christian Education acting on recommendation of the planning committee.

e. That any surplus funds now held by the last convention's treasurer be deposited with the Board of Christian Education for use of the planning committee for the next convention.

13. That there be a re-study by the Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations of the place in the organizational life of the Church, and in its responsibilities for promotion, for the cooperative endeavors in the budget.

14. That the following calendar of special months, weeks and days be approved:

D. PUBLICITY

15. That the General Assembly endorse the use of the "Bulletin Inserts on the actions of the General Assembly" and urge their use in every church.

16. That the General Assembly endorse the newly initiated Presbytery News Clinics wherein ministers in a certain area are gathered together under the leadership of the Secretary of Publicity of the Council for the study of improved local church publicity, involving discussion of the use of church bulletins, church newspapers and the relation of the local church to the local press and other news media.

E. ITEMS FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

17. The 1957 General Assembly instructed the General Council "to study the possibility of budgeting the operating cost of the Presbyterian Survey as a General Fund Agency, beginning with the 1959 budget." (See Min. of G. A., 1957, page 53.)

The General Council would report that it has given careful consideration to this matter through its Budget and Stewardship Committee and makes the following recommendation:

a. That due to the present rapidly changing condition of the Presbyterian Survey as a result of the Every Family Plan, no change be made in the support of the Survey for 1959.

b. That the General Council continue to study this matter and report its recommendations to the 1959 General Assembly.

c. That the action of the Assembly, directing the General Council to include a subscription to the Presbyterian Survey on Every Member Canvass pledge cards, be rescinded due to the fact that the Every Family Plan is now in action.

18. That recommendation 5, in the Report of the Presbyterian Survey, be answered by reference to recommendation 17 of this report.

19. That the recommendation from the Board of Christian Education requesting the observance of certain days and seasons during 1958 and 1959 be answered by reference to recommendation 14 of this report.

20. That the recommendation from the Board of Women's Work requesting each church to appoint two women to the local budget and finance committee be answered as follows:

That, in light of the fact that the Women of the Church are making their financial reports through the church treasurer, congregational committees on budget and finance include at least two women.

III. OVERTURES

Overtures 13-17 and 55, were placed in the hands of this committee. We recommend the following actions:

(1) Overture 13 from the Synod of Texas, pertaining to certain financial practices of the Assembly: In view of studies currently in progress by special committees of the General Council, we recommend that this entire overture be referred to the General Council for further study and for a report to the 1959 Assembly. Overtures 14 and 15 from the Presbytery of Central Mississippi: We recommend that the Assembly adopt the following reply: The Assembly trusts the agencies of the Church in their field of responsibility to be faithful to the standards of our Church, and believes that they will continue to abide by these standards in literature and plans.

Overture 16, from the Presbytery of Central Mississippi, 17 from the Presbytery of Mississippi, and 55 from the Presbytery of Pee Dee, referring to the Equalization Fund: we recommend that these identical overtures be answered in the negative.

(2) That the following paper on the history of the Equalization Fund be adopted as a part of this report.

HISTORY OF THE EQUALIZATION FUND

Prior to the Reorganization of 1949

Prior to the Reorganization of 1949 all agencies of the General Assembly, with the exception of the Committee on Stewardship (now the General Council) and the Committee on Women's Work, were given an amount in the budget. All funds were sent directly to these agencies by the churches or by the Central Treasurers. Small agencies suffered, and these were on several occasions helped through dire circumstances by the stronger Executive Committees.

The Committee on Stewardship and the Committee on Women's Work were supported as follows: the budgets of these two agencies were set by the General Assembly. The amounts of these budgets were then apportioned among the agencies; thus these two committees received their budgets in full.

The Reorganization:

The 1949 General Assembly effected a reorganization of the work of the General Assembly. Recommendations 102-105, as adopted, set up the Equalization Fund. These actions are as follows:

102. That the Assembly reduce its benevolent causes to the following five: World Missions, Church Extension, Education, Ministerial Relief, and General Fund.

103. That the General Fund shall include all lesser funds of the General Assembly, such as: General Council, Judicial Committee, Women of the Church, Office of the General Assembly, Inter-Council and other religious organizations, and Equalization Fund.

104. That the Equalization Fund within the General Fund be given a percentage calculated to bring in funds sufficient to equalize the amounts received by the various Assembly causes in accordance with the budget adopted by the General Assembly; that the Equalization Fund be apportioned annually by the Treasurer of the General Assembly upon the direction of the General Council to those agencies of the Assembly not receiving their proportionate share of the amount allotted to them in the Assembly's budget.

105. That all special offerings and designated receipts from churches and organized church groups, but not from individuals, trust funds and corporations (with the exception of the Women's Birthday Offering and other special offerings when specifically exempted by the General Assembly) shall count in the budget percentage of the agency in question." Minutes G.A., 1949, page 159.

This action of the Assembly went into effect during the Church year 1950-1951. The General Fund was new to the Church and was poorly supported. The agencies of theh General Fund received some fifty-one per cent of their budgets. The Equalization Fund, also a part of the General Fund, was also small. With the Equalization Fund these agencies received only sixty-five per cent of their budgets.

The second year showed very little improvement and the agencies of the General Fund, in number a majority of the agencies of the Church, were facing disaster. There was also much opposition in the Church to the fact that the Equalization Fund applied to the Interchurch Agencies.

Revision of Equalization Fund

The General Council gave prolonged study to the matter of adequate support for the agencies of the Assembly and made a recommendation to the General Assembly of 1951 which was adopted, as follows:

"We recommend to the General Assembly that effective for the Church year 1952-53 and thereafter the Equalization Fund be removed from the General Fund and that equalization of the agencies be arrived at as follows:

"The approved budget will be increased for each agency by 5%; that each agency keep an accurate record of all receipts from living donors and not later than the end of the Cuhrch year pay 5% of these receipts to the Treasurer of the General Assembly who will disburse these funds on order of the General Council for equalization of the receipts of all contributing agencies. This shall not apply to the American Bible Society and the Interchurch Agencies, or to funds designated by individuals to a particular cause.

"The Budget and Stewardship Committee shall recommend to the General Council the apportioning of these funds, using as a basis for their calculations the principle that the agency receiving the lowest percentage of its spending budget for that year will be aided first until its percentage of receipts equals the next to the lowest agency then these two will receive funds until they have reached the lowest level of the next lowest agency, and so on, until all of the fund has been exhausted."

Minutes G.A., 1951 pages 88-89, Rec. 13.

The Equalization Fund as described above has now been thoroughly tried and is proving most effective. It has not only relieved a critical condition of the agencies of the General Fund, but for several years has been of help to two of the Boards. The Equalization Fund has brought up the budgets of participating agencies during the past five years to the following percentages:

1954 — 83%
1955 — 81%
1956 — 86%
1957 — 83%

V. NOMINATIONS

That the report of the Permanent Nominating Committee of the General Assembly naming the following to serve on the General Council as the Class of 1964 be adopted: John L. Wellford, Emmett E. Hall, Malcolm McLean, Rev. Robert Bluford, Jr., Rev. William M. Logan, Rev. J. Moody McDill.

VI. RESOLUTION

Resolved: That the General Assembly express to the General Council and to the office staff in Atlanta its gratitude for the accomplishments of the Council in the interests of the Church, for the efforts of the Council that have not yet seen fulfillment, and express its confidence in the membership of the Council to lead the Church in the work committed to its charge; and, that the General Assembly express its appreciation to Rev. J. G. Patton for 15 years of faithful service to the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted:

J. CECIL LAWRENCE, Chairman
D. R. GREENHOE, Secretary

Consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures was resumed. The report was adopted as amended and is as follows:

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES

There were placed in the hands of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures Overtures 1-7, 50 and 53.

We recommend the following disposition of these matters:

1. That overture (1) from the Presbytery of St. Johns, with reference to the validity of Roman Catholic baptism, be answered by reaffirming the action of the 1949 General Assembly which reads as follows:

"The General Assembly feels that these changes (i.e. the deletion of the reference to the Pope as the antichrist in our standards) have made little material difference in the attitude of our Church toward the Roman Catholic Church, and therefore recommends that candidates for membership in our Church from that organization be received upon confession of faith. If the candidate is satisfied with his baptism, at the discretion of the session his baptism may be deemed valid."—Minutes of the General Assembly, 1949, pp. 27 and 57.

2. That overture (2) from the Presbytery of Charleston, requesting an in thesi deliverance in regard to the eligibility of elders on inactive status for election as deacons and the necessity for elders or deacons on inactive status being re-examined, be answered as follows:

Part 1. An elder on inactive status may be elected a deacon, provided the election does not occur within the first year immediately following his term as an elder. His status as an inactive elder thereafter remains unchanged.

Part 2. That this be answered in the words of the Proposed Revision of Book of Church Order par. 29-11, Page 35.)

Part 3. That the Ad Interim Committee on Revision of the Book of Church Order be informed of the action taken by this committee on parts 1 and 2 of this overture.

3. That overture (3) from the Presbytery of Hanover, in regard to an ad interim committee's being appointed to draw up and present a brief statement of belief, be answered in the affirmative. (See pages 26, 27 for overture.)

4. That overture (4) from the Presbytery of Winchester, in regard to change in representation where larger congregations are concerned, be answered in the negative.

5. That overture (5) from the Presbytery of Brazos, in regard to the deletion of sections III, IV and VII from Chapter III of the Confession of Faith, be answered in the negative.

6. That overture (6) from the Presbytery of Louisiana, in regard to an ad interim committee to study the enlargement of territorial boundaries of the Church, be answered by referring the matter to the Board of Church Extension for study and report to the next meeting of the General Assembly.

7. That overture (7) from the Synod of Georgia, in regard to the creation of a Presbytery for Negro Churches in Georgia, be referred to the Board of Church Extension for study and recommendation to the parties concerned.

8. That overture (50) from the Synod of Missouri, in regard to the authorizing of a minister of the Presbyterian Church USA to supply a church and act as Moderator of its Session and for congregational meetings, be referred to the Ad Interim Committee on the Revision of the Book of Church Order with the instructions that its principles, as far as possible, be included in the new Form of Government.

9. That overture (53) from the Presbytery of Indian be answered as follows:

The several congregations involved in a Larger Parish may specify in voting on the call to a minister that the call is to be signed by the Parish Council, provided that at least one representative on the Council, elected from each church, sign the call and provided that each church approve the joint call in a congregational meeting, specifying the terms of its call.

10. That the communication from Dr. Luther Campbell, an elder of Corpus Christi, Texas, in regard to the form of public worship in the Presbyterian Church in the United States, be answered as follows:

The Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (Confession of Faith, Chapter 23 and Directory for Worship, Chapters 2-7, 10 and 12) set forth the elements which should be included in public worship, such as reading the Scripture, song, prayer, preaching of the Word, worship by offerings and the sacraments. They do not, however, prescribe any historic liturgical form of fixed order of worship, nor do they prohibit the use of such, as long as it is in keeping with the evangelical faith. Since the Assembly now has an Ad Interim Committee working on a proposed revision of the Directory for Worship it is recommended that this communication be referred to that Ad Interim Committee for study and for any recommendations it sees fit to make.

Respectfully submitted,

J. N. THOMAS, Chairman

Ruling Elder J. B. Fraser, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Judicial Business which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL BUSINESS

The committee had the following papers placed in its hand:

1. Overtures 8 and 9.
2. Two complaints
   a. The complaint of Rev. Thompson L. Casey against the Synod of Florida.
   b. The complaint of Rev. Thomas B. Hoover, Jr. against the Synod of South Carolina.
3. Votes of presbyteries on the proposed amendment to the Book of Church Order.
4. Official minutes of synods.
5. Report of the Permanent Nominating Committee on the class of 1961 of the Permanent Judicial Committee.

Recommendations:

1. The committee recommends:
   a. That overture 8 from the Presbytery of Savannah having to do with candidates for the ministry from the Independent Presbyterian Church be answered in the affirmative. Rev. H. G. McDonell, Rev. Charley P. Harnest, Rev. Allen Morrison, Rev. R. L. Prince and Rev. Ernest Stricklin requested that their vote in the negative be recorded. Attention of the General Assembly is called to a similar action of the General Assembly in 1914—(See Minutes, page 25).
   b. That overture 9 from the Presbytery of Central Mississippi, having to do with Agency Secretaries and Church leaders, be answered in the negative.
2. Complaints (See partial report of this Committee, pages 42, 43).
3. The audit of the vote of the presbyteries on the proposed amendment to the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 107, having to do with candidates for the ministry, reveals that 73 voted in the affirmative and 3 in the negative. Eight presbyteries did not vote.

   The committee recommends that the proposed amendment to the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 107, be enacted as follows:

   It is recommended that every candidate for the ministry should put himself under the care of Presbytery, which should ordinarily be the Presbytery that has jurisdiction of the church of which he is a member. Every applicant seeking to be taken under the care of a Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry or mission service shall have been a member of one particular congregation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for the six months preceding the filing of his application. He shall file his application at least two months . . . (rest of the paragraph unchanged)
4. The committee examined the official minutes of the synods and recommends that the minutes be approved with the following exception:

   The minutes of the Synod of Louisiana, page 24, having to do with Records, item 2, is incorrectly worded.
5. The committee recommends that the report of the Permanent Nominating Committee as it concerns the Permanent Judicial Committee, Class of 1961, be approved, namely, that James H. Pilkinton, Alfred Adams, Rev. James A. Millard, be elected, and that Rev. Harry K. Holland be re-elected.

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. FRASER, Chairman

Rev. Thomas W. Currie, Jr., Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on the Office of the General Assembly. During the presentation consideration of the report was suspended as the hour of recess was at hand.

After being led in prayer by Rev. James E. Fogartie the Assembly stood in recess until 2:00 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Assembly reconvened at 2:00 P. M. and was led in a worship service by Rev. Warren B. Gaw.

At the invitation of the Moderator Rev. James L. Fowle took the chair.

Rev. Vernon S. Broyles, Jr., Chairman, presented the report of the Ad Interim Committee on the Revision of the Book of Church Order. All members of the Committee present were given privileges of the floor in consideration of the report.

Minor amendments were effected and the report was referred back to the Committee for editorial revision prior to its being sent down to the presbyteries.

Upon motion the following action was taken in regard to the procedure to be taken in effecting the adoption of the Revision:

That (1) the Assembly approve the Form of Government and recommend it as a whole to the presbyteries for their advice and consent;

That (2) the presbyteries vote their approval or disapproval on the individual paragraphs as numbered;

That (3) the presbyteries report their consent to the paragraphs they approve.

That (4) the presbyteries send to the Stated Clerk, for the committee, their suggestions for further amendment of any paragraph not approved.

The Moderator returned to the chair.

Rev. William James Hazelwood, Chairman, presented the report of the Judicial Commission to hear the Complaint of Rev. Thomas B. Hoover vs. the Synod of South Carolina which was admitted to record and is as follows:

MINUTES OF JUDICIAL COMMISSION

The Commission appointed by the General Assembly on the complaint of Rev. Thomas B. Hoover, Jr., vs. the Synod of South Carolina, met at 9:00 A. M. at the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. James Hazelwood, Chairman, led the opening prayer.

The full Commission was present.

Rev. J. W. Stork was elected Secretary.

The complaint was read.

Item number one was by common consent withdrawn. It was ordered that items IIA, IIB and III be considered. The findings of the case were presented and read by Rev. Edward G. Lilly. Questions were withheld during reading.

"The Findings" were accepted as the record in the case.

Each side was allotted an hour to present its case.

A five minute recess was taken.

Rev. Thomas B. Hoover presented his case.

Excerpts from the Minutes of the General Assembly for 1955 and 1956; Minutes of the Synod of South Carolina 1957; and paragraphs 289 and 78 of the Book of Church Order were read.

An Associated Press release appearing in the Greenville Piedmont July 23, 1957 was included in the record.

Minutes of Congaree Presbytery 1955-56, page 25, was also read.

Rev. Edward G. Lilly, respondent for the Synod of South Carolina and Rev. W. H. Bowman, Chairman of Synod's Commission, spoke in support of Synod's action.

Recess was taken until 2:00 P. M. The Chairman led the prayer.

The Commission reconvened at 2:00 P. M. and was led in prayer by Rev. Erskine Jackson.

Dr. Lilly was allowed 8 minutes unused time and the complainant 15 minutes for rebuttal.

Opportunity was given for questions after which Drs. Lilly, Bowman and Hoover were excused. Drs. Lilly and Hoover were recalled for questions. Remarks and debate were limited to the three articles of complaint as ordered by the Assembly.

After special prayer for guidance the following was adopted as the decision of the Commission:

This Judicial Commission by a majority vote fails to sustain any of the specifications of the complaint.

Adjournment was taken until 1:30 P. M. Monday.

The closing prayer was led by Rev. W. W. Gray.

Monday, 1:30 P. M.

The Commission reconvened, was opened with prayer offered by Rev. D. A. Sharpe.

The minutes were read and adopted.

The Commission adjourned with special prayer for the complainant.

April 28, 1958

REPORT OF JUDICIAL COMMISSION

This is the report of the Judicial Commission appointed by the 1958 General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, U. S., to consider the complaint of the Rev. Thomas B. Hoover, Jr., versus the Synod of South Carolina.

This Judicial Commission examined records of the case of the Rev. Thomas B. Hoover, versus the Synod of South Carolina, as presented to it by the General Assembly's Committee on Judicial Business.

We find the said complaint to be set forth in the following specifications:

I. That the Synod of South Carolina was in error in failing to record a Protest.

II. A. That the Synod of South Carolina was in error when failing to comply with a lawful injunction of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States due, in part, to the neglect of the Synod to implement the requirements of the Book of Church Order when the original complaint was considered.

II. B. That the Synod of South Carolina was in error when failing to comply with a lawful injunction of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States due, in part, to the existence of constitutional evidence that the Synod erred in not sustaining the original complaint.

III. That the Synod of South Carolina was in error when it supplied information of a prejudicial nature to the secular press in which false statements were made as facts of ecclesiastical procedure.

This Judicial Commission has given careful and extensive study to the complaint of Rev. Thomas B. Hoover versus the Synod of South Carolina, reading all information submitted to us and questioning the parties concerned.

We have full confidence in the intent of the Synod of South Carolina in complying with the directive of the 1957 General Assembly in that they have made all necessary pertinent facts in the case a part of the record. Further, we have the conviction that the Synod of South Carolina has not sought to damage the reputation of anyone.

At the request of the complainant, with the concurrence of the respondent and by the unanimous vote of the Judicial Commission, Specification No. 1 was deleted.

This Judicial Commission by a majority vote fails to sustain any of the specifications of the complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES HAZELWOOD, Chairman

April 28, 1958

Consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on the Office of the General Assembly was resumed. In connection with the presentation of the report Rev. E. C. Scott, Stated Clerk, and members of the staff of the Office were introduced and the Assembly was led in prayer by the Moderator. The report was adopted as amended and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON OFFICE OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Your Committee on Office of General Assembly has received the following documents:

1. Overtures 10 through 12.
2. Minutes on Permanent Committee, Office of the General Assembly.

3. Audit of following Agencies:
   (a) Board of Christian Education
   (b) Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers
   (c) Stillman College
   (d) Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches
   (e) Presbyterian Survey
   (f) Board of Church Extension
   (g) Board of Annuities and Relief
   (h) General Council
   (i) Board of Women's Work
   (j) Mountain Retreat Association
   (k) Board of World Missions
4. Records of Rev. E. C. Scott, Treasurer:
   (a) Fund of the Treasurer of General Assembly
   (b) Equalization Fund of the General Assembly
   (c) General Fund
   (d) Fund of Treasurer of Interchurch Agencies
5. Reports of Trustees:
   (a) Trustees of General Assembly and the Presbyterian Foundation.
   (b) Executive Committee of Historical Foundation.

I. OVERTURES

We recommend:

1. That Overture 10 from the Presbytery of North Mississippi, with respect to publication of certain reports in the Blue Book, be answered in the negative for two reasons: because such reports are already included in this year's Blue Book and because the publication of the Blue Book in two sections seems impractical.

2. Overture 11 from the Presbytery of Mississippi, dealing with the method of organizing the Assembly, be answered in the negative, because in the exercise of this traditional prerogative the Moderator can consult the suggested officials and any others of his choice and actually does so.

3. Overture 12 from the Presbytery of Greenbrier, requesting a conference between the Assembly and the authorities of Montreat College to the end that the Assembly should ordinarily meet at Montreat be answered: (1) in part, in the negative, by reference to the General Assembly action of 1949, "That the General Assembly seek to meet at least every other year elsewhere than at Montreat" and (2) in part, in the affirmative by instructing the Permanent Committee on Assembly's Office to confer with Montreat authorities about the possibility of meeting at Montreat on the basis of this rule.

II. PRESBYTERIAN FOUNDATION

We recommend:

1. That the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Presbyterian Foundation including the recommendation by the Nominating Committee of the Class of 1961 and the additional Trustees, be adopted as follows: (See Appendix, Page 102).

(1) That the General Assembly elect Trustees to succeed those whose terms of office have expired.

Class of 1960

Halbert M. Jones, Mrs. A. R. Craig, J. P. Hobson, Rev. J. Cecil Lawrence.

(2) That the General Assembly elect additional Trustees of the Foundation in accordance with its action expressing willingness to do so at the General Assembly of 1957.

Additional Trustees

W. R. Perkins, Jr., Rev. Wm. H. Kadel, Kenneth Keyes, Paul Manners, Van Pritchartt, Mrs. Charles L. Ragland.

2. That the General Assembly call to the attention of its synods, presbyteries and local congregations the work of the Foundation as an Agency of the Church incorporated in North Carolina for the purpose of receiving, investing and distributing bequests, gifts, annuities and insurance to any and all organized agencies of our Assembly.

3. That the General Assembly hereby urges upon pastors the importance of acquainting their people with this Agency and inviting them in the making of their wills to remember their Church.

III. HISTORICAL FOUNDATION

We recommend:

1. That the report of the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, be adopted. (See Appendix, Page 131); also the following recommendations:

(1) That each minister in the Church be requested to supply the Foundation with a photograph of himself;

(2) That copies of all sessional records and church records which are microfilmed be placed in the Archives.

(3) The Class of 1961

Irwin Belk, Dr. Hamilton W. McKay, Rev. Dwight M. Chalmers.

IV. OFFICE OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

We recommend:

1. That the minutes of the Office of General Assembly be found in order and complete, and that the following be elected to the Permanent Committee on Assembly's Office:

Terms Expiring 1961

Rev. James D. Carter, Hon. Robert F. Kennon, Mrs. J. E. Dews, Robert Kell, Rev. Harry A. Fifield, McAlister Carson and that Mr. Frank S. Hay of Charleston. S. C. represent the Committee on Assembly's Office on the General Council.

2. That the financial report of Rev. E. C. Scott, Stated Clerk, be found in order and that he be commended for his diligence. (See Appendix, pages 96-98.)

3. That the audit reports of the aforementioned Agencies that were put in the hands of your committee be found in order and complete and correctly audited by a certified public accountant and be approved.

4. That the following recommendations from the report of the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly be adopted:

(1) That the name of the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly be changed to "The Committee on Assembly's Office".

(2) That in the Standing Rules of the General Assembly in the first sentence of Section 1, paragraph (1) the word "last" be changed to "fourth." The sentence would then read: "The normal date for the annual meeting of the General Assembly shall be the fourth Thursday in April."

(3) That the General Assembly suggest to the synods and presbyteries ■ spacing of their meetings following the meeting of the General Assembly to give the maximum time in which to prepare the allocation of the benevolence askings of the General Assembly for synods, presbyteries and congregations.

(4) That in the proposed revision of the Book of Church Order the basis of representation be changed from 4000 to 5000. The following is offered as information:

Last year (1957) the number of Commissioners to the General Assembly was 496. If several of the presbyteries enjoy the growth this year that they did last year the number will be increased to 508. In the opinion of many this is too large for a deliberative body. The number of commissioners in 1947 was 394. The following table will show the size of the General Assembly on four different bases of representation. The representation is computed on the basis of reports to the 1957 General Assembly.

4000 or fraction thereof (4001)	496
4000 or major fraction (6001)	424
5000 or fraction thereof (5001)	412
5000 or major fraction (7501)	346

(5) That the per capita assessment for 1959 be 18c plus 1c for the interim expense of the Centennial Committee, plus 2c for expenses of representatives to the meeting of the Alliance of The Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System. (See page 69 and Part II, page 164.)

(6) That the following communication be studied and the four requests contained therein be granted:

THE PRESBYTERIAN CENTER, ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Explanatory Statement

The 1953 General Assembly gave approval to buying the property at 341 Ponce de Leon Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia, as a Center for the Boards and Agencies of the Assembly located in the Atlanta area. This former campus of The Westminster Schools was purchased, the buildings were arranged for offices, and all Assembly Agencies in metropolitan Atlanta, plus the Board of Annuities and Relief, formerly in Louisville, Kentucky, moved to this central location. From the beginning, the Center was envisioned as a joint enterprise, but there was then no jointly controlled corporation to take title to the property. Therefore, it was agreed that the Board of Annuities and Relief should take title, advance the necessary funds to complete payment on the property and then manage the Center. This the Board of Annuities and Relief has done, paying for the cost of operation and applying all net income from rentals toward repaying the money invested by it in the property. In 1957 this Board purchased two additional lots adjoining the Center, thus securing a block deep property fronting 400 feet on Ponce de Leon Avenue.

The old school buildings and residences at the Presbyterian Center are not suited for permanent use, as everyone knows who has seen them. Moreover, the General Assembly has enlarged the work of its Boards and Agencies until even the poorest of these buildings is crowded. The original intention was to use these structures only until a suitable office building could be erected. It appears that the time has now come for taking this second important step at the Center. In fact, it is imperative that this be done as soon as possible.

At its last meeting of 1957 the Board of Annuities and Relief proposed to the other Boards and Agencies on the Center that the property become jointly owned as soon as this Board has recovered the capital funds it advanced for the project. This action constitutes a gracious offer for joint ownership, cooperative planning for a new building, and joint administration of the property. In order to proceed with such a plan, the General Assembly is respectfully requested to grant approval and authorization by adopting the following recommendations:

Recommendations

a. That a non-profit corporation, called The Presbyterian Center, Incorporated, be formed to take title to the property on Ponce de Leon Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, now owned by the Board of Annuities and Relief, to erect the necessary buildings, to manage the Center for the best interests of all Boards and Agencies of the General Assembly located there, and to do all other things necessary to such an undertaking.

b. That the Directors of the said corporation be chosen as follows: one Director each shall be appointed by The Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly, The General Council, The Board of Church Extension, The Board of Christian Education, The Board of Annuities and Relief, The Board of Women's Work and The Permanent Committee on the Minister and His Work; these seven Directors to elect three additional Directors who shall be members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

c. That the Boards and Agencies thus jointly owning the Presbyterian Center be authorized to invest such funds in it as each may deem wise.

d. That the Presbyterian Center, Inc., report annually to the Boards and Agencies involved in ownership of the property, sending a copy of this Annual Report to the General Assembly as information.

5. That as a token of our thanksgiving for the devoted service of our gifted Stated Clerk and as an indication of our desire to commend him for his diligence, the Assembly stand and be led in prayer by the Moderator.

6. That, since standing rule 3 (1), page 199, Minutes of General Assembly 1957, seems ambiguous with respect to the time of the election of a stated clerk, the part of the rule relating to the time of election be suspended in order that the report of the Permanent Committee, with which the Standing Committee concurs, may be considered now. The rule is as follows:

"3. Stated Clerk

"(1) The Stated Clerk shall be elected for a term of three (3) years. The election shall be the first order on the morning of the second day of the Assembly. The Permanent Committee on the office of the General Assembly is allowed to nominate the Stated Clerk to the General Assembly with the understanding that further nominations are always in order and that this arrangement will take effect only after the vacating of the position of Stated Clerk by the present incumbent. He shall perform all the duties required of him by the Book of Church Order and by the Standing Rules of the Assembly and such other duties as may be imposed on him by the Assembly."

7. That the following recommendations be adopted:

(1) That the General Assembly of 1958 extend the present term of Rev. E. C. Scott as the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly from the 1959 meeting of the General Assembly through July 24, 1959;

(2) That the General Assembly of 1958 request a place on the docket of the 1959 meeting of the General Assembly for a reception to be held in honor of Dr. Scott and of his long, faithful years of service as the Stated Clerk, leaving it to the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly to make appropriate arrangements for this reception in coöperation with the Moderator and with the pastor of the host church;

8. That the General Assembly of 1958 now proceed to elect and call a stated clerk for a term beginning July 25, 1959 and extending to the 1962 meeting of the General Assembly.

9. That the name of Rev. James A. Millard, Jr. be placed in nomination as Stated Clerk.

Respectfully and unanimously submitted,

THOMAS W. CURRIE, Chairman

Ruling Elder W. Edwin Hemphill, Vice-Chairman of the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly, spoke in connection with the report.

ELECTION OF STATED CLERK

Rev. James A. Millard was elected to the office of Stated Clerk and Treasurer to serve a term beginning July 25, 1959 and ending at the meeting of the General Assembly in 1962.

The following motion prevailed:

That the Committee on Assembly's Office prosecute the call to Dr. Millard to the end that, God willing, he may become the next Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

Rev. John W. Melton, Jr., Chairman of the Standing Committee on Interchurch Relations, presented Mr. Roy I. Madsen, Secretary of the American Bible Society. Mr. Madsen presented Miss Ruth Barrett who spoke to the Assembly on the work of the Society among the blind. The Assembly was led in prayer for this cause by Rev. John W. Melton, Jr.

Rev. J. Herndon McCain, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on World Missions. Consideration of the report was suspended at the time for the hour of recess.

Following prayer led by Rev. Manford George Gutzke the Assembly stood in recess until 7:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSION

The Assembly reconvened at 7:30 P. M. and heard a popular program presided over by Ruling Elder Marshall W. Brown, Chairman of the Standing Committee on Church Extension.

Rev. P. D. Miller presented the members of the staff of the Board of Church Extension who were present at the Assembly. He spoke on the nature and scope of the work of the Board.

Rev. John R. Cunningham, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Foundation, addressed the Assembly on the history and present operation of the Foundation.

Consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on World Missions was resumed which was adopted as amended and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON WORLD MISSIONS

Preface

"The Lord hath done great things for us. Whereof we are glad." We join in thanksgiving and praise to God for the advance in the cause of world missions in our Church during the past year: forty-five new missionaries have been sent to the field, the largest offering in the history of our Church was given to the cause of world missions, and during the year 11,866 people were received into the church on profession of faith in the pioneer fields where our missionaries are at work.

Today the work of world missions in our Church has exceeded the fondest hopes of our early pioneers. The outstanding effort in practically every land has been the establishment of an indigenous church, numbering thousands of members, fully self-supporting, self-governing and self-propagating.

But despite the rapid growth of the church in the fields of our endeavor, the work is far from finished. Indeed we must realize that it has only begun. For in no country where our missionaries are at work does the Protestant constituency represent more than 5% of the population.

God has done great things through our Church, but He is calling us to do greater things. Despite the fact that 160 new missionaries have been sent out during the "Forward With Christ" program from 1954 until the end of 1957, losses by death, retirement and other causes have held the net increase to only 85. On December 31, 1957 our missionary force numbered 504, which is 13 less than the total which our Church had in 1925. God is calling us to assume a larger responsibility in the cause of missions in the days ahead. In order to adequately serve the fields which God has opened up to us we must greatly increase our gifts and the missionary force which at present is totally inadequate for the needs of our fields. We believe that there must be one missionary for every 1,000 members of our Church, and a corresponding financial support for the work of these laborers.

Let us remember that there is no emergency more urgent than the cry of the Christless millions who are facing eternity without hope. And there can be no more worthwhile sacrifice than that which enables men to hear the Gospel and be reconciled to God through Jesus Christ.

The following were referred to this Committee by the General Assembly:

1. The Yearbook and Annual Report of the Board of World Missions for 1957.
2. The book of Minutes of the Board of World Missions for 1957.
3. The Report of the Permanent Nominating Committee for the Board of World Missions regarding the Class of 1961.

The Committee has dealt with the above as follows:

1. A copy of the Yearbook and Annual Report for the Board of World Missions for 1957 was presented to each member of the Committee. The Board is to be commended for this splendid report.
2. The Minutes of the Board of World Missions for 1957 were carefully read and approved. The minutes are in excellent order and those preparing them are to be commended for their neatness and for the careful arrangement with marginal index and cross references.
3. The Committee recommends that the report of the Permanent Nominating Committee as it concerns the Board of World Missions, class of 1961, as amended, be approved, namely, that Rev. William M. Elliott, Jr., Dr. L. Nelson Bell, Gen. Joseph B. Fraser, and Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon be elected and Mrs. W. Tate Bird, Rev. A. H. Hollingsworth and Mr. G. Lamar Westcott be re-elected to membership.

   (Note: When nominations were made from the floor the General Assembly voted by ballot and those named above were elected.—Stated Clerk.)

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the General Assembly, recognizing the character and strength of the forces that are arrayed against the Christian enterprise in the world today, and acknowledging our utter need of those spiritual resources that are available to us through intercession and faith, urgently commend to all our people the diligent exercise of prayer for our missionaries and their labors in all our fields. In order to give concert and direction to the prayers of the Church during the coming year, it is recommended that the Assembly suggest the following special topics which are related directly to the present conditions and needs of the work:

a. Thanksgiving that the doors are standing open to the entrance of the Gospel in so many parts of the world.

b. Thanks for continued peace and prosperity in our own country and for the privilege of sending the Gospel to all the world through our youth and our gifts.

c. Prayer for China—that the Church in that land may be strengthened and encouraged during this period of her isolation from the wider fellowship of the Christian family, and that all those in that land who own the name of Christ may be enabled to witness a good confession by the steadfastness of their faith.

d. Thanksgiving for the growth of the national churches in self-reliance and maturity, and prayer for the development of their resources, both material and spiritual, as they assume an ever-expanding role in interpreting the Gospel to their people.

e. Prayer for our missionaries in the delicate situations that arise out of national and racial tensions, particularly in the adjustment of church-mission relationships, that they may be given patience, wisdom, understanding and the spirit of cooperation in this period of change and transition.

f. Prayer that Japan, rapidly recovering from the effects of war, may arise as a new nation whose God is the Lord.

g. Prayer for our work in Africa, Brazil and Mexico, lands of opportunity where thousands are seeking spiritual guidance and are being put off for lack of personnel and funds.

h. Prayer for our younger missionaries who now comprise more than half of our total force, that they may be guided to a happy adjustment in the lands to which they have gone and that their lives may be full of joy and blessing and fruitfulness.

i. Prayer that our gifts may measure up to our God-given prosperity.

j. Prayer that God may deepen our concern for those who, out of our sight and contact, are allowed to be born into this world, live and die without the saving knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2. That all church leaders keep constantly before their people the great need for workers in our nine world mission fields.

3. That pastors and sessions study the 1958 want list for new missionaries and then search their church rolls anew for well-qualified prospective missionaries. Further, that the names of any prospects be sent to the Candidate Secretary of the Board of World Missions by September 1, 1958, if possible.

4. That the Church adopt as its goal the sending of one missionary for every one thousand members of the home church and the providing of a budget adequate to support such a force of missionaries.

5. That the World Mission Season, February 1 to March 1, 1959, be observed in all our churches as a time for church-wide dedication to the world task of Christian missions; that ministers be asked to preach on such subjects as will increase the sense of responsibility and privilege in the world-wide mission of the Church; and that the whole Church be called to earnest prayer for this effort.

6. That all churches be asked to observe the special season of World Mission Study in 1958-59. The interdenominational theme for this year is the Middle East. Since our work in that area is in the United Mission in Iraq, special emphasis will be given to that work. Adequate material for this is being prepared by the Educational Department of the Board.

7. That the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial for World Missions be observed by every church in the Assembly, with its organizations, February 22 to March 1, 1959; and that all sessions be urged to arrange for supplemental offerings in the churches.

8. That churches be urged to send to the World Mission Conference in Montreat, North Carolina, July 24-30, 1958, the Men, Women and the Young People who are responsible for the study and support of world missions in their organizations. Those with world mission responsibilities in their presbyteries are especially encouraged to attend.

9. That the Church, through the presbytery and Presbyterial Chairmen of World Missions, continue to cooperate with the Division of Itineration in making the widest possible use of missionaries on furlough throughout the year; that members of the Board of World Missions and of the Staff, and others with special knowledge of missions also be used as speakers or leaders in churches, schools, conferences, and rallies.

10. That the Assembly give a vote of special thanks to the Chairmen of World Missions in the presbyteries, presbyterials, synods, and synodicals for the very able and consecrated help that they have given in arranging programs, itineraries of missionaries, and otherwise coordinating the work of the Board in the areas in which they serve.

11. That the two Youth Financial Objectives for 1958, the building of needed churches in Leopoldville and the provision of scholarships for Christian youth among the Arab refugees, be commended to all our Youth Fellowships for their support.

12. That all pastors and churches be urged to keep before their members the continuing need for material relief and spiritual assistance in the distressed areas of the world.

13. That collections of used clothing, blankets, etc., be made by churches at least twice a year, and that they be sent, designated as contributions from the Presbyterian Church, U.S., to Church World Service, New Windsor, Maryland, or Church World Service, 4165 Duncan Avenue, St. Louis 10, Missouri.

14. That the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP), of Church World Service, be recommended as an authorized agency, and that members of our churches be asked to cooperate in CROP campaigns in their areas.

15. That a special Easter Offering be received, March 29, 1959, for alleviating human suffering and need in the name of Christ throughout the world, the funds to be administered by the Board of World Missions through its Department of Overseas Relief and Inter-Church Aid for work not included in their budget, working cooperatively with other Protestant denominations in Church World Service and the World Council of Churches.

16. That the Assembly express to the Highland Park Presbyterian Church of Dallas, Texas, and to Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia, its warm appreciation of their generous action in releasing the Rev. Dr. Wm. M. Elliott, Jr. and the Rev. Dr. James A. Jones for recent surveys of our foreign mission work in the Far East and in Portugal; and that Drs. Elliott and Jones be assured of the gratitude of the entire Church for this service to the world mission cause, for the stimulation and help that they were able to bring to our missionaries on the field and the new interest in missions that is being aroused through their reports of their experiences and impressions.

17. That the Manual of the Board of World Missions be revised by the addition of the following sentence to paragraph 48:

> "These allowances are to be regarded as additions to the salaries of the parents, not intended to cover the full cost of maintaining children, but provided in consideration of increased family expense."

18. That recommendations 17 and 18 from the report of the Board of World Missions having to do with the revision of the manual be recommitted to the Board for further study.

19. That Rev. A. H. Hollingsworth, Jr., Th.D., D.D., be appointed as the representative of the Board of World Missions on the General Council in the Class of 1964.

20. That the Assembly approve the Board's action in the election of Rev. C. Darby Fulton as Executive Secretary for a term of three years.

21. That the Assembly take note of the fact that Rev. C. Darby Fulton has completed forty years of service for the Lord and His Church in connection with the Board of World Missions, twenty-five years of which have been as executive secretary of the Board. We thank God for His worthy servant and his leadership during these years, and pray that Dr. Fulton may be granted continuing wisdom and strength for even greater service in the years which lie ahead.

22. That the Assembly approve the Board's action in the election of Rev. D. J. Cumming as Educational Secretary for a term of three years, and that the Assembly commend Dr. Cumming for the forty years of effective service as a missionary, and as the Educational Secretary of the Board of World Missions.

23. That the Assembly commend all staff members of the Board of World Missions for their fruitful service to Christ and the Church in the cause of World Missions, and assure them of our prayers for an even more effective service in the coming years.

24. That the General Assembly commend the people of our Church for their response to the call of Christ in giving the largest amount for the cause of World Missions in a single year in our Church's history.

25. In view of the fact that Rev. William McElwee Miller, missionary to the Moslems in Iran, is a member of this Assembly and has been of inestimable help to our new mission in Iraq, that he be thanked for his cooperation, and invited to address the Assembly at this time.

The Standing Committee wishes to thank the following members of the staff for their help in the committee meetings: Rev. C. Darby Fulton, Rev. D. J. Cumming, Rev. S. Hugh Bradley, Rev. Paul B. Freeland, and Mr. Curry B. Hearn, E. Gourley, and Rev. John Kincaid, Mid-South Director of CROP.

Respectfully submitted,

J. HERNDON MCCAIN, Chairman
R. D. MCCALL, Secretary

In accordance with recommendation 25 of the above report Rev. William McElwee Miller spoke of the mission work being carried on among the Moslems of Iran and Iraq.

In recognition of 40 years service in the cause of World Missions by Rev. D. J. Cumming the Assembly stood and was led in prayer by Rev. J. Herndon McCain.

Ruling Elder John T. McVay, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Annuities and Relief which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON ANNUITIES AND RELIEF

There were referred to the Committee the following:

1. The annual report of the Board of Annuities and Relief.
2. The Minutes of the Board of Annuities and Relief.
3. Overture 39 from the Presbytery of Holston.
4. The report of the Permanent Committee on Nominations relating to the Board of Annuities and Relief.

We recommend:

1. That the Assembly call the attention of the presbyteries to the fact that the Ministers' Annuity Fund is the Official Plan of the Church, and that through membership in it ministers are enabled, during the years of their active service, to make provision for themselves and their dependents for the years of their retirement.

2. That the Assembly request the presbyteries to urge that young ministers and ministers received from other denominations establish membership in the Fund immediately after their reception into the presbytery.

3. That the Assembly remind all churches, Church agencies and institutions that they are expected to share the cost of membership in the fund in accordance with the Official Plan.

4. That the Assembly again urge that all churches and committees, in determining the bases for the payment of dues to the Ministers' Annuity Fund, add 15% to all sources of salary for the free use of the manse, if any, regardless of ownership, plus any other fixed cash commitments, in order that ministers may build larger earned annuities.

5. That the Assembly commend again to all churches and Church agencies and to nonministerial employees of the Church the benefits of membership in the Employees' Annuity Fund and urge participation in it.

6. That the Assembly urge all churches and Church agencies to make available to their full-time salaried personnel the insurance coverage offered under the Group Life and Major Medical Insurance plan which was adopted by the General Assembly.

7. That the Assembly remind the synods, the presbyteries and churches that the contribution to the Board of the full share of the budgeted benevolences askings is a necessity, if the aged ministers of our Church and their dependents are to have provision made for their minimum needs.

8. That the Assembly urge again a generous Joy Gift offering on the part of all organizations of all churches, since it is a major source of income with which the Board ministers to the aged servants of the Church.

9. That the Assembly authorize the Board to continue to use a portion of the funds of Ministerial Relief to supplement the inadequate annuities in the meeting of emergencies in the lives of annuitants, taking into consideration their other sources of income.

10. That the Assembly request the presbytery chairmen of Annuities and Relief to advise the Board of emergency situations in the lives of our retired ministers and their dependents.

11. That the General Assembly urge all churches to adopt the plan of remitting the minister's 2½% dues and the church's 7½% dues in one check.

12. That the General Assembly amend "Article IV—Expenses"—of the Official Plan of the Employees' Annuity Fund to read as follows:

> "The expenses of administration of the Employees' Annuity Fund may be provided out of the employer's 4% contributions but not to exceed one-half of one per cent of the total salary bases upon which dues are being paid."

13. That the Assemply approve the Minutes of the Board.

14. That the Assembly approve the action of the Board of Annuities and Relief in re-electing Mr. Charles J. Currie as Executive Secretary for a term of three years beginning September 1, 1957.

15. That Mr. Jack L. Oliver be approved by the Assembly as the representative of the Board on the General Council.

16. That the General Assembly note the death of Miss Miriam Schmidt on March 9, 1958, a member of this Board since June 1955.

17. That the General Assembly be advised that the Board, in accordance with the right reserved to it by action of the 1949 General Assembly in approving the "Temporary Modification of Rules Governing Retirement Under the Ministers' Annuity Fund" "to terminate this Temporary Modification whenever, in the discretion of the Board, it is found to be working to the detriment of the Fund," at its meeting held on February 26, 1958 took the following action:

"Because the Temporary Modification of Rules Governing Retirement under the Ministers' Annuity Fund as adopted by the 1949 General Assembly has been utilized by relatively few ministers and because such Temporary Modification has tended to produce more dissatisfaction than satisfaction with the Fund, the Board of Annuities and Relief announces to the 1958 General Assembly that it has discontinued such temporary modification of rules as of June 1, 1958, those now serving under the same as of May 31, 1958 to be permitted to continue to do so until the termination of their present ministerial service relationship."

18. That the General Assembly be advised that the Board at a meeting held on February 26, 1958 considered paragraphs 1 and 4 of the Official Plan of the Ministers' Annuity Fund and took the following actions in connection with the resumption of a "relationship" in connection with any service to the Church for which compensation is received in any form, the action to be subject to revocation or change if in the opinion of the Board they result in financial detriment to the Fund:

(1) A retired minister may serve a church (or group of churches) as "TEMPORARY SUPPLY" for a period of 3 months (13 Sundays) each year without having his annuity suspended, provided that the church (or churches) being served pays to the Ministers' Annuity Fund the 10% dues in monthly installments in advance on the compensation paid and provided further that no additional annuity credits are established by the minister as a result of such service.

(2) A retired minister serving a church (or group of churches) as "TEMPORARY SUPPLY" for a longer period than 3 months (13 Sundays) is required to advise the Fund in advance of the beginning of such service beyond the 13th Sunday in order that the annuity may be suspended and the regular 2½% and 7½% payment (or payments) of dues resumed on the basis of the further compensation received.

(3) A retired minister may serve a church (or group of churches) as "OCCA-SIONAL SUPPLY" without having his annuity suspended but in no case shall a minister serve the same church (or group of churches) as "OCCASIONAL SUPPLY" for more than 4 consecutive Sundays (or 1 month) and continue to receive his annuity. There can be no contractual arrangement or agreement made by a retired minister to serve a church (or group of churches) regularly for any pre-arranged and specified Sundays. No dues payments will be required during the period of such "OCCASIONAL SUPPLY" service.

(4) A retired minister serving a church (or group of churches) as "OCCASIONAL SUPPLY" for more than 4 consecutive Sundays (or 1 month) is required to advise the Fund in advance of the beginning of such service beyond the period indicated in order that the annuity may be suspended and the regular 2½% and 7½% payment (or payments) of dues resumed on the basis of the further compensation received.

19. That the request of the 1957 General Assembly that the Board of Annuities and Relief study the matter of permitting ministers to receive annuities and continue to serve the Church with remuneration be answered as follows:

A thorough study has been made by the actuaries of the Board of this matter and the actuaries report that:

(a) In order to change the present Official Plan of the Ministers' Annuity Fund which is a "retirement from salaried service at age sixty-five or beyond pension system" to an "automatic pension system at age sixty-five" additional reserve funds would be required of $2,250,000.00 as of December 31, 1957 with total dues at the rate of 11¾% payable from that date forward; and

(b) In order to change the present Official Plan of the Ministers' Annuity Fund which provides for an annuity upon retirement from all salaried service in the Church at the age of sixty-five or beyond to an automatic age annuity at age seventy plan but with annuity benefits being payable after age sixty-five if retirement occurred at an age earlier than seventy additional reserves would be required of $415,000.00 as of December 31, 1957 with total dues at the rate of 10½% payable from that date forward.

It is the recommendation of the actuaries of the Board and of the Board that no change be made in the Official Plan of the Ministers' Annuity Fund from an annuity upon retirement pension system to an automatic age annuity system and the Standing Committee recommends the adoption of such recommendation.

20. That overture 38 from the Presbytery of Holston be answered in the negative for the following reasons:

(1) The making of loans to churches for building purposes would require a considerable enlargement of the staff of the Board and at heavy additional expense;

(2) The Annuity Funds managed by the Board are held in trust by the Board for members of the two pension systems of the Church and the Board doubts the wisdom of investing funds belonging to others in mortgages on property of individual congregations when foreclosure for non-payment of interest or principal would be exceedingly difficult if not impossible;

(3) The funds of the Board must be kept invested in negotiable securities in order to meet commitments to members, and mortgages of the type envisioned would not be readily negotiable;

(4) Another agency of the Church at the present time has funds available for the making of certain types of loans to churches and its staff is qualified to handle such.

21. That when churches use a retired minister as an "Occasional Supply," the church pay travel expense of eight (8) cents per mile plus a reasonable honorarium.

22. That the Assembly approve the report of the Permanent Nominating Committee as related to the election of new members to the Board, as follows:

Class of 1961

Rev. William V. Gardner, (Ky.) for Miss Miriam Schmidt.
Mr. Russ M. Johnson (Miss.) for Rev. George H. Vick.
Mr. C. W. Bailey (Tenn.) re-elected.
Rev. John A. Redhead, Jr. (N.C.) re-elected.
Mr. Will Mann Richardson (Texas) re-elected.
Rev. J. M. Walker, Jr. (N.C.) re-elected.

23. That the Assembly commend the Board of Annuities and Relief and the Staff on their excellent work.

24. That in connection with the presentation of this report to the Assembly, Mr. Charles J. Currie, the Executive Secretary, or someone he may designate, be requested to address the Assembly on the work of the Board and for a period of not more than twenty minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN T. MCVAY, Chairman
M. W. NORFLEET, JR., Secretary

In accordance with recommendation 24 of the above report Mr. Charles J. Currie, Executive Secretary of the Board, spoke to the Assembly on the work of the Board.

Rev. John W. Melton, Jr., Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Interchurch Relations which was adopted and is as follows:

THE REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON INTERCHURCH RELATIONS

I. The following communications were placed in the hands of the Committee:

   Rev. Henry E. Pressly, Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church
   Rev. Robert H. Meneilly, United Presbyterian Church of North America
   Rev. Justin VanderKolk, Reformed Church in America
   Hon. Charles Parlin, National and World Council of Churches

III. Recommendations
   1. That the report of the Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations be adopted as amended. (See Appendix, Page 192.)
   2. That regarding the World Council of Churches:
      a. The attention of the General Assembly be directed to the fact that our Church has not accepted the asking of the World Council, and that the amount accepted has not been met. That definite efforts be made to meet at least the accepted budget. That the General Council be requested to consider the askings of the World Council in the future.
      b. We concur with the basic concepts of enlisting laymen going abroad in active Christian service and witness; and the Permanent Committee brings this matter to the attention of the appropriate boards and agencies of our Church for implementation.

c. We concur in postponing the date of the Third Assembly of the World Council to December 1961-January 1962, to allow additional time to study the many facets and issues involved in the Merger of the World Council and the International Missionary Conference; and the Permanent Committee is instructed to continue the study of this question in conjunction with the Board of World Missions, to report to the Assembly of 1959.

d. The Communication regarding the Graduate School of Ecumenical Studies be received as information.

3. That the report of the National Christian Council for 1957 be received as information.

4. That regarding the World Presbyterian Alliance:
   a. The report of the North American Area for 1958 be received as information.
   b. In view of the invitation to the 18th General Council:
      1) The Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations be instructed to select 20 representatives, proportioned ½ clergy and ½ laymen, if the way be clear.
      2) A representative be selected from each of our three Brazil Missions.
      3) Twelve persons be committed for the Travel Pool.
      4) That the per capita assessment be increased by two cents and the amount of $15,000.00 be designated to be paid by the Stated Clerk and Treasurer for the Travel Pool for the meeting of the World Presbyterian Alliance.
      5) The various agencies of the Church be instructed to consider giving publicity to this historic meeting.

5. That the following letter be sent to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the United Presbyterian Church of North America:
   "The 98th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, meeting in Charlotte, N. C., takes recognition of the historic union now being consummated by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the United Presbyterian Church of North America.
   "We give thanks to God for this resolute action by our Presbyterian brethren and pray God's blessing in guidance that your united witness may redound with great blessing to the nation and the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ."

   Signed by the Moderator.

6. The following nominations from the Permanent Nominating Committee are submitted for appointment:
   a. Representatives to the World Council of Churches, Class of 1961:

Principals	Alternates
Rev. John R. Cunningham	Dr. E. D. Grant
Mrs. W. H. Hopper	Miss Janie McCutchen

   b. Representatives to the Lord's Day Alliance:

      Rev. A. R. Bird, Sr.
      Rev. R. T. L. Liston

   c. That the following, who have been nominated by their respective synods to serve on the Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations, be appointed in the Class of 1959:

      Rev. Walter R. Courtenay—Tennessee
      Rev. Alex. W. Hunter—Louisiana
      Mr. R. E. Kell—Appalachia
      Rev. John S. McMullen—Missouri
      Rev. C. E. Piephoff—Georgia

   d. And Mrs. Morrell DeReign, nominated by the Board of Women's Work, to the Class of 1960.

7. That the General Council be instructed to designate the first Sunday in July for a special offering for the Protestant Pavilion in Brussels.

8. That the Communication from Mr. Shoup, of Elgin, Ill. regarding denominational relations be referred to the Stated Clerk to present through proper channels, since this Committee does not have sufficient information to recommend disposition.
9. That in answer to the telegram received from the Rev. Jose Borges dos Santos, Jr., Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Brazil, be answered as follows:
   "The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, meeting at Charlotte, N. C., is deeply appreciative of the cordial greetings received from the Presbyterian Church of Brazil and notes with deep regret the inability of your honored Moderator to be present with us.
   "We rejoice in the manifest blessings of God upon your great Church and convey to you the assurance of our continued prayerful support in the service of our Lord Jesus Christ."
   Signed by the Moderator.
10. That the Assembly send a communication to Dr. Billy Graham, assuring him, the Crusade team, and the participating churches of the San Francisco Crusade of the prayers of our Church for the abundant blessing of God upon the San Francisco Crusade.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. MELTON, Chairman

Ruling Elder M. W. Carothers, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on the Presbyterian Survey which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY

The Standing Committee on The Presbyterian Survey received the following items referred to it by the Assembly:

(1) Report of the Board of the Presbyterian Survey.
(2) Report of the Permanent Committee on Nominations relating to the Board of the Presbyterian Survey.
(3) Minutes of the Board of the Presbyterian Survey.
(4) Auditor's Report covering the calendar year 1957.

The minutes of the Board of the Presbyterian Survey and the Auditor's Report for 1957 were examined and found in order.

The Standing Committee recommends the adoption of the Report of the Board of the Presbyterian Survey as amended. (See Appendix, page 135.)

Recommendations

1) That the General Assembly commend to the churches enthusiastic observance of Presbyterian Survey Week, November 1-8, 1959, and that for 1960, and years following, the General Council study anew the basic purpose of Presbyterian Survey Week with reference to a possible change of calendar date.
2) That the General Assembly voice appreciation to the nearly 200 Presbyterian Survey chairmen and associate chairmen in the synods and presbyteries who have carried into every church the campaign for the Every Family Plan.
3) That the General Assembly take cognizance of the Presbyterian Survey's greatly increased audience and opportunity, and encourage pastors to put the magazine to work within their churches.
4) That the General Assembly reiterate its faith in the Every Family Plan ($1.00 per year per family) by urging the sessions of all churches not yet members of the plan to enlist their churches in the plan, and by urging the sessions of all churches already members of the plan to continue membership. Furthermore, that the General Assembly call to the attention of all sessions and congregations that the Every Family Plan is not planned as a one year experiment, but a long range continuing program for the development of spiritual and stewardship foundations on which the work of the Church rests.
5) That the General Assembly continue its longtime financial policy regarding the Presbyterian Survey, whereby the various Boards and Agencies of the Church underwrite the official publication; that this underwriting be prorated according to the share of each such Board and Agency in the total benevolent giving to General Assembly causes.

6) That the General Assembly express appreciation to the staff of the Presbyterian Survey, particularly to Mr. Theodore B. Pratt, Executive Director, for his fine leadership in promoting the growth of the magazine, and to Mr. William R. Thompson, Editor, and Miss Frances Furlow, Associate Editor, for their excellent work in producing a magazine of steadily growing usefulness to the Church.

7) That the General Assembly recommend to the presbyteries that the Presbyterian Survey campaign chairman be given full support in his responsibility for promoting the 1958 campaign for church-wide participation in the Every Family Plan, and for the utmost use of the official magazine within the presbytery. Further, that where the presbytery has no person currently assigned to this responsibility, that it be urged to appoint such a chairman.

8) That the report of the Permanent Committee on Nominations nominating Mrs. Graham Lacy, Rev. J. K. Roberts and Mr. Willis Osborn, be adopted.

9) That the Auditor's Report be received and printed in the minutes. (See Appendix, page 137.)

Respectfully submitted,

M. W. CAROTHERS, Chairman

Ruling Elder W. Edward McNair, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Christian Education which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

1. There have been placed in our hands by the General Assembly the following:

(1) Overture 37.

(2) The Annual Report of the Board of Christian Education.

(3) The Minutes Book of the Board of Christian Education.

(4) The report of the Trustees of the Mountain Retreat Association.

(5) The annual reports of Austin, Columbia, Louisville and Union Theological Seminaries. (See Appendix, pages 213-221.)

(6) The Annual Report and minutes of the Trustees of the Assembly's Training School.

(7) The Annual Report of the Stillman College Board of Trustees.

(8) A communication from the Rev. Marshall C. Dendy, Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education.

(9) A communication from the Rev. Vernon S. Broyles, Jr., Chairman of the Ad Interim Committee on Revision of the Book of Church Order.

(10) A communication from the John Milton Society asking for an appropriation for the work of the Society.

(11) The report of the Permanent Nominating Committee relating to the Board of Christian Education, Trustees of the Mountain Retreat Association, Trustees of the Assembly's Training School and Trustees of Stillman College.

2. Your Standing Committee appreciated the fine spirit of co-operation and the help of Rev. Marshall C. Dendy and his staff, Rev. Harmon B. Ramsey of the Board of Christian Education, Dr. Frank L. Jackson, Acting President of the Mountain Retreat Association, Rev. Charles E. S. Kraemer, President of the Assembly's Training School, and Rev. Samuel B. Hay, President of Stillman College.

3. AUSTIN SEMINARY

Construction has been completed on an 18 apartment housing unit for married students and an adjacent 2½ acre tract of land was purchased by the Board during the year. $346,637.83 was added to the resources of the seminary through a financial campaign in the Synod of Texas. Of these funds, $389,261.33 have been used in capital improvements and $57,376.50 thus far added to endowment. The Synod of Louisiana has approved a capital funds campaign for the seminary in 1959.

The seminary again closed the year without a deficit.

A grant from a private Foundation has made possible the immediate erection of a Convocation Hall-Classroom Building. Twelve men gave full-time to seminary teaching during the year. There were 147 students registered in the seminary courses plus 98 who received instruction in Bible in the University of Texas and 42 through University Extension Courses.

4. COLUMBIA SEMINARY

Enrollment was 247 students. Endowment was increased by $246,298.90. For the twenty-fifth consecutive year the seminary has operated without a deficit.

Rev. Wade P. Huie, Jr. was elected professor of Homiletics and Professor Shirley C. Guthrie, Jr. was elected an Associate Professor in the Departments of New Testament and Theology.

The Synod of Florida has completed a campaign from which the seminary is to receive $300,000.00 to add to the endowment, and campaigns have been approved in the other four supporting synods for 1959-60.

5. LOUISVILLE SEMINARY

Louisville Seminary had an enrollment of 173 students for the school year 1958. The following changes in faculty were effected: Rev. J. J. Murray began his work as Visiting Professor of Homiletics; Chaplain John H. Boyle became part-time Instructor in Clinical Training; Rev. George R. Edwards was elected to succeed Rev. W. D. Chamberlain upon his retirement as Professor of New Testament. (Dr. Chamberlain died in the spring of 1958.)

6. UNION SEMINARY

During the session 295 students were enrolled, 237 undergraduate and 58 graduate students. The seminary is offering to pastors of its constituency, to its alumni, and to churchmen generally a program of continuing education. Thirty specific courses, prepared by members of the faculty, are administered by a member of the seminary staff known as the Director of Continuing Education. These courses provide opportunities for "directed study at home."

"The Tower Room Scholar Program" was inaugurated this year. This program brought four ministers, active in local churches to the seminary for twelve days' study.

7. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S TRAINING SCHOOL FOR LAY WORKERS

There were 112 students enrolled in 1957-58, representing a 13% increase over the previous year. With the completion during 1957 of a new residence building, 41 additional student spaces have been provided.

In response to a request from the Superintendents of Children's Homes in the Presbyterian Church U. S., the Board of Trustees has approved a co-operative program in collaboration with the School of Social Work of Richmond Professional Institute of the College of William and Mary. This will provide new opportunities for those interested in the field of Christian Social Work.

Miss Neva Delgado has come to serve as field representative with duties in the area of enlistment and public relations.

8. MOUNTAIN RETREAT ASSOCIATION

The summer program of 26 conferences attracted 35,000 visitors to Montreat in 1957. Important changes in the charter of Montreat have increased the Board of Directors to 50 with an executive committee of 12 to conduct the affairs of the association and report to the Board of Directors. Under this plan every member of the Board of Trustees will become a director.

9. STILLMAN COLLEGE

The largest enrollment in the history of the college brought 364 students to the institution in the fall of 1957. Three new faculty members were added this year: Mr. James J. Franklin in the Field of Science; Mr. Harold Buchanan in the Department of Business; and the Rev. H. Davis Yeuell, Chaplain, Bible Instructor and Director of Campus Christian Life Activities.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Reply to Overture

I. That overture 37 be answered in the affirmative. (See page 34.)

Board of Christian Education

II. That the report and minutes of the Board of Christian Education be approved, but that Paragraph VII A be referred back to the Committee on Certification with power to act, for further study of the equating of experience with formal training. The paragraph is:

> A. Director of Christian education. (This term shall be reserved for persons who have had a two-year professional Master's degree in Christian education from an accredited graduate school, or a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college plus six years of successful experience in the field of Christian education, or certification as an associate in Christian education plus three years of successful experience in the field of Christian education.)

III. That the Assembly commend the Board of Christian Education and its staff for significant achievement in the difficult area of the preparation of teaching and curriculum materials; for their diligence and faithfulness in handling problems inherent in the teaching functions of our Church; for their fidelity in preparing materials properly interpreting Holy Scripture, the Standards of the Church and the pronouncements of the General Assembly; and further that the Assembly commend to the churches the use of these Presbyterian materials.

IV. That the General Assembly commend the Division of Higher Education of the Board of Christian Education for organizing the Assembly-wide Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts for Presbyterian Educational Institutions and express to the members of this committee appreciation for initiating this program on behalf of our colleges and seminaries; and, further, that the Assembly recommend to each synod the organization of a corresponding committee to co-operate with its educational institutions, calling to the attention of all the great opportunities of bequests and deferred gifts for Presbyterian Educational Institutions.

V. That the following recommendations from the report of the Board of Christian Education be adopted:

1. That a prayer of gratitude be offered to God for His blessings upon the ministry of Christian Education in the Church and that appreciation be expressed to the Church for the strong support the Board has received during the year.
2. That the following days and seasons be observed during 1958 and 1959:
   Christian Teaching Season, September 1-28, 1958
   Rally Day, September 28, 1958
   *Christian Education Week, September 28-October 5, 1958
   *Laymen's Sunday, October 19, 1958
   Christian Student Sunday, December 28, 1958
   Church Officer Training Week, January 18-25, 1959
   Assembly's Youth Sunday, January 25, 1959
   *Community Youth Week, January 25-February 1, 1959
   *Day of Prayer for Students Around the World, February 15, 1959
   Christian Higher Education Season, April 1-30, 1959
   *National Christian College Day, April 12, 1959 (Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges)
   *Christian Family Week, May 3-10, 1959

*Interdenominational days.

3. That our churches, ministers, and members recognize the increasing demands made upon institutions of higher education and be urged to increase their interest in and support of Presbyterian seminaries, colleges, Westminster Fellowships, and Guidance Centers in order that Presbyterians may do their part in having Christian faith undergird all education, and that our Church and nation may be supplied with Christian leaders prepared for these days of opportunity.
4. That the attention of all ministers, Sessions, and congregations be called to the mounting demand for more full-time church workers; and that the call to full-time church vocation as missionaries, ministers, directors of Christian education, and other forms of church service be presented to our young people at the worship hour, in Sunday school classes, at rallies and conferences, and through personal interviews.
5. That, because of the growing responsibilities assigned to the Board of Christian Education and the vast opportunities the Church faces in Christian Education, the churches of the General Assembly make every effort to provide the full benevolence apportionment for the Board of Christian Education as approved by the General Council and the General Assembly.

6. That the re-election of Dr. S. J. Patterson, Jr., as Secretary of Men's Work; Rev. W. Norman Cook, as Secretary of Field Service; and Mr. John S. Grant, as Treasurer, each for a term of three years, be confirmed by the General Assembly.
7. That appreciation be expressed to the Board of Christian Education of the United Presbyterian Church for the cordial relationships our Assembly has enjoyed with them through our Board of Christian Education in editing and publishing Sunday school materials, and that we pray for God's blessings upon them as they continue their work under the Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.
8. That the Committee on the Certification of Lay Workers be elected for terms of service in the following classes:

Class of 1961: Dr. Harry G. Goodykoontz, Chairman
Miss Sara Little
Mr. George C. Leslie

Class of 1960: Miss Eubank Taylor
Mrs. J. K. Fancher

Class of 1959: Rev. Fred V. Poag
Mr. Selser R. Pickett, Jr.

VI. That the Assembly authorize the Ad Interim Committee charged with revising the Book of Church Order, when it reaches the section having to do with the Directory For Worship, to co-opt the services of at least two members who have been representing our Board of Christian Education on the Joint Committee which has been working on the revision of the Book of Common Worship.

VII. That the Assembly reply to the communication from the John Milton Society that an appropriation for the Society's work is already being made by the Board of Christian Education.

STILLMAN COLLEGE

VIII. That the Assembly commend and congratulate Rev. Samuel B. Hay upon his recent completion of ten years as President of Stillman College.

IX. That the report of the Board of Trustees of Stillman College be approved. (See Appendix, page 122.)

X. That the recommendations from the report of the Board of Trustees of Stillman College be adopted as follows:

1. That ministers, churches and individual members endeavor to recruit young Negro men of character and promise for the ministry of our Church.
2. That all churches be requested to see that the General Fund Agencies, of which Stillman is one, receive the full Assembly Askings.
3. That the Assembly commend to individual Presbyterians throughout its bounds "The Stillman College Supporters." This is an organization of a group of friends of the College who are interested in its welfare.
4. That the members of our churches be asked to remember Stillman College in writing their wills or in the establishment of Foundations.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S TRAINING SCHOOL

XI. That the report and minutes of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly's Training School be approved. (See Appendix, page 116.)

XII. That the following recommendations from the report of the Assembly's Training School be adopted:

1. That the Assembly approve the re-election of Dr. Robert F. Boyd as the Martin Ryerson Turnbull Professor of Bible for a term of three years.
2. That the Assembly approve the re-election of Miss Josephine Newbury as Professor of Christian Education and Director of the Demonstration Kindergarten for a term of three years.
3. That the Assembly urge pastors and sessions to observe Seminary-Assembly's Training School Day on April 26, 1959, in order to acquaint their congregations with the service the schools are rendering, the opportunities they offer and their needs.

4. That the Assembly urge each synod, presbytery and local church to see that General Fund Agencies of the Assembly receive their apportioned share of the Assembly's Benevolent Budget. (The Training School is one of the eight causes in the General Fund.)
5. That the Assembly request pastors, Directors of Christian Education, and other church leaders to direct to the school men and women of superior gifts and consecration, those of maturity and experience as well as young men of college age, in order that they may be prepared to meet the Church's urgent need for more trained workers.
6. That the Assembly instruct the Trustees as authorized by previous Assemblies to continue their efforts to raise funds for permanent improvement and endowment.

MOUNTAIN RETREAT ASSOCIATION

XIII. That the report of the Mountain Retreat Association be approved. (See Appendix, page 126.)

XV. That the General Assembly extend sympathy to the family of Mrs. Francis J. Brooke, member of the Board of Christian Education, who died during the past year.

XVI. That the General Assembly commend those individuals who by reason of rotation are being retired from the boards indicated in XIV above.

XVII. That the Assembly engage in a prayer of dedication of the Presbyterian Book Store which has opened recently in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,

W. EDWARD MCNAIR, Chairman
FRANK L. ELVERY, Secretary

The Assembly was led in prayer by Rev. Alfred G. Taylor with special petitions for the family of Rev. J. Cecil Lawrence, a commissioner, whose mother had passed away today and a prayer of dedication of the Book Store recently opened in Charlotte.

The Assembly stood adjourned to meet at 8:30 A. M. Tuesday.

FIFTH DAY

TUESDAY

The Assembly met at 8:30 A. M. and was led in a worship service by Rev. Iain Wilson.

The Moderator called the meeting to order and the minutes of Monday's sessions were read and approved.

Ruling Elder Peyton N. Rhodes, Chairman, presented the report of the special committee to prepare a statement on The Freedom of the Pulpit which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FREEDOM OF THE PULPIT

It has come to the attention of the 98th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States that there has been embarrassment to some ministers as well as to church officers concerning the question of the freedom of the pulpit.

In accordance with the action of the General Assembly which took recognition of the need for a clear statement concerning the Protestant heritage and Presbyterian concept of the freedom of the pulpit, this Committee has endeavored to perform its task in light of the teachings of the Scriptures and the Standards of our Church as contained in the Book of Church Order and the Confession of Faith.

As we read the Scriptures of the Old Testament dealing with the lives and teachings of the prophets, we are struck with their sense of divine mission to proclaim, without fear or favor, the whole of God's truth as it was revealed to them. The phrase, "Thus saith the Lord," represented a feeling of their commitment to a command of God. The prophets, convinced that they were commissioned to speak for God, avoided no moral or social problems of their day.

Our Church acknowledges our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, to be the true Head of the Church and emphasizes the great commission of our Lord wherein he said, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

The teachings of our Saviour, so clearly set forth in the Sermon on the Mount, the Golden Rule and the Parables of the Kingdom, apply to all of life and its relationships.

In apostolic times Saint Paul in his letters to the Churches dealt with Christian life and conduct as related to the moral and social structure of his time. He gave to the young ministers, Timothy and Titus, such counsel as "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and doctrine," Also ". . . endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry." And "These things speak and exhort and rebuke with all authority."

Our Confesson of Faith gives strong support for the point of view that a minister should preach in accordance with the "whole counsel of God," that is, his teaching and preaching must proclaim the relevance of our faith for everyday living. Chapter I, Paragraph VI, states, "The whole counsel of God, concerning all things necessary for His own glory, man's salvation, faith, and life, is either expressly set down in Scripture, or by good and necessary consequence may be deduced from Scripture. . . ."

Our Book of Church Order, Chapter IX, discusses and describes in considerable detail the qualifications expected of "the Minister of the Word." In his ordination vows the minister promises to "be zealous and faithful in maintaining the truths of the Gospel and the purity and peace of the Church. . . ." Likewise a congregation assumes the obligation of receiving the word of truth from the minister "with meekness and love," and "promises to submit to him in the due exercise of discipline." Further, the congregation promises to encourage the minister in his labor, "and to assist his endeavors for their instruction and spiritual edification."

Nowhere in the Standards of our Church is there any justification for binding the conscience of either minister or layman. Indeed, it is expressly stated in the Confession of Faith, Chapter XX, "God alone is Lord of the conscience, and hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are in anything contrary to his word . . ."

According to the Scriptures, we must conclude that a minister is one called and set apart under God to "proclaim the whole counsel of God." If the ministry of our Church is to be anything more than the priestly preservation of tradition, it must involve not only the proclaiming of the "Good News" of the Gospel, but also something of a prophetic nature, in that each minister, feeling the burden of the Lord upon his heart, must speak forth, "Thus saith the Lord."

The Scriptures, the Book of Church Order, and the Confession of Faith do not warrant the dictation by session or congregation to an ordained minister as to how he shall interpret the message of salvation and its application to life. A minister of our Church has the right and obligation to teach and interpret the Scriptures, provided only that his teaching is not out of harmony with the Scriptures or the Standards of the Presbyterian Church. If question is raised as to whether his teaching is out of harmony with these guides, such a question should be raised in the Presbytery of which he is a member, and in accordance with the provision of the Book of Church Order.

While maintaining the right and obligation of the minister to preach and teach the Scriptures, the General Assembly urges its ministers to remember that there are restraints which they should place upon themselves. On an important matter of principle, the minister's position should be unequivocal. However, it is possible to speak boldly yet with humility; to take a position without emphasizing it out of proportion to its proper place; to teach persuasively; to maintain the authority of the Word of God without claiming infallibility in interpreting it. The minister should speak in love. "The Servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves . . ." While seeking to quicken the conscience of church members and to bring light from the Scriptures to the question, the minister should remember that God alone is Lord of the conscience and Judge of our deeds and hearts.

The members of a congregation, and particularly the officers, should avoid taking offense at the faithful preaching of the whole Word of God. The Scriptures contain much to disturb us as well as much to comfort us. Even in the lives of earnest Christians there are areas of thought and conduct that are still not in harmony with the teachings of the Scriptures and the mind of Christ. Instruction and admonition by the minister are used by the Holy Spirit to lead us into "all truth," and to contribute to our growth in grace.

Rev. C. Lloyd Arehart, Chairman, presented the report of the Judicial Commission to hear the Complaint of Rev. Thompson L. Casey against the Synod of Florida. The report was entered to record and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COMMISSION APPOINTED BY THE 1958 GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO HANDLE THE COMPLAINT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AGAINST THE SYNOD OF FLORIDA, PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH U. S.

The first meeting of the Commission was held in the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, North Carolina, Saturday, April 26th, 1958, and convened following the Worship Service of the General Assembly at 8:30 A. M. The meeting was called to order by chairman, Rev. C. Lloyd Arehart, who opened the meeting by prayer. The roll was called with the following Commissioners reporting present:

Ministers	Elders
C. Lloyd Arehart, Chairman	J. Glenn Cobb
George B. Merrin	Holland McSwain
W. G. Thomas	Ladd Davies
D. F. Waddell	J. A. Aycock
Marion G. Bradwell	Leland M. Stone
D. T. Brandenburg	H. P. Daggett
Max Ecke, Jr.	J. Mason Wallace
R. F. Clayman	Dan S. Jackson
Charles W. Owens, Sr.	James M. Oeland
R. S. Arrowood	Allen M. Steele
A. T. Taylor	Charles Dorris
Julius S. Garbett	Billy H. Wade
Harry E. Flowers	Harry P. Musser, Jr.
Walter Bennett

After election of Leland M. Stone as Clerk, Chairman C. Lloyd Arehart introduced to the Commission: Rev. Thompson L. Casey, complainant, and Rev. George Pickard of the Synod of Florida, respondent.

Following introductions, both parties were then dismissed while the Commission was presented documents and minutes pertaining to the complaint, and the chairman then gave a review of the case as he understood it. This was followed with a reading from the Book of Church Order pertaining to "complaints and appeals." Motion made and seconded that chairman appoint a committee to review documents at hand, and formulate a schedule of procedure pertinent to this complaint. Passed. Chairman appointed the following committee:

Max Ecke, Jr.
Chas. Owens, Sr.
Allen M. Steele

Both the chairman and the clerk attended this meeting of the committee. Commission meeting was then recessed until 10:30 A. M. to enable committee to accomplish its assignment.

The meeting was reconvened with prayer by the chairman. He then explained the findings of the survey made by the committee.

The Commission invited both parties to be present for the reading of complaint. It was suggested that Specification #1 of the complaint be read first, but at the request of the complainant, it was agreed that the complaint would be read in its entirety. Mr. Casey then presented his complaint. After requesting that it be sustained, he then led us in a word of prayer. The complainant stated he had filed the complaint only because he was personally interested in righting a wrong. Mr. Casey's case was presented by him until chairman recessed the Commission with prayer in order that we might have lunch, with instructions that we reconvene at 2:00 P. M.

The Commission reconvened as instructed, and upon establishing that quorum was present, proceedings were instituted with prayer by the chairman. Mr. Casey then completed his presentation.

Mr. Pickard, the respondent, was heard on behalf of the Synod of Florida.

Mr. Casey then presented his rebuttal.

Both complainant and respondent were interrogated at length by most members of the Commission as they presented their case.

Motion was then made and seconded that Commission go into Executive Session. Passed. After a five minute recess, the Executive Session was opened with motion being made and seconded that each Specification of Error as listed in complaint, be voted upon separately, and motion prevailed that a committee be appointed by chairman to work out language and wording of Commission's decision. Passed.

1st Specification presented by chairman—Voted we DO NOT sustain—3 dissenting votes.

2nd Specification presented by chairman—Voted we DO NOT sustain—2 dissenting votes.

3rd Specification presented by chairman—Voted we DO NOT sustain—Unanimous.

Committee appointments for language and wording of Commission's decision were made by chairman as follows:

Allen M. Steele
Walter Bennett
Harry E. Flowers

Both the chairman and the clerk are to attend this meeting which was called for 2:00 P. M. Sunday, April 27th at the First Presbyterian Church.

Chairman recessed the Commission with prayer, instructing them to reconvene immediately following the evening program of the Assembly, Sunday, April 27th, to consider the approval of the report from the language and wording Committee.

Upon ascertaining that a quorum was present, chairman reconvened Commission meeting with prayer. Minutes to date were read and corrected. Committee report was read and corrected as follows:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COMMISSION APPOINTED BY THE 1958 General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, U. S., to consider the complaint to the General Assembly of Thompson L. Casey, Jr. vs. the Synod of Florida.

This Judicial Commission examined records of the complaint to the General Assembly of Thompson L. Casey, Jr. vs. the Synod of Florida as presented to it by the General Assembly's Committee on Judicial Business.

We, the Commission, find said complaint to be set forth in three (3) Specifications, as follows:

(1) The Synod of Florida erred when it failed to consider the Appeals of the Elders of the Maitland Church.

(2) The Synod of Florida erred when it did not sustain Specification of error No. 1 of the Appeal of Rev. Arthur A. Froehlich.

(3) The Synod of Florida erred when it failed to sustain Specification No. 5 of the Appeal of Rev. Arthur A. Froehlich.

This Judicial Commission voted as follows on these listed Specifications:

(1) Voted we DO NOT sustain—3 dissenting votes

(2) Voted we DO NOT sustain—2 dissenting votes

(3) Voted we DO NOT sustain—Unanimous

The Commission was unanimous in its opinion that the Synod of Florida erred in its failure to keep complete records of minutes relating to procedures, although such errors in the opinion of the Commission did not in any manner invalidate the proceedings of the Synod of Florida, or work to the prejudice of a full and fair hearing in the Synod. This Commission would remind the Synod of Florida of the necessity for keeping a full and complete record of its proceedings as outlined in the Book of Church Order.

Respectfully submitted,

C. LLOYD AREHART, Chairman

Motion that this report be submitted to the General Assembly as the findings of our Judicial Commission was approved with two (2) members dissenting. One member of our Committee, Walter Bennett, asked that his reason of dissent be recorded as follows: "I feel that I must dissent from the action not to sustain Specification of Error Number Two in the complaint against the Synod of Florida concerning its action denying the Appeal of Rev. Arthur A. Froehlich. This section deals with Specification Number One of Mr. Froehlich's Appeal: 'Certain irregularities in the proceedings of the Presbytery.' The Synod admitted that there were irregularities but added: 'However, the Court feels that these are not sufficient to warrant the sustaining of this Specification.' It appears that the Presbytery in addition to errors in making indictments, took action which may be classified in the Civil Courts as a Summary Judgment, but for which there is no provision in the Book of Church Order. I (Walter A. Bennett) make this dissent because there is a reasonable doubt in my mind that if the Presbytery had followed exactly the procedure outlined, it might have been possible for the defendant to have made a more adequate defense of himself, especially since this deals with the serious action of the deposition of a minister. Walter A. Bennett."

Chairman announced that Commission would recess until 1:30 P. M. Monday, at which time upon reconvening, judgment of the Commission would be read in the presence of both Rev. Thompson L. Casey, complainant, and Rev. George Pickard of the Synod of Florida, respondent. Meeting was recessed by prayer of Rev. Charles W. Owens, Sr.

Upon determining that a quorum was present, chairman opened the meeting with prayer. The judgment of the Commission was read in the presence of the complainant and the respondent, after which the group was led in prayer by Rev. Max Ecke, Jr.

Complete minutes of the Commission were read and corrected. Motion then prevailed that the minutes be approved.

Motion carried that the Commission adjourn.

The chairman then dismissed the Commission with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

C. LLOYD AREHART, Chairman
LELAND M. STONE, Clerk

The Moderator presented Mr. Bluford Hestir, Secretary of the Division of Publicity of the General Council, who presented the members of the press covering the Assembly. From the secular press there were: Mr. George Dugan of the New York Times, Mr. Roy Covington of the Charlotte Observer, Mr. William Hughes of the Charlotte News, Mr. Charles Hamilton of the Greensboro Record, John Borchard of the Charlotte News, Charles West of the Associated Press, Richard Hatch of the United Press, Porter Munn of the Charlotte Observer and Ervin Melton of W.T.B. News. From the religious press there were: Rev. William McElroy of the Christian Observer. Rev. Aubrey N. Brown of the Presbyterian Outlook, Rev. Henry B. Dendy of the Southern Presbyterian Journal, Rev. John R. Richardson of the Southern Presbyterian Journal and Dr. Frank Farrell of Christianity Today. From the Presbyterian Survey there were: Theodore Pratt, Executive Director, William Thompson, Editor, Miss Frances Furlow, Associate Editor and Rev. Holmes Rolston, Consulting Editor. From the staff of the Division of Publicity of the General Council: Miss Pearl Weathers and Miss Ruby Sloan.

Ruling Elder Marshall W. Brown, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Church Extension which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

Your Committee on Church Extension had placed in its hands the following items. The Minute Book and Annual Report of the Board, the recommendations of the Permanent Committee on Nominations relating to the membership of this Board and overtures 18-36, 52 and 54 which deal with the matter of our Church's approach to the industrial worker.

Every commissioner assigned to this standing committee was present. We report that the Board's Minute Book was examined, found in good order and approved; that each member of the Staff was introduced to comment upon his part of the Annual Report and that an extended but sympathetic discussion was then had upon the total work of this Board. We believe these Staff members to be well informed in their particular fields, dedicated to their tasks, and very effective in their service.

The Annual Report of this Board is entitled "Building the Church," indicating by its very wording the over-all purpose of this agency of the General Assembly. What we have learned from studying this Report and from conferring with the Staff leads us to impress emphatically upon the 1958 Assembly something of the magnificent achievements of recent years, the great opportunity for expansion, and some of the obstacles that stand in the way of the greater advance which our Church should be making in the South and Southwest in this present time.

We learn, for instance, that in the past ten years there have been organized 555 new churches, an even larger number than is indicated in the Annual Report. These new congregations represent 14 percent of the total number of churches now on our Assembly roll. The combined membership of these 555 new churches is now approximately 93,000, indicating that they account for 11 per cent of our total denominational membership. Moreover, these new congregations have enrolled in their Church Schools some 103,000 persons and they are contributing approximately $8,750,000 a year to the total work of the Church. This expansion movement has involved a vast amount of work by the presbyteries of the Assembly and the expenditure of many millions of dollars. We record our appreciation for the work done by the Assembly, the synods and the presbyteries which has made such an advance possible since 1948. Nothing equal to this has ever been seen in any previous decade of our history. We are a growing Church and every Division and Department of this Board has contributed to that growth.

We note that the last decade saw our national population experience a net growth of 28,000,000 persons. The South and Southwest had a lion's share of this growth. In fact, no other area except the Pacific Coast exceeded ours in its population increase. And the census experts tell us that the population expansion in our part of the nation has just barely gotten started compared to what will begin to happen five to eight years from now when the large number of children born in the war years marry and begin to rear their own families. All of which sharply points up the almost unlimited opportunity for the building of our Church in the years just ahead. That expansion will be limited only by the men and money available for the building and staffing of new churches.

In the face of this vast opportunity for expansion, we are deeply concerned to note that the proportionate amount of our total giving which goes to Church Extension is declining when we believe it should be increasing. In the past six years the total Assembly approved budget has increased 78%, but the portion of that budget assigned to Church Extension has been increased only 36%. In fact, during these years, the percentage of the Assembly budgets assigned to Church Extension has actually decreased 3.33 points. Has this loss been made up in the budgets of synods and presbyteries? The record shows that in the first five years of this decade the combined Church Extension receipts of Assembly, synods and presbyteries fell from 26% to 22% of our total benevolences. In other words, the whole Church was giving proportionately less to this total task at the middle of the decade than at its beginning. If the opportunity for expansion were decreasing, this would seem a proper procedure. But when the very opposite is true, this appears to be a short-sighted policy and representing a trend which should be studied very carefully. We fear that future historians of the Presbyterian Church in America will lay the blame upon us and our generation for not seeing and taking advantage of the present opportunity to expand this denomination in the South and Southwest. The whole future program of our work around the world is dependent upon expanding the base here at home. Surely this is the time to arise and build. Such is the conviction of your Standing Committee as it has reviewed the present work of Church Extension.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all local churches in the General Assembly through their various organizations be requested to observe the Church Extension Season, September 21-October 19, 1958, using the denominational study, "Building the Church," together with supplementary materials prepared by this Board's Department of Promotion.
2. That every pastor, session and local church organization be urged to join the Church Extension Committee of Presbytery in observing October 12-19 as a week of prayer for God's blessing upon the extension work of our denomination and in a concerted effort to raise at least a $1,000,000 supplemental offering for the purchasing of sites and the building of new churches.
3. That, again in the 1958 Church Extension Season, each presbytery in the Assembly be asked to push vigorously its own plan for raising capital funds as a part of the united effort to secure the largest possible sum for church building purposes, it being understood that the presbytery is to retain 80% of all such supplemental offerings taken within its bounds and remit 20% to the Board of Church Extension for distribution to areas of particular need.
4. That the General Assembly call to the attention of all our people the present responsibility and opportunity to expand the Presbyterian Church in the rapidly growing areas to be found in every presbytery of the Assembly.
5. That, in view of the unprecedented opportunities for evangelism today, every church be urged to make intensive use of the proven methods of evangelism, such as Visitation Evangelism, Youth to Youth Evangelism, Preaching Missions and Church Attendance Crusades.
6. That all our evangelistic endeavors be based on the renewed understanding of the Church as the Covenant Community in contemporary life.
7. That we encourage and plan to participate wholeheartedly in the proposed Pan-Presbyterian Simultaneous Evangelistic Emphasis for the spring of 1961.
8. That in 1959, the months of March and August, and Evangelism Sunday, November 29, be designated for special emphasis upon Evangelism and used to challenge our entire membership to greater activity in seeking to win people to Christ.
9. That, in view of the superficial manner in which many new members are now being received into the Church, the General Assembly impress upon ministers and sessions their responsibility for the preparation of new members through Communicant Classes and for a more thorough examination of those who unite with the Church as to their faith and understanding of the Christian life.
10. That the Assembly urge sessions to fulfill their responsibilities toward inactive members, using great care that every effort be made to restore them to a vital relationship to Christ and the Church.
11. That the duplex "Card of Introduction" and "Card of Notification," provided by the Division of Evangelism, be commended for use as an effective means of preventing the loss of members who move from one community to another.
12. That the General Assembly authorize a Pre-Assembly Conference on Evangelism in connection with its 1959 meeting and urge all presbyteries to encourage their commissioners to attend.
13. That, in view of the fact that 1958 marks forty continuous years of unselfish missionary service given to our Church by Rev. J. B. Bisceglia, the General Assembly express its appreciation for the work he and his wife have done among Italian people in Kansas City, Missouri.
14. That the General Assembly note the death of Rev. Homer McMillan, Emeritus Secretary of Home Missions, and of Rev. John M. Alexander, Division Secretary of Radio and Television, expressing its gratitude to God for their years of faithful service and extending its sympathy to their families.
15. That the Assembly approve this Board's action in the election of the following for a term of two years:

    James L. Doom, Associate Secretary, Department of Church Architecture
    James W. Newton, Secretary, Department of Promotion

16. That Rev. Warner L. Hall be elected to the General Council for a full term representing the Board of Church Extension.
17. That, in view of additional responsibilities laid upon the Board of Church Extension, the Assembly increase the number of Board members from 21 to 24 and appoint one additional person to the classes of 1959, 1960 and 1961.
18. That the general plan for a supplemental offering as outlined in recommendations 1-3, be also approved for the Church Extension Season in May of 1959, details of which will need to be worked out before the next meeting of the Assembly.
19. That the General Assembly urge Presbytery Committees of Extension to survey needs and seize opportunities for Presbyterian witness in inner city areas.
20. That commissioners living in cities where radio stations do not broadcast the "Protestant Hour" request station managers to schedule these programs.
21. That overtures 18-36, 52 and 54 be referred to the Board of Church Extension for complete study and report with recommendations to the 1959 General Assembly.
22. That the following be elected as members of the Board of Church Extension:

Class of 1959
T. Jasper Lowe (Mississippi) to replace Rev. James L. Doom

Class of 1961
Rev. Ronald S. Wilson (Florida)
Rev. John F. Anderson, Jr. (Texas)
Rev. G. P. Whiteley (West Virginia)
Rev. A. E. Andrews (Tennessee)
Mrs. T. D. Connell (Louisiana) re-elected
Rev. Albert C. Winn (Alabama) re-elected
Rev. William H. Foster, Jr. (Virginia) re-elected

Additional members authorized by General Assembly:
Rev. Merle Patterson (Alabama) Class of 1959
Alan Keith-Lucas (North Carolina) Class of 1960
Henry Hills (Georgia) Class of 1961

Respectfully submitted,

MARSHALL W. BROWN, Chairman
DONALD C. WHITESIDE, Secretary

Rev. J. Malcolm Murchison, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on The Minister and His Work which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

The following matters were referred to this committee:
1. The report of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on the Minister and His Work.
2. The minutes of the Assembly's Permanent Committee.

I. The Standing Committees makes the following recommendations concerning the Permanent Committee's report:
1. That the attention of the Assembly be called to Section II referring to the Resolution presented to the 1956 Assembly by the Rev. J. McDowell Richards. (See Appendix, Page 210.)
2. That the Assembly approve recommendations (1) and (2) under Section III referring to the Permanent Committee's study of a Resolution adopted by Atlanta Presbytery. (See Appendix, Page 211.)
3. That the Assembly approve the recommendations under Section IV concerning minutes of Commissions on the Minister and His Work. (See Appendix, Page 211.)
4. That the Assembly approve the recommendation under Section V concerning the titles, "interim minister," and "interim pastor." (See Appendix, Page 211.)
5. That the attention of the Assembly be called to Section VI in which the Permanent Committee reports that it does not approve of the proposed changes in the Book of Church Order with reference to Presbytery's Commission on the Minister and His Work. The Standing Committee concurs in this point of view and expresses its disapproval of the proposed changes. (See Appendix, Page 211.)
6. That the two recommendations under paragraph VII on "Freedom of the Pulpit" be approved as amended. and that the Moderator appoint a committee of three elder commissioners and two minister commissioners to prepare a statement on "Freedom of the Pulpit" to be presented for consideration during the present Assembly meeting. (See Minutes, Page 76.)

7. That the General Assembly make an appropriation of $22,569.74 to the Assembly's Permanent Committee for its work in 1958.

II. The minutes of the Assembly's Committee contained the following action which was overlooked in the preparation of its annual report to this General Assembly.

"We call attention to the fact that any change in the official call, which is the contract between the minister and the church, must be approved by the congregation and the presbytery. These changes must be presented directly to the presbytery for approval or to it through the Commission on the Minister and His Work."

The Standing Committee recommends approval of this statement and requests that the General Assembly call it to the attention of churches and Commissions on the Minister and His Work.

III. The minutes of the Permanent Committee have been carefully examined and they have been found to be well kept and in excellent order. We recommend that they be approved.

IV. The Standing Committee recommends that the General Assembly reaffirm its deep and sincere appreciation to the Secretary of the Assembly's Committee, Mr. R. Graham White, for so handling the delicate and complicated matters entrusted to his office that in the past seven years it has gained the respect and confidence of the whole Church, and has alleviated a concern formerly held.

V. That the Assembly express its deep appreciation to the special committee of five which prepared and presented the splendid statement on "Freedom of the Pulpit" which was adopted by the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

J. MALCOLM MURCHISON, Chairman
JACK G. HAND, Secretary

At the invitation of the Moderator Rev. Thomas W. Currie, Jr. took the Chair.

Rev. John Olert, Jr., Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Women's Work which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK

Referred to the committee were the following items:

1. Communication from Dr. Marcel Pradervand, General Secretary, World Presbyterian Alliance, concerning representatives to the Department of Women's Work.
2. The 46th Annual Report of the Board of Women's Work.
3. The Minutes Book of the Board of Women's Work.
4. The Report of Audit.
5. The Report of the Permanent Nominating Committee relating to the Board of Women's Work.

The Chairman presented Mrs. L. M. McCutchen, Executive Secretary of the Board of Women's Work, who in turn presented the following persons:

Mrs. A. R. Craig, Chairman of the Board
Mrs. Morrell DeReign, in-coming chairman
Miss Evelyn L. Green, Director of Program Department
Miss Louise H. Farrior, Director of the Editorial Department
Miss Mary S. Quidor, Treasurer
Mrs. Julius H. Smith, Board Member
Mrs. R. A. Willis, Jr., Chairman of Women's Advisory Council

Mrs. McCutchen reviewed the Annual Report of the Board, pointing out that the report was carefully compiled from questionnaires which were sent to the Women of the Church. The Executive Secretary pointed out that women were serving in wider activities of the church; locally, in presbytery and synod according to the spirit and content of the recommendations 2 and 3 adopted by the 1957 General Assembly. The Special Bible study of the Gospel of Luke, with the study book, "Meet Dr. Luke," by Dr. Addison Leitch, has been most favorably received; all available copies of the guide have been exhausted. As has become expected, again the Birthday Gift was the largest on record, totaling $215,159.89. After the cost of promotion had been deducted, $102,904.49 was made available to medical work in Korea and a like sum of Student Work in Mexico. 3,500 women participated in Synodical Training Schools and for Adult Conferences held in every synod of the Church. Where the pastor of a local congregation, and where the church court responsible, be it session, presbytery or synod, are concerned and interested in the Women of the Church, the work of the women progresses and prospers most.

Financially, the Board of Women's Work is dependent upon the benevolent receipts of the General Fund. Receipts for the year 1957 were 85% of the askings. If it were not for the sale of literature and "the life membership fund," the Board would not be able to execute that which each succeeding General Assembly commits unto it. The commissioners to the Assembly are urged to seek inclusion of the General Fund Agencies in the Budgets of synod, presbytery and the local church for the full amount of the "askings." The Executive stated that in the future, the Board will not require local Women of the Church organizations to report to the Board concerning their giving except in the case of the Birthday Offering.

A survey carefully made of four widely scattered or separated synods indicates that where circle membership is no more than 15, such circles record a much higher interest through regular attendance. The literature of the Board keeps the challenge of the Church and its high and holy mission before the Women of the Church.

Recommendations

1. Regarding the letter received from the World Presbyterian Alliance, concerning representatives to the Department of Women's Work.
   a. That the following women be appointed to represent our church on the Department of Women's Work—Mrs. Walton Litz, Mrs. A. R. Craig, Mrs. L. M. McCutchen.
   b. That no funds are available to assist other churches in sending delegates to to Campinas, Brazil for the 1959 meeting of the Department.
   c. That if the delegates are able to attend, no financial assistance from the Alliance will be required.
   d. That there be referred to the Assembly's Committee on nominations the names of Mrs. A. R. Craig and Mrs. L. M. McCutchen for nomination as representatives of the Presbyterian Church U.S. to the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world Holding the Presbyterian Order.
2. That women of every local church be encouraged to participate fully in the church-wide emphasis in 1959 which is "World-wide Witness."
3. That the attention of men, women and young people who travel abroad be called to the implications of this emphasis.
4. That all employing agencies of the Church, in the congregation, presbytery and synod earnestly consider placing the salaries of women employees on the same level as that of men, basing salary schedules on such considerations as skill, performance, responsibility carried, preparation and experience, and that the matter of salaries on the General Assembly level be referred to the Ad Interim Committee on Salary Scales.
5. That Mrs. Mabel Morley be named to membership on the Council of Christian Relations.
   (Note: With the adoption of recommendations B and D of the report of the Standing Committee on Christian Relations, the Council on Christian Relations is replaced by the Permanent Committee on Christian Relations. This action consequently nullifies recommendation 5 above.)
6. That the Assembly commend Mrs. A. R. Craig, Mrs. J. G. Walker, Mrs. H. B. Whitaker and Dr. James Sprunt for their faithful and devoted service to the Board.
7. That the following persons be elected to the Class of 1961 on the Board of Women's Work: Rev. B. Frank Hall, Mrs. S. R. Williamson, Mrs. W. W. McCrary, Jr., Mrs. W. K. Brown, Miss Helen Vass, re-elected, Mrs. Morrell DeReign, re-elected.

(Rev. B. I. Anderson and Ruling Elders S. M. Bell, F. B. Chambers, N. L. McFadyen and Henry Rhodes, members of the Standing Committee, requested that their names be recorded as opposed to recommendation No. 7.)

8. That the Executive Secretary and the entire staff of the Board of Women's Work be heartily commended for their progressive leadership.
9. That the minutes of the Board of Women's Work be approved and enthusiastically commended.
10. That the Report of Audit be approved.

JOHN OLERT, JR., Chairman
HARRY FLOWERS, Secretary

In accordance with recommendation 8 of the above report the Chairman presented Mrs. Leighton M. McCutchen, Executive Secretary of the Board, who spoke on the work being done by the Board of Women's Work. She presented Mrs. A. R. Craig, Chairman of the Board, Mrs. Morrell DeReign, incoming Chairman, Mrs. Julius H. Smith, Board member, Mrs. R. A. Willis, Jr., Chairman of Women's Advisory Council and Miss Mary Quidor, Treasurer, Miss Evelyn L. Green, Director Program Department, Miss Louise Farrior, Director of Editorial Department, from the Staff of the Board of Women's Work.

The Moderator returned to the chair.

Rev. J. Martin Singleton, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Christianity and Health which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIANITY AND HEALTH

The Standing Committee on Christianity and Health was convened on the call of the Chairman. Following introductory remarks by the Chairman, the Rev. Wade H. Boggs, Jr., Chairman of the Permanent Committee, was presented to the Standing Committee. Dr. Boggs reviewed and discussed with the committee the report of the Permanent Committee, with particular emphasis upon the statement of the relationship between medical science and the Christian faith, entitled, "Healing From God Through Men."

The Standing Committee also reviewed the minutes of the Permanent Committee and found them in order. We wish to express our appreciation for the diligent efforts and helpful guidance of the Permanent Committee in its continuing study of Christianity and Health.

We recommend the following:

1. That the General Assembly receive the report of the Permanent Committee as information, and print the entire report in the Minutes of the General Assembly. (See Appendix, Page 204.)
2. That the Permanent Committee continue its work in this field of Christianity and Health, with particular reference to the instructions of the 1956 General Assembly.
3. That the Class of 1961 consist of Dr. William Hall, Dr. Thomas D. Sparrow and Dr. William E. Knight.
4. That the General Assembly authorize the Stated Clerk to print that part of the report of the Permanent Committee for 1958 entitled, "Healing From God Through Men," and distribute it to every Minister, Director of Christian Education and Missionary of our Church, and that ministers be urged to secure additional copies (to be made available without cost) for distribution to all members of the medical team in their congregations.
5. That the General Assembly go on record as urging that the part of the report mentioned in recommendation number four be widely used throughout the church as a basis for a thorough study of this significant subject. (See Appendix, Page 208.)

J. MARTIN SINGLETON, Chairman

Rev. Fred R. Stair, Chairman, presented the report of the Standing Committee on Christian Relations.

Rev. John Reed Miller presented a Minority Report and moved it as a substitute for the Majority Report.

The hour of recess being at hand Rev. William M. Elliott, Jr. led in prayer and the Assembly stood in recess until 1:30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Assembly reconvened and was led in prayer by Rev. Polk Moffett.

The consideration of the Minority Report of the Standing Committee on Christian Relations was resumed. The Minority Report failed of adoption by a vote of 288-124.

On the vote on the original motion to adopt the Majority Report the report of the Standing Committee on Christian Relations was adopted as amended and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

Our committee has done a lot of sitting.

It has had a full and free discussion of each of the items referred to it in a manifest spirit of good will and a manly seeking for God's will.

The committee members have been faithful and diligent, digging to discover the Christian's responsibility in his citizenship and in his churchmanship.

We have tried to follow the principles of our Standards, the Confession of Faith and the Book of Church Order; the precepts of our Scripture, the only infallible rule for faith and practice; and the pathway of the Holy Spirit, Who enlightens and strengthens and guides.

The road we have walked has been, sometimes, circuitous and tedious. But we have moved, vote by vote, conscious of God's presence with us.

There are honest differences of opinion and of interpretation among us. These have been heard. They have been mutually honored. In our disagreements, calmness and fairness have been evident. For this spirit, and for the prayers which have been around us and for us, we are grateful to God.

Our procedure was to consider, in order, the following items:

First, The Report of the Council on Christian Relations, (See Appendix, Page 221), consisting of (a) "Speaking for God—the Prophetic Role of the Church;" (b) "Current Social Problems;" and (c) Recommendations. In the consideration of this Report, we heard two consultants from the Council, Rev. Malcolm P. Calhoun and Rev. Ernest Trice Thompson.

Second, Recommendation 17 from the Report of the General Council, dealing with (a) the location of the Council on Christian Relations with the Board of Christian Education, rather than with the Board of Church Extension, and (b) certain clarifications of organizational and liaison arrangements both within the Board itself and with the Church at large and its program. In the consideration of this Recommendation 17, we requested and received consultations with Rev. J. G. Patton of the General Council, Rev. Marshall C. Dendy of the Board of Christian Education and Rev. P. D. Miller of the Board of Church Extension.

Upon this second item, we gave detailed consideration, also, to the communication addressed to the General Assembly and referred by it to our committee, from Rev. Parks Wilson and six other persons currently serving on Christian Relations Committees within the Synods of Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas, and within the Presbyteries of Northeast Texas, Mississippi, South Texas, New Orleans, North Mississippi and Louisiana.

After hearing these consultants and handling this communication, and before voting on this recommendation, the committee went into executive session. It remained in executive session throughout the remainder of its deliberations, until after the adoption of this report.

Third, Overtures 39-49, and 56, requesting the dissolution of the Council on Christian Relations.

Fourth, The Report of the Permanent Committee on Nominations, relating to the Council on Christian Relations.

The Recommendations of a majority (21 members) of our Committee, are as follows: a minority (12 members) will present a minority report.

A. The Report of the Council on Christian Relations

The committee recommends:

1. The adoption of the Report of the Council on Christian Relations (See Appendix, page 221) with its recommendations as amended. The recommendations are as follows:
   (1) That the churches be reminded that the material strength of a nation is not its ultimate strength but rather depends upon its obedience to God's revelation in Jesus Christ; that it is "not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord."
   (2) That adequate military defense, however necessary, remains insufficient as a preventive of war, recognizing that we must find ways and means to alleviate the poverty, fears, humiliations and insecurities of all people if the danger of war is to be met; and that we commend the efforts of our government toward this end.
   (3) That church members be urged to inform themselves and lend their support to the United Nations, and such organizations as are instruments of cooperation and good will in the world according to the Spirit of Christ.
2. Its wide distribution and study among the churches.
3. That the Permanent Committee on Christian Relations in its study of the "alcohol problem" (See report of Council on Christian Relations, Section B, Part I, Recommendation 2, Appendix, Page 226) consult with the Permanent Committee on Christianity and Health.
4. That in dealing with controversial matters the Permanent Committee on Christian Relations be urged to give due consideration to all viewpoints in our Church, so as to avoid dissension and disruption insofar as possible.

B. Recommendations from the Report of the General Council

The Standing Committee recommends the adoption of these recommendations as amended. They are as follows:

1. That the present Council of Christian Relations be replaced by a permanent Committee of Christian Relations.
   a. That this permanent committee shall consist of twelve members elected by the General Assembly according to its rules.
   b. That it present annual recommendations to the General Assembly in the field of Christian relations.
   c. That its expenses be paid by the Office of the General Assembly, as is the case with other permanent committees.
2. That the present Division of Christian Relations within the Board of Church Extension be replaced by an office of Christian Action with a director or secretary within the Board of Christian Education and that this secretary be made an ex officio member of the Permanent Committee on Christian Relations.
   a. The director or secretary of the office of Christian Action shall be elected by and responsible to the Board of Christian Education through its executive secretary, as are the other employees of the Board.
   b. All of the expenses of this office, including the salary of the director or secretary, shall be met by the Board of Christian Education.
   c. The Board of Church Extension shall transfer to the Board of Christian Education such funds as are allocated for the expenses of the Division for the remainder of the church year in which the transfer is made. This shall not include the contemplated costs of the meeting of the Council.
   d. The Office of Christian Action in the Board of Christian Education, through its secretary or director, shall aid and assist the various divisions of the Board in building the ideals of Christian living set forth in the Bible and included in the Standards of the Church as interpreted by the General Assembly, into an educational program of the Church, and to serve the Board in other ways as it may determine.

e. That the above changes be made as soon as the necessary details can be worked out by the boards affected.

In answer to the communication from Rev. Parks Wilson and others, the Committee reports that this "re-alignment" has been recommended after a three-year study originating in the General Council and after consultation with the Council on Christian Relations; that the Council does concur; that the matters of financial support, status, liaison, effective promotion, and proper responsibility are adequately arranged for in the recommendation, as amended; and that, in the judgment of the committee, the recommendation, as amended, is in accord with alternative 2, suggested in their letter.

C. The Overtures

The Committee recommends the overtures be answered as follows:

1. Overture 39, from the Presbytery of Charleston, and overture 40, from the Presbytery of Florida, requesting the removal and separation of the Division of Christian Relations from under the Board of Church Extension, be answered in the affirmative.

2. Overture 41, from the Presbytery of Harmony; 42, from the Presbytery of Central Mississippi; 43, from the Presbytery of Mississippi; 44, from the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa; and 56, from the Presbytery of Pee Dee; all requesting either the dissolution or abolition of the Council on Christian Relations, be answered in the negative.

3. Overture 45, from the Presbytery of Enoree, requesting proper steps by the General Assembly to instruct the Executive Secretaries of the Board to use extreme care and diligence in the selection of speakers and the developing of programs, be answered in the negative. The committee recommends that the General Assembly reaffirm its confidence in the wisdom, discretion and devotion of its Executive Secretaries and the Boards under which they serve.

4. Overture 46, from the Presbytery of Potomac, requesting a restatement of the duties of the minister and the laity and their inter-relation, and suggesting a provision for moral and material support by the General Assembly of ministers involved in difficulties in the matter of racial reconciliation, be answered in the negative. The committee feels that the principles and provisions to be followed in this regard are already clearly stated in the Confession of Faith, Chapter XXII, "Of Christian Liberty and Liberty of Conscience," paragraph IV, page 121 and in the Book of Church Order, Part I, "Form of Church Government," chapter XXV, "The Ordination and Installation of Ministers," paragraph 140, "Questions for Ordination," numbers 6 and 7; and paragraph 141, "Questions to Congregation," Numbers 2, 3, and 4.

5. Overture 47, from the Presbytery of Lexington; Overture 48, from the Presbytery of Potomac; and 49, from the Presbytery of Montgomery, all request from the General Assembly guidance for pastors and sessions faced with a decision on the use of church property and facilities for the establishment of schools, public or private, supported wholely or in part by state or community funds, for the purpose of evading the decision of the Supreme Court that segregation in the public schools on the basis of race is unconstitutional.

These overtures deal in various ways with questions which involve basic principles of Presbyterian belief and polity.

Our Church has traditionally recognized the separation of Church and State, and the responsibility of the Session to determine the use of the property and facilities of the local church.

Chapter XIII, paragraph 60, of the Book of Church Order, affirms the original jurisdiction of the Session over a single church, but also sets forth clearly that the lower courts are subject to the review and control of the higher courts, in regular gradation, and that the Session is not a separate and independent tribunal.

Furthermore, the Confession of Faith, Chapter XXII, "On Christian Liberty and Liberty of Conscience," paragraph 4, page 121-122 (This paragraph will be read by the Chairman).

Therefore, the committee recommends that the General Assembly answer in the negative Overture 47, from the Presbytery of Lexington, asking whether or not it is proper for member churches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to permit the use of their buildings and facilities for schools designed to circumvent the Supreme Court ruling through the maintenance of segregation on the basis of race. In this negative answer, the meaning is that "it is not proper."

The committee further recommends the General Assembly answer in the affirmative, Overture 48, from the Presbytery of Potomac, asking for the recording of opposition to the use of any facilities, owned by a church of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, for the establishment of schools, public or private, supported as a whole or in part, by state or community funds for the purpose of evading the decrees of the Courts of the United States. . . .

The committee recommends that the General Assembly answer in the negative, Overture 49 from the Presbytery of Montgomery, asking if it is in accord with the policies and position of our Church to allow the use of church buildings and facilities . . . to circumvent the decision of the Supreme Court.

D. The Report of the Permanent Committee on Nominations, relating to the Permanent Committee on Christian Relations.

Rev. R. Bruce Brannon, Chairman, presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions which was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND THANKS

The 98th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. has been a long-to-be remembered experience for each commissioner and visitor in attendance. Few realize the vast amount of planning and work that has gone into the preparation for and care of this Assembly. Many have been the hours given by many people to make our stay so pleasant.

To these we express our thanks:

1. To Rev. E. Lee Stoffel, Minister, Rev. W. M. Walsh, Assistant Minister and Mr. J. D. Howell, Jr., Church Director, of the First Presbyterian Church, their officers and all their members for their wise planning and efficient execution of their plans in entertaining this Assembly;

2. To the ministers, Rev. Warner Hall and Rev. Harry Bryan, the officers and members of the Covenant Church who were our hosts for the opening session of the Assembly and for the Reception for the Moderators;

3. To Dean C. J. Pietenpohl, Acting President, members of the faculty and all others at Davidson College who helped to entertain us with the lovely dinner on Saturday evening and for the use of the College Church for that evening's session;

4. To the pastors, officers and members of the Churches of the Charlotte area who have given of themselves so unselfishly in the preparation and serving of the meals, the opening of their pulpits to the commissioners on Sunday and for many other services: (1) Covenant, (2) Myers Park, (3) Steele Creek, (4) Caldwell Memorial,

(5) Trinity, (6) Plaza, (7) Westminster, (8) Avondale, (9) St. Paul, (10) Mulberry, (11) Robinson, (12) Third, (13) Selwyn Avenue, (14) First Church, (15) Mallard Creek Church, and (16) The Students of Queens College;

5. To the Synod of North Carolina and Mecklenburg Presbytery for their assistance in planning and entertaining this Assembly;

6. To Ruling Elders Philip F. Howerton and Jones Y. Pharr, Jr., General Chairmen and their many subcommittee men: Mr. McAlister Carson, Mr. Joseph W. Grier, Jr.; Mr. N. G. Speir, Mr. C. P. Street, Mr. and Mrs. James A. White, Mr. and Mrs. Dolph M. Young, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gray, Mrs. J. W. McLaney, Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dunkin, Mr. and Mrs. S. Cater Ligon, Dr. W. Z. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. T M. Mayfield, Jr.; Mrs. B. S. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Smith, and Mr. E. McA. Currie who have worked so hard in preparation and planning and in carrying through the entertainment of this Assembly so perfectly;

7. To the several choir directors, organists and choir members for the music that has contributed so much to the various programs and sessions;

8. To those who have prepared the beautiful flower arrangements that have graced the sanctuaries, dining halls and other meeting places;

9. To the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, J. B. Ivey & Company, and the Hotel Charlotte for providing meeting rooms for committees and conferences. To the Chamber of Commerce, the Charlotte Police Department, and the American Red Cross for their many thoughtful contributions to our comfort and conveniences;

10. To Johnson C. Smith University for their help in entertaining and housing some of our commissioners;

11. To the S. & W. Cafeteria Organization for the preparation of the excellent meals served during our stay;

12. To the Biltmore Dairy Farms, Charlotte Coca-Cola Bottling Company, Lance, Inc., S. & P. Food Products, A. & P. Food Stores, Harris Super Markets, Hood and Gardner Hotel Supply Corporation, Southern Radio Corporation, and the Dixie News Company for their abundant supplies and services in the refreshment areas and lounges;

13. To our Moderator, Mr. Philip F. Howerton, for his fine direction of our sessions. We shall long remember his gracious manner, his fairness and yet firmness at all times;

14. To our efficient clerks, Rev. E. C. Scott, Stated Clerk and Rev. Archie C. Smith, Assistant Stated Clerk and their excellent staff members, for their gracious services toward the smooth operations of this Assembly;

15. To Mr. Earle W. Southworth, who gave of his time as auditor for the commissioners' expense accounts;

16. To the Chairmen, members and staff members of the Assembly's Boards and Committees for their contributions in both planning and carrying out the programs of our sessions;

17. To the many speakers and others who have appeared on the various programs of the Assembly. Those who have prepared and directed daily worship services, Assembly's Communion Service, and the Morning and Evening Worship Services on Sunday;

18. To the Charlotte Newspapers, the Charlotte Observer, and the Charlotte News. To the television and radio stations of Charlotte, Stations WBT and WBT-TV, WSOC and WSOC-TV and WAYS;

19. Finally, to the fine people of Charlotte led by their Mayor Pro-tem, Mr. Herman Brown, for courtesies too numerous to mention. Everyone has contributed toward making our stay comfortable and happy.

WE THANK EACH AND VERY ONE OF YOU.

We further recommend that the Assembly through its moderator express to the families of Mr. Everett L. Repass and Dr. Hugh Evans our Christian love in the passing of these loved ones. Expressing to them our appreciation for the contributions which these have made to the Church of Christ.

We further recommend that an expression of our Christian love and concern be communicated to Dr. William M. Crowe, Sr., and that we pray God's richest blessings upon him during this time of illness.

Respectfully submitted,

KIRK N. NESBITT
TULLY D. BLAIR
R. BRUCE BRANNON, Chairman

The minutes of the day's sessions were read and approved as amended.

The Assembly was led in a closing worship service by Rev. Oliver Carmichael.

The Moderator made the following pronouncement:

By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, I do now declare that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States is adjourned, to meet in the Druid Hills Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Georgia on April 23, 1959 at 7:30 P. M.

The Choir of the Host Church sang the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah. The benediction was pronounced by the host pastor, Rev. E. Lee Stoffel.

APPENDIX

I. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE OFFICE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly held its two stated meetings during the year. The October meeting was held in Miami, Florida and the January meeting at the Presbyterian Center in Atlanta, Georgia. Both meetings were well attended. The Minutes Book of the Committee has been placed in the hands of the Standing Committee.

Through its sub-committees as provided for in its manual the Committee has reviewed the work of the General Assembly which lies within its purview. The continued growth of the Church and a corresponding increase in the duties and responsibilities of the Office of the General Assembly is noted. Each assignment to the Committee by the General Assembly has been carried out. The following report is respectfully submitted:

Administration

The Office of the General Assembly is under the executive direction of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer. As Stated Clerk his office serves as the secretariat of the Church. As Treasurer he is charged with the responsibility for the receipt and disbursement of funds placed in his hands to meet the cost of the operation of the General Assembly. He serves also as Treasurer of the General Fund and Interchurch Agencies Benevolence Accounts.

The following are the reports of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer which were presented to the Committee at its meeting on January 24, 1958:

Report of Stated Clerk

The usual duties of the office have been performed.

The number of ministers and churches turning to this office for information and counsel continues to increase. It is obvious that there is much need for this type of service and it is rendered fully and promptly.

The Department of Records requires constant attention because of the many changes which take place during the year. Our work is made more difficult because many of these changes are not promptly reported to this office. A list of official changes in address and fields of labor is issued monthly. Copies are sent to all of the Boards and Agencies of the General Assembly. This list is surprisingly large, containing about 100 names, on an average.

We have endeavored for many years to build a file of Minutes of synods and presbyteries. There is need for frequent reference to these Minutes and, therefore, the file is of great value.

The vacancy caused by the retirement of Mrs. T. H. Rogers was filled on July 1 by the coming of Miss Princie Maphet as Secretary to the Stated Clerk and Assistant. Miss Maphet was for six years Registrar of Montreat College and Dean of Business Administration. For several years she has been in charge of the Office of the General Assembly where the important work of typing and mimeographing Standing Committee reports is done. She will continue to render this service. Miss Maphet received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Flora Macdonald College; the Master of Science degree (with a major in Business Education) from the University of North Carolina; is a graduate of the General Assembly's Training School, and studied for two summer sessions at the Bowling Green Business University. We were fortunate in securing such an able and experienced Secretary.

BLUE BOOK AND MINUTES

The Blue Books were mailed to the Commissioners one month before the General Assembly convened. This is the earliest the Book has been mailed.

As directed by the 1956 General Assembly (see page 46 of Minutes) the Minutes for 1957 were published in one volume. The earlier meeting of the General Assembly makes it impossible for us to produce the statistical portion in advance of that meeting.

The Minutes came from the press on July 15 and mailing was completed within a few days. The revision of the statistical report blank caused some confusion but we believe that will not occur this year because everyone handling the forms is more familiar with them.

As directed by the 1957 General Assembly supplementary report blanks were prepared and made available for reporting to Chairmen of Stewardship in Synods and Presbyteries the amounts to each cause in synod and presbytery.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

The supplement to the 1951 Edition, consisting of 104 pages in mimeographed form, mentioned in this report last year, has had a very good sale. A total of 720 copies has been sold. This has been priced at $1.00 per copy. Postage at 25c is added when payment does not accompany the order.

The present status of the finances for the 1951 edition of the Ministerial Directory and Supplement is revealed by the following statement: Number of copies of 1951 edition printed 3,500; supplements 950. Payment received for 2,854 copies of 1951 Edition, leaving about 575 on hand. Condensed statement is as follows:

Balance brought forward, March 31, 1950		$ 392.41
Collections from sales 1950-56 (incl. supplement)		9,623.78
Collections from sales 1957		1,146.46
		$11,162.65
Expenditures, 1950-56	$11,858.89
Expenditures, 1957	596.35	12,455.24
Balance due treasury of the General Assembly		$ 1,292.59

THE MEETING OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Since the Assembly started the holding of its meetings on a self-entertaining basis the duties in administration have increased, bringing added responsibilities to the Office of the General Assembly.

The host church must be counseled with in the matter of an over-all organization on the local church level. This organization having been perfected, each local committee must be briefed regarding its specific duties. The Stated Clerk and Assistant to the Stated Clerk have paid two visits to the First Church, Charlotte, for this purpose and everything looks to be in the process of preparation for a most successful meeting of the 98th General Assembly at The First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, on April 24-29.

This year the matter of displays by the several Boards and Agencies of the Church has been taken under supervision by the office. With the assistance of a committee from the host church and the co-operation of the Department of Publicity of the General Council a co-ordinated project has been worked out. This, in the opinion of many, will be a feature which will make a valid contribution to the success of the annual meeting of the General Assembly.

PROMOTION OF GENERAL FUND AGENCIES

Plans for the promotion of the General Fund call for the preparation of program materials for presentation on the local church level. As per the directive of the Miami meeting of the Committee these materials will be prepared in packet form. Each of the eight Agencies has agreed to furnish a brochure setting forth the nature and scope of its work. These, with a general statement setting forth the claim of the General Fund Agencies, will be enclosed in an attractive pocket folder. They will be mailed about April 15 to the Chairmen of General Fund Agencies of the Women of the Church in the 3,875 churches in our denomination.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SCOTT, Stated Clerk

REPORT OF E. C. SCOTT, TREASURER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

January 1 - December 31, 1957

The balance in the treasury on December 31, 1957 was $27,554.74. This includes $4,390.42, paid in advance on 1958 Presbyterial Assessments. Therefore, the real balance is $23,164.32. The net increase over the balance with which the year was begun is $5,921.37 but there will be unusual expenses during 1958. These will be listed later.

Furthermore, it is necessary that the balance be built up considerably in order to take care of the cost of General Assembly meetings held at a distance from the center of the Church. The change to complete self-entertainment resulted in much greater expense in the 1957 meeting. The 1956 meeting held in Montreat cost $33,737.92. The 1957 meeting in Birmingham, still near the center of our Church, cost $46,293.12, an increase of 37%. Through the generosity of the South Highland Church and the Presbytery of Birmingham, the cost was reduced by their contributions of $5,216.34. The net increase was 21.75% over cost of 1956 meeting. Should the General Assembly meet at a great distance from the center, the cost would be $65,000.00 or more if the General Assembly remains at more than 500 commissioners. Thus, our entire working balance could be wiped out in one year.

It behooves us to do everything possible to conserve the present balance and seek to increase it. One way this can be done is by observing more carefully the Standing Rule for appointment of Ad Interim Committees. It is the opinion of the Stated Clerk that several expensive Ad Interim Committees of the past few years would not have been appointed had the rule been followed.

Upon recommendation of your Treasurer permission was given by the 1955 Assembly for investment of idle funds. $20,000 was deposited in Federal Savings & Loan Associations, January, 1956, and an additional $5,000 on July 1, 1957. On December 31, 1957 these funds had earned $1,569.92. The present rate of interest paid is 4%. On January 10, 1958 an additional $15,000 was deposited, bringing the total to $40,000—$10,000 in each of four Federal Savings & Loan Associations. These funds can be withdrawn at any time, are fully insured by a Federal agency and are now earning $1,600.00 annually.

The budget adopted by the General Assembly for 1957 was $133,950. Your Treasurer is pleased to report that this budget was underspent by $5,105.26.

The General Assembly increased the per capita tax 1c for 1958 (bringing total to 17c) to take care of unusual expenses of the Centennial Committee in 1957 and 1958. Provision must be made by the 1959 Assembly for expenses for the years 1959-1961. When the Centennial Committee has arrived at the amount that will be needed the General Council is charged with the responsibility for recommending the procedure for financing it. (See 1957 General Assembly Minutes, pages 61 and 156.)

The 1957 General Assembly adopted a recommendation of the Ad Interim Committee on Mass Communications (see Minutes, page 155), approving the expenditure of $13,600 by that committee. This is to provide for research and surveys and is in addition to the normal expense of the committee. However, the General Assembly did not make provision for raising this money. The Board of Church Extension agreed to advance funds up to $10,000.00 to this committee with the understanding that the 1958 General Assembly will determine how this money is to be raised so the Board can be reimbursed. Up to the present time the Board has paid $5,000 on a reduced budget of the Ad Interim Committee. Since there is no other source for this money we recommend that this be added to the General Assembly budget.

The 1957 General Assembly directed the Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations "to procure and disseminate good educational material from the National Council of Churches to the churches of our Assembly . . ." Because of this directive an amount must be inserted into the budget to take care of this expense which is estimated to be $2,000.

The Ad Interim Committee on Revision of Book of Church Order, appointed by the 1955 General Assembly, will present to this Assembly the proposed revision of The Form of Government for approval and reference to the Presbyteries. The expense of providing enough copies to supply every member of every presbytery in the General Assembly may exceed $4,500.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of 1958 Budget in the amount of $152,000.

To meet this budget your Treasurer anticipates that the total amount available for 1958 will be about $165,600. This means that our balance will be reduced from $27,554.74 to $13,600. Under these circumstances it will be necessary either to increase the assessment from 17c to 19c or borrow from the bank when we hold our meeting at a point some distance from the center of the Church.

The financial reports as Treasurer of the General Assembly and of the General Fund and Interchurch Agencies follow immediately.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SCOTT, Treasurer

TIME AND PLACE OF NEXT MEETING

The Permanent Committee has accepted on behalf of the General Assembly an invitation from the Druid Hills Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Georgia for its 1959 meeting. The date has been set for April 23rd.

NOMINATION OF A PERSON FOR ELECTION TO BECOME IN 1959 THE STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly will discharge in 1958, after exceedingly thorough and prayerful consideration, a responsibility delegated to it by the General Assembly's Standing Rule 3(1). (See the Assembly's Minutes, 1957, page 199.) The committee will discharge this function by unanimously nominating to the General Assembly the person considered by the committee to be preëminently qualified to become the next Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

Dr. E. C. Scott has been an outstanding Stated Clerk through the past 22 years. During these years he has seen the membership of our church almost double. With remarkably meticulous care and unwavering fidelity, widely admired and appreciated throughout our Church, he has discharged increasingly heavy responsibilities. Understandably, he has made known his intention to retire next year. At his own suggestion, the General Assembly reëlected Dr. Scott in 1957 for only two years. (See the Assembly's Minutes, 1957, page 36.) He will reach the age of retirement on July 24, 1959. His present two-year period of service will terminate during the Assembly's meeting of 1959.

As part of the Permanent Committee's plan for an orderly, efficient transition from the incumbency of Dr. Scott to that of his successor, the committee is proposing that Dr. Scott's present term shall be extended for an appropriate period. The committee regards this extension as being considerate of the best interest of both the men involved and of the work of the office.

The Permanent Committee will make its nomination in 1958 for the following reasons:

(1) No nominee can be expected actually to accept the office until he has been actually elected to it. His election in 1958 will present to him a specific challenge. Moreover, the election will operate, if the person elected should decline the office, to give time for proper consideration of a new nomination to be made by the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly to the Assembly in 1959.

(2) The election of the next Stated Clerk in 1958 will put at ease the considerable uncertainty that exists throughout our Church concerning a choice that must be made. Concern over the matter will not be needlessly protracted. The welfare of our Church as a whole will be promoted, its support of its program enhanced.

(3) The election of the next Stated Clerk in 1958 will provide ample time for the making of personal adjustments on the part of the retiring Stated Clerk, of his successor, and of others concerned. For all parties to the change the path will be smoothed, since each will have time to prepare for it and to make provisions for it.

(4) By calling to its service in 1958 a person who will assume his duties in 1959, the Assembly can, in all probability, attract a man of greater stature to its chief salaried office, since anyone having outstanding qualifications for the office might find himself unable, in the normal course of human affairs, to accept it on short notice in 1959.

(5) The election of the new Stated Clerk in 1958 will give him ample time to consider adequately this call by the General Assembly and will afford him opportunity to ascertain the Lord's will for him and for the Church in the matter.

Naturally, the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly has reviewed and evaluated anew the principles and many practical problems that are involved in the work of the Stated Clerk. The committee's search for a nominee began with special reconsideration of the nature of the office and of the qualifications to be sought.

The Permanent Committee has learned from experience that no adequate summary of the duties of the office can be written in brief compass. The committee believes, however, that the following, much-condensed digest is sufficient to point to the importance of the position and to the increasing opportunity for service that it affords.

The General Assembly of 1949, in adopting the reorganization that is still in effect, looked forward to a continuing expansion in the functions of the Stated Clerk. It urged further development of the scope of the Stated Clerk's services along lines that have been pursued in recent years; an enlargement of his services in correlating the work of the Assembly with synods, presbyteries and sessions through the medium of his accepting invitations to meet with those courts and to interpret to them the increased mutual understanding and more effective coöperation our Church seeks; expansion of the service of the Stated Clerk as an official representative of our Church in various regional, interdenominational and other gatherings when our Church can be better represented by a competent official having experience and continuity than by the Moderator or some similar fraternal delegate having only a temporary capacity; and further enlargement of the Stated Clerk's services as the center of reference for any individual, group or court within our Church or in the secular world having occasion to make inquiries concerning our Church's organization, program, procedures, rules, overtures and the like.

The Stated Clerk has many constitutional and parliamentary functions. These are largely based upon and outlined in the General Assembly's Standing Rules. Historically rooted in the reformed system of church government, they remain basically important today. They need little modification. However, the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly intends to recommend two changes in Standing Rule 3(1)(d). One will propose that the Stated Clerk shall no longer be an ex officio member of the Assembly's Permanent Judicial Committee, since it seems wiser for the members of that agency to be completely detached from all other responsibilities in our Church and thus to be enabled to approach critical judicial issues with complete objectivity. The other intended proposal will suggest that the Stated Clerk shall be an advisory member rather than a member of the Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His Work.

The Stated Clerk's constitutional and parliamentary duties indicate that he should possess to an outstanding degree thorough, scholarly and practical knowledge of our Presbyterian constitution, heritage and views and, in particular, of our own Church's development, program and procedures. To this knowledge should be added a judicial temperament and a capacity for painstaking carefulness in attention to matters of both principle and detail.

It is in the nature of the office that the Stated Clerk, as the only salaried, full-time officer of the General Assembly, inevitably personifies, in the best sense of the term, our Church to some within its ranks and to many outside its membership. Much opportunity exists for his services as such a representative of our Church to promote its internal unity and to enhance its stature in the Christian fellowship at large. The Stated Clerk has an incalculably vital role in public relations, both internally and externally. He can be our most cohesive personality and our only spokesman who can interpret our Church with the advantage of continuity in office.

His qualifications, therefore, must include consummate tact combined with rigid adherence to principle and firm fairness, the discernment to speak of and to our Church but not for it, superior gifts as a public speaker upon both religious and secular occasions, unfailing congeniality and friendliness, and a basic respect for the democratic decisions of the Presbyterian system that he represents.

Finally, a third aspect of the duties of the Stated Clerk is that of the chief executive of the headquarters office of our Church. As such, he deals by mail and in conference with hundreds of others, receives and distributes roughly three-quarters of a million dollars annually, directs the work of the office staff, and is responsible for publishing at least two volumes annually of vital importance to every branch and cause of our church.

The Stated Clerk should, therefore, have a technical knowledge of authorship, editing, printing and publishing; a full understanding of the value of warmth coupled with sagacity in correspondence; the capacity to choose wisely his office personnel, to win their loyalty and to inspire their most effective assistance; a talent for knowing when to delegate responsibility and how best to supervise the results; and a willingness to utilize coöperatively and constructively the supervisory function of the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly and all other available sources of information as to the most efficient methods in office management.

In the light of considerations much more explicitly reviewed and defined than this digest reveals, and in the light of both volunteered and solicited counsel that has come from every area of our Church, the Permanent Committee submits its nomination after a thorough canvass and most careful consideration. The committee has come unanimously to the conclusion that one person stands out distinctly as being highly qualified to serve our Church as the next Stated Clerk of the General Assembly. This one is Dr. James A. Millard, Jr. The Permanent Committee nominates him without his consent, for he has not sought the office, but with confidence that Dr. Millard will give this call by the General Assembly his most careful and prayerful consideration. All of us can with assurance leave the decision to be made by Dr. Millard under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Born in Bristol, Tennessee, forty-six years ago, Dr. Millard is the son of a Christian businessman who for decades has served as a Ruling Elder in Presbyterian congregations, struggling or well-established, in the Synods of Appalachia and Virginia. Alert and active despite their advanced years, both of the honored parents have now been settled for some time as members of the Ginter Park Presbyterian Church in Richmond, Virginia.

Dr. Millard attended Hampden-Sydney College, the first institution of higher learning to be established by any presbytery or synod in our Church. There he was a recognized leader in extra-curricular activities, especially those involving student publications and campus Christian life. He graduated in 1932 with a Bachelor of Arts degree and the second highest scholastic rank in his class.

Then he attended Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, the oldest of our seminaries. It awarded him the Bachelor of Divinity degree and also, in recognition of his next-to-the-highest academic record in his class, the Charles D. Larus Fellowship. As a graduate student, he wrote a thesis comparing and contrasting the views of a non-Presbyterian theologian and of our Church in regard to the purpose of the work of Christ.

After receiving the Master of Theology degree in 1936, this young minister entered pastoral service. In that capacity he served for 16 years; and in those years he gained rich experience. First there was a pastorate in the small-town and rural environments of Emporia, Virginia, and neighboring communities, then the urban pastorate of the Prytania Street Presbyterian Church in New Orleans, Louisiana, and finally his pastorate among local and transient people in the resort center of Hot Springs, Arkansas. New Orleans Presbytery elected him its Stated Clerk, and he discharged the duties of that office ably during the year or two before his removal to another presbytery caused the termination of that service. Arkansas College awarded him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1952.

Meanwhile, Dr. Millard had continued his postgraduate studies. In partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Theology, which he received from Union Seminary in 1944, he wrote an unusual essay of more than 130 typewritten pages entitled "Toward a Personal Philosophy of History." Furthermore, he compiled as his doctoral thesis a classified enumeration and condensation of all the thousands of actions of our General Assembly through its first 82 years that "are of permanent authority." These quotations and paraphrased references, together with perceptive editorial notes, he arranged under such significant topics as those suggested directly by the pattern of organization in our Book of Church Order. These topics were: the Confession of Faith, the Form of Government, the Rules of Discipline, the Directory for Worship, the Rules of Parliamentary Order, Judicial Cases, our Relations with Other Bodies, and the Agencies of the Church.

This painstaking labor of scholarship could not have been more timely. No similar compilation had been published since that of a former Stated Clerk of the General Assembly had appeared in 1922. The Assembly of 1941 received an overture from Dallas Presbytery requesting that it should provide for the issuance of such an up-to-date work of reference badly needed throughout our Church. The Assembly appointed an ad interim committee to consider the matter. It found that Dr. Scott, too, had long recognized the need but had not been able to spare time from his many duties to fill the void. When James A. Millard, Jr., offered to make freely available the material he had assembled, it was officially published by our Church in 1945 under Dr. Scott's editorship as A Digest of the Acts and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, 1861-1944. The book consists of more than 500 closely-printed pages. It remains to this day the one outstanding, most useful work of reference other than our Book of Church Order itself to all who are confronted with vexing questions concerning our standards and procedures.

Dr. Millard's talent in this specialized field of knowledge has also been utilized by our Church in other connections. As a member of the Assembly's Permanent Judicial Committee whose term expired in 1957, he became intimately acquainted with the distinctive problems that he would face when, as the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, it might become his duty to refer questions to that agency and to prepare any materials for its consideration. And when the General Assembly of 1955 created an ad interim committee to make within three to five years a thoroughgoing study and proposed revision of our Book of Church Order, it was logical indeed that Dr. Millard should become one of the six members of that committee. His scholarly and practical qualifications for that service have been publicly recognized in reports to the Stated Clerks' Association and to the General Assembly. (See the Assembly's Minutes, 1957, page 147.)

Significant is it that in three of these biographical facts we find that Dr. Millard has been associated with Dr. Scott. Their mutual interests, beginning when publication of the Digest was under consideration, have spanned more than 15 years.

During the most recent of these years Dr. Millard has sought to serve his Master in non-pastoral capacities. These seem to have served to round out his experience, Providentially, as if to complete unwittingly his preparation for service as Dr. Scott's successor. From the pastorate of the Hot Springs Presbyterian Church he was called by Austin Theological Seminary six years ago. For half of these years, as Director of Field Work, he has developed his executive and administrative ability in arranging and supervising the practical or clinical aspect of the education of hundreds of future pastors and other Christian workers. Continuing his personal studies even in secular universities, he has virtually completed the requirements for a Master's degree in Speech. As Professor of Homiletics in Austin Seminary through the past three years, he has offered courses in the principles and history of preaching, a seminar in evangelism, and a comparative study of contemporary sects. Among others, his course on Pulpit Speech and Worship is required of all students in the seminary; and his course on our Church Program and Presbyterian Polity is required of all Presbyterian students in the seminary.

Dr. Millard's personal associations through residence and service have been with five of our synods. His marriage in 1937 to a Mississippian accounts for a natural interest on his part in a sixth Synod. Indicative of the wide recognition of his preëminent qualifications for the Stated Clerkship is the fact that the first suggestion made to the Permanent Committee that it should consider Dr. Millard came from a minister whose associations have been almost exclusively with three others of our Synods. Dr. Millard's friendships and influence extend throughout our whole Church; equally widespread is respect for his learning, his personality, his capacity for leadership, and his utter commitment of his life in service to the Christian cause through the medium of our Presbyterian system.

II. REPORT ON THE PRESBYTERIAN FOUNDATION, INC., OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

Brethren:

I present to you herewith my first report on the work of The Presbyterian Foundation. I am impressed with it as an opportunity for a significant service to the entire program of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. I have undertaken this work as a Call of God and look forward confidently to the development and growth of this the oldest agency of our Assembly.

The prospects for the Foundation seem to me encouraging. Such agencies in our sister denominations are experiencing an unprecedented growth in the field which we represent. Both the economic prosperity of our people and the tax structure of our country combine to make the Foundation timely. Even more encouraging is the growing recognition on the part of Christian people in all Protestant bodies of the Christian idea and ideal of stewardship. The Foundation represents a very important segment in this area of the Church's life. It deals chiefly with the stewardship of accumulated possessions. An increasing number of people are making wills; meanwhile the idea of a Christian will is taking hold of the consciences of our members.

The St. Louis Union Trust Company of St. Louis, Missouri, stated in its publication of September 1957 in an article "Why Charitable Contributions are Increasing" that "There has been an increase in charitable institution contributions by both individuals and corporations". They give three reasons. They are as follows: "One, there is a growing conviction among individuals and corporations that educational institutions, religious and other charitable organizations are the bulwark of democracy and the independent way of life in this country; second, there are more people who have a good or reasonably high standard of living and who are able and willing to help others; and, third, the Federal Government encourages such contributions by allowing certain tax deductions." They add, "In many cases gifts are made in property instead of in cash. In these cases the amount of the gift is the fair market value of the property at the time it is transferred. (Here again, if the gift is made in listed stocks or bonds, there is no question about the value—it being the average of the high and low of the market on the date the gift was made. On the other hand, if such a gift is a work of art, a piece of real estate, or property without an established value, it is usually wise to establish the value of the gift by an independent appraisal prior to the transfer.) In many instances there is a definite advantage in making a charitable contribution in property rather than in cash."

They conclude: "Philanthropic institutions have become firmly entrenched as an integral part of this country's way of life. In this period of high costs and inflation, such organizations depend heavily upon both individuals and corporation contributions to carry on their worthy and needed work in this divided world. — — — If a substantial gift or series of gifts is contemplated, the possibilities and advantages that may be available should be considered or reviewed by an experienced attorney."

It would appear to me that our primary task is the cultivation of this phase of stewardship throughout our denomination, and the publicizing of the Foundation as a service agency of the Church for receiving, investing, and distributing to the various agencies and institutions the bequests and gifts of our people. Emphasis must be placed on adequate information of our ministers and church officers and laymen regarding the existence and service of The Presbyterian Foundation. The number of those who do not even know of its existence or its function challenges us to extensive, well planned publicity. In the briefest time possible, we must make the people of our entire Church aware of the existence and service of this agency.

During the past four months we have prepared the brochure entitled "An Announcement" which sets forth the essential facts about the basic purposes and procedures of the Foundation. This brochure has been mailed to approximately 3,400 ministers in our Assembly, to all the lay members of our Church Boards, and to some 1,400 trust officers in the banks within the states encompassed by The Presbyterian Church, U.S. Meanwhile, the Women of the Church have been alerted through the channels of their organization and have requested a wide mailing to their representatives throughout our bounds.

Dissolution of The North Carolina Foundation

Several years ago the Synod of North Carolina created a Foundation having as its immediate purpose the administration of certain bequests it would be called upon to handle in the near future. When the functions of our denomination's Foundation were brought to their attention this past spring, they expressed willingness to a consideration by the Synod of North Carolina of the dissolution of its Foundation in favor of our agency. The matter was brought duly to the attention of the Synod at its meeting in Montreat in June and unanimous approval was given by the Synod to the dissolution of the North Carolina Foundation.

One of the immediate effects of the dissolution of the North Carolina Foundation was to enable us to proceed to the effecting of a change in name and the securing of the approval of the incorporating authorities in Raleigh, North Carolina to the briefer title of The Presbyterian Foundation, Inc. (U.S.). It will be recalled that the name up to this year has been the "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and Presbyterian Foundation, Inc." The General Assembly at its meeting in Birmingham had earlier given its approval to some such abbreviated name as the Trustees would propose. It had been doubtful whether the State of North Carolina would have been willing to grant us our present title had the Synod's Foundation, with its very similar name, continued in existence.

Report is made herewith regarding several bequests and gifts which have been handled within the past few months.

A. Calvin T. Young Estate. During the early part of January checks totaling $57,182.96 were mailed to the Board of World Missions, the Board of Christian Education, the Board of Annuities and Relief, and to the Home Missions Committees of the Presbyteries of St. Johns, Westminster and Everglades in Florida, as designated by Dr. Calvin Young in his will. These checks represented the income earned by the executor during the period of administration and the income earned by The Presbyterian Foundation for the year 1956. Checks were also sent to the same agencies during January for the income earned by The Presbyterian Foundation on this bequest in the year 1957.

It will be of interest to the members of the Church to know that this Estate is now completely settled and that henceforth distribution on the entire bequest can be made regularly.

A word is in order regarding the excellent service rendered by Mr. John Cansler as our attorney in the final settlement of this bequest. Such settlement has required not only wisdom but time and patience.

B. Estate of Mrs. Maude B. Hope of Shelbyville, Kentucky. This estate represented a total of $14,755.95. There was some confusion growing out of the assignment of this bequest to "The Presbyterian Church". The local church in Shelbyville, Kentucky assumed that it was meant for their handling. Due to the tactful efforts of our attorney, they were led to see that the beneficiaries of the will would clearly indicate that the distribution was the Foundation's function. They were satisfied thereafter to receive the amount of the estate to be passed directly to the Foundation. Late in December each of the following agencies of the Church received gifts of $2,886.43: Board of World Missions, Board of Church Extension, Board of Christian Education, Board of Annuities and Relief, and Student Loan Funds (through Board of Christian Education).

C. The Nelson Harris Lewis Memorial Scholarship. The following persons have been responsible for setting up the Nelson Harris Lewis Memorial Scholarship: Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Lucy Talman Harris, Mr. Fred N. Harris, Mr. Samuel D. Harris, Mr. William O. Harris, Jr., Mrs. William Massie, Mrs. Quintus Massie, Mrs. Percy Holladay, Mrs. Alfred Boand, Mrs. John M. Alexander, Mrs. J. C. Edens, Sr., Mr. James M. Holladay. These persons were the heirs of Mrs. Victoria Harris Lewis and have elected to give their portion of her estate to establish a trust fund for the education of graduates of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home in Lynchburg, Virginia. Nelson Harris Lewis was the son and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rodman Lewis. This young man died at the age of 19 years. These relatives have elected to set up this trust in accordance with the expressed wishes of the mother, Mrs. Victoria Harris Lewis. The fund which was turned to the Foundation in November 1957 is to be invested and held in perpetuity. Properly constituted authorities of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home of Lynchburg, Virginia shall select the young man or woman to receive the scholarship from time to time. It is the wish of the donors that the individual receiving the scholarship shall be a Caucasion of good character, high scholastic standing, ambitious and desirous of receiving a college education. The total amount represented in this grant is $17,512.27.

D. W. F. Martin Estate. Mr. W. F. Martin, a Deacon in the First Presbyterian Church of Grenada, Mississippi (a close personal friend when I served as his Pastor from 1919-1923), bequeathed to the Foundation as his residuary legatee the sum of $6,121.64 for the furtherance of Sunday School extension of the First Presbyterian Church, Grenada, Mississippi.

E. Gift of the Reverend W. S. Patterson, formerly of Davidson, North Carolina, now residing in the Presbyterian Home, Inc., High Point, North Carolina. Mr. Patterson is making a gift of his home in Davidson to the Foundation to be sold to the Davidson Methodist Church for $11,000.00, and the income to be sent through the Board of World Missions to a particular mission in Korea.

F. A gift from Mr. Fred W. Colby of Signal Mountain, Tennessee of stock which was sold for $581.90 and sent as he designated: King College Endowment Fund—$100.00; Dr. D. R. Greenhoe, Wayside Presbyterian Church for the Presbyterian Youth Camp—$52.00; and the Reverend Turney B. Roddy, Wayside Presbyterian Church—$429.90.

G. During the year 1958 the Foundation will be engaged in the final settlement of the will of Mr. Bradford Noyes (the father of Mrs. John D. Preston) of Charleston, West Virginia. Rough estimates would indicate this bequest to represent in excess of $100,000.00. Income is designated to be used for scholarships.

Several prospects for sizable bequests and gifts are under consideration. One estate representing upwards of $100,000.00 has been written into the will of an elderly Presbyterian couple as a bequest to the Foundation. A considerably larger estate has been discussed on the initiative of the prospective donor to be given in its entirety to the Foundation. A third prospect is under cultivation for either an outright gift or a bequest to the Foundation.

Permanent Offices

Since February 1st the offices of the Foundation have been permanently located in the new Wachovia Bank Building at the corner of West Trade and Church Streets, diagonally across West Trade Street from the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, North Carolina. The Foundation is indebted to the pastor and officers of the First Presbyterian Church for their hospitality and generous assistance in providing temporary offices from September 1, 1957 to February 1, 1958.

Additional Trustees

At its 1957 meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, the General Assembly gave authorization for the increase in the number of Trustees of the Foundation from nine to eighteen. It is assumed that this additional number can and will be elected at the forthcoming meeting of the Assembly in Charlotte if nominations are presented at that time. Since the prevailing number of the present Board of Trustees are situated in the North Carolina area, it is important that some persons carefully chosen to represent the entire scope of the Assembly should be added.

It is with genuine satisfaction that I am able to report that the responsible position of Secretary in the Foundation offices is being filled by Miss Betty Hutchison of Charlotte. Miss Hutchison is a member of the Covenant Church and a graduate of Duke University. For a number of years she was secretary at the Myers Park Presbyterian Church. She has a wide acquaintance with the leaders of the denomination and with the work of the various institutions and boards of our denomination. She is a valuable asset to the total program of the Foundation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. CUNNINGHAM, Executive Director

III. 1957 ANNUAL REPORT OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S TRAINING SCHOOL

ENROLLMENT INCREASE

The Training School is glad to be able to report an increase in enrollment for the school year 1957-58. In view of the ever growing need for trained lay workers in the home Church and on the world mission fields this is most encouraging. The entering class with 70 members is 19% larger than the entering class last year. The total number of students enrolled, 112, represents a 13% increase over last year. This increase in enrollment compares favorably with the 6.4% increase in enrollment listed by the United States Office of Education for all types of higher education institutions, including two-year, technical, and part-time students. The students this year at the Training School come from every synod in our church, from five additional states and from seven foreign countries.

ADDITIONAL ROOMS FOR STUDENTS

With the completion, during the year 1957, of a new residence building 41 additional student spaces have been provided. The first floor of the new residence buildings contains 4 apartments for single members of the faculty, two guest rooms and two reception parlors. The second floor provides rooms for 24 students. This is a three-story building. The third floor awaits completion until finances are available for this purpose.

VIRGINIA HALL MEN'S DORMITORY

The second floor of Virginia Hall, formerly used as apartments for faculty members, now provides dormitory space so that men students of the Training School can live on the campus.

APARTMENTS FOR MARRIED STUDENTS

The new arrangement and additional rooms provided now make it possible for the school to provide a limited number of apartments for married students. There are at present enrolled in the Training School five married students living with their families in housing provided by the school.

NURSERY, KINDERGARTEN, AND CHILDREN'S WORK

For persons seeking to prepare for service in a weekday church kindergarten or in other types of work with children, the Training School provides the following opportunities:

1. Observation in a demonstration kindergarten
2. Student teaching
3. Class room work

The demonstration kindergarten is conducted for the children enrolled, to provide the very best experiences for growth and development for twenty-five four and five year olds, for parents and for students of A.T.S. in training. A monthly fee is charged the parents of the children enrolled. This school is conducted in an adequate building, which was completed and put into use in February of this year and is splendidly equipped. The work is under the supervision of two full-time workers, one a highly trained kindergarten director, and the other a full-time fellowship assistant. Student teachers also assist.

FOR USE BY THE WHOLE CHURCH

The Kindergarten Program, in addition to its primary purpose of childhood development, and its function in training future leaders of children also provides observation opportunities for groups of people throughout the Church who seek to improve their effectiveness as workers with children. The observation booth, which accommodates twenty persons, is separated from the play room by one-way vision glass. The electronics system with individual ear phones enables viewers to hear as well as see. A further function of the program is that it makes available to church committees wishing to establish a weekday kindergarten an opportunity to examine equipment, and to observe the actual operation of such a kindergarten. These committees may come for study and conference by appointment. During the first four months over 1100 visitors came from 25 states, 18 foreign countries, 246 communities.

CHURCH RECREATION AND CAMPING

In response to a widespread expression of need for such preparation the Training School has secured the services of Mr. Glenn Bannerman in the field of recreation. The work offered in this field includes play activities for children, folk games, songs, church party planning and church camping.

SOCIAL WORK

The Board of Trustees of the Training School has approved a cooperative program in collaboration with the School of Social Work of Richmond Professional Institute of the College of William and Mary which makes it possible for a student to receive the degree of Master of Christian Education from the Training School and the certificate in social work from RPI. This program offers new opportunities for those who are interested in the field of social work. It has been developed in response to a request from the superintendents of children's homes in the Presbyterian Church, U.S., who need personnel with such combination training.

AGRICULTURAL MISSIONARY

This year the Training School has enrolled a student who plans to go to the world mission field as an agricultural missionary. This opens another challenging field of service. The student enrolled this year has completed his preparation in agriculture at the University of Florida and plans to spend one year at ATS before going to his work.

PLACEMENT OF GRADUATES

The greatest need for graduates of the Training School numerically speaking continues to be for Directors of Christian Education. This is the service which the majority of students choose year after year. In spite of the difficulties which grow out of the fact that the need for workers is so much greater than the supply, the school makes every effort to be of the most possible help to churches seeking workers. Every request which comes to the school is placed before the students. This is done shortly after the students return from the Christmas holidays each year.

FIELDS OF SERVICE FOR CLASS OF 1957

Thirty-six students received degrees from the Training School in May 1957. In addition to these nine others completed their work and went out to fields of service. (Some students, as is the case with those doing specialized work on the world mission fields, come for only one year.) These forty-five went out to serve as follows:

Director of Christian Education	20	Student Work	1
World Mission Fields and Other Countries	7	Bible Teaching	2
Minister of Education	1	Denominational Boards	3
Children's Work	2	Public School Teaching	4
Youth Work	1	College Teaching	1
Adult Work	1	Further Study	1
		Not yet placed	1

NEW MEMBERS OF FACULTY AND STAFF

Miss Neva Delgado of Tampa, Florida, came to the Training School on September 1, 1957, to serve as field representative with duties in the area of enlistment and public relations. Miss Delgado is a graduate of Florida State University and received the M.R.E. degree from the Training School. Since her graduation she has served as Director of Christian Education in the Palma Ceia Presbyterian Church, Tampa, and, since 1954, as Director of Christian Education in the First Presbyterian Church of Columbus, Georgia. She is a past president of the Presbyterian Association of Directors of Christian Education.

Dr. William B. Kennedy of Spartanburg, South Carolina, and a recent addition to the faculty of Union Theological Seminary, succeeding Dr. W. T. Thompson as Professor of Christian Education, is teaching courses in children's work and is directing the field work of students working with children. Dr. Kennedy is a graduate of Wofford College, and has an M.A. degree from Duke and a B.D. degree from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond. For the past three years he has been taking work at Yale leading to the Ph.D. degree.

Mr. Glenn Bannerman of Hopewell, Virginia, is teaching recreation at the Training School and is also assisting in the recreation program of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Richmond. Mr. Bannerman has a B.S. degree in recreation from Richmond Professional Institute, and has had experience in city recreational programs. For the past two years he has studied at the Training School. He is continuing that study this year.

Miss Margaret Smith of Atlanta, Georgia, with a B.S. degree in elementary education from Queens College, Charlotte, North Carolina, is serving as fellowship assistant to Miss Josephine Newbury, director of the Demonstration Kindergarten recently opened at the Training School.

VISITING FACULTY

Dr. Lawrence G. Calhoun of Brazil, a missionary of our church, taught the course "Introduction to Christian Missions" during the spring quarter of the 1956-57 session. Dr. and Mrs. Calhoun and their son lived in the dormitory during this period.

FACULTY STUDY

Miss Sara Little, Director of Field Work and Assistant Professor of Religious Education, is completing her residence work at Yale leading toward the Ph.D. degree in Christian Education.

Miss Josephine Newbury, Director of Demonstration Kindergarten, received her M.A. degree from George Peabody College for teachers this summer.

Miss Rachel Henderlite is working with the Board of Christian Education in the Department of Curriculum.

ATS SPONSORS

The ATSS is a group made up of men and women from all over our denomination who have expressed a willingness to assist in the work of the Training School in a special way. The SPONSORS' Group meets once a year at the school and selects a special project for the year.

For 1957 the SPONSORS' Project is to furnish lounges and guest rooms, a kitchen and a laundry room in the new building. The estimated cost is $4,400.

At the present time there are over two thousand members of the SPONSORS' Group.

GRATITUDE

It is with humble thanks to God for His blessings that we bring another year to its close. We are grateful to all the churches of the General Assembly for contributing to the support of this task of preparing workers for the harvest field here at home and unto the uttermost parts of the earth. The Assembly's Training School is one of the General Fund Agencies of our Church and receives its largest support through that channel.

FINANCIAL AID FOR STUDENTS

Each year it is necessary for the school to secure $20,000 to $25,000 in funds for gift and work scholarships. Many of those who are called to full-time church vocations and are qualified to receive the training are not able to finance their courses. We are deeply grateful to the individuals and groups in the church who have helped to meet this need.

THE FUTURE

The Board of Trustees, faculty and administration of the Training School are giving much attention at this time to making plans for the Training School's continued service to the Church. An effort is made to keep in close contact with the work of the Church on the local, presbytery, synod and Assembly-wide level. It is our aim, insofar as possible, to anticipate and plan for the demands of the future before they actually are upon us. It is our aim to "serve the present age" always exercising caution lest we be led off into educational fads or ecclesiastical panaceas. The faculty and administration of the school are at this time looking at the work of the school in light of the study recently completed and reported by Dr. Richard Neibuhr in Mid-Century Study of Theological Education. The Board met for two days at its annual session in November in order to review the work of the school, plan for the future, and give special study of the report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Lay Workers. The members of the Board met first as committees appointed to give attention to specific matters of planning and policy which were then discussed before the Board as a whole.

Among others matters, a study was begun of the Training School's responsibility for in-service training of lay workers. Special attention will be given to the matter of whether or not there is need for the Training School to begin summer sessions.

IV. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF STILLMAN COLLEGE

I. LARGEST ENROLLMENT IN HISTORY

Stillman began its 82nd year of service to our Church in September, with the largest enrollment of college students (exclusively) that the school has ever had. A total of 364 were registered at the opening and while some have fallen by the wayside, registration of new students in the second quarter has kept the student body at that figure.

Of this number, 155 are freshmen, and 32 come from the State of Georgia, this State now ranking second to Alabama in representation according to States. The spirit and behavior of our students is commendable!

In 1958-59, we expect to have four or five of our graduates in leading seminaries which, after graduation, will help to fill the many openings that the growth of our Church's work with the Negro has brought about. All of these will be our Church's own trained men and they should become strong leaders.

II. FACULTY

1. Additions. Several additions to our faculty should be mentioned: Mr. James J. Franklin, formerly instructor at Auburn and lately, Associate curator of the Brooklyn Botanic Gardens. Mr. Franklin came to us at great financial sacrifice and is making a real contribution in the field of science.

Mr. Harold Buchanan, graduate of Fisk and graduate student of Tennessee A & I University, has been added to our Department of Business.

The Reverend Davis Yeuell, recently minister of our Church in Montevallo, Alabama, where he served on the faculty of Alabama College, and was minister to Presbyterian students there, is now Chaplain, Director of Campus Christian Life Activities and a Bible instructor. (Dr. Myrtle Williamson, who has served so wonderfully as Director of Campus Christian Activities, will devote her full time to teaching Bible). With such a staff in Bible, we believe that this Department ranks favorably with the best in any undergraduate college.

2. Faculty Training. Through the generosity of an esteemed Foundation, which is most friendly to our Church, five of our faculty have been enrolled the entire year, and including the past summer, in leading graduate schools working toward their doctorates. This same Foundation has also offered a grant for this purpose for the year 1958-59, provided that we match said grant dollar for dollar. In a few years, at this rate, we shall have a doctorate over each Department which is the full requirement of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It is also our policy to choose the best of our graduates (save the ministerial candidates) and send them to graduate schools for the purpose of strengthening our faculty in years to come. The Division of Higher Education of our Church has also generously assisted our faculty in this matter.

3. Faculty Housing. Another provision to attract and retain strong faculty members, is our Faculty Housing Program. A plot of ground on the edge of and yet close to the main part of our campus, is being developed into a Faculty sub-division. Lots are sold at a reasonable price, and the College is helping members build attractive houses thereon. This sub-division is limited to Faculty, and the College has an option to buy the property in the event that the owner should desire to leave the employ of the College.

III. ACCREDITATION STATUS

In 1953 we were put on the approved list of Colleges by the Southern Association. This was the equivalent of accreditation, though no college for Negroes was technically accredited. Last December, fifteen of these colleges were admitted into full membership in the Association. They were strong and established colleges that met the full requirements of the Association. While not among these fifteen, our College was the next thing to it, having been placed in a group of eight colleges "retained on the approved list without notation," with the encouragement that we will probably be admitted into full membership at the next meeting of the Association.

When we consider that we have been a senior college only since 1951, we are greatly encouraged at this evidence of progress made.

IV. FINANCES

You will see by our financial report which later follows, that we were able to finish the year without deficit in current operations. This was made possible by the increased support of the churches and by income from endowment.

We call attention to the fact that our endowment including our equity in the Bellingrath-Morse Foundation (capitalized at 4% of its income) is now over one million dollars. While this is a good start, we believe that it is the part of good church statesmanship to increase the endowment of this particular kind of college to several times that amount.

The Board of Trustees has ordered that any surplus above our operating expenses be placed into a development fund, which, when grown large enough, will help to provide some desperately needed additional facilities.

V. WILLS, LEGACIES AND FOUNDATIONS

During the past year, we received $5,000 from the will of the late beloved Chairman of our Board of Trustees, Mr. Robert L. Peters, Sr., of Kingsport, Tennessee. The Executor of his estate informs us that there is more to come. We are grateful to this great servant of the Church.

We are also mindful of other blessings that have come to Stillman by legacy, namely, 1) that of Charles and Betty Birthright, born slaves, who were able to and did leave this College two fine cotton farms, the income from which has averaged over five thousand dollars per year, and 2) the Bellingrath-Morse Foundation of Mobile, Alabama. The College was written into this Foundation by the late Mr. Walter D. Bellingrath. Last year $11,828.58 income came to the College from this Foundation.

We most heartily endorse the endeavor that is being launched by the Division of Higher Education of the Board of Education to encourage Presbyterians to write our Church colleges into their wills, and we pray that many will be led to remember Stillman in this way. Our needs are so great. What rich Kingdom dividends an investment of this kind will pay throughout time and eternity!

VI. NEEDED ADDITIONAL FACILITIES

1. Administration-Classroom-Auditorium Building—$200,000.00 plus.—The space used by our offices could provide residence for 25 women students. It was given to the College for that purpose. We need additional classrooms, so as to release rooms in the Library Building needed for the ever-growing collection of books there. We need an auditorium which will seat 500 to be used for assemblies, chapel programs, etc.

2. Additional Boiler—$15,000.00.—When our present boiler was installed, it was expected that an auxiliary one would later be installed next to it and tied in to it. Should anything go wrong with the present boiler during cold weather, we would have to dismiss college. We are hoping that the surplus over operating expenses for the College Year 1957-58 will be sufficient for us to proceed with the installation of the additional boiler.

3. Paving $10,000.00.—It is poor economy to have our lovely buildings injured by clouds of dust and the floors on which we spend so much time and money maintaining, hurt by mud. We desperately need literally to get out of the mud and dust.

4. Pre-School Laboratory—$75,000.00-$100,000.00.—For many years it has been our dream to establish a course for the training of church-connected kindergarten and nursery school teachers. We are convinced that such a service would be of inestimable value from the standpoint of church strategy. The first step in establishing a church in a community could be the starting of such a school. Such schools also provide a definite opportunity for adult education, particularly in child care and in the Christian home. We believe that the kind of thing we have in mind with the church connected emphasis, would be unique among colleges for Negroes. We covet the privilege of building a modern laboratory for this purpose on our campus, so that it could become a pattern for other colleges and churches.

We feel that a project of this kind would be an asset to our Church and to the Kingdom. We also believe that the spread of schools of this kind would make a definite contribution toward lessening the alarming and increasing juvenile delinquency.

We estimate the cost to be the above mentioned figure; the larger part of which would be for the building and the remainder as endowment for its maintenance.

VII. NAMING OF BUILDINGS

At the 1957 Spring Meeting of the Board, the following names were given our unnamed buildings: The new women's dormitory Administration building, Geneva Hall; The new men's dormitory, John Knox Hall; and the Cafeteria-Student Store, The Union Building. One can see that with such names as Geneva, Knox, and Winsborough and Sheppard, we are very Presbyterian!

VIII. GRANTS FROM FOUNDATIONS

We are grateful to the Foundations that have assisted us in our work and encouraged us greatly this year:

V. REPORT OF THE MOUNTAIN RETREAT ASSOCIATION TO THE 1958 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Minutes of the meetings of the Trustees and of the Board of Directors of the Mountain Retreat Association are submitted herewith. A copy of the report of the Certified Public Accountant who audited the financial records for the calendar year 1957 is also submitted.

1. CONFERENCES:

The usual number of conferences were held both during the regular season and from time to time during the year. In all, there were 26 different conferences entertained in Montreat last year. Montreat accommodated 35,000 visitors during the year. Among these were 1,800 children and young persons who participated in the program of recreation and religion planned for them and 4,000 older young people who shared in the advantages of Montreat. Our Church is indeed fortunate to have a Montreat where these future citizens can come apart from the rush and crush of their normal community life and think and play and pray together. Who can estimate the value of a few weeks of such association on the character and life plans of these young people in the most formative period of their lives.

Much has been said and need not be repeated here about the inspirational value of the splendid conferences provided by the boards and agencies of our church, year by year, and how influences set in motion here touch every phase of our church life and extend around the world. Dr. J. R. Howerton who conceived the idea of a Montreat doubtless never envisioned anything so rich and extensive in its influence as has been developed here.

2. TRUSTEES OF STOCK:

The annual meeting of the stockholders (Trustees of Stock) was held in Montreat August 7, 1957.

The Reverend J. Chester Frist presided and the Reverend M. O. Sommers was made secretary. Thirty-eight of the fifty Trustees attended this meeting. Three new Trustees nominated by the General Assembly were elected. They are Mrs. Chris Matheson, Gainesville, Florida; Mrs. Jean Richards Roddey, Rock Hill, South Carolina; and Dr. L. Nelson Bell, Montreat, North Carolina.

Trustees nominated by the Synods for election for first term of service or for re-election were:

Rev. M. C. Patterson, Alabama
Rev. H. B. Dendy, Appalachia
Rev. Geo. T. Wingard, Jr., Ark.
Mr. Ollie Page, Florida
Mr. W. E. Pleasant, Mississippi
Rev. J. Brent Wood, Kentucky
Mr. Robert F. Cooper, Jr., La.
Rev. Wm. T. Magill, Mo.
Rev. Roy E. Watts, N. C.
Rev. R. M. Firebaugh, Okla.
Rev. G. A. Nickles, S. C.
Mr. Albert Noe, Tenn.
Rev. W. Kirk Allen, Jr., Tex.
Rev. Robert A. Pfrangle, W. Va.

The Trustees elected a Board of Directors of twelve and fixed their term of service by classes:

Class 1: To serve until August, 1958
Rev. S. Wilkes Dendy
Rev. J. Chester Frist
Mr. Philip F. Howerton
Mr. Aubrey Miree

Class 2: To serve until August, 1959
Mr. Frank L. Jackson
Mr. Albert Noe
Mr. George R. Norris
Rev. M. O. Sommers

Class 3: To serve until August, 1960
Mr. John V. Matthews
Rev. John McSween
Rev. John E. Richards
Rev. Fred R. Stair, Jr.

Elected to the Program Committee were:
Rev. Raleigh M. Engle, Chairman
Rev. W. L. McLeod
Rev. John McSween
Rev. C. H. Patterson
Rev. M. O. Sommers

Elected to the Planning Committee were:
Mr. George R. Norris, Chairman
Rev. C. G. McClure
Rev. J. Chester Frist
Mr. Robert F. Cooper, Jr.
Rev. S. Wilkes Dendy
Rev. T. A. Freeman
Rev. J. K. Johnson
Mrs. Jean Richards Roddey

Elected Trustees of Montreat College were:

Class of 1958
Rev. S. S. Wiley
Rev. C. H. Patterson

Class of 1959
Rev. J. Wayte Fulton, Jr.
Rev. Vernon S. Broyles

Class of 1960
Rev. C. Grier Davis
Rev. Wm. H. McCorkle

3. DIRECTORS:

Following the meeting of the Trustees the Directors met and appointed the following:
Chairman of the Directors, John V. Matthews
Secretary, Fred R. Stair, Jr.

Administrative Officers:
Acting President, Frank L. Jackson
Acting Treasurer, Frank L. Jackson
Business Manager, Harry K. McDonnold
Assistant Treasurer, K. N. Stutts
Health Officer, Dr. L. N. Bell

Class 2—to serve 2 years until 1959:

Mr. Henry Simpson	Rev. Raleigh M. Engle
Rev. S. Wilkes Dendy	Rev. T. A. Freeman

Class 3—to serve 3 years until 1960:

Rev. J. Cecil Lawrence	Mrs. J. Fred Johnson
Mrs. Kenneth S. Keyes	Mr. Joe Hunter

4. AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER AND CHANGE IN ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION

The present Charter of the Mountain Retreat Association provides that legal control of the Mountain Retreat Association is vested in the Board of Directors. The only authority and legal responsibility of the Trustees under the present Charter is to vote the stock of the corporation in the Trust Indenture and to elect twelve of their number to serve as a Board of Directors for a year at a time. Of course, the Trustees have exercised control through policy channels. At the annual meeting of the Trustees in August, 1956, a committee was appointed to make an over-all study of the administrative set-up at Montreat, to have the Charter codified, and to report back to the Trustees at their annual meeting in August, 1957. At the August, 1957, meeting the committee's report was considered with the result that a new committee of five was appointed to work with a committee of North Carolina attorneys charged with the responsibility of trying to work out a plan whereby the duties and authority now confined to the Board of Directors might be transferred to the Trustees, or at least that a better working relationship might be brought about whereby the Trustees might exercise legal control. This same committee was charged, also, with the task of studying the organizational relationship of Montreat College to the Association.

An adjourned meeting of the stockholders (Trustees of Stock) to hear and act upon the above committee's findings was set for January 23, 1958, in Charlotte, North Carolina. Discussions at this adjourned meeting were harmonious and conclusions were unanimous. Three things in particular were accomplished. (1) It was voted to amend the Charter of the Association so that the number of Directors shall be increased from 12 to 50 so that every Trustee will be a Director. The work of the Association now carried on by the Directors will then be administered by an Executive Committee of 12, responsible to the 50 Directors; (2) A carefully prepared set of by-laws setting forth the manner of administrative control and operation was adopted. Heretofore, the Association had no by-laws; and (3) the manner of electing the Trustees of Montreat College was changed. In the past, the Trustees of the Association have elected 6 of the 18 Trustees of the college and the Directors have elected 12. The amended Charter provides that all 18 Trustees of the college shall be elected by and from the 50 Directors. The "news release" prepared at the end of the meeting will amplify this summary statement and it is quoted in full here:

"The Trustees of the Mountain Retreat Association, representing the General Assembly and the Synods of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. met in Charlotte on Jan. 23rd.

"This is the first time in the history of the church that this large governing body of Montreat has met at mid-year and is in keeping with the increasing interest in Montreat and the assumption of the Trustees, as a whole, of the administration of this important department of the work of the Church.

"Growing out of an assignment given it by the annual meeting of the Trustees in August, 1957, a special committee of five brought in a detailed report having to do with suggested changes in the charter and by-laws of the Association and in the general administration of that agency.

"The most significant change in the charter had to do with making all trustees also directors of the corporation, thereby greatly broadening the base of interest and responsibility and bringing the entire personnel of the trustees into active participation in the affairs of the Association.

"Another change is the method of election of the Trustees of the college, which is a separate corporation. According to the new plan, the trustees of the Association, in which such authority has long been vested, now elect as Trustees of the college only those who are also members of the trustees of the Association. In taking this action the Association in no way becomes responsible for the financing of the college but at the same time places this responsibility on the trustees of the college, members of a separate corporation, where the responsibility has always rested.

"This action greatly clarifies the operating basis of the Mountain Retreat Association and the status of the college, bringing it under a unified control while at the same time maintaining the complete separate entities of the two institutions. Full provision is made in the new by-laws for the proper interchange for the use of existing properties, held separately by the two institutions, and the same inter-change of the operational personnel on a reciprocal basis and to the great advantage of both.

"There was a general feeling of optimism at the meeting of the trustees. The conviction was expressed that the affairs at Montreat have now been clarified and the ground laid for ever greater usefulness of all of the facilities at Montreat for the benefit of the entire Church.

"Dr. J. Chester Frist, pastor of the Government Street Presbyterian Church, Mobile, Alabama, is Chairman of the Trustees and Dr. M. O. Sommers, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Morristown, Tennessee, is Secretary.

"Provision for the legal steps necessary for the changes in the Constitution were made and the entire plan for reorganization, which it is expected, will come into effect with the August, 1958, meeting of the Trustees."

5. DR. MCGREGOR'S RETIREMENT:

Dr. J. Rupert McGregor, who had served as President and the guiding head of Montreat since January 1, 1947, tendered his resignation at the meeting of the Trustees in January, 1957, asking that he be released from duty as of June 1, 1957. Dr. McGregor was urged to continue as President until September 1, and did. The ten years Dr. McGregor served Montreat might well be described as a period of growth. Building on the foundation so well laid by Dr. Anderson, Dr. McGregor had to cope with the expansion of the physical plant in all departments. The financial report submitted to the 1957 General Assembly shows capital expenditures of approximately $800,000 during his tenure in office. One hundred and fifty new homes were built. Public utilities were made more adequate. Roads had to be extended. Conferences, thanks to the fine cooperation of the church boards and agencies, have contributed much to the progress and program of our church at large. Although public mention of his work was made at the last Assembly, in the public press and elsewhere, our thanks go to him again.

The Directors on August 7, appointed a nominating committee to seek out and nominate a suitable person to take up and carry on the work so splendidly developed by Dr. Anderson, Dr. McGregor and others. Frank L. Jackson, long-time Treasurer and Business Manager of Davidson College, now retired, was prevailed upon to assume the duties of Acting President and Acting Treasurer of the Mountain Retreat Association.

The Association has now a capable operating staff that is effectively carrying on the work at Montreat during the inter-regnum period. The nominating committee at the time of writing of this report had not nominated anyone for election as president.

6. PROGRAM DIRECTOR:

Last November the Directors approved the election of Dr. Felix B. Gear, Professor of Systematic Theology at Columbia Seminary, Decatur, Georgia, as Program Director for the 1958 conference season. He will be responsible for scheduling preachers and lecturers for the Bible Conference and for assisting in every way possible the Boards and Agencies of the church in planning and carrying out their conferences. Dr. Gear has served in this capacity previously and the Directors were pleased that he was able to accept this work.

7. FINANCIAL REPORT:

Copy of auditor's report and other financial statements furnished the General Assembly's Stewardship and Budget Committee show in detail financial operations and condition of all accounts. Summary financial statements are appended to this report.

8. COMMENTS:

Despite careful management and strictest economy in all operations, Montreat continues to be handicapped by debts—long term and current. No reserve exists for emergency break-down while much of the plant is more than 25 years old and some of it, such as water mains, more than 40 years old.

Public confidence in Montreat and public good will was never better than now. The financial sustenance the Church is providing Montreat has saved the institution from bankruptcy.

The General Assembly should be constantly reminded that Montreat is the one institution of our Church that serves every department of our denomination's program, and that Montreat can, and should, be made, more and more, a great unifying force in our Church as well as a great inspirational center.

Respectfully submitted,

F. L. JACKSON, Acting President

VI. REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL FOUNDATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED CHURCHES

1957

The Executive Committee of the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches respectfully submits the following report for the year 1957:

STAFF

The regular Foundation staff consists of four members and a part-time janitor. This force is augmented during the summer by two seasonal workers who assist with the many visitors who call during the conference season.

Miss Sallie Anderson, after rendering particularly helpful service as cataloguer over a large portion of the past several years, closed her work with the Foundation in the fall of 1957. The institution is deeply grateful for her constructive assistance in putting its holdings into much more available form.

Mrs. R. R. Harris, lately librarian for the Greenville, South Carolina, News, joined the Foundation force in September and is proving a welcome and valuable addition to the number of its workers.

ACCESSIONS

Notable among the year's accessions is a veritable encyclopedia on the history of Presbyterianism in the area of Kentucky covered by West Lexington, Ebenezer and Lexington-Ebenezer presbyteries. This manuscript, bound in twelve handsome volumes, came as a gift of the compiler, Rev. Robert Stuart Sanders. Its contents largely embrace sketches of ministers and histories of various congregations, with more than nine hundred pictures supplementing the text.

Portraits of two famous ministers have been added to the Gallery. These are likenesses of Rev. John Rodgers, moderator of the first General Assembly (1789), and of Rev. Amasa Converse, editor of the Christian Observer and its forerunners for many years. The Rodgers picture is a gift from Miss Marion Bloomfield, a descendant of that distinguished New York minister, while that of Dr. Converse was presented by a grandson, Professor Paul D. Converse.

English Presbyterianism is represented by the addition of more than fifty printed histories of local churches which were obtained from the Presbyterian Historical Society with headquarters in London. To Miss Lillian Kelley, the Curator, the Foundation is indebted for locating and dispatching these materials. Amsterdam, Paris and Geneva were fruitful sources of other European additions.

Several dozen recently issued volumes in Spanish have been received from Mexico with the compliments of the publishers. The titles are those of Presbyterian and evangelical works, a number of them having been translated from the English but the majority as originally published in the native language.

A valuable file of historic minutes in manuscript form, representing the organizational activities of our Church in China during the period immediately preceding the closing of missionary endeavor on the Mainland was supplied for the Foundation by Rev. Lewis Lancaster. Dr. Lancaster was personally associated with many of the matters represented by these records.

The manuscript History of Churches and Woman's Work which has been in the course of compilation by the historians of the Women of the Church for the past twenty-seven years, is now filed in more than 1700 large volumes. Above one hundred of these were added during 1957.

Through the interest of Rev. Wayne Wiman, considerable numbers of minutes and similar publications of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church have been received. Dr. Wiman represents that body on the Executive Committee.

To an already large collection of photographs of early Montreat, a number of which appeared in the July, 1957, number of the News, Mrs. E. D. Lansing has added additional pictures illustrative of this era.

Minutes of a number of sessions have been placed in the Archives either on microfilm or in the original form. All churches photographing their minutes are urged to provide the Foundation with a copy.

Through the generosity of Mrs. Edward Mack of Orange, Virginia, the Foundation has received a collection of books, periodicals and pamphlets from the library of the late Dr. Mack.

PHOTOGRAPHIC DIVISION

The preparation and distribution of information desired by resident students and correspondents has been greatly facilitated through the installation of photographic equipment. This enables the Foundation to provide much more extensive data than was formerly possible, more rapidly, with greater accuracy, and at less expense than when it was necessary to rely upon the older methods of reproduction. It is significant that repeated use is made of photography practically every working day.

The impending installation of a microfilm camera, now on order, will further enlarge the possibilities of serving the Church and the scholarly world, as well as making it feasible to obtain copies of numerous items in cases where the original cannot be permanently secured.

VISITING STUDENTS

Representing an area stretching from New England to Southern California, graduate students at work in the Foundation represented Yale University, the University of Pennsylvania, Princeton Seminary, Union Seminary in Virginia, the University of North Carolina, Emory University, Rice Institute, and U.C.L.A. Among these researchers were Rev. Robert Scott of Philadelphia, who spent nine weeks in the Library and Archives during the fall, and Professor William Wade of King College, who began an extended stay in October (with an interruption in the latter part of December) which is scheduled to reach well into 1958.

A number of general authors took advantage of the Foundation's holdings in the preparation of various works for publication.

BELK MEMORIAL

Through the generosity of Mrs. William Henry Belk of Charlotte, North Carolina, a memorial to the late Mr. Belk, long and intimately associated with Montreat, has been constructed on the lower side of the Foundation. This constitutes an attractive addition to the grounds, and also enables visitors to reach the main entrance of the building directly from Assembly Drive.

Other improvements of the past year include the replacement of the ramp formerly along the front walkway with a handsome flight of steps and the construction of a three-car parking lot for staff members along Georgia Terrace.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Since the General Fund was instituted, the regular operating budget of the Foundation has been derived from this source and that of the office of the General Assembly, the latter making the necessary payments to bring the total up to the allocated budget for each year. Beginning with 1959, such support will come entirely from the General Fund. It is obvious that this change will necessitate a substantial increase in the amount assigned to the Foundation in the asking budget for 1959 and succeeding years.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That each minister in the Church supply the Foundation with a photograph of himself;
2. That copies of all sessional records and church records which are microfilmed be placed in the Archives.

VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY

The Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Survey is delighted to report amazing response to the plans approved by the General Assembly a year ago. The Board rejoices with the General Assembly in the accomplishments that are phenomenal, and that give hope of being only the beginning of a new era in service rendered by The Presbyterian Survey to the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

Within the twelve months since this body last met, at which time it directed certain far-reaching changes in the subscription and distribution plan for the Presbyterian Survey, circulation of the Church's magazine has soared from 43,000 to approximately 170,000. This means, in brief, that your official magazine is already going into more than half of the homes of this entire denomination.

The Board of Directors is deeply grateful to God for His providential guidance and blessing, to the General Assembly for its wholehearted support and vision, to the more than 1600 churches which have already enrolled in the Every Family Plan, and to the many Presbyterian Survey chairmen serving in the synods and presbyteries. The Board herewith presents its annual report to the 1958 General Assembly, its independent auditor's financial statement, and its recommendations.

In creating the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Survey in 1953, as a separate Board of the Church, the General Assembly charged it at the time with the responsibility of making the Presbyterian Survey a church-wide magazine that would be an effective arm of information and inspiration that would go into a majority of the homes of the Church. The Board of Directors believes that this objective is well on its way to being realized, and that plans already approved by the General Assembly of 1957 will assure the accomplishment of this goal in 1958-59.

This tremendous and rapid growth was made possible by the far-sighted action taken by the 1957 General Assembly in approving the $1.00 a year Every Family Plan and a concerted Church-wide campaign to enroll the churches in the Plan.

The Board of Directors is humbled by the magnitude of the responsibility this expansion of the magazine's circulation has put upon it, and is deeply aware of the potential for effective service now in its hands. In the light of this increased readership, every effort is being made to insure that the magazine will be an effective tool to serve the whole Church—that it is read and that it is interesting, uplifting and useful. Efforts will continue to be made to improve its editorial content as well as its readability and attractiveness.

The support of the Presbyterian Survey as their official instrument on the part of the several Boards and Agencies of the Church has been inspiring and would seem to confirm the growing faith of Presbyterians in the purpose and effectiveness of this ministry of the printed page as an educational and inspirational tool for the Church. Every board is dependent upon some type of literature to spread essential information; the underwriting by these Boards—even in the face of rising production costs—points to their faith in the soundness of this investment of their promotional dollar.

This is made quite clear when the development of the Presbyterian Survey is traced. Recognizing that all foreign mission boards and societies, whether they be denominational agencies or independent organizations, find it necessary to issue a certain amount of educational and promotional literature, the former Executive Committee of Foreign Missions established the magazine which is now called the Presbyterian Survey in 1868. It was known as "The Missionary," and was published as the exclusive organ of that Committee to 1911. The Executive Committee of Foreign Missions paid the entire cost of the magazine.

During this period the Executive Committee of Home Missions also began publishing a magazine of its own, which was called "The Home Missionary Herald." In 1911 the Executive Committees of Foreign and Home Missions decided to consolidate their two publications into one, and the joint magazine was published from 1911 to 1924 as "The Missionary Survey." The expenses of the publication were prorated between the two Committees.

In 1924 it was decided to broaden the scope of the magazine to include all of the agencies of the General Asembly, and the magazine was given a new name, "The Presbyterian Survey," by which it is still known. Since it is now the organ of the General Assembly, representing the interests of all the Assembly's Boards and Agencies, the cost of the magazine has been prorated to these agencies which it serves as an instrument of education and promotion. Every agency, therefore, has borne its proportionate part in maintaining this educational and promotional organ through which each can make widely known to the Church the work for which it is responsible.

The year 1957 saw energetic preparations for the General Assembly-authorized church-wide campaign in 1958 to enroll the churches in the Every Family Plan. The Presbyterian Survey Board first sought the advice of representative leaders in every synod, and of the Executive Secretaries of the Boards and Agencies of the Church in charting and executing the policies and strategy of the Assembly-wide campaign. Presbyterian Survey chairmen were appointed in synods and presbyteries, area conferences held, materials forwarded to churches, the $1 per family per year rate made known in many different ways. The response was immediate and overwhelming. Instead of the expected doubling of circulation in a year, Presbyterian Survey's circulation nearly quadrupled in a period of six months. Recognizing its enlarged responsibility and opportunity, and, at the same time, not wishing to gloss over the mounting production costs (such a magazine costs considerably more to publish than the subscription brings in) the Board of Directors took these steps:

1) Made a specific effort to broaden the base of reader appeal in the magazine without sacrificing any of the depth of its Christian message.
2) Accelerated in investigation of economies in production.
3) Cooperated in every way in the General Council's study of whether the Presbyterian Survey should become a Fund Agency or continue under the present method of financial support.

At this time the Board of Directors would call the Assembly's attention to the fact that the Presbyterian Survey is in a crucial transition period. The greatest possible efforts by the Board and staff of the magazine, and the greatest possible care taken in enlarging subscription lists and cutting costs will still not be sufficient to place the magazine immediately upon a firm basis of subscription and support. Therefore, if the General Assembly is to capitalize on the results thus far achieved at the expenditure of a great deal of effort and considerable money, it should do all in its power to encourage renewals of churches' Every Family Plan subscriptions, and provide adequate financing during the entire transition period.

Respectfully submitted,

WARNER DUBOSE, JR., Chairman,
BOARD OF THE PRESRYTERIAN SURVEY

REPORT OF AUDITORS, LEACH, CALKINS AND SCOTT, C.P.A.s, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

COMMENTS

The income and expenses of The Presbyterian Survey are recorded in the records of the Board of Christian Education in separate accounts.

Cash, accounts receivable, and accounts payable are combined with the respective accounts of the Board of Christian Education; therefore, no attempt was made to prepare a balance sheet as of December 31, 1957.

The Presbyterian Survey's portions of these accounts at December 31, 1957, are as follows:

Unexpired periodical subscriptions	$75,003.51
Accounts receivable	24,448.42
Prepaid printing cost	9,216.87
Prepaid articles	480.73
Prepaid illustrations and cuts	2,089.11

Effective January 1, 1958, The Presbyterian Survey will begin operations independently of the Board of Christian Education and will then include the above accounts on its books.

Charges for office space, use of office equipment, maintenance of mailing lists, monthly mailing, handling of money and accounts, wrapping supplies for mailing, and routine correspondence on subscriptions during 1957 were based on rates agreed upon between the Board of Christian Education and the Board of Directors of The Presbyterian Survey. Charges for printing costs, articles purchased, illustrations and cuts, salaries, postage, and other expenses were based on actual cost.

VIII. REPORTS OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEES

I. REPORT OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF BOOK OF CHURCH ORDER

The report was adopted and the following procedure outlined by the Assembly:

That (1) the Assembly approve the Form of Government and recommend it as a whole to the presbyteries for their advice and consent;

That (2) the presbyteries vote their approval or disapproval on the individual paragraphs as numbered;

That (3) the presbyteries report their consent to the paragraphs they approve;

That (4) the presbyteries send to the Stated Clerk for the Committee their suggestions for further amendment of any paragraph not approved.

THE COMMITTEE'S PREFACE

Your Ad-Interim Committee on the Book of Church Order presents this revision of the Form of Government for action by our General Assembly.

This revision is the result of careful and prayerful work. There have been nine meetings of the Committee and attendance has been remarkably good.

The revision seeks to emphasize the Reform Doctrines of church and ministry which lie at the heart of our Book of Church Order. The Committee has tried to be mindful of the historical and theological and Biblical foundations of our Book of Church Order and of our Presbyterian Church.

The interest of the Church in our work has been wide and growing. Since the Proposed Revision has been in the hands of the Church, we have received some seven hundred suggestions from Presbyteries, Sessions and individuals. Every one of these has been considered by the Committee as a whole, sitting together. It has taken time and effort but has been profitable. A majority of the suggestions will be seen reflected in changes made in the Proposed Revision which was originally sent out.

If the Revision is accepted by the Church, there will be added cross references, a historical preface and a complete index and table of contents.

The most attractive format possible will be suggested for presenting the Book.

The numbering system was adapted from that which has been developed in many of the state codes of law after a considerable period of experience. The number before the hyphen indicates the chapter; the number after the hyphen indicates the section within the chapter. Thus, the individual section number identifies both at the same time. A particular section can be located under this system just as quickly and easily as under the current system in which the sections are numbered consecutively throughout. The new system will prove much more adjustable. If new sections are added in the future they may be placed at the end of the pertinent chapter and given numbers which locate their place without interfering with or confusing the numbers for the other sections. Thus, the new system is just as easy to use as the old one but affords more information and greater flexibility.

The one purpose of this Committee has been to provide a revision which will be more useful to our Church. Certainly the attention of the Church has been focused on this basic document as has not been true in many years. This in itself is a gain. Insofar as the Revision commends itself, we shall be grateful to have had a part in it.

PREFACE

I. JESUS CHRIST, THE KING AND HEAD OF THE CHURCH

Jesus Christ, upon whose shoulders the government is, whose name is called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, of the increase of whose government and peace there shall be no end, sits upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom to order it and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever. (Isaiah 9:6-7)

All power is given unto him in heaven and in earth by the Father, who raised him from the dead, and set him on his own right hand, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. The Father has put all things under his feet, and gave him to be Head over all things to the Church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. (Ephesians 1:20-23)

Jesus Christ, being ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things, received gifts for his Church, and gave officers necessary for the edification of his Church and the perfecting of his saints. (Ephesians 4:10-12) [8]

Jesus Christ, who is the Mediator, the sole Priest, Prophet, King, Savior, and Head of the Church, contains in himself all the offices in his Church, and has many of their names attributed to him in the Scriptures. He is Apostle, Teacher, Pastor, Minister, and Bishop, the only Lawgiver in Zion. Since his ascension he is present with his Church by his Spirit and Word, and the benefits of all of his offices are effectually applied by the Holy Spirit. [9 & 11]

It belongs to his Majesty from his throne of glory, to rule and teach the Church, through his Spirit and Word, by the ministry of men, thus mediately exercising his own authority, and enforcing his own laws, unto the edification and establishment of his kingdom. [9]

Christ, as King and head of the Church, has given to his Church its officers, oracles, and ordinances. He has ordained therein his system of doctrine, government, discipline, and worship. These are either expressly set down in Scripture, or may by good and necessary inference be deduced therefrom. In matters of the worship of God and the government of the Church, there are some circumstances common to human actions and societies, which are to be ordered by reason and Christian prudence, according to the general rules of the Word, which always are to be observed. Insofar as this system is expressly set forth in Scripture nothing may be added or taken away. [10—11]

II. THE CONSTITUTION DEFINED

The Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States consists of its doctrinal symbols, embraced in the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, together with the Book of Church Order, which comprises the Form of Government, the Rules of Discipline, and the Directory for Worship. [166]

III. THE DOCTRINE OF CHURCH GOVERNMENT—SUMMARY

1. The Presbyterian form of Church government is government by Presbyters or Elders, gathered in courts in regular gradation. This scriptural form of Church government is here set forth under five heads, namely: A. The Church; B. Its Members; C. Its Officers; D. Its Courts; and E. Its Orders. [1]

2. The Church catholic, which the Lord Jesus Christ has erected in this world for the gathering and perfecting of the saints, is his visible kingdom of grace, and is one and the same in all ages. [2]

3. The members of this visible Church catholic are all those persons in every nation who make profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and promise submission to his law, together with their children. [3]

4. The officers of the Church, by whom all its powers are administered, are, according to the Scriptures, Ministers of the Word, Ruling Elders, and Deacons. [4]

5. Ecclesiastical jurisdiction is a joint power, to be exercised by Presbyters in courts, and cannot be exercised by Presbyters as individuals. The courts may have authority over one or many churches, but sustain such mutual relations as to express the unity of the Church. [5]

6. Officers are ordained only by the authority of a court. [6]

7. This scriptural doctrine of government by Presbyters or Elders is established for the perfecting of the order of the visible Church, but is not essential to its existence. [7]

PART I—DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH

CHAPTER 1—THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF CHURCH POWER

§ 1–1. The Church, with its ordinances, officers, and courts, is the agency of Christ which he has ordained for the edification of his people, for the propagation of the Christian faith, and for the evangelization of the world. [18]

§ 1–2. The power which Christ has given his Church is wholly moral and spiritual, and constitutes the Church a kingdom and government distinct from the civil commonwealth. This power rests, not in individuals, but in the Church as a whole. [15]

§ 1–3. The sole functions of the Church are to proclaim, to administer, and to enforce the law of Christ revealed in Scripture. The exercise of Church power has divine sanction only when in conformity with the Word. [17 & 19]

§ 1–4. Church power is exercised both by church members and by church officers. It is exercised by the members of a church in choosing those whom Christ calls to office in his Church. It is exercised by Church officers individually, as in preaching the Gospel, administering the Sacraments, reproving the erring, visiting the sick, and comforting the afflicted, and is called the Power of Order. It is exercised by the Elders jointly, in Church courts, in the form of judgment or administration, and is called the Power of Jurisdiction. [15 & 16]

CHAPTER 2—THE VISIBLE CHURCH CATHOLIC

§ 2–1. The visible Church, before and under the old Covenant, and now under the Gospel, is one and the same, and consists of all those who make profession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, together with their children. [12]

§ 2–2. The actual unity of the body of Christ, though obscured, is not destroyed by its division into different denominations of professing Christians. All denominations which maintain the Word and Sacraments in their fundamental integrity are to be recognized as true branches of the Church of Jesus Christ. [13]

§ 2–3. The visible Church catholic includes the local congregations, or particular churches. This is in accord with Scriptural teaching. [14]

CHAPTER 3—THE PARTICULAR CHURCH

§ 3–1. A particular church consists of a number of professing Christians and their children, associated together for divine worship and godly living as set forth in Scripture, and submitting to the lawful government of Christ's Kingdom. [20]

§ 3–2. Its officers are Pastor(s), Ruling Elders, and Deacons. [21]

§ 3–3. Its government and jurisdiction, being a joint power, is lodged in the Church Session, which consists of the Pastor(s) and Ruling Elders. [22]

§ 3–4. Its ministry of sympathy and service is especially lodged in the hands of the Deacons, who serve under the jurisdiction of the Session. [23]

§ 3–5. The Ordinances established for his Church by Christ, the Head, are: prayer; the singing of psalms and hymns; reading, expounding, and preaching the Word of God; administering the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper; fasting and thanksgiving; catechising; Christian nurture; making offerings for the relief of the poor, the extension of the Gospel, and other Christian causes; exercising discipline; and, invoking the blessing of God upon the people. [24]

§ 3–6. A Church without a Pastor, and with no Minister available, should be convened by the Session on the Lord's Day, and at other suitable times, for prayer, praise, the reading and expounding of the Holy Scriptures, and exhortation, or the reading of a sermon of some approved Minister. In like manner, Christians in places where there is no church ought to meet regularly for the worship of God. [25]

CHAPTER 4—THE ORGANIZING OF A PARTICULAR CHURCH

§ 4–1. A church can be organized only by the authority of Presbytery. The Presbytery may proceed with the organization directly, or through a Committee, or through an Evangelist to whom the Presbytery has entrusted the power to organize churches. In the organizing of a church, the procedure shall be as follows:

(1) Church members shall present evidences of their membership, and applicants for admission to the Church on profession of faith in Christ shall present themselves for examination and baptism as necessary.

(2) These persons shall then be required to enter into covenant, by answering the following question affirmatively with uplifted hand: "Do you in reliance on God for strength, solemnly promise and covenant that you will walk together as an organized church, on the principles of the faith and order of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and that you will be zealous and faithful in maintaining the purity and peace of the whole Church?"

(3) The presiding Minister shall then say: "I now pronounce and declare that you are constituted a church according to the Word of God and the faith and order of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

(4) Ruling Elders and Deacons shall then be elected, if the way be clear, and steps taken for their instruction, examination, ordination, and installation.

(5) Action shall be taken to secure, as soon as practicable, the regular preaching of the Word and administration of the Sacraments. [26]

CHAPTER 5—CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS

§ 5–1. The congregation consists of all the communing members on the active roll of a particular church. Only such members present at a congregational meeting are entitled to vote. [158]

§ 5–2. The Session shall call a congregational meeting whenever necessary. It shall give public notice at least one week in advance. Only business stated in the notice shall be transacted. The Session shall call a congregational meeting without delay when requested in writing by one-fourth of the communing members of the church. [159]

§ 5–3. If the church has not more than one hundred members on the active roll, the quorum of a congregational meeting shall consist of one-fourth of such members. If the church has more than one hundred members on the active roll, the quorum shall be one-tenth of such members, but not less than twenty-five. [160]

§ 5–4. The Pastor shall be the Moderator of congregational meetings by virtue of his office. If it should be impracticable or inexpedient for him to preside, or if there be no Pastor, the Session shall appoint one of its number to call the meeting to order and to preside until the congregation shall elect its presiding officer, who shall be a Minister of the Presbyterian Church in the United States or any male member of that particular church. [161]

§ 5–5. A Clerk shall be elected by the congregation to serve at that meeting or for a definite period, or the Clerk of the Session may be chosen by common consent to be the Clerk of the congregational meeting. The Clerk shall keep correct minutes of the proceedings and of all business transacted and preserve these minutes in a permanent form, after they have been attested by the Moderator and the Clerk of the meeting. He shall also send a copy of these minutes to the Church Session, which shall enter them in its minute book. [162]

§ 5–6. A Minister, since he is not a member of the congregation, cannot vote in a congregational meeting. When a Minister is moderating a congregational meeting and there is a tie vote, he shall put the question a second time, and if there is not a majority for the motion, he shall declare the motion lost.

CHAPTER 6—INCORPORATION AND PROPERTY OF A PARTICULAR CHURCH

§ 6–1. FOR AN UNINCORPORATED CHURCH

A particular church which is not incorporated, desiring to elect trustees, may select from among its membership, trustees or officers of like nature who shall have the power and authority to buy, sell, or mortgage property for the church, to accept and execute deeds as such trustees, to hold and defend titles to the same, to manage any permanent special funds entrusted to them for the furtherance of the purposes of the church. In the fulfillment of their duties such trustees shall be subject always to the authority, and shall act solely under the instructions, of the congregation which they serve as trustees. The powers and duties of such trustees must not infringe upon the powers or duties of the Session or of the Board of Deacons. Such trustees shall be elected in regularly constituted congregational meetings. [163]

§ 6–2. FOR AN INCORPORATED CHURCH

If a particular church is incorporated, the provisions of its charter and bylaws must always be in accord with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. If the congregation is an incorporated body, all the communing members of that church shall be members of the corporation. The officers of the corporation, whether they be given the title "Trustee" or some other title, shall be elected from among the members of the corporation in a regularly constituted congregational meeting. The powers and duties of such officers must not infringe upon the powers and duties of the Session or of the Board of Deacons. All funds collected for the support and expense of the church and for the benevolent purposes of the church shall be controlled and disbursed by the Session and the Board of Deacons as their relative authorities may from time to time be established and defined. To the officers of the corporation may be given by the charter and bylaws of the corporation any or all of the following responsibilities: The buying, selling, and mortgaging of the property for the church, the acquiring and conveying title to such property, the holding and defending title to the same, the managing of any permanent special funds entrusted to them for the furtherance of the purposes of the church, provided that such duties do not infringe upon the powers and duties of the Session or of the Board of Deacons. In buying, selling, and mortgaging real property such officers shall act solely under the authority of the corporation, granted in a duly constituted meeting of the corporation. [163]

§ 6–3. If a church shall be dissolved by the Presbytery, or otherwise cease to exist, and no disposition has been made of its property, those who hold the title to the property shall deliver, convey, and transfer to the Presbytery of which the church was a member, or to the authorized agents of the Presbytery, all property of the church; and the receipt and acquittance of the Presbytery, or its proper representatives, shall be a full and complete discharge of all liabilities of such persons holding the property of the church. The Presbytery receiving such property shall apply the same or the proceeds thereof at its discretion. [164]

PART II—DOCTRINE OF CHURCH MEMBERS

CHAPTER 7—COMMUNING AND NON-COMMUNING MEMBERS

§ 7–1. Communing members, those who have made a profession of faith in Christ and have been baptized, are entitled to all the rights and privileges of the Church, including the right to participate in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, the right to present children for Baptism, and the right to take part in meetings of the congregation of which they are members in good standing. [29]

§ 7–2. The children of believers are, through the covenant and by right of birth, non-communing members of the Church, until admitted to the Lord's Table. [27]

§ 7–3. All children of the covenant are entitled to baptism, but whether baptized or not, are entitled to the pastoral oversight, instruction, and government of the Church, with a view to their embracing Christ, and thus possessing personally all the benefits of the covenant. [27 & 28]

CHAPTER 8—JURISDICTION OVER CHURCH MEMBERS

§ 8–1. The Church Session may receive members by certificate of dismission from other churches in our own denomination or in another denomination recognized by our own as a true branch of the Church of Jesus Christ. [303]

§ 8–2. When a church member is unable to obtain a certificate of dismission, he may be received upon presentation of other satisfactory testimonials that he is a member in good standing of another church, or upon his reaffirmation of his original covenant obligations. When a member is received in one of the above ways, the church to which he formerly belonged shall be notified, and the Session shall record him as received by certificate. [303]

§ 8–3. The Church Session must grant a certificate of dismission upon the request of any member of the church who is in good standing, whether requested for another church of our own denomination, or of one recognized by our own as a true branch of the Church of Jesus Christ. [303]

§ 8–4. A certificate of dismission is granted by a Session only to the governing body of another church. [303]

§ 8–5. A church member who has removed his residence so that he no longer can participate regularly in the ordinances of his church is obligated to arrange for the transfer of his membership to the church with which he intends to unite. [303]

§ 8–6. A member being transferred from one church to another is under the jurisdiction of the dismissing church until received by the other. No certificate of dismission shall be valid testimony of good standing for more than one year. [305]

§ 8–7. The Session shall keep three rolls of the members of the Church: (1) active, (2) inactive, and (3) noncommuning. The active roll shall consist of those admitted to the Lord's Table who are active in the church's life and work. The inactive roll shall consist of those admitted to the Lord's Table who have wilfully become inactive in the church's life and work. The noncommuning roll shall consist of the children of believers who are communing members of that particular church.

§ 8–8. The Session, mindful of their obligation as shepherds of souls, shall review carefully all three rolls at least annually. [304]

§ 8–9. A member, who for one year does not participate in the ordinances at his church nor otherwise express a serious interest in the church, may be transferred by the Session to the inactive roll. No name shall be placed upon the inactive roll in this manner until after the Session shall have made diligent effort to discover the causes of the member's non-participation and to restore him to activity in the church's life. [304]

§ 8–10. A member who changes his residence so that he cannot participate regularly in the ordinances at his church shall be notified by the Session that it is his duty to arrange for the transfer of his membership to some church where he may be active. The Session shall at the same time notify the Session of a church into whose vicinity he has moved, requesting it to take pastoral oversight of the member. If such a member neglects for one year to have his membership transferred, his name may be placed upon the inactive roll. [304]

§ 8–11. If a member whose name is on the inactive roll shall resume participation in the ordinances at his church, the Session shall act to restore his name to the active roll. [304]

§ 8–12. When a member whose name is on the inactive roll requests the Session to dismiss him to another church, the Session shall grant a certificate of dismission. [304]

§ 8–13. When the name of a Ruling Elder or Deacon is placed on the inactive roll the Session shall at the same time dissolve his relationship as an officer in that church, and shall report its action to the congregation and to the officer. [304]

§ 8–14. When a member moves temporarily for educational or military purposes he may establish an affiliated membership at a church where he is resident. The Session may issue to the church with which the member intends to be affiliated a certificate of good standing, valid for one year and subject to renewal, but shall retain the member's name on its active roll. The Session receiving the certificate shall place the name on a separate roll for affiliated members, which shall not be reported to the Presbytery. [310]

§ 8–15. If a communing member requests the Church Session to remove his name from the roll, or renounces his membership by joining some other denomination, the matter shall be handled by the Session under the appropriate provisions of The Rules of Discipline. [262 & 264]

§ 8–16. When a member of the church is ordained to the Ministry of the Word, the ordaining Presbytery shall notify the particular church of which he has been a member. The Church Session shall note in its records that the Minister is now a member of the Presbytery and no longer a member of a particular church.

PART III—DOCTRINE OF CHURCH OFFICERS

CHAPTER 9—THE NATURE OF CHURCH OFFICES

§ 8–1. The whole polity of the Church consists of (1) doctrine, including worship and the administration of the sacraments, (2) government, including discipline, and (3) distribution, the Church's ministry of compassion. For ordering the life of his Church, Christ, under the New Testament, has given his church three offices: the office of the Minister of the Word and Sacraments, the office of the Ruling Elder, and the office of the Deacon. These are the ordinary offices, to be continued perpetually in the Church.

Both the Minister of the Word and the Ruling Elder are known as Presbyters, and they share equally in the governing of the Church. [31]

§ 9–2. It is Christ's proper office to rule in his Church universal and in each particular church, through his Spirit and Word, by the ministry of men. Since the authority of any officer in the Church is derived from Christ and belongs not to the officer, any man who holds office should not assume any authority over his brethren, nor receive any titles indicating such authority, but be only minister, disciple, and servant. [32]

CHAPTER 10—THE MINISTER OF THE WORD

§ 10–1. This office is the first in the Church, both for dignity and usefulness. The person who fills it is given in Scripture different names expressive of his various duties. As he has the oversight of the flock of Christ, he is termed Bishop. As he feeds them with spiritual food, he is termed Pastor. As he serves Christ in the Church, he is termed Minister. As it is his duty to be serious and prudent and an example to the flock, and to govern well in the house and kingdom of Christ, he is termed Presbyter or Elder. As he is sent to declare the will of God to sinners and to beseech them to be reconciled to God through Christ, he is termed Ambassador. As he bears the glad tidings of salvation to the ignorant and perishing, he is termed Evangelist. As he stands to proclaim the Gospel, he is termed Preacher. As he expounds the Word, and by sound doctrine both exhorts and convinces the gainsayer, he is termed Teacher. As he dispenses the manifold grace of God, and the ordinances instituted by Christ, he is termed Steward of the mysteries of God. These names do not indicate different grades of office, but all describe one and the same officer. [33]

§ 10–2. He that fills this office should be sound in the faith, apt to teach, and should possess a competency of human learning. He should exhibit sobriety and holiness of life becoming the Gospel. He should be a man of wisdom and discretion. He should rule his own house well. He should have a good report of them that are outside the Church. [34]

§ 10–3. As the Lord has given different gifts to the Ministers of the Word, and has committed to them various works to execute, the Church is authorized to call and appoint them to labor as Pastors, Teachers, and Evangelists, and in such other works as may be needful to the Church, according to the gifts in which they excel. [35]

§ 10–4. When a Minister, the Teaching Elder, is called by a congregation to labor as its Pastor, it belongs to his office to pray for and with his flock, as the mouth of the people unto God; to feed the flock, by reading, expounding, and preaching the Word: to direct the congregation in the worship of God; to administer the Sacraments: to invoke the blessing of God upon the people; to catechise the children and youth and to oversee the educational program of the church; to visit regularly the people, devoting special attention to the poor, the sick, the afflicted, and the dying; and, with the other Elders, to exercise the joint power of government. [36]

§ 10–5. When a Minister is appointed by a Church court or agency of a court to labor as a Teacher in a theological seminary, college, university, or secondary school, it appertains to his office to take a pastoral oversight of those committed to his charge, and to be diligent in sowing the seed of the Word and gathering the fruit thereof, as one who cares for souls. [37]

§ 10–6. When a Minister is called by a Presbytery to labor as an Evangelist, the Presbytery shall commission him to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments in other countries or in parts of the Church which have no regular ministration of the Word. The Presbytery may, by a separate act from that by which it commissioned him, entrust to the Evangelist for a period of twelve months the power to organize churches, and, until there is a Session in the church so organized, to instruct, examine, ordain, and install Ruling Elders and Deacons therein and to receive or dismiss members. [38]

§ 10–7. When a Minister is called by a Church court or agency of a court to labor in an administrative capacity, or in the guidance of students attending a college or university, or in the Christian education program of the Church, or in military or institutional chaplaincy, or in any other field of service to the Church, it shall be incumbent on him to make full proof of his ministry by disseminating the Gospel for the edification of the Church. [39]

CHAPTER 11—THE RULING ELDER

§ 11–1. As there were Elders of the people for the government of the Old Testament Church, so under the New Testament Christ has furnished others beside the Ministers of the Word with gifts and commission to govern when called thereunto. These officers are the Ruling Elders. [40]

§ 11–2. Ruling Elders are the immediate representatives of the people, chosen by them. Together with the Ministers, or Teaching Elders, they exercise government and discipline, and take the oversight of the spiritual interests both of the particular church, and of the Church generally when appointed to represent their churches in the higher courts. In all the courts of the Church these Ruling Elders possess the same authority and the same eligibility to office as the Ministers of the Word. [41 & 43]

§ 11–3. Those who fill this office should be blameless in life and sound in the faith, men of wisdom and discretion. By the holiness of their walk and conversation they should be examples of Christian faith. [42]

§ 11–4. It belongs to their office, both individually and jointly, to watch diligently over the congregation committed to their charge, that no corruption of doctrine or of morals enter therein. Evils which they cannot correct by private admonition they should bring to the notice of the Session. They should visit the people at their homes, especially the sick; they should instruct the ignorant, comfort the mourner, nourish and guard the children of the Church. They should pray with and for the people. They should be careful and diligent in seeking the fruit of the preached Word. They should inform the Pastor of cases of sickness, affliction, and awakening, and of all others which may need his special attention. They should cultivate their aptness to teach the Word, and should supply places destitute of the regular ministry of the Word with the worship of God. All those duties which private Christians are bound to discharge by the law of love are especially incumbent upon the Ruling Elders by reason of their vocation to office, and are to be discharged by them as official duties. [41 & 43]

CHAPTER 12—THE DEACON

§ 12–1. The office of Deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of sympathy and service after the example of Christ. It expresses the love and fellowship of saints who bear one another's burdens. [44]

§ 12–2. To the office of Deacon, which is spiritual in nature, should be chosen men of spiritual character, honest repute, exemplary lives, brotherly love, warm sympathies, and sound judgment. [46]

§ 12–3. It is the duty of the Deacons, first of all, to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress. It is their further duty to develop the grace of liberality in the members of the church; to plan, in collaboration with the Session, the objects toward which the offerings of the congregation shall regularly be directed; to plan effective methods for gathering these offerings; to receive other offerings as directed by the Session; and to see that all offerings are distributed among the objects toward which they have been contributed. It is their duty also to have the care of the property of the congregation, both real, and personal, and to keep in proper repair the church edifice and other buildings belonging to the congregation. In matters of special importance affecting the property of the church they can take final action only with the consent of the congregation. The regular budget and other important financial matters require the approval of the Session. [45]

§ 12–4. The Deacons of a particular church shall be organized as a Board, of which the Pastor and Associate Pastor shall be advisory members. The Board shall elect a Chairman and a Secretary from among its own number. The Secretary shall keep a record of the Board's proceedings, and shall submit its minutes to the Session at least once every six months and at other times upon the request of the Session. The Board shall appoint a Church Treasurer who shall be responsible to the Board. The Church Treasurer shall be entrusted with the regular offerings of the congregation. He shall keep a record of all funds in his custody for inclusion in the minutes of the Board. The Board shall meet at regular intervals, or upon the call of its Chairman, or whenever requested by the Session. It shall meet at least quarterly. The Board of each church shall determine the number necessary for a quorum. [47]

§ 12–5. As the jurisdiction of the whole church is in the hands of the Session, the Deacons, in the discharge of their duties, are under the supervision and authority of the Session. If it seems necessary or wise for the best interest of the church, the Session may void or amend any action of the Board of Deacons, or return it to them for further consideration. It is desirable that the Session and the Board of Deacons meet in joint session once a quarter to confer on matters of common interest. At such meetings the moderator of the Session shall preside. The joint meeting can make no binding decision, but the Session and Board of Deacons can act separately on matters committed to the care of each. In a church in which Deacons can not be secured, the duties of the office shall devolve upon the Ruling Elders. [45 & 47]

§ 12–6. Deacons may properly be appointed by the higher courts to serve on committees, or as trustees or treasurers.

§ 12–7. As expedient the Session may select and appoint godly women of the congregation to assist the Deacons in ministering to the sick, to the aged, to widows, to orphans, to prisoners, and to others in any distress or need, and in exercising care of the church property. They may also aid the Deacons in collecting and distributing the offerings of the people. [50]

PART IV—DOCTRINE OF CHURCH COURTS

CHAPTER 13—CHURCH COURTS IN GENERAL

§ 13–1. A definite form is necessary for the government of the Church. It is expedient, and agreeable to Scripture and to the practice of the early Christians that the Church be governed by representative assemblies, composed exclusively of Presbyters or Elders. These assemblies, called Church courts, in the order of their regular gradation, are: Church Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods, and the General Assembly. Officers for each of these courts are a Moderator and a Clerk or Clerks as may be determined by the court. [51 & 52]

§ 13–2. The Pastor is Moderator of the Church Session. The Moderator of the Presbytery, the Synod, and the General Assembly shall be elected at each stated meeting of these courts and must be a member of the court. In these higher courts, the Moderator, or in case of his absence, the last Moderator present, or in case of the absence of any former Moderator the Minister in attendance of longest service in the court, shall hold the chair until a new Moderator is chosen, and shall ordinarily open the meeting with a sermon. [53]

§ 13–3. The Moderator has all authority necessary for the preservation of order and for the proper and expeditious conduct of all business before the court, and for convening and adjourning the court according to its own ruling. In any emergency he may, by circular letter, change the time or place, or both, of meetings to which the court stands adjourned, giving reasonable notice thereof [53]

§ 13–4. A Clerk, or Clerks, shall be elected by the Session, the Presbytery, the Synod, and the General Assembly to serve for a definite period, as determined by the court. It is the duty of the Clerk to record the transactions, to preserve the records carefully, and to furnish extracts from them when required by his own or a higher court. Such extracts, certified by the Clerk, shall be evidence to any ecclesiastical court, and to every part of the Church. [54]

§ 13–5. Meetings of Church courts should be opened and closed with prayer. [55]

§ 13–6. The expenses of a Minister or a Ruling Elder in attendance on a higher court shall be defrayed by the particular church or churches or agency of the Church which he serves, unless the higher court, to which he is accredited, pays these expenses out of its own treasury. The expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly shall be paid out of the treasury of the General Assembly. [56]

CHAPTER 14—JURISDICTION OF CHURCH COURTS

§ 14–1. Church courts are altogether distinct from the government of the state and possess no civil jurisdiction or power to inflict civil penalties.

§ 14–2. The jurisdiction of Church courts is only to serve Christ and to declare his will as it is related to his doctrine and law, to the good order of the Church, and to the exercise of discipline. [58]

§ 14–3. In the exercise of this jurisdiction:

(1) No Church court in virtue of its own authority can pretend to make laws to bind the conscience, since Christ is the only Lord of conscience and the Scriptures are the only rule of faith and morals.

(2) Church courts may frame symbols of faith, bear testimony against error in doctrine and immorality in practice within or without the Church, give counsel in matters of conscience, and decide issues properly brought before the court.

(3) Church courts have power to establish rules for the government, discipline, worship, and extension of the Church. These rules must be agreeable to the doctrines relating thereto in the Scriptures, since only the circumstantial details of these matters are left to the Christian prudence and wisdom of Church officers and courts.

(4) Church courts possess the right of requiring obedience to the laws of Christ. Hence, they admit those qualified to sealing ordinances and to their respective offices and they exclude the disobedient from their offices or from sacramental privileges; but the highest censure to which their authority extends is to cut off the contumacious and impenitent from the congregation of believers.

(5) Church courts possess whatever administrative authority is necessary to give effect to these powers. [58]

§ 14–4. All Church courts possess the same kinds of rights and powers, and differ only as the Constitution may provide.

§ 14–5. For the orderly and efficient dispatch of the Church's business it is necessary that the sphere of action of each court should be distinctly defined. The Church Session exercises jurisdiction over a single church; the Prebytery over what is common to the Ministers, Sessions, and churches within a prescribed district; the Synod over what belongs in common to three or more Presbyteries, and their Ministers, Sessions, and churches; and the General Assembly over such matters as concern the whole Church. The jurisdiction of these courts is limited by the express provisions of the Constitution. Every court has the right to resolve questions of doctrine and discipline seriously and reasonably proposed, and in general to maintain truth and righteousness, condemning erroneous opinions and practices which tend to the injury of the peace, purity, or progress of the Church. Although each court exercises exclusive original jurisdiction over all matters specially belonging to it, the lower courts are subject to the review and control of the higher courts, in regular gradation. Disputed matters of doctrine and order, arising in lower courts, may be brought to higher courts for decision.

These courts are not separate and independent tribunals. They have a mutual relation, and every act of jurisdiction is the act of the whole Church performed by it through the appropriate Church court. [60] § 14–6. The acts and decisions of a lower court are brought under the supervision of a higher court in one or another of the following modes: (1) Review and Control; (2) Reference; (3) Appeal; (4) Complaint.

CHAPTER 15—THE CHURCH SESSION

§ 15–1. The Church Session consists of the Pastor and the Ruling Elders of a church. The Pastor is the Moderator of the Session. An Associate Pastor is also a member of the Session and may substitute for the Pastor as Moderator of the Session at the discretion of the Pastor and Session. All members of the Session, including the Pastor and Associate Pastor are entitled to vote. [61]

§ 15–2. If there are three or more Ruling Elders, the Pastor and two Ruling Elders shall constitute a quorum. If there are less than three Ruling Elders, the Pastor and one Ruling Elder shall constitute a quorum.

When a church has no Pastor, or in cases of emergency requiring immediate action when the Pastor is necessarily absent, and there are five or more Ruling Elders, three shall constitute a quorum; if there are less than five Ruling Elders, two shall constitute a quorum.

If there is only one Ruling Elder, he does not constitute a Session, but he should take spiritual oversight of the church, should represent it at Presbytery and Synod, should grant letters of dismission, should call meetings of the congregation, if needed, and should report to the Presbytery any matter needing the action of a Church court.

Any Session, by a majority of its members, may fix its own quorum, provided that it is not smaller than the quorum stated in this section. [61]

§ 15–3. In the absence of the Pastor, if an emergency requiring immediate action should arise, the Session may elect one of its members to preside. Should prudential reasons at any time make it advisable for a Minister other than the Pastor to preside, the Pastor may, with the concurrence of the Session, invite a Minister of the same Presbytery to perform this service. [62]

§ 15–4. When a church is without a Pastor, the Moderator of the Church Session shall be a Minister of the Presbyterian Church in the United States appointed for that purpose by the Presbytery, or one invited by the Session to preside on a particular occasion. When it is not feasible to procure such a Moderator, the Session may elect one of its own members to preside. In judicial cases, the Moderator shall be a Minister of the Presbytery to which the church belongs. [63]

§ 15–5. The Church Session shall hold stated meetings at least quarterly. The Pastor has the power to call a meeting of the Session when he may judge it necessary. He shall always convene it when requested to do so by any two of the Ruling Elders. The Session shall also convene when directed to do so by the Presbytery. When there is no Pastor or when emergencies arise requiring immediate action while the pastor is necessarily absent, the Session may be convened by two Ruling Elders. Except for these cases, the Session may not be convened by Ruling Elders. Reasonable notice of all called meetings is required when other than routine business is to be transacted. [66]

§ 15–6. The Church Session is charged with maintaining the spiritual government of the church. For this purpose it has power:

(1) To inquire into the knowledge and Christian conduct of the church members under its care.

(2) To admonish, to rebuke, to suspend or exclude from the Lord's Supper those found delinquent, according to the Rules of Discipline.

(3) To instruct parents who are communicants to present their children for baptism.

(4) To receive members into the communion of the church upon profession of faith in Jesus Christ, upon presentation of satisfactory letter of dismission, or, in the absence of such letter, upon reaffirmation of faith in Jesus Christ.

(5) To grant letters of dismission to other churches, which, when given to parents shall always include the names of their children.

(6) To instruct, examine, ordain, and install Ruling Elders and Deacons on their election by the church.

(7) To require these officers to devote themselves to their responsibility.

(8) To supervise the work of the Board of Deacons and examine the records of their proceedings.

(9) To develop and supervise the church school and the educational program of the church.

(10) To exercise, in accordance with the Directory for Worship, authority over the time and place of the preaching of the Word and of the administration of the Lord's Supper, over all other religious services, over the music in the services, and over the uses to which the church building and associated properties may be put.

(11) To assemble the people for worship when there is no Minister.

(12) To order collections for Christian purposes.

(13) To devise suitable measures for advancing the spiritual interests of the Church and of the congregation.

(14) To observe and carry out the lawful injunctions of the higher courts.

(15) To select from among the active Ruling Elders representatives to the Presbytery and the Synod, who shall, on their return, make report of their participation.

(16) To propose to the Presbytery such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church.

All organizations within the particular church shall be subject to the review and control of the Session. Each organization shall, if requested, render stated reports to the Session.

§ 15–7. Every Church Session shall keep an accurate record of its proceedings which shall be submitted at least once every year to Presbytery for its review and control.

§ 15–8. Every Session shall also keep an accurate record of baptisms, of non-communing members, of those admitted to the Lord's Table, of those received from other churches, of those dismissed to other churches, of those placed upon the inactive roll, and of the deaths and marriages of church members. [68]

CHAPTER 16—THE PRESBYTERY

§ 16–1. The Presbytery consists of all the Ministers and churches within a certain district. Each church shall be represented by a Ruling Elder commissioned by the Church Session. A church whose communicants exceed 1500 shall be represented by two Ruling Elders and shall be entitled to one more Ruling Elder for each additional 1000 communicants. [70]

§ 16–2. A Minister, holding a pastoral relationship to a church, or laboring under appointment of Presbytery, shall hold his membership in the Presbytery under whose jurisdiction he works. Ministers working at tasks not under the immediate jurisdiction of the Presbytery in which they reside shall hold membership in any convenient Presbytery with its consent. When a Minister, by reason of age or infirmity, is no longer able to serve the church in the active ministry of the Gospel, the Presbytery may designate him as Honorably Retired. Ministers honorably retired shall ordinarily continue to hold membership in the Presbytery by which they were retired. [71]

§ 16–3. Each Ruling Elder before being enrolled as a member of Presbytery shall present a certificate of commission from the Session of the church which he represents, similar to that required by the General Assembly. Presbytery may waive this requirement at its discretion. [72]

§ 16–4. Three Ministers belonging to the Presbytery, together with one Ruling Elder, being met at the time and place appointed, shall be a quorum competent to proceed to business. However, any Presbytery, by a majority vote of those present at a stated meeting, may fix its own quorum, provided it is not smaller than the quorum stated in this section. [73]

§ 16–5. Every Minister seeking admission to a Presbytery shall be examined on his Christian experience and on his views in Theology, the Sacraments, and Church Government.

In addition a Minister who comes from another denomination shall first be required to present evidence of having obtained a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent from a standard four-year college or university, together with a theological degree, based on not less than three years' residence, or its equivalent, from a theological seminary under the control of our Church or another theological seminary which the Presbytery must approve in his particular case. He shall also answer in the affirmative before the Presbytery the questions put to candidates at their ordination and shall have been regularly called to a pastorate or to other labor in this denomination. He shall also give satisfactory evidence of his knowledge of the organizational structure and program of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The Presbytery shall not waive any of the foregoing educational requirements for applicants coming from other denominations except in extraordinary cases which shall require consent of three-fourths of members of Presbytery present, and shall be voted on only in a meeting of Presbytery subsequent to one in which motion is made, and shall have full record of such action, and the reason therefor recorded in the minutes of Presbytery. [74]

§ 16–6. The Presbytery shall cause to be transcribed, in some convenient part of the book of records, the obligations required of Ministers at their ordination, which shall be subscribed by all admitted to membership, in the following form, namely: "I, _____, do sincerely receive and subscribe to the above obligation as a just and true exhibition of my faith and principles, and do resolve and promise to exercise my ministry in conformity thereunto." [75]

§ 16–7. The Presbytery has power:

(1) To receive and decide appeals, complaints, and references brought before it according to constitutional procedures.

(2) To assume original jurisdiction in cases in which a Church Session cannot exercise its authority.

(3) To review the records of Sessions, redress whatever they may have done contrary to order, and take effectual care that they observe the Constitution of the Church.

(4) To see that the lawful injunctions of the higher courts are obeyed.

(5) To visit churches for the purpose of inquiring into and redressing the evils that may have arisen in them. When necessary for the welfare of the Church the Presbytery may dissolve the active relationship between an Elder or Deacon and the church, provided there has been a hearing which affords procedural safeguards as in cases of process.

(6) To unite or divide churches, at the request of the members thereof.

(7) To organize new churches.

(8) To receive and dismiss churches.

(9) To dissolve churches.
(10) To take special oversight of churches without Pastors.
(11) To receive under its care candidates for the ministry.
(12) To ordain, receive, dismiss, install, remove, and judge Ministers, all which, except ordaining and installing, require a meeting of the Presbytery.
(13) To establish the pastoral relationship; and to dissolve it at the request of one or both of the parties, or, when it finds that the interests of religion imperatively demand it, following a hearing which provides procedural safeguards as in cases of process.
(14) To set apart Evangelists to their proper work.
(15) To require Ministers to devote themselves diligently to their sacred calling and to censure the delinquent.
(16) To devise measures for the enlargement of the Church within its bounds.
(17) To condemn erroneous opinions which injure the purity or peace of the Church.
(18) To order whatever pertains to the spiritual welfare of the churches under its care.
(19) To select commissioners to the General Assembly.
(20) To propose to the Synod or to the Assembly such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church [76]

§ 16–8. The Presbytery shall keep a full and accurate record of its proceedings, and shall send it up to the Synod annually for review. It shall report to the Synod and the General Assembly every year the condition and progress of religion within its bounds during the year; and all the important changes which may have taken place, such as the licensures, the ordinations, the receiving or dismissing of members, the removal of members by death, the union and the division of churches, and the formation of new ones. [77]

§ 16–9. The Presbytery shall hold stated meetings at least twice a year. When any emergency shall require a meeting earlier than the time to which the Presbytery stands adjourned, the Moderator shall, at the request, or with the concurrence, of two Ministers and of two Ruling Elders representing at least two churches call a special meeting. Should the Moderator be for any reason unable to act, the Stated Clerk shall, under the same requirements, issue the call. If both Moderator and Stated Clerk are unable to act, any three Ministers and two Ruling Elders representing at least two churches shall have power to call a meeting. Notice of the special meeting shall be sent not less than ten days in advance to each Minister and to the Session of every church without a Pastor. In the notice the purpose of the meeting shall be stated, and no business other than that named in the notice is to be transacted. The Presbytery shall also convene when directed so to do by the Synod, for the transaction of designated business only. [78]

§ 16–10. Ministers in good standing in other Presbyteries, or in any evangelical Church, being present at any meeting of Presbytery, may be invited to sit as visiting brethren. It is proper for the Moderator to introduce these brethren to the Presbytery. This provision shall also apply to the Synod and General Assembly. [79]

CHAPTER 17—THE SYNOD

§ 17–1. The Synod consists of all Ministers and churches in a district comprising at least three Presbyteries. Each church shall be represented by a Ruling Elder commissioned by the Church Session, except that a church whose communicants exceed 1500 shall be represented by one additional Ruling Elder. It shall be entitled to one additional Ruling Elder for each additional 1000 communicants. [80]

§ 17–2. Each Ruling Elder before being enrolled as a member of Synod shall present a certificate of commission from the Session of the church which he represents, similar to that required by the General Assembly. Synod may waive this requirement at its discretion.

§ 17–3. The Synod shall meet at least once each year. Seven Ministers belonging to it, who shall convene at the time and place of meeting, with at least three Ruling Elders, shall be a quorum, provided not more than three of the said Ministers belong to one Presbytery. In the case of a Synod composed of only three Presbyteries, any seven Ministers representing any two Presbyteries, together with three Ruling Elders, shall be a quorum. [81]

§ 17–4. When any emergency shall require a meeting of the Synod earlier than the time to which it stands adjourned, the Moderator shall, at the request or with the concurrence of ten Ministers and ten Ruling Elders, representing at least three Presbyteries, call a special meeting. Should the Moderator be for any reason unable to act, the Stated Clerk shall, under the same requirements, issue the call. Notice of this special meeting shall be sent not less than fifteen days in advance to each Minister and to the Session of every church without a Pastor. In the notice the purpose of the meeting is to be stated and no other business than that named in the notice is to be transacted. The Synod shall also convene when directed to do so by the General Assembly, for the transaction of designated business only. [82]

§ 17–5. The Synod has power:

(1) To receive and decide all appeals, complaints, and references regularly brought up from the Presbyteries.

(2) To review the records of the Presbyteries, and redress whatever they may have done contrary to order.

(3) To take effectual care that they observe the Constitution of the Church, and that they obey the lawful injunctions of the higher courts.

(4) To establish new Presbyteries, and unite or divide those which were before established.

(5) To appoint Ministers to such work proper to their office, as may fall under its own particular jurisdiction.

(6) To take such order with respect to the Presbyteries, Sessions, and churches under its care as may be in conformity with the Word of God and the constitution, and may tend to promote the edification of the Church.

(7) To organize measures for advancing the prosperity and enlargement of the Church within its bounds.

(8) To propose to the General Assembly such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church. [83]

§ 17–6. It shall be the duty of the Synod to keep full and accurate records of its proceedings, to submit them annually to the inspection of the General Assembly, and to report to it the number of its Presbyteries, the number of communing members therein, and all important changes which may have occurred within its bounds during the year. [84]

CHAPTER 18—THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

§ 18–1. The General Assembly is the highest court of this Church and represents in one body all the churches thereof. It bears the title of THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, and constitutes the bond of union, peace, and correspondence among all its congregations and courts. [85]

§ 18–2. The General Assembly, which is a permanent court, shall meet at least annually, and shall consist of Commissioners from the Presbyteries in the following proportion, namely: Every Presbytery shall be entitled to send one Minister and one Ruling Elder; but if the number of communicants in its churches and Ministers on its roll together be over 5,000, it shall be entitled to send an additional Minister and Ruling Elder; and in like proportion for every 5,000 communicants and Ministers. [86]

§ 18–3. When any emergency shall require a meeting of the General Assembly earlier than the time to which it stands adjourned, the Moderator shall issue a call for a special meeting at the request, or with the concurrence, of twenty-seven Commissioners who had seats in the Assembly at its preceding meeting, of whom at least eighteen shall be Ministers and seven Ruling Elders, representing at least twelve Presbyteries under the jurisdiction of at least five Synods.

Should the Moderator be for any reason unable to act, the Stated Clerk shall, under the same requirements, issue the call. The members of the special meeting shall be the Commissioners elected to the preceding meeting of the Assembly or their alternates. A Presbytery, however, shall have the right to elect a Commissioner or alternate in the stead of one who has died since the last meeting of the Assembly, or of one who has notified the Moderator of the Presbytery of his inability to serve. Notice of the special meeting shall be sent not less than twenty days in advance to each Commissioner and to the Moderator of each Presbytery. In the notice the purpose of the meeting is to be stated, and no other business is to be transacted. [87]

§ 18–4. Each Commissioner, before his name shall be enrolled as a member of the Assembly, shall produce from his Presbytery a commission under the hand of the Moderator and Clerk in the following or like form, namely:

"The Presbytery of ..... being met at ..... on the ..... day of ..... doth hereby appoint ....., Minister (or Ruling Elder, as the case may be), and in the case of his absence, then ....., Minister (or Ruling Elder, as the case may be), to be a Commissioner on behalf of this Presbytery to the next General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to meet at ....., on the ..... day of ..... A.D. ....., or wherever and whenever the said Assembly may happen to sit; to consult, vote, and determine on all things that may come before that body, according to the principles and Constitution of this Church and the Word of God. And of his diligence herein he is to render an account at his return.

Signed by order of the Presbytery."

..... Clerk ..... Moderator [88]

§ 18–5. Any eighteen of these Commissioners, of whom at least one-half shall be Ministers, and at least five shall be Ruling Elders, representing at least twelve Presbyteries under the jurisdiction of at least five Synods, being met on the day and at the place appointed, shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. [89]

§ 18–6. The General Assembly shall have power:

(1) To decide all appeals, references, and complaints regularly brought before it from the lower courts.

(2) To bear testimony against error in doctrine and immorality in practice, injuriously affecting the Church.

(3) To decide finally in all controversies brought before it respecting doctrine and discipline.

(4) To give its advice and instruction, in conformity with the Constitution, in all cases submitted to it.

(5) To review the records of the Synods.

(6) To take care that the lower courts observe the Constitution.

(7) To redress whatever the lower courts may have done contrary to order.

(8) To organize measures for advancing the prosperity and enlargement of the Church.

(9) To establish new Synods.

(10) To institute and superintend the agencies necessary in the general work of the Church.

(11) To appoint Ministers to such labors as fall under its jurisdiction.

(12) To suppress schismatical contentions and disputations, according to the rules provided therefor.

(13) To receive under its jurisdiction, with the consent of three-fourths of the Presbyteries, other ecclesiastical bodies whose organization is conformed to the doctrine and order of this Church.

(14) To authorize Synods to exercise similar power in receiving bodies suited to become constituents of those courts, and lying within their geographical bounds respectively.

(15) To superintend the affairs of the whole Church.

(16) To correspond with other Churches.

(17) To unite with other ecclesiastical bodies whose organization is conformed to the doctrines and order of this Church, such union to be effected by a mode of procedure defined elsewhere in The Form of Government.

(18) To recommend measures for the promotion of charity, truth, and holiness through all the churches under its care. [90]

§ 18–7. The whole business of the Assembly being finished, and the vote taken for final adjournment, the Moderator shall say from the chair: "By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, I do now declare that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States is now adjourned, to convene at ..... on the ..... day of ....., A.D. .....," after which he shall pray and return thanks, and pronounce, or cause to be pronounced, on those present, the apostolic benediction. [91]

CHAPTER 19—COMMITTEES AND COMMISSIONS OF CHURCH COURTS

§ 19–1. A Committee of a Church court is appointed either to study and recommend, or to carry into effect decisions already made by the court, or to perform specific actions for the court and in the name of the court. A Committee's report is admitted to record by the court. Its recommendations require action by the court; but its report of performing actions assigned by the court and of executing the court's decisions needs to receive no further action by the court.

§ 19–2. A Commission is given responsibility to make decisions for the court in circumstances where it is impractical or inexpedient for the entire court to act. The appointing court shall state specifically the scope of the power given to a Commission. The only matters properly committed to a Commission are: (1) the visitation of portions of the Church affected by disorder to settle the difficulties therein, and (2) the handling and deciding of judicial cases for the court. A Commission may, however, be assigned additional duties as a Committee, the reporting of which shall be handled as is a Committee's report.

(1) A Commission which has been appointed to visit some portion of the Church affected with disorder shall submit a full record of its proceedings to the appointing court. The court, without amendment, shall approve or disapprove. When approved, this record shall be entered on the minutes as the action of the court. When disapproved, the court shall determine in what further manner it will handle the matter.

(2) A Commission may be appointed by the Presbytery or the Synod to handle and decide any judicial case coming before the court. When the Presbytery or Synod is the court of original jurisdiction, any member of the court may be appointed to the Commission except those immediately involved in the case. When the case has arisen in a lower court and comes before the higher court by one of the constitutional methods, the Commission shall be appointed from among those not members of that court from which the case has come.

The Commission shall try the case in the manner prescribed by the Rules of Discipline. It shall submit to the court a full statement of the case and the judgment rendered, all of which shall be entered on the minutes of the court as the action and judgment of the court itself.

§ 19–3. A Commission of Presbytery shall consist of at least three Ministers and three Ruling Elders. A Commission of Synod or of the General Assembly shall consist of at least six Ministers and six Ruling Elders. The quorum of a Commission shall be at least two-thirds of its membership. [92, 93, 94, 95]

CHAPTER 20—THE PERMANENT JUDICIAL COMMISSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

§ 20–1. The General Assembly shall elect a Permanent Judicial Commission, composed of six Ministers and six Ruling Elders, of whom not more than one shall belong to any one synod. Four members shall be elected each year to serve a term of three years. No person who has served two terms, or portions thereof, shall be eligible for re-election. No member of any other commission, permanent committee, or agency of the General Assembly, and no person holding an official or employed relationship to the General Assembly or any of its agencies shall be eligible for membership on the Permanent Judicial Commission until he shall have resigned such other relationship.

§ 20–2. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly shall refer to the Permanent Judicial Commission all questions rising from courts of the Church or from individuals requiring an official interpretation of or suggesting the amending of the Constitution, and all cases of process coming before the General Assembly.

§ 20–3. The quorum of the Permanent Judicial Commission shall be seven members. A member of the Commission who is a member of a court from which a case of process has come before the General Assembly has the privilege of the floor when the case is heard by the Commission, but shall not have a vote in the determination of the case. A member of the Commission who has not been present throughout the hearing shall not have a vote in the decision.

§ 20–4. The necessary expenses of this Commission shall be provided for by the General Assembly. It shall elect annually from its members a chairman and a secretary.

§ 20–5. The Permanent Judicial Commission shall meet as directed by the General Assembly, provided that, if business has arisen which it must transact for the Assembly, the Commission shall meet within one week of the opening session of the General Assembly, and shall begin to report its preliminary judgments on the second day of the General Assembly's session.

§ 20–6. On questions of amending the Constitution the Commission shall act as a Committee. It shall report to the General Assembly all pertinent facts, particularly those concerning the relation of the proposed amendment to the Constitution as a whole, and shall recommend to the General Assembly as to the approval or rejection of the proposed amendment. The Assembly can not consider an amendment until it has been reported upon by the Commission.

§ 20–7. In cases of process referred to it, the Permanent Judicial Commission shall have the powers prescribed by, and shall conduct its proceedings according to, the Constitution and the rules governing the trial of such cases before the General Assembly. The decision of the Permanent Judicial Commission in any case referred to it shall be merely the preliminary judgment in that case. This decision shall be binding on each party therein until the General Assembly shall hear, and either confirm or reject the preliminary judgment. The preliminary judgment shall be presented to the General Assembly in the form of an opinion setting forth the findings of fact and the conclusions derived therefrom.

§ 20–8. The secretary of the Permanent Judicial Commission shall keep a full and correct record of the proceedings and the preliminary judgment of the Commission in each case of process referred to it; shall with the chairman certify in writing such record and judgment to be correct; and shall file such record and judgment with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly shall transmit to each party in the case a certified copy of the judgment if confirmed by the General Assembly, and shall preserve it as a part of the records of the court.

§ 20–9. The General Assembly shall hear the preliminary judgment and any written dissenting opinion from a member of the Permanent Judicial Commission. The General Assembly shall then vote upon the question: "Shall the preliminary judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission be made the final judgment of the General Assembly?" This question shall not be subject to amendment.

§ 20–10. If a majority of the General Assembly vote to confirm, the Moderator shall declare that the preliminary judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission is now the final judgment of the General Assembly, and the case is therewith closed.

§ 20–11. If the General Assembly fails to confirm by a majority vote the preliminary judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission on a judicial case, it shall then determine whether to commit the case to a special judicial commission or to try the case itself.

CHAPTER 21—THE PRESBYTERY'S COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

§ 21–1. A committee shall be appointed by each Presbytery, to be known as the Presbytery's Committee on the Minister and His Work. This Committee shall consist of at least three Ministers and two Ruling Elders. The quorum of the Committee shall be any three members.

Membership on this Committee shall be for a term of three years. Replacement of a member whose term has not expired shall be for the remainder of that term. Members shall be ineligible to serve more than two consecutive terms or portions of terms.

The necessary expense of this Committee shall be provided for by the Presbytery.

§ 21–2. This Committee shall function for the Presbytery in the following ways:

(1) It shall be responsible for reporting to the Presbytery annually the type of work in which each Minister of the Presbytery is engaged, to the end that the Presbytery itself may more effectively require its Ministers to devote themselves diligently to their sacred calling, as provided in the Rules of Discipline.

(2) It shall be responsible for making recommendation to Presbytery regarding calls for the services of its Ministers. Every call for the services of a Minister or Candidate in a pastoral relation shall be placed in the hands of the Committee and presented by it to the Presbytery, with a report as to the call's being in order and a recommendation as to whether the call should be placed in the hands of the Minister or Candidate. Every request of a Minister or Candidate for the Presbytery's approval of his accepting a task proper to the Ministry of the Word, though not in a pastoral relationship to a particular church, shall be made by the Minister or Candidate through the Committee to the Presbytery, and shall by the Committee be reported to the Presbytery with recommendation for final action.

(3) It shall be responsible for counselling with Sessions regarding Stated Supplies and Occasional Supplies when a church is without a Pastor. A current list shall be kept of available Ministers Honorably Retired from active service and others not regularly serving in a pastoral relation. A list shall be kept of available Candidates under care of the Presbytery and other Candidates enrolled in theological seminaries under the control of that Synod of which the Presbytery is part, and a list of Ruling Elders and other men qualified to supply pulpits.

The Session (or its representative) shall seek the counsel of the Committee before making arrangements for the supply of the church's pulpit during a period of vacancy. The Session shall ordinarily secure the services of a Minister as Stated Supply for some definite period.

The Presbytery shall not approve a Minister's being called to a permanent pastoral relationship by a church which he has served as Stated Supply, unless a period of six months has elapsed between the ending of the Stated Supply relationship and the church's issuing a call to a permanent pastoral relationship.

The lists of Candidates, Ruling Elders, and others shall be available for the use of churches which cannot secure a Minister as Stated or Occasional Supply.

(4) It shall be responsible for counselling with churches regarding pastoral calls.

To carry out this function the Committee shall meet with every Nominating Committee appointed by a church to recommend the calling of a Pastor or an Associate Pastor. It shall advise the church's committee regarding the merits, availability, and suitability of any man whose name is contemplated for nomination to the congregation, and shall have the privilege of suggesting names to the church's committee.

When a Session desires to call a Minister to serve in any of the functions properly performed by an Assistant Minister, the Session (or its representative) shall seek the counsel of the Presbytery's Committee.

No call to a permanent pastoral relationship shall be in order for consideration by the Presbytery unless the church has received and considered the counsel of the Presbytery through its Committee before action is taken to issue a call.

In the case of a church receiving aid in supporting a Pastor, the Presbytery's Committee shall confer with both the church and that committee of the Presbytery charged with arranging such aid, before it shall recommend to the Presbytery that a call to such church or group of churches be placed in the hands of a Minister. The proper committee of the Presbytery shall present to the Committee on the Minister and His Work a statement of the Presbytery's expected support for a Pastor, which shall be attached to the call of the church.

(5) It shall serve as an instrument of Presbytery in promoting the peace and harmony of the churches, especially in regard to matters arising out of the relations between Ministers and churches. The Committee's purpose shall be to mediate differences and reconcile brethren, to the end that the difficulties may be corrected by the Session of the church involved, the welfare of the particular church be promoted, and the unity of the Church in Christ her Head be made manifest.

The Committee shall exercise a wise discretion in determining when to take cognizance of information concerning difficulties within a church. The Committee shall first, on its own initiative, bring its information to the attention of the Session of the church involved and counsel with them as to proper steps to be taken in correcting reported difficulties. Should the Session either find itself unable to settle peaceably the problems presented to them, or take no steps toward settlement, the Committee may, at its discretion, offer its service as mediator. Should this offer be declined, the Committee on the Minister and His Work may, at its discretion, report the matter to Presbytery for such action as the Presbytery thinks best. The Presbytery may then name the membership of the Committee on the Minister and His Work to be a commission with authority to settle a specific case. [96]

CHAPTER 22—SYNOD AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

§ 22–1. To facilitate the work of the Committees in the Presbyteries, each Synod and the General Assembly shall appoint a permanent Committee on the Minister and His Work. [98]

PART V—DOCTRINE OF CHURCH ORDERS

CHAPTER 23—THE DOCTRINE OF CALLING TO OFFICE IN THE CHURCH

§ 23–1. Calling to office in the Church is the act of God by his Holy Spirit. This calling is ordinarily made manifest through the inward testimony of a good conscience on the part of the person, the approbation of God's people on the part of the Church, and the concurring judgment of a lawful court of the Church. [100]

§ 23–2. The government of God's people in the Church is representative. The right of God's people to elect their officers is inalienable. Therefore, no man can be placed over a church in any office without the election of that church. [101]

§ 23–3. Upon those whom God calls to bear office in his Church he bestows gifts suitable to the discharge of their various duties. It is indispensable that, beside possessing the necessary gifts and the useful abilities both natural and acquired, every one admitted to an office should be sound in the faith, and his life be according to godliness. Therefore, every candidate for office in the Church shall be carefully examined and approved by the Church court by which he is to be ordained. [102]

§ 23–4. Ordination is the authoritative admission of one duly called to an office in the Church of God, accompanied with prayer and the laying on of hands, to which it is proper to add the giving of the right hand of Christian fellowship. [104]

Ordination to the office of Minister of the Word is an act of the Presbytery, performed by it either directly or through its proper agent.

Ordination to the office of Ruling Elder or of Deacon is an act of the Church Session. In the organization of a new church the Presbytery has power to ordain Ruling Elders and Deacons, either directly or through its proper agent, until that church possesses a Session competent to act. [103]

§ 23–5. No man shall be ordained to any office in the Church except to labor in some specific task.

Before a Candidate can be ordained to the Ministry of the Word he must have either received an orderly call from a particular church to labor in a pastoral relation, or have received a call to labor in some other function proper to the Minister of the Word. The Presbytery must express its approval.

Before any one can be ordained to the Ruling Eldership or to the Diaconate he must have been regularly elected by the particular church in which he is member to serve that church in the functions of his office. [105]

CHAPTER 24—CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

§ 24–1. The Scripture requires that some trial be previously had of men who are to be ordained to the Ministry of the Word, in order that this sacred office may not be degraded by being committed to weak or unworthy men, and that the Church may have an opportunity to form a better judgment respecting the gifts and abilities of those by whom they are to be instructed and governed.

For this purpose Presbyteries shall take under their care Candidates for the Ministry of the Word, and shall permit them to preach the Gospel under supervision. After a competent trial of their gifts, and receiving from the churches a good report, the Presbytery may ordain them to the sacred office. No man shall be ordained without having first been a Candidate.

§ 24–2. A Candidate for the Ministry is a member of the Church in full communion who, believing himself to be called of God to preach the Gospel, submits himself to the care and guidance of the Presbytery in his course of study and of practical training to prepare himself for the office of Minister of the Word. [106]

§ 24–3. Every man seeking the Ministry of the Word shall apply to the Presbytery which has jurisdiction of the church in which he is member, to be received under the care of that Presbytery. He shall first state his purpose to his Church Session. The Session shall advise with him and shall, at his request furnish the Presbytery with a certificate of his membership and with testimonials of its judgment regarding his Christian character and promise of usefulness in the Ministry. He shall have been a member of that congregation for the six months preceding the filing of his application to the Presbytery.

Every applicant shall make his application to the Chairman of the Committee charged with the care of Candidates at least two months before the meeting of the Presbytery which shall hear his request.

Upon receipt of the application the Committee shall inquire diligently into the Christian character and the physical, mental, and spiritual qualifications of the applicant, and shall make a careful report to the Presbytery upon all points which would have bearing upon his promise of usefulness in the Ministry. The Committee shall recommend to the Presbytery whether or not the applicant should be received under its care. [107]

§ 24–4. After the Presbytery has heard the report and recommendation of the Committee regarding an applicant, the Moderator shall examine him before the Presbytery as to his experience of Christian grace and his motives for seeking the Ministry of the Word.

When the Presbytery is satisfied as to the applicant's purpose and promise of usefulness in the Ministry, it shall proceed to receive him under its care after the following form:

The Moderator shall briefly state the approval given by the Church Session and the Presbytery to the applicant's desire to be received as a Candidate for the Ministry of the Word. He shall also state the necessity that this sacred office not be committed to unworthy men, and the need for both the training and the trial of a Candidate's gifts before he may be ordained to the Ministry.

The applicant shall stand before the Moderator, who shall say: "The Presbytery of ----------, having approved your testimonials and sustained your examination, now requires you to make answer to the following questions:

"Do you, as far as you know your own heart, believe yourself to be called of God to the office of the Ministry of the Word?

"Do you promise, in reliance upon the grace of God, to maintain a Christian character and conduct, and to be diligent and faithful in making full preparation for this sacred Ministry?

"Do you promise to submit yourself to the proper supervision of the Presbytery in matters that concern your preparation for the Ministry?

"Do you desire now to be received by this Presbytery as a candidate for the Ministry of the Word in the Presbyterian Church in the United States?"

The applicant, having answered these questions in the affirmative, shall then kneel, and prayer shall be had for the blessing of Almighty God upon him.

Then the applicant, together with the Presbytery, shall stand. The Moderator shall declare him acknowledged and received as a Candidate for the Ministry of the Word, and direct that his name be recorded on the Presbytery's Roll of Candidates for the Ministry.

The Moderator shall then extend to the Candidate the right hand of Christian fellowship, and the proceedings shall be closed with a benediction. [108]

§ 24–5. A Candidate continues to be a private member of the church and subject to the government and discipline of the Church Session, but is under the oversight of the Presbytery in matters of his preparation for the Ministry.

The Presbytery shall show a constant and personal interest in him, and shall give him counsel and guidance in regard to his studies, his practical training, and the institutions of learning he should attend.

In no case may a Candidate omit from his course of study any of the subjects prescribed in the Form of Government as tests for ordination without obtaining the consent of the Presbytery. Where such consent is given the Presbytery shall record the fact and the reasons therefor. [109]

§ 24–6. For the development of his Christian character, for the service he can render, and for his more effective training, the Candidate, during his theological studies, should be authorized and encouraged by the Presbytery to conduct public worship, to expound the Scripture to the people, and to engage in other forms of Christian work. These forms of service should be rendered under the direction of the Presbytery, and also with the sanction and under the guidance of the Candidate's instructors during the time of his being under their instruction. [110]

§ 24–7. A Candidate shall not undertake to serve a church which is without a Pastor unless he has the approval both of the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church, and of that Presbytery under whose care he is. [110]

§ 24–8. Every Candidate shall make a full report concerning his preparation for the ministry annually, and at other times as the Presbytery shall require. The Presbytery shall secure from his instructors an annual report upon his Christian deportment, upon his diligence and progress in study, and upon his ability to serve the Church as demonstrated by success in the activities of his practical training. [111]

§ 24–9. The Presbytery may, upon the request of a Candidate who has transferred his membership to a church of another Presbytery, give him a certificate of dismission to that Presbytery. The certificate of dismission shall contain an extract of the record of his reception, and a recommendation from the Presbytery, signed by the Clerk. A Candidate shall be allowed to withdraw from the care of the Presbytery upon his statement that he no longer feels called of God to the Ministry. The Presbytery may, for reasons which it deems sufficient, remove the name of a Candidate from its roll of Candidates. In such case it shall report its action and the reasons therefor to the Candidate, to the Session of his church, and to the institution of learning in which he is pursuing his studies. [112]

§ 24–10. If the Presbytery judges that there are good and sufficient reasons why a man requesting to be received as a Candidate for the Ministry should not pursue the full course of academic and theological studies, the Presbytery may, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, receive him under its care. In every such extraordinary case the Presbytery shall make a full record of its action and the reasons therefor. The Presbytery shall specify what study and practical training it judges necessary before it can examine him for ordination. It shall also specify the period it will require the applicant to serve as a Candidate before it will proceed to examine him for ordination.

§ 24–11. In no case shall a Presbytery examine a man for ordination at the same meeting at which he applies to be received as a Candidate, unless he is being received by certificate from another Presbytery and has been called to a work in the Presbytery.

§ 24–12. When a Candidate has been extended a call for his ministerial services within the bounds of another Presbytery, he may be dismissed to that Presbytery to be examined for ordination. When a Candidate who is under the care of some other Reformed body is issued a call by a Congregation of the Presbyterian Church, U.S., he may be received as a Candidate by certificate.

CHAPTER 25—THE PASTORAL RELATIONS OF MINISTERS

§ 25–1. The permanent pastoral relations which may exist between a Minister of the Word and a particular church are: Pastor, Associate Pastor, and Assistant Pastor.

The temporary pastoral relations which may exist between a Minister of the Word and a particular church are: Stated Supply, and Occasional Supply. [126]

§ 25–2. In each church there should be a Pastor who has the duty of offering the full ministry of the Word and Sacraments. With the Session he shall see that the order and discipline of the Church under Christ her Head are properly observed.

A Pastor shall be elected by a vote of the congregation, and the call extended shall follow the form outlined in The Form of Government. This relation is established by installation, an act of the Presbytery, and is dissolved only by an act of Presbytery. [126]

§25–3. A church may call other Ministers of the Word to labor with the Pastor in performing such pastoral duties as are needful for the edification of that church. These may be either Associate Pastors, or Assistant Pastors.

(a) An Associate Pastor shall be elected by the vote of the congregation. The terms of the call shall follow the form outlined for the calling of a Pastor, and shall specify the particular functions which the Associate Pastor is to fulfill in the life of that church. This relation is established by installation, an act of Presbytery, and is dissolved only by an act of Presbytery. Being elected by the congregation, an Associate Pastor is a member of the Session of that church.

The terms of a call under which the relation of Pastor or Associate Pastor is established can be changed only with the consent of the Presbytery.

The official relationship of an Associate Pastor to a church is not dependent upon that of the Pastor, but an Associate Pastor is not eligible to succeed the Pastor in a church which they serve together.

(b) An Assistant Pastor is called by the vote of the Church Session, but only after the Session has consulted the Presbytery through its Committee on the Minister and His Work. The terms of the call as extended by the Church Session shall follow the form outlined for the calling of a Pastor, and shall specify the particular functions which the Assistant Pastor is to fulfill in the life of that church. The relation is established as an agreement between the Church Session and the Assistant Pastor, which must be approved by the Presbytery. It shall be solemnized before the congregation by an installation conducted by the Church Session. The relation may be dissolved by the Church Session on the initiative of either of the parties, but only after the Session has consulted the Presbytery through its Committee on the Minister and His Work. Not being a Church officer elected by the congregation, the Assistant Pastor is not a member of the Session of that church, but should be invited by the Session to be present at its meetings.

The official relationship of an Assistant Pastor to a church shall be reviewed by the Session when the relationship of the Pastor to that church is dissolved. An Assistant Pastor is not eligible to succeed the Pastor in a church which they serve together.

§ 25–4. When a church does not have a Pastor, or while the Pastor is unable to perform his duties, the Session should obtain the services of a Minister of this denomination in a temporary pastoral relation.

(a) A Stated Supply is a Minister invited by Church Session to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments, and to fulfill such pastoral duties as the Session thinks needful, for a definite period of not less than one month nor more than twelve months at a time. This relation is established only by an act of the Presbytery, after recommendation of its Committee on the Minister and His Work, and upon the request of the Church Session.

If the Stated Supply is a member of the Presbytery having jurisdiction of that church, the Presbytery may appoint him moderator of the Church Session during the period of his relationship to that church.

A Minister may not be called to be Pastor or Associate Pastor by a church which he has served as Stated Supply, unless six months have elapsed since the ending of the temporary relationship.

(b) An Occasional Supply is a Minister invited by the Church Session to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments on a specified day or days. Before arranging for Occasional Supplies over a period when a church has no Pastor, the Session shall consult with the Presbytery through its Committee on the Minister and His Work. When it is not feasible to secure a Minister as a Stated Supply or as an Occasional Supply, a Church Session may invite some Candidate, Ruling Elder, or other competent person to conduct the service of divine worship.

The Church Session may not secure any one Minister as Occasional Supply, or any other person to conduct divine worship, for longer than one month without the consent of the Presbytery through its Committee on the Minister and His Work. [126]

§ 25–5. When a Minister is called to labor as an Associate or an Assistant Pastor, or is invited to serve as Stated or Occasional Supply, those pastoral functions especially assigned as his duty in that church shall be clearly specified. [126]

CHAPTER 26—THE CALLING OF MINISTERS TO A DEFINITE WORK

§ 26–1. A church which desires to elect a Pastor or an Associate Pastor shall proceed after the following manner:

The Church Session shall call a congregational meeting to convene at the regular place of worship to elect a Nominating Committee representative of the whole congregation, whose duty shall be to nominate a Minister to the congregation for election to the desired pastoral relation. Public notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting shall be given at public worship at least one week prior to the time of the meeting.

The Nominating Committee shall promptly confer with the Presbytery's Committee on the Minister and His Work. All names submitted to the Nominating Committee, with information as to the source of the suggestion, shall be referred to the Committee on the Minister and His Work for its advice.

When the Nominating Committee is ready to report, it shall so notify the Session, which shall call a congregational meeting at the regular place of worship for the purpose of acting on the report of the Committee. Public notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting shall be given at public worship at least one week prior to the time of the meeting. [127]

§ 26–2. When a congregation is convened for the election of a Pastor, the Church Session shall appoint one of their number to call the congregational meeting to order, to lead the people in solemn prayer for Divine guidance, and to preside until the congregation shall elect a moderator.

For the orderly conduct of the election of a Pastor or an Associate Pastor, it is desirable that the congregation elect a Minister of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to preside. But if this is impracticable, they may elect any male member of that church as moderator for that meeting.

All communing members on the active roll of that particular church who are in good and regular standing, but no others, are entitled to vote. [128]

The moderator shall determine whether a quorum of the congregation is present. He shall then put the question: "Are you ready to proceed to the election of a Pastor (or, of an Associate Pastor)?"

If they declare themselves ready, the Moderator shall hear the report of the Nominating Committee and declare the name submitted by the Committee to be in nomination. He shall then give opportunity for nominations from the floor. Both the nomination of the Committee and any nomination from the floor must have been previously submitted to the Presbytery's Committee on the Minister and His Work for its advice.

The vote may be taken by standing count, or, if the congregation prefer, by written ballot.

In every case, a majority of the votes cast shall be required to elect, and the minutes shall record the number favoring the call and the number opposing the call. A certification of this record shall be sent with the call to the Presbytery, and sent as information to the Minister to whom the call is addressed. [129 & 130]

If it appears that a large minority of the voters are averse to the nominee, although he has received a majority of the votes cast, the Moderator shall raise the question whether the congregation should reconsider its vote.

§ 26–3. The call shall be in the following or like form: The _____ Presbyterian Church of _____, being fully satisfied with your ministerial qualifications, and confident that we have been led to you by the Holy Spirit as one whose ministry will be profitable to the spiritual interests of our church and fruitful for the Kingdom of our Lord, solemnly calls you, _____, to undertake the work as Pastor of this congregation, promising you in the discharge of your duty all proper support, encouragement and obedience in the Lord. That you may devote yourself wholly to the Ministry of the Word among us, we obligate ourselves to pay you the sum of $_____ a year in regular monthly payments. [Insert here other terms, including such matters as manse, vacation, expense allowances, moving costs, etc.] and will pay the church's portion into the Ministers' Annuity Fund on that basis determined by the General Assembly, during the time of your being and continuing in the pastoral relationship set forth in this call to this church.

In testimony whereof we have respectively subscribed our names this _____ day of _____, A.D. _____ Attest:

I, _____, having moderated the congregational meeting which extended a call to _____ for his ministerial services, do certify that the call has been made in all respects according to the rules laid down in the Book of Church Order, and that the persons who signed the foregoing call were authorized to do so by vote of the congregation.

Moderator of the Congregational Meeting

When the call is to an Associate Pastor or an Assistant Pastor, the proper term shall be substituted for the term "Pastor." It shall also be appropriate to include a designation of the function to be exercised, such as: Minister of Education, Minister to Students, Minister of Visitation, Minister of Missions, Minister of Church Administration, etc. [131]

§ 26–4. Persons shall be appointed by the public vote of the congregation to sign the call. The Moderator of the meeting shall certify to the Presbytery that those signing the call were properly appointed, and that the call was in all other respects prepared as constitutionally required.

§ 26–5. One or more commissioners shall be elected by the congregation to present the call to the Presbytery through its Committee on the Minister and His Work, and to prosecute the call before the Presbytery itself. [133]

§ 26–6. A call shall be placed in the hands of a Minister or a Candidate only by that Presbytery to which he belongs, or under whose care he is in his preparation for the Gospel Ministry. When the call has been presented to the Presbytery, if the Presbytery finds it in order and deems it for the good of the Church that it be accepted by that person to whom it is addressed, it shall place it in his hands that he may indicate whether he is ready to undertake the responsibilities stated in the call. [134, 135, & 136]

§ 26–7. When a church of one Presbytery extends a call to a Minister or a Candidate of another Presbytery, the commissioners appointed to prosecute the call shall so inform him. Upon receipt of such information he may request transfer to the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church, there to be examined and received. [136]

§ 26–8. When a court or agency of the Church shall call a Minister to labor in the Church at tasks edifying to the Church but not involving pastoral relationships, the court or agency shall lay before the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the Minister a call appropriate to the service involved.

CHAPTER 27—THE ORDINATION AND INSTALLATION OF MINISTERS

§ 27–1. Before a Candidate can be ordained to the office of Minister of the Word, he must have been called to a definite pastoral relation or to some other definite work in the Church of which the Presbytery approves. The only exception is that stated in the following section. [125]

§ 27–2. A Candidate who has completed his studies in preparation for ordination and has opportunity for further studies, may request his Presbytery to ordain him. If the Presbytery is assured of his good conscience and his acceptability to God's people, approves the Candidate's intended course of study, and thinks it best for the Candidate and for the Church, the Presbytery may, after examination, appoint him to the work of an Evangelist for a specified period of time, and proceed to his ordination.

§ 27–3. When a Candidate is called to work of which the Presbytery approves and indicates his willingness to accept, the Presbytery shall take immediate steps for his ordination. [137]

§ 27–4. No Presbytery shall ordain any Candidate to the office of the Gospel ministry to labor within the bounds of another Presbytery, but shall dismiss him as a Candidate to the Presbytery within whose bounds he expects to labor, that he may submit himself to its authority, according to the Constitution of the Church. [138]

§ 27–5. The requirements for ordination shall be as follows:

(1) The Presbytery shall carefully examine the Candidate as to his knowledge of the various theological studies, including the original languages of the Holy Scriptures, and as to his knowledge of such other branches of learning as shall appear suitable to the Presbytery. Certificates from a standard four-year college and from a standard theological seminary, requiring not less than three years in residence, may be accepted in lieu of these examinations with the exception of those in personal religious experience, Theology, Bible Content, the Sacraments, and Church Government, Discipline, and Worship.

(2) The Candidate shall prepare a thesis on some theological topic assigned by Presbytery.

(3) The Candidate shall prepare an exegesis on an assigned portion of Scripture, requiring the use of the original language or languages.

(4) The Candidate shall preach a sermon before the Presbytery on some assigned passage or text.

The Presbytery shall not omit any of these requirements for ordination, except in the case of an extraordinary Candidate when only the formal educational requirements may be waived and an assignment in exegesis may be substituted which does not require knowledge of the original languages. Such cases shall require consent of three-fourths of the members of Presbytery present and shall be voted upon in a meeting subsequent to the one in which the motion is made. A full record of such action and the reason therefor shall be recorded in the minutes of Presbytery.

When the Presbytery is fully satisfied concerning the Candidate's qualifications for the sacred office, it shall appoint a time for his ordination, which ought, if practical, to be in that church of which he is to be the Pastor. [139]

§ 27–6. On the day appointed for the ordination and installation of the Candidate, the Presbytery (or the Committee appointed by the Presbytery for the purpose) shall convene. The procedure shall be as follows:

A sermon suitable for the occasion shall be preached by a person appointed or invited by the Presbytery.

The member appointed to preside shall briefly state the proceedings of Presbytery preparatory to the ordination. He shall point out the nature and the importance of the ordinance and endeavor to impress the congregation with a proper sense of its solemnity.

The member presiding shall then propose to the candidate the following questions:

(1) Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?

(2) Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith and the Catechisms of this Church, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures?

(3) Do you promise that if at any time you find yourself out of accord with any of the fundamentals of this system of doctrine you will on your own initiative make known to your Presbytery the change which has taken place in your views since the assumption of this ordination vow?

(4) Do you approve the government and discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States?

(5) Do you promise subjection to your brethren in the Lord?

(6) Have you been induced, as far as you know your own heart, to seek the office of the holy ministry from love to God and a sincere desire to promote his glory in the Gospel of his Son?

(7) Do you promise to be zealous and faithful in maintaining the truths of the Gospel and the purity and peace of the Church, whatever persecution or opposition may arise unto you on that account?

(8) Do you engage to be faithful and diligent in the exercise of all your duties as a Christian and a Minister of the Gospel, whether personal or relative, private or public; and to endeavor by the grace of God to adorn the profession of the Gospel in your manner of life, and to walk with exemplary piety before the flock of which God shall make you overseer?

(9) Are you now willing to take the charge of this church, agreeably to your declaration when accepting their call? And do you, relying upon God for strength, promise to discharge to it the duties of a Pastor?

When the Candidate has answered all these questions in the affirmative, the presiding member shall propose to the church the following questions:

(1) Do you, the people of this congregation, continue to profess your readiness to receive ....., whom you have called to be your Pastor?

(2) Do you promise to receive the word of truth from his mouth with meekness and love, and to submit to him in the due exercise of discipline?

(3) Do you promise to encourage him in his labors, and to assist his endeavors for your instruction and spiritual edification?

(4) And do you engage to continue to him while he is your Pastor that material provision set forth in your call, and to furnish him with whatever you may see needful for the honor of religion?

When the people have answered these questions in the affirmative by holding up their right hands the Candidate shall kneel, and the Presbytery shall, with prayer and the laying on of the hands, according to the apostolic example, solemnly set him apart to the holy office of the Gospel ministry.

After the prayer the Candidate shall rise and the member who presides shall first, and afterwards all the members of the Presbytery in their order, take him by the right hand, saying, in words to this effect: "We give you the right hand of fellowship to take part in this ministry with us." The presiding member shall then say: I now pronounce and declare that _____ has been regularly elected, ordained, and installed Pastor of this congregation, agreeably to the Word of God, and according to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; and that as such he is entitled to all support, encouragement, honor, and obedience in the Lord: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

Members of the Presbytery, appointed for the purpose, shall give solemn charges to the Pastor and to the congregation to persevere in the discharge of their reciprocal duties.

After prayer and the singing of a psalm, or hymn, the congregation shall be dismissed with the benediction.

After the installation, the members of the congregation, or at least the Ruling Elders and Deacons, should come forward to their Pastor, and give him their right hand, in token of cordial reception and affectionate regard.

The Presbytery shall duly record the transaction. [140—143]

§ 27–7. The installation of an ordained Minister shall follow a procedure similar to that outlined for ordination and installation, with necessary changes and omissions. The following questions shall be substituted for those addressed to a candidate for ordination:

(1) Are you now willing to take charge of this congregation as their Pastor, agreeably to your declaration in accepting its call?

(2) Do you conscientiously believe and declare, as far as you know your own heart, that, in taking upon you this charge, you are influenced by a sincere desire to promote the glory of God and the good of the Church?

(3) Do you solemnly promise that, by the assistance of the grace of God, you will endeavor faithfully to discharge all the duties of a Pastor to this congregation, and will be careful to maintain a deportment in all respects becoming a Minister of the Gospel of Christ, agreeably to your ordination engagements? [144]

§ 27–8. The congregation and the Minister to be installed should prepare themselves for the service by prayer, worship, study, and other appropriate spiritual disciplines. [144]

§ 27–9. When a Minister is called as Pastor of two or more congregations, he must be installed in each congregation. This may be accomplished at a service held jointly by the congregations.

§ 27–10. In the ordination of Candidates to work as Evangelists or Teachers, the same questions are to be propounded as in the ordination of Pastors, with the exception of the ninth, for which the following shall be substituted:

"Do you now undertake the work of an Evangelist (or Teacher) and do you promise, in reliance upon God for strength, to be faithful in the discharge of all the duties incumbent upon you as a Minister of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ?" [145]

CHAPTER 28—DISSOLUTION OF PASTORAL RELATIONSHIPS

§ 28–1. The pastoral relationship between a Pastor or Associate Pastor and a church may be dissolved only by Presbytery. The Minister shall request the Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relation. He must also state his intention to the Session which shall call a congregational meeting in precisely the same manner as when the call of a Pastor is to be extended. The congregation may or may not concur with the request of the Minister. The Presbytery shall cite the church to appear by its commissioners; or the church may so appear on its own initiative, to show cause, if it has any, why the Presbytery should not dissolve the pastoral relation. If the church fails to appear, or if its reasons for retaining the relationship with the Minister be deemed insufficient, his request shall be granted, and the pastoral relation dissolved.

§ 28–2. If any church desires to be relieved of its Pastor, a similar procedure shall be observed. A congregation, after authorization by a duly called congregational meeting, may petition Presbytery to dissolve its relationship with its Pastor. The Pastor may or may not concur with the request of the congregation. The Presbytery shall cite the Pastor to appear; or he may appear on his own initiative, to show cause, if he has any, why Presbytery should not dissolve the relationship. If the Pastor fails to appear, or if his reasons for maintaining the relationship be deemed insufficient, the relationship may be dissolved. [146]

§ 28–3. When a Minister reaches the age of seventy years the pastoral relationship between him and the church or churches he is serving shall automatically terminate. The Minister shall notify the Presbytery through its Committee on the Minister and His Work six months before the date of his seventieth birthday.

A Minister serving as Pastor, Associate Pastor, Assistant Pastor, or Stated Supply at the date of his seventieth birthday is eligible for re-election in the same relationship for a term of one year at a time, not to exceed five terms. In the re-election of Pastors and Associate Pastors a congregational meeting shall be called for that purpose by the Session, after it has consulted with the Committee on the Minister and His work. No installation is necessary when a Minister is thus re-elected by the same church or churches.

A Minister may be called to serve as Assistant Pastor, Stated Supply, or Occasional Supply by a church or churches other than that in which he was serving when he reached the age of seventy, but not as Pastor or Associate Pastor.

§ 28–4. This provision for automatic termination of relationship at the age of seventy shall not be compulsory unless the church or churches have entered the Ministers' Annuity Fund, or have arranged for a retirement pension equal to the minimum provided by the Ministers' Annuity Fund.

§ 28–5. This provision for automatic termination of relationship at the age of seventy shall apply also to all Ministers serving the Church, its agencies, or its courts in any capacity. [147]

CHAPTER 29—ELECTION, ORDINATION, AND INSTALLATION OF RULING ELDERS AND DEACONS

§ 29–1. Every church shall elect persons to the offices of Ruling Elder and Deacon in the following manner:

(1) The Session shall order a congregational meeting to convene at the regular place of worship when it seems desirable for the church to have additional Ruling Elders or Deacons. If one-fourth of the persons entitled to vote shall at any time request the Session to call a congregational meeting for the purpose of electing additional officers, it shall be the duty of the Session without delay to call such a meeting.

(2) Public notice shall be given of the time, place, and purpose of this meeting at least one week prior to the appointed time.

(3) The congregation shall meet according to requirements of the Form of Government.

(4) The voters being convened, the Moderator shall explain the purpose of the meeting and then put the question: "Are you now ready to proceed to the election of additional Ruling Elders (or Deacons)?" If they declare themselves ready, the election may proceed by nomination, or by private ballot without nomination, as the congregation may prefer.

(5) The number of officers to be elected shall be determined by the congregation before the ballot.

(6) In every case a majority of all the votes cast shall be required to elect. [148—151]

§ 29–2. When any person has been elected to the office of Ruling Elder, or Deacon, the Session shall confer with him as to his willingness to undertake the office. After a period of instruction the Session shall examine him as to his religious experience, his knowledge and acceptance of the system of doctrine, government, and discipline contained in the Constitution of the Church, and the duties of the office to which he has been elected. When the examination is approved, the Session shall appoint a day for his ordination and installation. [152]

§ 29–3. The procedure of the ordination and installation of Elders and Deacons shall be as follows:

The Session shall be officially convened in the presence of the congregation.

A Sermon shall be preached if convenient.

The presiding Minister shall state in a concise manner the warrant and nature of the office of Ruling Elder, or Deacon, together with the character proper to be sustained and the duties to be fulfilled.

The presiding Minister shall propose to the candidate the following questions which shall be answered in the affirmative:

(1) Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?

(2) Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith and the Catechisms of this Church, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures?

(3) Do you promise that if at any time you find yourself out of accord with any of the fundamentals of this system of doctrine, you will, on your own initiative, make known to your Session the change which has taken place in your views since the assumption of this ordination vow?

(4) Do you approve the government and discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States?

(5) Do you accept the office of Ruling Elder (or Deacon) in this church, and promise faithfully to perform all the duties thereof, and to endeavor by the grace of God to adorn the profession of the Gospel in your life, and to set a worthy example before the Church of which God has made you an officer?

(6) Do you promise subjection to your brethren in the Lord?

(7) Do you promise to study the peace, unity, edification, and purity of the Church?

The Minister shall address to the members of the church the following question which shall be answered in the affirmative by holding up the right hand:

Do you, the members of this church, acknowledge and receive this brother as a Ruling Elder (or Deacon), and do you promise to yield him all that honor, encouragement, and obedience in the Lord to which his office, according to the Word of God and the Constitution of this Church, entitles him?

The Church Session shall proceed to set apart the candidate, with prayer and the laying on of the hands, to the office of Ruling Elder (or Deacon).

Prayer being ended, the members of the Session (and the Deacons, if the case be that of a Deacon), shall take the newly ordained officer by the hand, saying, in words to this effect: "We give you the right hand of fellowship, to take part in this office with us."

The Minister shall then say: "I now pronounce and declare that _____ has been regularly elected, ordained, and installed a Ruling Elder (or Deacon) in this church, agreeably to the Word of God, and according to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; and that as such he is entitled to all encouragement, honor, and obedience in the Lord: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

After this the Minister shall give to the Ruling Elder (or Deacon) and to the church an exhortation suited to the occasion. [153]

§ 29–4. The offices of Ruling Elder and Deacon cannot be laid aside at the officer's pleasure. Neither can the ordination of any man be removed except by deposition after regular judicial process. Yet a Ruling Elder or Deacon may have reasons which he deems valid for being released from the active duties of his office. In such a case the Session, after conference with him and careful consideration of the matter, may, if it thinks proper, sever the active relationship which exists between him and that church. [154]

§ 29–5. An Elder or Deacon remains ordained to his office in the Church unless divested thereof by the proper action of a Church court, and is obligated to continue his performance of those duties of the office which are to be exercised severally.

When an officer's term of service expires, or when he is made Elder or Deacon

Emeritus, or when he moves his membership to another church, he ceases to function jointly with the other officers in the Session or Board of Deacons.

§ 29–6. Any Ruling Elder (or Deacon) who has served faithfully but whose ability to continue to render active service is limited by age, physical disability, or other cause, may be elected Ruling Elder (or Deacon) Emeritus by the congregation at a regularly called meeting, provided such Ruling Elder (or Deacon) is willing and indicates in advance his recognition of this act as an honor. A Ruling Elder Emeritus is not eligible to represent that church in the higher courts. [154, 156]

§ 29–7. A Ruling Elder, or Deacon, though chargeable with no specific offense, may become unacceptable in an active capacity to a majority of the church which he serves. In such a case the church may take the initiative by a majority vote at a regularly called congregational meeting, and request the Session to dissolve the active relationship between the church and the officer without censure. The Session, after conference with the Ruling Elder, or Deacon, may, after careful consideration, use its discretion as to dissolving the active relationship. In either case the Session shall report its action to the congregation. [154]

§ 29–8. The active relationship between a Ruling Elder, or Deacon, and his church may also be dissolved by the Presbytery when it finds, following a hearing which provides procedural safeguards as in cases of process, that the action is necessary for the welfare of the church. [154]

§ 29–9. When a Ruling Elder or Deacon because of a change of residence or for any other reason does not perform the duties of his office for a period of one year, his active relationship shall be dissolved by the Session unless there is good reason, which must be recorded. [155]

§ 29–10. A particular church, by a majority vote at a congregational meeting, may elect either Ruling Elders or Deacons or both for limited terms in the exercise of their functions. In such cases the terms of service shall be not less than three years, except to initiate the system or to fill unexpired terms, and the Session and the Board of Deacons shall consist of not less than three classes elected at regular intervals. When a congregation limits terms of service it shall designate the period, if any, during which officers shall be ineligible for re-election to active service.

An Elder whose term of service has expired in a church is not eligible to represent that church in the higher courts. [156]

§ 29–11. The installation of an Elder or Deacon previously ordained shall follow a procedure similar to that set forth for ordination and installation except that the first four questions proposed to a candidate for ordination shall be omitted. [157]

AMENDMENT AND UNION

CHAPTER 30—AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION, AND EFFECTING CHURCH UNIONS

§ 30–1. Amendments to the Book of Church Order may be made only in the following manner:

(1) The approval of the proposed amendment by the General Assembly and its recommendation to the Presbyteries.

(2) The advice and consent of a majority of the Presbyteries.

(3) The approval and enactment by a subsequent meeting of the General Assembly. [166]

§ 30–2. Amendments to the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of this Church may be made only in the following manner:

(1) The approval of the proposed amendment by the General Assembly and its recommendation to the Presbyteries.

(2) The advice and consent of three-fourths of the Presbyteries.

(3) The approval and enactment by a subsequent meeting of the General Assembly.

These provisions can be amended only by the same method as they prescribe for the amendment of the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of this Church. [167]

§ 30–3. Full organic union and consolidation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States with any other ecclesiastical body can be effected only in the following manner:

(1) The approval of the proposed union by the General Assembly and its recommendation to the Presbyteries.

(2) The advice and consent of three-fourths of the Presbyteries.

(3) The approval and consummation by a subsequent meeting of the General Assembly.

These provisions can be amended only by the same method which is prescribed for the amendment of the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Church. [168]

§ 30–4. If by reason of the failure of a number of the Presbyteries to act, or to report action, on any proposed amendment to the Constitution, the response of the Presbyteries is not satisfactory to the succeeding meeting of the General Assembly, it may defer action for one year. In that event the General Assembly shall urge the delinquent Presbyteries to report their judgment to the next meeting of the Assembly, which shall take final action on the proposed amendment. [169]

2. REPORT OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON "UNITED" OR "FEDERATED" CHURCHES

The General Assembly in 1955 appointed this Ad Interim Committee with instructions "to collaborate with similar committees of the U. S. A. and U. P. General Assemblies in working out and recommending to General Assembly plans and procedures for resolving present constitutional problems and for enabling such 'united' or 'federated' Presbyterian congregations more effectively to carry on their work."

The General Assembly in 1956 granted the request of the Committee that it be continued because more time was needed to carry out instructions. The Committee presented to the General Assembly in 1957 a plan for the transfer of churches, with their property, at their request, from the General Assembly of one Church to the General Assembly of the other. This plan provides for an impartial appraisal of the property in each case. The Stated Clerk of each General Assembly is to keep a record of each appraisal and, at the end of ten years, the General Assembly which is in debt to the other shall at that time pay the balance due without interest. The General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the United Presbyterian Church of North America (uniting next month as the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.) approved the plan and it is now in effect.

Our General Assembly failed to make provisions for raising the money which may be needed to pay to the General Assembly of the United Church in the U. S. A .

We, therefore, recommend that the General Assembly establish a sinking fund, the amount and details to be determined by the Committee on the Office of the General Assembly.

In order to follow the original instructions to this Committee as quoted in the opening paragraph of this report your Committee recommends:

That the General Assembly propose to the Presbyteries for study the following additional chapter to the Book of Church Order:

UNION CHURCHES

1. Particular churches of this Church may unite to form union churches with particular churches of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, with the approval of the presbytery provided that the following Plan of Union is adopted by the union church so formed.

a. The following Plan of Union is adopted by the_____Presbyterian Church of_____and the_____Presbyterian Church of_____, effective as of the date when each of the congregations has approved the plan by a two-thirds majority of those present at a regularly called congregational meeting with such notice and quorum as is required by the respective Constitutions of the two Churches, and when each of the Presbyteries of jurisdiction has approved the particular union and this plan of union.

b. The purpose of this union is to provide for the worship of Almighty God and instruction in the Christian religion by a united congregation which will share the property real and personal of the uniting churches and provide for the services of a minister or ministers for the united church.

c. The united church shall be known as the.....Presbyterian Church of .....

d. The united church shall be subject to the Constitutions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as set forth in paragraph s, t, v, w below.

e. The session of the united church shall submit its records at least annually, and whenever requested, to both presbyteries of jurisdiction.

f. The membership of the united church shall consist of those who formerly were members of the uniting churches plus those received by the session of the united church.

g. The session of the united church shall report one half the total membership to each Presbytery of jurisdiction and such membership shall be published in the Minutes of the General Assembly with a note to the effect that the report is that of a union church which has, therefore, double the membership listed. A similar report of church school members, baptisms, etc., and financial expenditures (where applicable) shall be made by the session and noted by each General Assembly in its minutes.

h. Initially the officers of the united church, elders and deacons, shall be those officers in active service of the two uniting churches who will undertake to perform their ordination responsibilities under the Constitutions of the two churches as indicated in d. above and in s, t, v, w below.

i. At the first annual meeting subsequent to the effective date of the union, new classes of elders and deacons, to replace the officers noted in Section h. above, shall be elected by the united congregation according to the constitutional procedure in force as a consequence of section w below.

j. The pastoral relations of the ministers of the uniting churches shall be dissolved automatically by the action of the presbytery of jurisdiction in approving this plan, but either or both may be eligible to be called to be ministers (pastors, co-pastors or associate pastors) of the united church according to the will of the united congregation.

k. The minister or ministers of the united church shall be full and responsible members of both presbyteries of jurisdiction and shall be subject to discipline as provided below in Section t.

l. The united church shall cause a corporation to be formed under the appropriate laws of the state, which corporation shall include in its articles or charter the substance of Sections b, c and d above.

m. All property of the uniting churches, real and personal, shall be transferred to the corporation formed under Section l above. The new corporation shall be the legal successor of the corporations if any, of the uniting churches and it shall be bound to administer any trust property or moneys received in accordance with the provisions of the original establishment of the trust. All liabilities of either uniting churches shall be liabilities of the united church.

n. If the united church should at any time cease to operate under this plan of union as it is or may be modified by both denominations acting concurrently, all property, real and personal of the united church, shall be divided equally between the presbyteries of jurisdiction.

o. Trustees or directors of the corporation shall be elected in harmony with civil law according to the constitutional provisions outlined in Section d. above as interpreted by Section w below.

p. While recognizing the basic right of any giver to designate cause or causes to which his own gift shall go, the session of the united church shall annually propose to the congregation a benevolence budget which shall be divided one-half each to the officially approved benevolence causes of each denomination in such proportions within the halves as the session shall decide in response to the requests of the several presbyteries, synods and General Assemblies.

q. Per capita apportionments or assessments shall be paid to each Presbytery of jurisdiction on ½ the total communicant membership of the church.

r. All members of the united church shall be under the discipline of the session according to rules agreed upon in harmony with the Books of Discipline of the two denominations where they coincide, and in harmony with the mandatory provisions of the Book of Discipline of either Church where the other is permissive, and at the choice of the session where they may be contradictory.

s. Appeals or complaints against the disciplinary actions of the session shall be made to one presbytery only at the choice of the members and all subsequent appeals or complaints shall be in the courts of the members' original choice, and decisions so finally made shall be binding on the session and on the member.

t. The minister or ministers shall be subject to the discipline of both presbyteries provided that when either presbytery shall begin an action, it shall invite a committee from the other presbytery to join in the prosecution of the case. In the event of appeal the case shall be finally decided by the highest court to which the appeal is taken in the Court which commenced the action and that decision shall be equally binding upon both presbyteries.

u. The minister or ministers shall participate in the denominational pension plan of one of the two churches, either as before involved or as chosen by the minister.

v. Complaints against the administrative acts of the session may be taken under the constitutional provisions of either denomination, but not to both, according to the choice of the complainant and once being complained to one presbytery the other presbytery may not accept jurisdiction in the same matter.

w. Wherever the Constitutions of the two denominations differ, the mandatory provisions of the one shall apply in all cases when the other is permissive. Wherever there are conflicting mandatory provisions, the session of the united church shall petition both presbyteries of jurisdiction to overture their respective General Assemblies to resolve the conflict either by authoritative interpretation or by constitutional amendment.

2. No provision in Section 1 above shall be construed as modifying or amending the Constitution of this Church in its application to any but union churches organized under this Chapter, their members or ministers.

III. In view of the fact that some particular churches of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Presbyterian Church in the United States may prefer to federate rather than to unite as would be provided for in recommention II above, your Committee recommends that the General Assembly approve the following as a model plan of federation for particular churches of our denomination.

PLAN OF FEDERATION

The following Plan of Federation is adopted by the_____Presbyterian Church of_____, _____, and the_____Presbyterian Church of_____, _____, effective as of the_____day of_____ 19_____, upon the approval of the Sessions and the congregations of the two churches and the approval of the_____Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the_____Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America;

1. PURPOSES

The purpose of this Plan of Federation is entered to provide for the common worship of Almighty God and the instruction in the Christian Religion by the_____ Presbyterian Church of_____and the_____Presbyterian Church of _____, to provide for the sharing of property, real and personal, of the two churches, and to provide for the services of a pastor or pastors, at common expense, with the understanding, however, that each church and congregation shall maintain its denominational connection, elect its officers and submit to the Constitution of its denomination, as heretofore.

2. NAME.

In the exercise of the purposes of this plan, the churches shall be known as "The Presbyterian Church (Federated) of_____" and is hereinafter referred to as the "Federated Church."

3. CORPORATE ORGANIZATION AND PROPERTY.

(a) Each church shall continue to maintain its own corporation which shall continue to own the present property, or the proceeds of any sale thereof, of the church in whose interest such corporation is organized. Elders, Officers and Trustees and other officers of the respective corporations shall be elected as heretofore, except the treasurer or fiscal officer who shall be chosen as hereinafter stated.

(b) The members of the financial boards (trustees or deacons as the case may be) of the two churches shall meet together at such time and times as they shall determine, and such joint body shall be known as the Business Council of the Federated Church. The Business Council shall determine such business and property matters as may be in the interest of the purposes of this plan, without interference with the rights of each constituent church corporation and subject always to the superior authority of the Session of the Federated Church. For convenience in operation, the Business Council shall elect a Chairman and Secretary to serve for the term of one year and until his successor is elected.

(c) Each church or financial board (trustees or deacons as the case may be), depending upon the practice previously followed by such church shall elect a Treasurer, Treasurers, or other fiscal officers who need not be members of the church. The same person or persons shall be elected to such office or offices by both churches or financial boards (trustees or deacons as the case may be). The fiscal officer or officers of the two churches shall receive after the effective date of this plan the offerings and contributions to each of the churches or given by name to the Federated Church, and the funds so received shall be used for the purposes hereinabove set forth, unless specifically restricted for other purposes by the donors. Such fiscal officer or officers shall deposit such offerings and contributions in the name of the Federated Church in a bank selected by the Business Council.

(d) The annual budget of the Federated Church shall be prepared by a budget committee made up of two representatives from the Session of the Federated Church and two representatives from the Business Council and, in addition, the pastor. The budget committee in preparing the budget shall take into consideration the anticipated income from all sources and expenditures for all causes (current expense and benevolences). In preparing the benevolence portion of the budget, the budget committee shall provide for an equitable and just distribution among the benevolence objects approved by the denominations of the constituent churches, based upon the communicant membership of the two churches in the federation. When the budget has been prepared by the Committee, it shall be submitted to both the Business Council and the Session of the Federated church for approval. If both approve, the budget shall be submitted to the congregation for approval. If either the Business Council or the Session of the Federated church disapproves the budget as first submitted by the budget committee, an attempt shall be made by negotiations to reconcile or compromise the disagreement, using the device of meetings of the elders and financial boards (trustees or deacons) together, if deemed wise by both Boards. In resolving such differences the two Boards should remember that the body exclusively responsible for the total program of the church, benevolences and services is the Session; and that the Business Council is responsible to see that the bills and obligations of the church are paid.

4. MEMBERSHIP

(a) Membership in the Federated Church shall consist of the members of the constituent churches as of the effective date of this plan and all other persons who shall thereafter become members of either constituent church. There shall be no membership in the Federated church apart from membership in either of the two constituent churches. Each constituent church shall always maintain a roll of its members, and the two rolls shall be considered as the roll of membership of the Federated church.

(b) A member may be received into either constituent church at a meeting of the Session of the Federated Church, provided a quorum of the Session of such constituent church is present and approves.

5. THE SESSION, ORGANIZATION AND PROGRAM

(a) The Sessions of the constituent churches may meet together and the two Sessions in joint meeting shall be the Session of the Federated Church whose moderator shall be the pastor or other minister duly named by the presbyteries of the two churches.

(b) The clerk of the Session of the Federated Church shall be the person who is the clerk of the Session of the constituent church of the denomination other than that in which the moderator is a member.

(c) The Session of the Federated Church shall direct and supervise the program and activities of the Federated Church; provided, however, that the Session of each constituent church shall retain its authority over its congregation and members agreeably to the constitution of the denomination of which it is a part.

6. CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS.

(a) Annual meetings of the congregation of the Federated church shall be held at _____o'clock _____M. on the_____day of_____ in each year. Special meetings of the congregation of the Federated Church shall be held at any time designated by the Session of the Federated Church, provided notice of such meeting is given from the pulpit on two Sundays prior to such special meeting. Annual or special meetings of the congregations of the constituent churches may be held at such times as may be fixed by their respective Sessions pursuant to the law of the respective denominations. The pastor shall be moderator of meetings of the congregations, and the Clerk of the meetings of each congregation shall be the Clerk of such congregation's Session.

(b) Meetings of the members of the constituent church corporations may be held as provided by law.

7. SELECTION OF A PASTOR.

A pastor of the Federated Church shall be an ordained minister in the denomination to which either of the constituent churches belongs. He shall be called in accordance with the constitution of the denomination of which he is a member by the members of the Federated Church; provided, however, that the presbyteries of jurisdiction of the constituent churches approve the call, and that the presbytery of the denomination of which he is not a member receives him as a temporary member of such presbytery as far as its Constitution allows. The pastor thus called and approved shall be the moderator of the Session of the Federated Church and the moderator of the Session of each of the constituent churches.

8. CHURCH STAFF

All church employees shall be employed by agreement executed by the proper officers designated by the Business Council for such compensation as shall be deemed proper; provided, however, that the term of employment and compensation shall first have the approval of the Session of the Federated Church. Employees whose duties deal with the care of properties shall be under the immediate supervision of the Business Council. All employees whose duties concern the program and services of the church shall be under the immediate supervision of the Session. All employees of the church shall be under the superior direction and supervision of the Session.

9. TERMINATION OF PLAN.

(a) This plan shall continue so long as the purposes hereinabove stated are pursued with the approval of the session of each constituent church. If there should be disagreement between the two sessions concerning programs and the worship desired and to be conducted in common, the use to which any of the property shall be put or any other matter over which the sessions or other judicatories of the denominations to which the churches belong have authority, then upon the formal action of either session and the higher judicatory of either denomination this plan shall terminate immediately, and it shall be the duty of the financial boards or corporations of the two churches to cause the Treasurer or other fiscal officer to render an account of the property and funds in his possession or control and to divide property and funds of the Federated Church proportionately between the two churches based on the number of communicant members in the two churches.

(b) All specifically restricted property and funds, upon termination of this plan, shall be applied for the purposes designated. All property held in the name of the respective corporations at the effective date of the agreement, proceeds of the sale of such property and replacements of the same, shall continue to be so held upon termination of this plan.

(c) In the event of any disagreements or controversies with respect to the use or allocation of funds upon termination of this plan, the same shall be finally resolved by a joint administrative commission of the two presbyteries of jurisdiction composed of seven members, three elected from and by each presbytery, and the seventh member and chairman shall be a ruling elder of either denomination who shall be learned in the law and agreed upon by the two presbyteries.

Respectfully submitted,

3. REPORT OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON MASS COMMUNICATIONS

Year after year the Christian Church has rather sadly confessed, "There are more millions who do not know Christ than there were fifty years ago or even twenty-five years ago," and has hopefully pondered what could be done about it.

The Ad Interim Committee on Mass Communications, following two years of study, during which one of its major concerns has been for these millions, calls upon our Church to command in a major undertaking the services of what some have described as the most powerful medium yet fashioned for mass communication, the medium of television.

In regard to television we are ready to affirm as vigorously as did Dr. Alan Walker in his book, The Whole Gospel for the Whole World, "The church everywhere can do no other than grasp the opportunities of this tremendous force, and, through it, cost what it may, tell the people about Christ."

We commend to the Church, in addition to a strengthening of our radio and audio-visual programs, the early projection of a strong Presbyterian Television Ministry.

We commend such a ministry not because we believe it to be a quick and easy answer to all our problems of Christian outreach and education, but because we are convinced that it is one of the most effective ways we can obey our Lord's command, "Go ye therefore . . ."

In 1957 the percentage of American homes owning at least one television set increased from 76% to 82%. A national survey revealed that during the week of March 2-8, 1958, approximately 90 million persons in the United States over 12 years of age, and uncounted millions of younger listeners, each averaged more than 23 hours viewing television,—this in a land where only 62% are members of any church, Protestant, Catholic or Jewish, and where less than 36% are Protestant. The church that is to win people must go where the people are! The most likely place to find most Americans, except for working and sleeping, is before the changing face of a television picture tube.

We commend a strong Presbyterian Television Ministry not with the implication that our radio ministry may be abandoned. On the contrary, it should be strengthened. During the same week that the 90 million Americans mentioned above were viewing television an average of 23 hours, 72 million Americans averaged more than 24 hours listening to radio. The ubiquitous radio, in 98% of American homes, in 37 million cars, in 10 million public places, is an able ally in our witnessing for Christ.

The Ad Interim Committee on Mass Communications was appointed by the 1956 General Assembly, and continued by the 1957 General Assembly "to study the whole field of mass communications by the agencies of the Assembly, the costs involved and the policies and procedures to be followed in promoting the most effective use. This committee shall include representatives of the agencies of the Church, business men and representatives of the radio and television industry."

Since the last meeting of the General Assembly the Committee has held four meetings. As authorized by the 1957 General Assembly, a consultant was employed at the first of these meetings and three surveys were initiated. These were a survey of the mass communications industry, a survey of the relation to mass communications of other denominations in the United States and Canada, and a survey of the relation to mass communications of the ministers of our Church. As reported to the 1957 General Assembly, the Committee understood that its task was to study radio, television and audio-visual aids and so interpreted the term "mass communications."

The questionnaire used in surveying our ministers was prepared in cooperation with the Broadcasting and Film Commission and the Bureau of Research and Survey of the National Council of Churches and in cooperation with the Protestant Radio and Television Center. It met with encouraging reception both within our Church and without.

The Disciples of Christ ordered 5,000 copies for use in surveying its own ministers. Subsequently, the Research Committee of the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of Churches adopted the questionnaire as the approved form to be recommended to any other communion wishing to make such a survey. In its Triennial Report to the 1957 General Assembly of the National Council of Churches, the Broadcasting and Film Commission also noted with commendation that the only member communion to set up a committee for the sole purpose of developing a strategy for the use of radio, television and films was the Presbyterian Church, U.S.

The questionnaire was well received by our own ministers, 1,512 being returned of the 3,276 mailed. Indicative of the interest of many of the ministers is the fact that, of those replying, 40% voluntarily wrote in additional comments.

The returns of the questionnaire, a tabulation of which is appended to this report, reveal that 87% did not feel that the availability of religious radio and television programs kept people from church. On the other hand, 78% were convinced that religious radio and television programs are one of our best means of reaching the unchurched. Fifty-nine per cent declined to agree that religious radio and television programs cannot compete in audience appeal with commercial programs.

Eighty-nine per cent felt that the denomination should allocate more funds for developing and using religious radio and television. Eighty per cent favored the allocation by local churches of more funds for developing and using radio and television locally. Those who expressed the belief that religious radio and television can best be developed on an interdenominational basis were 73%.

According to the questionnaire, in 1957 two-thirds of our ministers appeared on religious radio and almost one-fourth on religious television. Ministers appearing on both media, however, as well as those appearing on neither, listed the lack of adequate broadcast training as being among the most important factors limiting participation of ministers on religious radio and television programs. Training in the use of audio-visual materials was also seen as a real need, though the dominant hindrance noted in the use of audio-visual materials was the rental and purchase cost of such materials.

In the matter of what other religious bodies are doing and plan to do in mass communications, information as to non-Protestant financial involvement in the United States is not readily available. It is known, however, that there is just outside Vatican City one 120,000 watt radio transmitter, one 100,000 watt transmitter, and that five additional 100,000 watt transmitters are to be installed. These, to be operated 12 hours daily in 28 languages, through 21 directional antennas spread over 16 acres, covering 360 degrees, are capable of reaching high-frequency receivers throughout most of the world.

Regardless of what non-Protestants may or may not be doing in mass communications, other Protestant communions in the United States with which we work shoulder to shoulder have current operations or immediate plans such as these: The United Lutheran Church in America has allocated $500,000 for television in 1958 in addition to its regular budget allocation of $220,000 for press, radio and television. The Methodist Church, since the initiation of the Methodist Television Ministry four years ago, has increased its annual budget for television, radio and film to approximately $400,000.

Two million, two hundred thousand dollars was the 1957 operating budget of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod. During the current triennium the Protestant Episcopal Church has increased its radio-television budget by more than 800%. The Southern Baptist 1959 radio-television budget of $600,000 is part of a five-year program to allocate $2,750,000 to this work. With a membership only 35% the size of ours the Seventh-Day Adventist Church has appropriated for two of its radio-television programs alone in North America $1,800,000 for 1958.

With such abundant indications of the value other thoughtful Christians place upon television and radio, and in the awareness of the near vacuum in television so far as our Church is concerned, our current radio-television budget of $97,549 appears little more than the vestigial remains of a pre-television era.

We call upon our Church to allocate, at the earliest possible moment, sufficient funds for a Presbyterian Television Ministry.While we suggest now the sum of $300,000, we recognize, and call attention to the fact, that the demands of such a television ministry will soon require enlarged financial support. This will be particularly true if and when color television becomes the accepted standard. However, we believe it to be in the best interests both of the total work of our Church, and of the proposed Presbyterian Television Ministry to begin on a conservative scale. The Church then can proportion the future growth of such a ministry to the effectiveness with which it proves itself.

With such a budget it would be possible to produce and distribute on a television film network an annual series of 13 fifteen-minute quality programs in the nature of a direct, personal, conversational confrontation of the Christian gospel by an outstanding Christian. It would be possible also to produce and distribute numerous five-minute television spots and a complete library of television aids covering such items as music, message and Scripture. In addition, it would provide at rare intervals for the production and distribution on a television film network of high quality dramatic programs conveying the Christian message.

It would be possible, in addition, on such a budget to continue on radio the Presbyterian Series of the Protestant Hour. There could be produced annually one or more series of tape-recorded fifteen-minute radio devotionals for use in the many localities where our ministers, and where radio stations, have requested them.

As for audio-visual materials, there would be funds to produce a number of quality films and film-strips each year such as might be desired by our Church in general, or by some particular agency of the Church, bearing on such aspects as our Church in action, her beliefs, her institutions, her mission work at home and abroad.

With such a budget it would be possible to provide a field representative to spend the major portion of his time organizing and conducting radio-television workshops for our ministers and other broadcasters of our Church. It would enable him also to keep such persons informed of new and usable ideas for broadcasting religion, and of the nature, quality and availability of musical and other broadcast aids.

A budget such as this would enable our Church to provide audio-visual workshops for lay leaders and ministers and to take steps looking toward making audio-visual materials available at the lowest possible cost.

In connection with the projection of a Presbyterian Television Ministry and the strengthening of our ministry through radio and audio-visual aids, we call attention to the fact that the valid objectives of religious television and radio are considerably broader than the usual concept of church extension.

We commend, therefore, the setting up of a committee of television and radio, directly responsible to the General Assembly, and equally related to each board of the Church. We suggest, also, the logic of combining in one committee responsibility not only for television and radio but also for the related area of audio-visual materials.

For the above and similar ends we recommend that the General Assembly:

1. Declare as its objectives in broadcasting:
   a. To reach for Christ those yet unreached.
   b. To add a new dimension to the Christian experience of those who are already believers, for the purpose of further enlightening, inspiring and activating them.
   c. To undergird and strengthen through the newly reached and the newly inspired, the work of the local church.
   d. To portray to the world the truths of the gospel of Christ as they apply to the world in which we live.
2. Declare its recognition that the effective use of broadcasting by the Church requires that the Church utilize it in terms of the type of medium it is; namely, one which permits free response in an uncontrolled viewing or listening situation and which, while it has unlimited educational and inspirational possibilities, is primarily thought of by the viewer or listener as an entertainment means, with the following results:
   a. The situation it presents is quite different from that of the local church group under conditions more subject to control.
   b. The format of the program must follow effective broadcasting pattern rather than necessarily the plan of the effective church worship or of the successful church school, at the same time maintaining our Christian purpose and message.
3. Dissolve the present Division of Radio and Television and its relation to the Board of Church Extension; set up a Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals directly responsible to the General Assembly and, at subsequent meetings of the General Assembly set up a corresponding Standing Committee.

4. Designate that this Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals be set up as follows:

a. It shall consist of fifteen members.

b. It shall include one staff representative from each of the following agencies: The General Council, the Board of World Missions, the Board of Church Extension, the Board of Christian Education, the Board of Women's Work and the Board of Annuities and Relief. These six representatives shall be nominated to the Permanent Nominating Committee by the respective agencies and elected by the General Assembly for terms of three years each.

The Agency representatives for the year 1958 shall come on the Committee subject to their confirmation by the 1959 General Assembly.

c. The other nine members shall not be directly connected with any of the above agencies; shall be nominated by the Permanent Nominating Committee of the General Assembly; and shall include at least four from the broadcasting or audio-visual industry and at least two pastors.

d. The first nine members at large to be appointed shall be arranged in classes of three members for one, two and three years, respectively; thereafter they shall be elected for a term of three years, being eligible for not more than three consecutive terms.

e. In order to make this Committee immediately operative, the Permanent Nominating Committee is authorized and instructed to appoint this Committee for the current year, and shall also name the Convener.

5. Order that the actual dissolution of the present Division of Radio and Television and its relation to the Board of Church Extension occur at such a time as the Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals notifies the Board of Church Extension of its readiness to assume the responsibilities now discharged by the Division of Radio and Television of the Board of Church Extension; that until such notification on the part of the new Committee, the Division of Radio and Television continue its functions, all the while assisting the new Committee in the work of arranging its program and personnel, and providing funds to finance the basic organization of the new Committee.

6. Assign to the Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals:

a. The functions of the present Division of Radio and Television.

b. Responsibility on the Assembly level for all distribution of film, filmstrips and sound recordings.

c. Responsibility for cooperating with all boards and other agencies of the Assembly in coordinating the production of film, filmstrips and sound recordings.

d. Authority to elect necessary officials, including staff.

e. Atlanta, Georgia as the location of its staff offices.

7. Commend to the Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals:

a. The continuation on radio of the Presbyterian Series of the Protestant Hour, produced by the Protestant Radio and Television Center.

b. The inauguration of a Presbyterian Television Ministry along lines similar to the Presbyterian Series of the Protestant Hour.

c. The calling to the television and/or radio ministry for a limited number of months of a qualified minister or layman to devote his entire time during the period in question to working with such persons as script writers and production directors to produce for broadcast religious programs of unusually high quality and effectiveness.

d. The production, either independently or in cooperation with other communions of definitely Christian programs in the nature of dramas, documentaries, or interviews, equal in interest and impact to the best of secular programs, with full knowledge and awareness that such programs are costly.

e. The production of a library of aids to religious broadcasters, such as instrumental and choral music on tape and film, for loan to local pastors for use on radio and television programs.

f. The regular preparation and distribution among ministers engaged in religious radio and television of a bulletin to serve as a clearing house for exchange of ideas, to call attention to new and usable books and magazine articles bearing on religious broadcasting, improved procedures, new aids available, and in other ways to minister to local religious broadcasters.

g. The provision for ministers and laymen of workshops and institutes on religious radio and television, and on the selection and use of audio-visual materials; and the making of such training services available to our theological seminaries and to the General Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers, encouraging and assisting them in the better training of ministers and lay leaders in these areas of communication.

h. That both independently and in cooperation with other communions it engage in or provide for such research as will enable the Committee and local religious broadcasters to utilize television, radio and audio-visual materials with increasing effectiveness.

i. The production of quality films and filmstrips on subject matter such as our Church in action, her government, sacraments, practices, basic beliefs, institutions, conferences, officer training, communicants' classes, church extension, and world missions, presented with human interest, realistically, vitally and, if suitable, dramatically.

j. The study of, and experimentation in, ways of making audio-visual materials available to local churches at lowest possible cost.

k. The preparation and wide and regular distribution to local church leaders of adequate information on the nature, quality and availability of audio-visual materials.

l. The Presbyterian Book Stores of the Board of Christian Education as desirable channels for the distribution of audio-visual film, filmstrips and sound recordings.

m. The desirability of operating through a staff of at least five qualified persons: an executive head, a director of television, a director of radio, a director of audio-visual materials, and a director of broadcast and audio-visual training.

n. The paying of the full pro rata share of our Church on all television, radio and audio-visual operations in which the Committee cooperates with other denominations.

8. Request the General Council to place the Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals in the budget for 1960 for $300,000 to be handled through the General Fund.

This request is made with the realization that still larger appropriations will be needed in future years if this Committee is to reach objectives envisioned by this report.

9. Request the Standing Committee on the General Council to make such changes in the 1959 budget of the General Assembly as will delete from the budget of the Board of Church Extension and assign to the Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals the amount the present Division of Radio and Television would otherwise have received; and that the Standing Committee provide in the 1959 budget an additional amount of $50,000, the entire amount to be made available through the General Fund.

10. Authorize and instruct the Treasurer of the Board of Church Extension to continue paying to the Division of Radio and Television all funds due that Division from the 1958 Budget until such time as the Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals notifies the Chairman of the Board of Church Extension of the readiness of that Committee to assume the responsibilities laid upon it by the General Assembly; at which time the Treasurer of the Board of Church Extension is authorized and instructed to begin and continue paying to the Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals all funds that would otherwise have been due the Division of Radio and Television.

11. That the Ad Interim Committee on Mass Communications be, and hereby is, dissolved.

4. REPORT OF THE AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON THE CENTENNIAL TO THE 1958 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Since the 1957 meeting of the General Assembly, the Centennial Committee has held two meetings in Atlanta (July 3, 1957 and January 14, 1958). Sub-committees have been actively engaged in study and planning in the following five areas: Celebrations, Goals, Special Literature, Communications and Publicity.

The theme of the Centennial, previously approved by the General Assembly, is "Our Presbyterian Heritage and Mission." The Centennial Committee is basing its planning for the observance in 1961 upon the following conception (reported to the 1957 Assembly): "This Committee is of the conviction that the effect of the observance will depend largely on the spirit and manner in which it is carried out. Accordingly it proposes that the Centennial program be designed primarily to point the Church forward. While our appreciation for the abiding values in our heritage should be deepened, we should be chiefly concerned to clarify our vision of our future role and receive fresh stimulus in the service of our Lord. Furthermore, the Committee hopes to fashion a program which will enlarge our horizons and vivify our sense of fellowship with all other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world, both those which are older and those which have come into being as a result of the missionary enterprise. Our common traditions in doctrine, polity, worship and practice will be presented in such a way as to strengthen our sense of unity with the Calvinistic family, and through it with the Ecumenical Church."

The Centennial goals, formulated by the Committee and recommended to the General Assembly in this report, undertake to give concrete expression to this basic agreement as to the nature and purpose of the Centennial observance that should be planned for our Church.

The Committee is agreed that the Centennial celebration should formally begin at the meeting of the General Assembly in 1961, that it should continue with the meetings of synods in the summer and of presbyteries in the fall, and that it should be brought to a climax with services in local churches on Reformation Sunday which would be designated as Centennial Sunday throughout the Presbyterian Church, U.S.

It is the judgment of the Committee that a strong Centennial emphasis should characterize the 1961 meeting of the General Assembly. We propose that the Secretary of the World Presbyterian Alliance be brought to the United States for this meeting; that representatives of daughter Churches be brought by the Board of World Missions for participation in the meeting of the Assembly (and other meetings in connection with the celebration); and that, in planning the Centennial Assembly, ample provision be made for popular meetings to which not only commissioners but the general public would be invited.

We propose that, in the Centennial year, the committee on Program and Worship of each synod and synodical set an order for at least one outstanding speaker on the Centennial theme at the respective meetings of these bodies; and that, wherever possible, synod and synodical meet together for a popular meeting on "Our Presbyterian Heritage and Mission," this popular meeting to include young people. We would urge that each presbytery and presbyterial observe the Centennial celebration at their meetings prior to Centennial Sunday; moreover, that presbyteries and presbyterials meet together whenever possible for a popular evening meeting, or that a presbytery-wide rally be held—such meeting or rally to include the young people of the presbytery.

The Committee proposes that presbyteries be urged to assume the responsibility for seeing that services are held on Centennial Sunday in every church in the Assembly, keeping in mind the effective use of elders in such services. The Centennial Committee plans to provide material for the use of various types of congregations, including those temporarily without a minister and those which do not have regular services.

It is suggested that, in Centennial observances in synods, presbyteries and local churches, due attention be given to matters of Presbyterian "heritage and challenge" peculiarly relevant at these respective levels; but that such local emphasis be consistently related to the larger context. It is suggested that the Office of the General Assembly serve as a clearing house for making information available concerning speakers (recommended by the Centennial Committee) for use in Centennial observances

A Biblical study book dealing with basic beliefs of the Reformed Church is proposed for general use throughout the Assembly in 1961. The Centennial Committee has requested that Dr. T. Watson Street, of Austin Seminary, write a study book on the history of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., and that Dr. Ernest Trice Thompson, of Union Seminary, prepare a book dealing with the role of the Presbyterian Church in tomorrow's world. It is planned that these books be studied throughout the Church during our Centennial year.

The Committee is exploring various possibilities for the use of radio, television, filmstrips and other media of communication in 1961. Subsequent reports will present suggestions and recommendations growing out of this investigation.

The Committee submits to the General Assembly the following recommendations having to do with the Church's Centennial observance:

1. That Centennial goals for the Church be set, designed:
   1.) To challenge our whole Church to a deepened awareness of our common historical heritage and mission as a member of the Reformed Family in the world, and to consider the distinctive contribution we can make as a member of the Presbyterian Church in the world today.
   2.) To strengthen and revitalize the spiritual life of our church people (a) by inspiring them to rededicate their lives and resources so that the Presbyterian way of life may be a living witness to the reality of the Christian claim; and (b) by centering our emphasis on evangelism in order to strengthen our sense of obligation and fulfill our mission to the unreached at home and abroad, praying earnestly that through the Holy Spirit's ministration, the goal of one million members by the end of 1961, adopted by the General Assembly, may be substantially exceeded.
   3.) To make voluntary supplemental offerings during the Centennial year as an expression of our thanksgiving and dedication—one-half of the total received to be used in helping our sister Churches of the Reformed Faith in countries where they have suffered from war or other disasters; and one-half to be used in the promotion of evangelism, which will be a major emphasis of all Presbyterian bodies in America in 1960-61.
2. That, recognizing the great possibilities of the Pan-Presbyterian program of evangelism planned for 1960-61, we request our Division of Evangelism to promote this effort throughout our Church as a part of our Centennial observance, giving special attention to some intensive preparation of our leadership in the fall of 1960.
3. That the Inter-Board Adult Council be authorized to prepare the Bible study book for 1961 dealing with basic beliefs of the Reformed Church.
4. That the General Assembly in its program for 1961 provide two major study seasons, one to be used for a study of the textbook on the history of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. (to be prepared by Dr. T. Watson Street, of Austin Seminary), the other to be devoted to a book on the role of the Presbyterian Church in the world tomorrow (to be written by Dr. E. T. Thompson, of Union Seminary); and that all the boards of the Church be asked to promote the study of these two books as the major studies of the centennial year.
5. That the following plans for informing the Church of the Centennial observance be approved:
   1.) That synods, presbyteries and local sessions appoint Centennial committees for the purpose of promoting Centennial interest and publicity; and that these committees include representatives of the Women of the Church.
   2.) That the Historical Foundation be directed to continue its work of encouraging the study of the history of our Church on every level, and of the publication of the results thereof.
   3.) That editors of church bulletins, papers and periodicals be requested to provide materials of Centennial interest.
   4.) That the publicity department of the General Council, together with the promotional departments of the several boards, be directed to emphasize the Centennial program; it being understood that the publicity department of the General Council will handle the publicity for the secular press.
6. That the General Assembly provide for the Centennial Committee in 1959 a budget of $7,500, and that the matter of setting up a more comprehensive budget for 1960-61 be postponed until a future time, it being understood that this comprehensive budget for the final two years of our work is to be prepared prior to the 1959 meeting of the Assembly.

5. THE REPORT OF THE AD INTERIM COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE BIBLICAL TEACHING and THE PROPER USE OF THE LORD'S DAY

FOREWORD

Your Ad Interim Committee, commissioned to make a new study of what the Word of God reveals as to His will for Christians, concerning His Holy Day, reports nothing less than a tragedy in the life of the Church.

We have discovered the necessity for a re-interpretation for our day. We find a terrific divergence between the Biblical teaching in regard to the Day set apart by God, and the attitude of the Church.

The Biblical teaching is positive. God, from creation, planned the Day for man to pause for praise and happy fellowship with Him. Man's tendency through the ages has been, and is today, to emphasize the negative. The Day which God wanted to be a delight has become for many a dull and dreary series of "don'ts".

Our study of the Word of God concerning His Day has made it unmistakably plain that the whole-hearted and regular observance of God's Holy Day is indispensable to a God-pleasing and God-sustained life, a life able to glorify God and enjoy Him forever.

Your Committee has also examined with sincerity and sympathy the actual circumstances which confront men and women in our world today, as they, as Christians, face this indispensable and timeless provision of our loving Heavenly Father for our growth. It is recognized that obstacles to full-hearted obedience to God's will, in this matter, have become especially keen and formidable today.

Your Committee, however, has rejoiced to discover in the Word of God positive guiding principles for the refreshing and fruitful uses of God's Holy Day which make the experience of it both immeasurably dear and immeasurably dynamic in the life of man.

I. BIBLICAL TEACHING

In setting forth the Biblical teaching concerning the Lord's Day, one must begin with the Old Testament. For, while the New Testament gives to the observance of the Lord's Day a new interpretation, and frees it from the Jewish law, the Christian Sunday is nevertheless a development of the Old Testament Sabbath and cannot be understood apart from it.

1. THE SABBATH IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

1) Whatever its ultimate origins may have been, the Sabbath assumed its unique position in Israel with Moses. It is included among the Ten Commandments and was thus one of the cardinal stipulations of the covenant which made Israel a people. (Exodus 20:9-11; Deut. 5:12-15) We may assume that it was accorded an importance equal to that of the other commandments of the Decalogue: to worship no other god, to make no images, not to murder, commit adultery, steal or covet, etc. It is specified that the seventh day is to be kept "holy" (i.e. set apart to God) as a day upon which no work is to be done (cf. also Exodus 23:12). Not even the pressure of plowing time and harvest is sufficient to excuse the breaking of it (Exodus 34:21). So seriously was it taken that the penalty provided for its violation was death (Exodus 31-14f)—though there is little evidence indeed (only such an incident as Numbers 15:32-36) that this was in practice exacted. We have little positive knowledge of how the Sabbath was actually observed in pre-exilic Israel; but it was supposed to be a day of rest from all business—though it was often enough disregarded (Amos 8:5)—and a day of religious observance (e.g. II Kings 4:22f; Isaiah 1:12; Hosea 2:11). In later times with the growing importance of the law, it increased vastly in importance; and the stress continued to fall on abstention from all labor (e.g. Isaiah 58:13f; Jeremiah 17:19-27; Neh. 13:15-22).

WHY THE SABBATH?

2) Of greater importance, however, is the Theological basis with which Sabbath observance is provided. This takes, in general, two forms; and these are best illustrated in the two versions of the Decalogue. In Deut. 5:12-15, after the command that the entire household including animals and servants (slaves) is to rest, the following reason is given (vs. 14b) . . . "that thy man-servant and thy maid-servant may rest as well as thou". This hints at a humanitarian motive for the Sabbath rest, and such was no doubt present (cf. also Exodus 23:12). But then it goes on to say (vs. 15): "And thou shalt remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God brought thee out thence by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore, the Lord thy God commanded thee to keep the Sabbath Day." The Sabbath was thus to be a day of joyous recollection of God's redemptive act by which He released His people from bondage and summoned them to Himself. The servant is included in the Sabbath rest, therefore, not merely for humanitarian reasons but—as in various passages (e.g. Deut. 12:12; 16:11f, 14) which command the entire family together with its servants, strangers and dependent persons to rejoice together before the Lord on feast days—in order that the whole household might participate in the praise of God for what He had done for Israel. The whole community was to rest from work that it might join in the recollection and recitation of God's redemptive acts.

In the other version of the Decalogue (Exodus 20:6-11) the Sabbath is based in creation itself (vs. 11): As God created all things in six days and rested from His labor on the seventh, so are His people to rest. Reference here is, of course, to the creation story which culminates in Genesis 2:2f. Regardless of the interpretation of that story in detail, its apparent aim is to present the Sabbath as the final act of the creative drama. It seeks to say that not even man is the end of creation, still less is creation an end in itself.

(1) The God Who was at the beginning of creation is also its end, and the goal of creation is the Sabbath day of His praise when all creation gives Him glory. The Sabbath is nowhere presented as a cosmic principle, yet it is conceived of as something inherent in God's scheme of things. The earthly Sabbath is to parallel the Heavenly rest of God. Its rest is not mere inactivity, but a ceasing from work which allows man to praise his creator. The Sabbath is thus a reminder—to use the word of the Catechism—that "man's chief end is to glorify God."

(2) In one important passage (Exodus 31:12-17) these two theological explanations of the Sabbath are brought together. Here the Sabbath is based both in creation (vs. 17) and in the covenant by which Israel responded to God's redemptive act (vs. 16). It is in fact, a "sign" of Israel's peculiar relationship to God (vs. 13) as a people "sanctified" (i.e. set apart) to Him. Thus, as Israel kept the Sabbath, she witnessed to the God who was both creator and redeemer, and also gave evidence of her loyalty to His covenant. That is, the Sabbath was a sign that Israel was Israel, a people set apart to the worship and service of God.

It is clear, then, that in the Theology of the Old Testament, the Sabbath was neither an incidental, optional thing, nor yet an end in itself, but a constant reminder of what God had done and of Israel's status as His people.

2. THE SABBATH IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

1) As the law gained in importance in the post-exilic period, and especially in the immediate pre-Christian centuries, the Sabbath received an ever greater stress. Indeed the keeping of it was regarded as a major test of a man's loyalty to his religion. Since all work on that day was strictly forbidden, the need became acute for a more precise definition of what constituted work and what did not, if the Sabbath was not to be broken inadvertently. This definition the scribes provided through an ever expanding body of rules handed down orally. By the time of Christ literally scores of them had been developed, regulating conduct on the Sabbath to the minutest detail; and to these the Pharisees accorded an authority equal to that of Scripure. While godly Jews found a joy in the keeping of them, the result was that the Sabbath was rigidly circumscribed by law, and the spirit tended to sink behind the letter. Our Lord's teaching concerning the Sabbath must be understood in the light of this. Virtually all that He said on the subject is in a polemical context as He disputed with scribes and Pharisees. He does not, therefore, present us with a rounded doctrine of the Sabbath, but rather with a rebuke of legalistic misuse of it.

Christ certainly did not repudiate the Sabbath as such. On the contrary, it was His custom to worship in the synagogue, and frequently to teach there on the Sabbath day (e.g. Mark 1:21; 6:2; Luke 4:16, 31). He likewise observed the Passover and the other feasts of His people. Never did He suggest that the Sabbath be abandoned; indeed His word: "The Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath" (Matthew 12:8; Mark 2:28; Luke 6:5) both affirms the Sabbath and His lordship over it.

But Christ did reject the oral law by which the scribes sought to regulate the Sabbath, and which was to Him no more than the commandments of man. When His disciples were rebuked for plucking grain to eat on the Sabbath (Matthew 12:1-8; Mark 2:23-28; Luke 6:1-5) He made it quite clear, citing David as an example, that human necessity takes precedence over the Sabbath law. So does the performance of religious duty, as is illustrated by the fact that the priests go about their tasks on the Sabbath, and are guiltless (Matthew 12:5, cf. John 7:22f). Quoting Hosea 6:6 (Matthew 12:7) He insisted that what matters on the Sabbath is "mercy". The Hebrew word is hesed which properly signified steadfast loyalty to the covenant, not the external form of observance. And He sharply rebuked the notion that the Sabbath was an end in itself, as if man was created just to observe it (Mark 2:27). His various works of healing on the Sabbath (Matthew 12:9-14; Mark 3:1-6; Luke 6:6-11; 13:10-17; 14-16) point in the same direction. His point here is consistently that works of mercy for the alleviation of human need take precedence over the Sabbath rest—a thing granted at least in theory by many of the rabbis. He flatly states "it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day" (Matthew 12:12).

From this it is clear that while Christ rejected any legalistic attempt to regulate the Sabbath by a set of rules, He urged its observance in spirit and in truth. He did not see it as a day of dreary inactivity, but as one for the doing of good works, for teaching and preaching the gospel, as well as a day for man's physical and spiritual restoration.

THE TRIUMPH OF "GRACE" OVER "LAW"

2) Paul likewise seems to have repudiated the Jewish Sabbath. Though he often took advantage of it to preach in the synagogues, he did not apparently regard the seventh day as sacrosanct, or have patience with a legalistic observance of it (e.g. Romans 14:5f; Gal. 4:9f; Col. 2:16f). To him, the whole significance of the Sabbath, together with that of the entire Jewish law, had been taken up and fulfilled in Christ. With this last, the New Testament as a whole is in agreement. A classical example is Hebrews 4:1-11, where it is declared that the Sabbath rest of God, the goal both of creation (vs. 3f) and of the Exodus deliverance (vs. 8) has been given in Christ.

Yet, for all that, the Church could not, and did not, dispense with the Sabbath. Partly perhaps to breakly cleanly with the Jewish law, chiefly because that was the day of Christ's resurrection, the custom took root even in New Testament times of assembling on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7; I Cor. 16:2). The Jewish Sabbath gave way to the Christian Sunday, and this gradually prevailed in the Church.

But this was no abandonment of the Sabbath, but a transformation of it. Legalistic regulation of the Sabbath was abrogated, but the theology of the Sabbath was given new meaning in Christ. Christ had indeed fulfilled the law of the covenant, but He had not abrogated covenant law. The Ten Commandments remained in force, that of the Sabbath no less than the others, but all were transfigured in the light of what Christ had done.

On the Lord's Day the Church remembered and recited God's redemptive acts—now no longer the Exodus, but the deliverance in Christ from the bondage of sin and death. It was a day for men to cease mundane employment and, recognizing the purpose and goal of all creation now understood in Christ, to give praise to the God Who had made them—and had now made them a new creation in Christ. It was a day for the people of the new covenant to assemble themselves as a community and, recounting the gracious acts of God, thereby to give witness to the fact that they were the people of God's calling and kingdom. For the Church, the Jewish law of the Sabbath could never return; but the Sabbath itself, its rest fulfilled in Christ, gained a new and eternal significance as a foreshadowing and earnest of the "Sabbath Rest" of the Christian in the Promises of God (Hebrews 4:1-11).

Here is "freedom"—not to do as we please, nor is it a "freedom" based upon "Thou shalt nots" but a "freedom" founded on the acknowledgment of the Sovereignty of God.

II. DIFFICULTIES AND DANGERS

Christians who seek a wider and more faithful observance of the Lord's Day are confronted by numerous temptations and obstacles, some of which appear to be peculiar to our time.

1. " 'There is the increasing complexity of our technological society, with its utility systems, means of transportation and other industrial activities requiring continuous operation and consequently involving large numbers of persons on the Sabbath Day. There is also the tremendous competition of present-day business, straining more and more avidly for the quick profit of Sunday sales, this factor being added to the general rush and tension of modern schedules. In the experience of many, the profit motive takes little or no account of the "One day in seven.' "

2. THE PROBLEM OF LEISURE TIME: TEMPTATION TO MISUSE OPPORTUNITY FOR RIGHT USE.

Attention should be called, moreover, to the problem of increased leisure, with an ever larger field of commercial groups making their bid for this extra time. The increasingly longer "week-end," in particular, poses a growing threat as it joins with the current predominance of secular interests and a corresponding breakdown of our sense of the stewardship of life. One must have high Christian resolve if one is to keep the Lord's Day effectively in the midst of a too-regimented and de-personalized mode of life. Mass-culture throws its deadening weight against the interests of the Christian Sabbath. We must have the courage often to go against the stream if we are to remain loyal.

3. WHO IS TO BLAME FOR THE IGNORANCE?

Most disturbing is the widespread indifference and ignorance of church members in regard to the importance of sacredness of the Lord's Day—this notwithstanding the fact that Sabbath observance is enjoined upon us by one of the Ten Commandments, and kept faithfully in precept and in practice by our Lord Jesus Christ Himself. There is a real danger that modern man might weaken and obscure the authority of the whole Decalogue, by minimizing God's positive Command, "Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy."

4. THE CHURCH MUST CONFRONT HER MEMBERS WITH THE "THUS SAITH THE LORD"

Christians need to be reminded of this further danger: Since, under the Gospel, we are freed from absolute and rigorous control of Jewish law, and have in its place a higher motive of conduct, we tend to be afraid of seeming to legislate concerning the Sabbath. The frequent result of this is that we offer no effective standard in place of the "Law" and the Pharisaic attitude now dethroned. The impression is given that the Lord's Day is optional and unimportant. Actually, there is for us the law of Christ and the response of grateful love to make us desire to keep His ordinances. The Ten Commandments are not repealed, but rather fulfilled, in the grace and truth of the New Testament.

Without thought of any detailed legislation, but rather for the purpose of extending helpful counsel toward a right and Christian observance of the Lord's Day, we suggest the following positive steps and attitudes for the people of Christ today:

III. HOW FAR CAN WE GO ON THE SABBATH DAY?

To the Pharisee the phrase "a Sabbath day's journey" had a distinctly negative meaning. Dr. Halford E. Luccock has suggested that the same phrase can be used by Christians in a glorious, positive way. How far can we go on the Sabbath? How much nearer to family and friends, how far out in service to others, how much closer to God?

Jesus has clearly taught us that we cannot legislate concerning the Sabbath, what we shall do or what we shall not do in specific instances. But there are great guiding principles in the Scriptures that can shape our thinking.

1) The Sabbath is a day for the worship of God. Every day of our lives should include private worship. But specifically this one day in seven is set aside for the public worship of God. It is the one time of the week when the congregation can assemble themselves together. It is a time when we give public testimony that man does not live by bread alone. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy; six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God." (Exodus 20:8-10a. See also I Cor. 16:2; Heb. 10:25).

Anything that detracts from the public worship of God, or leaves us less than our best when we come into His presence is to be deplored. It is noted that the Jewish Sabbath began at sundown. The hours of Saturday can have important bearing on how we present ourselves for worship. Week-ends that leave God out, formal social functions that put pleasure ahead of praise, the failure to prepare our hearts to wait upon God, can prevent the highest fulfillment of this hour. As it is the privilege of every Christian to be present at public worship, so it is our obligation not to deprive others of this opportunity, needlessly or heedlessly. And it is the responsibility of pastors and leaders of worship faithfully to present themselves as instruments of the Holy Spirit to meet the deepest needs of God's people. Many a half-empty Church might be filled if people were truly finding the bread of life.

2) The Sabbath has traditionally been a day of instruction. The transmitting of our religious heritage from one generation to another has always been a solemn charge to Christian people. Moses taught the Hebrews: "When your son asks you in time to come 'What is the meaning of the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances which the Lord our God has commanded you?' Then you shall say to your son: 'We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.'" (Deut. 6:20-21) So we as Christians would instruct our people in the greater wonder of God's redemptive act in Jesus Christ. Jesus and Paul both went into the synagogues to teach the people on the Sabbath day. (Luke 4:16; Acts 13: 14-15; etc.) So do we in the Church school, in hymns, in the Scriptures and in the sermon which is brought forth out of the Word.

3) The Lord's Day is likewise a day of rededication. It is a day when we give proud witness to the world of the covenant God has made with His people. Each Sunday we make our public profession of faith anew as we stand with the congregation to worship Him, even as "the Lord spake unto Moses saying: Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying: 'Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations: that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you.'" (Exodus 31:12-13)

4) The Lord's Day is a family day. The Old Testament put great stress on the solidarity of the home. "And these words which I command thee this day shall be in thine heart. And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up." (Deut. 6:6-7) These words suggest a beautiful picture of the family circle, studying God's word together, taking long walks in the great out-of-doors, kneeling for prayer at the bedside at night. Peter said: "the promise is unto you and unto your children . . . ," and when Paul baptized a Christian he included all his house. The Christian Church through the centuries has regarded the home as the chief teacher of our faith, and the Lord's Day as a God-given opportunity for such instruction. Many Christians today can remember the teaching of the catechism, the reading of Bible stories, the singing of hymns, which were a part of every Sunday afternoon.

In these days so full of activity for all the family, the Lord's Day provides the best (and often the only) opportunity to have all of the family together. These occasions need not, and should not, be occasions of dreary discipline. They can and should be happy occasions. The reading of good books, playing games, listening to great music, even the serving of special refreshments can be a glad part of the family's day of rest and of renewal.

It should be especially noted that the Old Testament carefully included all members of the family in the responsibility for the provisions for the Sabbath and other festive days: sons, daughters, manservants, maidservants, the strangers, the fatherless, the widow. (See Deut. 12:12; 16:11, 12, 14; etc.)

5) The Lord's Day is a day of rest. Let it be said again that this does not mean a day of physical inactivity. For many, exercise can be a means of rest. The words "sanctify," "Hallow," "Holy" convey the thought of setting apart, of making different from all the rest. It is a time of re-creation, of renewal. Works of necessity and mercy were specifically engaged in by Christ himself. But the rapid spread of Sunday businesses, apparently engaged only in the mad pursuit of profit, finds no justification in the Christian teaching of the Sabbath. "Six days shall you labor and do all your work . . .". (Exodus 20:9)

These questions might well be asked of the activities of this day:

Is it good for my body, mind, and soul?
Is it helpful to my fellow man?
Is the purpose more for service than for gain?
Is it worshipful? Is it to the glory of God?

6) The Lord's Day is a day of Christian service. The example of our Lord has forever established this principle. "Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath day or to do evil? to save life or to kill?" (Mark 3:4). God's Holy Day reaches its highest fulfillment as the love of God which we have experienced in worship, which we have taught our children in the family circle, finds expression in deeds of loving service to our fellowmen. Worship services in needy places, visits to those who are sick, letters to the far off—in these and other deeds our rededication achieves reality.

7) The Lord's Day is a day of rejoicing. The worship of God in both Old and New Testaments abounds with the note of praise. "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it." (Psalm 118:24) "I was glad when they said unto me: Let us go into the house of the Lord." (Psalm 122:1) (See Deut. 16:11, 14, etc.) This should be the constant theme of the Christian: "Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say, rejoice." (Phil. 4:4)

"O day of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright;
On thee, the high and lowly,
Through ages joined in tune,
Sing Holy, Holy, Holy,
To the Great God Triune."

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the General Assembly request the Board of Christian Education to incorporate in all our educational literature, at least annually, appropriate material concerning the right use of Sunday; and that this Board be requested to report their intended procedures to the next General Assembly.

2. That the General Assembly direct the General Council to restore to the Church Calendar an annual Sunday of emphasis on Lord's Day Observance. (We suggest a Sunday as near Rally Day as possible.)

3. That the responsibility for an annual emphasis on the Biblical basis and proper use of the Lord's Day, in preparation for this Sunday, be assigned to the Board of Christian Education.

4. That, in accordance with the action of the 1957 General Assembly, this Assembly authorize that this report be printed in attractive book style format, in a heavy paper-back booklet, and mailed to each pastor in the General Assembly with an explanatory letter.

5. That the Board of Christian Education be requested to design the format and provide for the printing and distribution of this booklet with the understanding that cost of this original distribution will be paid by the office of the General Assembly and thereafter the sale of future copies be arranged between the Stated Clerk and the Secretary of the Board of Christian Education.

6. That in view of the recent improvements in the publications and work of the Lord's Day Alliance your committee recommends that the General Assembly continues its cooperation and support of this organization.

6. REPORT OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON MARRIAGE, DIVORCE AND REMARRIAGE

PREAMBLE:

The Ninety-seventh General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, April 25-30, 1957, received overtures from the Presbyteries of East Hanover, Dallas, Wilmington, Harmony, Memphis, Montgomery, Piedmont, East Mississippi, Albemarle and Mecklenburg, requesting further study of the questions of Marriage, Divorce and Remarriage. In general it was recommended that chapter XXVI of The Confession of Faith and corresponding paragraphs in The Book of Church Order be made to include positive statements on marriage and divorce (all of which must remain in full harmony with the teachings of the Sacred Scripture), and to urge proper preparation of all persons contemplating marriage. The Ad Interim Committee appointed by the General Assembly to continue the study of these matters, presents the following report with recommendations:

REPORT:

Your Committee, from the first, recognized the seriousness of the matters committed to our charge. We came together with one desire—to discover the Will of God through the counsel of His Holy Spirit. If we had any preconceived idea at the beginning of our first session it was our inadequacy to bring any new light on the subject assigned for study. Yet the appearance of the numerous overtures in 1957 urging the re-study of these questions impressed us with the necessity of a continuing search for a solution. With these feelings weighing heavily upon us we turned to God in prayer. Your Committee has been a praying committee. In preparation for our findings we have studied the Scriptural teachings which bear on the whole problem. We have studied the reports of the preceding Ad Interim Committees on this question, and we are indebted to them for many things of value. We have also examined the studies on the question of marriage and divorce made by other evangelical groups within the Church, so that we might gain any light that has come through the illumination of the Holy Spirit in any part of the Body of Christ. We have agreed unanimously on our report and are of the sincere conviction that we have been guided by the Holy Spirit.

Your committee is not unaware of the position our Church has held through the years on Marriage, Divorce and Remarriage, and the Biblical evidence upon which it has been supported. We are recommending certain changes in our Standards, in order to clarify our Church's position, believing them to be in harmony with Scriptural teachings.

We believe that it is the Divine Intention that the marriage consummated between two people, who are able with judgment to give their consent, becomes an indissoluble union. However, we do not recognize any difference between the Biblical idealism concerning marriage and any other "perfect way" revealed by God in His Holy Word. Broken marriage is, therefore, in the category of all sin. It is especially tragic because of the significance of the home in the economy of God, and because of the spiritual, moral and social effects of the broken marriage upon so many people. For both of these reasons the Church should do all in its power to prevent separation or divorce. Through careful premarital counseling, prayerful counseling with couples in marital difficulty, adequate education of church members on the Church's position concerning marriage, divorce and remarriage, consideration of the possibility that the single state may be the Christian vocation for some, and the Session's sincere acceptance of its responsibility in overseeing the flock committed to its charge, progress toward sound family life can be made.

Your Committee feels that divorce is due to sin, the result of man's rebellion against God, and it should be dealt with on this level from the start. In this regard there is a Divine way of dealing with man's failure—it is the action of Redemptive Love bearing the guilt, pardoning the sinner, and becoming his power for a new life. This does not change the Divine Intention for perfection of life. It wholly recognizes guilt for failure but, while condemning the sin, saves the repentant sinner (cf. John 3:16, 17). The Cross of Christ is the symbol that God has dealt redemptively with the weaknesses of man. We believe that Redemptive Love applies to failure in marriage as well as to sin in any other area of life.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

We have been led to submit the following recommendations growing out of these convictions and our deliberations:

I. That chapter XXVI of The Confession of Faith be revised to read as follows and sent to the Presbyteries for advice and consent:

CHAPTER XXVI OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

1. Marriage is a union between one man and one woman designed of God to last so long as they both shall live.[1]
   (1) Gen. 2:23, 24; I Cor. 7:2, 39; 13:8, 13; Matt. 5:31, 32; 19:4-6 (Mark 10: 5-9); Eph. 5:28, 31, 33; Romans 7:2, 3.
2. Marriage is designed for the mutual help of husband and wife,[2] for the safeguarding, undergirding, and development of their moral and spiritual character;[3] for the propagation of children and the rearing of them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.[4]
3. All persons who are able with judgment to give their consent may marry,[5] except within the limits of blood relationship forbidden by Scripture,[6] and such marriages are valid before God in the eyes of the Church.[7] But no marriage can be fully and securely Christian in spirit or in purpose unless both partners are committed to a common Christian faith and to a deeply shared intention of building a Christian home. Evangelical Christians should seek as partners in marriage only persons who hold in common a sound basis of evangelical faith.[8]
   (2) Gen. 2:18, 24.
   (3) Gen. 1:27, 28; 2:18-25; I Cor. 7:3-5, 9, 36; Eph. 5:22-23; Col. 3: 18, 19.
   (4) Gen. 1:27, 28; 9:1; Mal. 2:15; Matt. 18: 5, 6, 10, 14; 19:14 (Mark 10:13-16, Luke 18:15-17); Eph. 6:1-4; Col. 3:20, 21.
   (5) Gen. 1:27, 28.
   (6) Lev. 18:6-18; Mark 6:18; I Cor. 5:1.
   (7) Mark 1:30; John 2:1, 2; I Cor. 7:7, 36; 9:5; I Tim. 4:3; 5:14; Heb. 13:4.
   (8) I Cor. 7, especially v. 39; II Cor. 6:14, 15.
4. Marriage for the Christian has religious as well as civil significance.[9] The distinctive contribution of the Church in performing the marriage ceremony is to affirm the divine institution of marriage;[10] to invoke God's blessing upon those who enter into the marital relationship in accordance with His Word;[11] to hear the vows of those who desire to be married; and to assure the married partners of God's grace within their new relationship.[12]
   (9) Prov. 18:22; Matt. 19:6; Mark 10:9, 11, 12; Eph. 5:29, 30, 32.
   (10) Gen. 1:27, 28.
   (11) Mark 10:9.
   (12) Eph. 5:22, 23.
5. It is the Divine Intention that persons entering the marriage covenant become inseparably united, thus allowing for no dissolution save that caused by the death of either husband or wife.[13] However, the weaknesses of one or both partners may lead to gross and persistent denial of the marriage vows so that marriage dies at the heart and the union becomes intolerable; yet only in cases of extreme, unrepented-of, and irremediable unfaithfulness (physical or spiritual) should separation or divorce be considered. Such separation or divorce is accepted as permissible only because of the failure of one, or both, of the partners and does not lessen in any way the Divine Intention for indissoluble union.[14]

6. The remarriage of divorced persons may be sanctioned by the Church in keeping with the redemptive Gospel of Christ, when sufficient penitence for sin and failure is evident, and a firm purpose of and endeavor after Christian marriage is manifested.[15]
7. Divorced persons should give prayerful thought to discover if God's vocation for them is to remain unmarried, since one failure in this realm raises serious question as to the rightness and wisdom of undertaking another union.[16]

(13) Gen. 2:23, 24; Matt. 5:31, 32; 19:4-9; Mark 10:5-9; Romans 7:2, 3; I Cor. 7:2, 10, 11, 39; 13: 4-13; Eph. 5:28, 31, 33.
(14) Matt. 19:7-9; Mark 10:4-9; I. Cor. 7: 12, 13, 15.
(15) II Sam. 12:13; Neh. 9:17; Ps. 32:5; 130:4; Matt. 12:13a; 21:31, 32; Luke 736-50; 15:11-32; John 3:16, 17; 8:3, 11; Romans 3:23; 10:9, 10; Gal. 6:1; I Tim. 2:4; Heb. 7:25; I John 1:9, 2:1, 2.
(16) Matt. 5:31, 32; Mark 10:11; Luke 16:18; I Cor. 7:10, 11, 20, 32-35.

II. We recommend the approval of the following paragraphs, to be inserted in The Book of Church Order after paragraph 376, and that they be sent down to the presbyteries for advice and consent:

1. It shall be the responsibility of the minister who is asked to officiate at a marriage to provide adequate time for careful premarital counseling with the parties involved. Attention shall be given to all important aspects of marriage, especially those where problems may arise, whether they be physical, emotional, economic, social, moral or religious. In some instances the minister may deem it wise to refer the couple to a physician or other qualified person for special counseling. The minister shall carefully instruct the couple in the Standards of our Church as set forth in chapter XXVI of The Confession of Faith and in this chapter of The Directory for Worship. This counseling procedure shall be followed not only for those contemplating marriage for the first time, but also for any who may be seeking remarriage. In every instance it shall be the minister's duty to assist the couple in laying firm foundations for the establishment of a Christian home.
2. A true and lasting marriage can be achieved only when its physical bonds are reinforced and sanctified by a variety of moral and spiritual ties: respect, affection, common ideas and interests, the unselfish wish of each partner for the other's welfare in all things, and a mutual sharing of the common joys, griefs, opportunities and burdens of the home. This means that both faithfulness and unfaithfulness in marriage must be conceived in spiritual as well as physical terms.

   But, while both physical and spiritual fidelity are vital, and while both are essential to the attainment of marriage at its best, husbands and wives should bear in mind that human weakness and frailty may manifest themselves in this realm as in all others. They should, therefore, cultivate the Christian graces of understanding, patience, generosity, repentance and forgiveness. They should remember that just as other human relationships can survive imperfections, so can marriage. Our Lord's command to forgive and, if need be, to forgive repeatedly, is especially applicable in this intimate and delicate relationship. The offending partner should not look upon the forgiveness of the other as license to keep on sinning but should regard this forgiveness as a summons to repentance and as the ground of re-establishing harmony within the union.
3. When marriage seems in danger of breaking for any cause, permanent separation or divorce must always be regarded as a last resort. Neither can rightly be sanctioned by the Church except where a continuation of the legal union would endanger the physical, moral or spiritual wellbeing of one or both of the partners or that of their children. Thus, every Christian minister will view as a vital pastoral responsibility the duty of preventing, so far as he can, by wise and prayerful counsel, the hasty or ill-considered separation or divorce of any couple committed to his care.
4. When a Christian who has been divorced applies to a minister for remarriage, the minister's chief concern shall be the applicant's present fitness of heart and life for the intended marriage. The supreme test of this fitness should be one's honest purpose to profit from past experiences and to plan and work for a Christian home on soundly spiritual foundations. Careful attention should also be given to the applicant's psychological readiness for a new marriage experience. If the applicant has been clearly and grossly wronged by a previous mate, this fact may incline the Church to allow and sanction the remarriage without further question, but the mere fact of having been wronged will not necessarily mean that the applicant understands fully the spiritual demands of marriage and holds to a high and serious purpose to make the coming marriage Christian. The minister, therefore, shall take care to be as fully satisfied on the latter point as on the first. On the other hand, if the applicant has been clearly at fault in the break-up of the earlier marriage, or is found even to be chiefly at fault, the mere fact of previous guilt (however grievous) should not be held as a rigid and final disqualification for remarriage under the auspices and with the sanction of the Church. Here, too, the minister shall weigh, as of paramount importance, the quality of the applicant's present faith, contrition and purpose, being mindful always of the infinite mercy of God and careful never to hold against any honest child of God a sin which God himself may have forgiven and put behind Him forever. In a word, in all cases where remarriage is sought, the minister's decision shall turn not so much on what the applicant has done but rather on what this person by God's grace has now become, and what, with God's help, he (or she) honestly intends and hopes to do in the future.

5. The Session of each church may appoint a committee to advise with the minister in all cases where divorced persons make application for remarriage. The minister may seek the advice of this committee and after a careful investigation on the basis of our Church's Standards and a conscientious consideration of all pertinent facts may approve or decline the request. Normally, the applicants should appear before the committee to state their case and declare their intention to establish a Christian home.
6. The Presbytery may appoint a committee on remarriage to which may be referred cases upon which the minister or the Session feels it may be better qualified to render a decision.
7. In all instances of the remarriage of divorced persons the officiating minister shall, before solemnizing the marriage, seek definite assurance that the attitude of the parties toward their new marriage is in accordance with the fundamental doctrines of our Church.

III. We recommend that the Council on Christian Relations prepare a manual or pamphlet for the guidance of ministers during the premarital conference.

7. REPORT OF THE AD INTERIM COMMITTEE TO STUDY SALARY SCALES OF ASSEMBLY'S BOARDS AND AGENCIES

The Ad Interim Committee to Study Salary Scales of Assembly's Boards and Agencies has held its organizational meeting and set in order the procurement of data upon which to base its findings. This information has been procured from both our own and other denominations. It has been distributed to the membership of the Committee for individual study and analysis.

The personnel of the Committee finds it is unable to schedule a meeting to arrive at its findings until sometime in the month of May. It is likely that further time for study will be required after this meeting. It begs that this be received as a progress report and that the Committee be continued for another year. Its report will be submitted to the 1959 meeting of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMOND J. LINDSAY, Chairman

8. REPORT OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE MONTREAT SITUATION

The General Assembly of 1957 appointed an Ad Interim Committee to clarify the matter of responsibility and authority at Montreat with respect to:

1) Ownership of property at Montreat;
2) Use of Montreat property and facilities by Boards and Agencies of the Presbyterian Church U.S.;
3) Matters of policy affecting work of the Boards, Agencies and Courts of the Presbyterian Church U.S.;
4) Consideration of a study to be made by the Mountain Retreat Association as it pertains to Montreat College.

This committee was instructed to report, with recommendations, to the General Assembly of 1958.

We have met several times, have corresponded with each other, have made a thorough study of the matters referred to us and have engaged in extensive discussion of the problems involved. We have arrived at some tentative conclusions and recommendations in which we concur unanimously. However, the committee respectfully informs the General Assembly,

1. That the complexity of the situation of the Mountain Retreat Association as it affects our boards and agencies, and our denomination as a whole, warrants further study; and,
2. That certain changes in the charter and by-laws of the Mountain Retreat Association and of Montreat College have been filed with the Secretary of State of North Carolina, and the record of these changes only recently has come into our hands. Since there has been but little opportunity for this committee to study these proposed changes or to evaluate their probable effects, and since a consideration of these matters was specified in our instructions (4) from the General Assembly;

We believe, for both of the reasons stated above, that to make a final report at this time would be premature; and the committee asks that it be continued for another year with its present personnel.

IX. THE REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON INTERCHURCH RELATIONS

The Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations met in the Conference Room at the Presbyterian Center in Atlanta, Georgia, on October 7, 1957, and again on January 6 and 7, 1958.

Following are the reports of the sub-committees which form the report of The Committee on Interchurch Relations:

A. THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

As I understand the business of the World Council of Churches, it is to do some of the things God wants done in the world which no one denomination or national Christian community can do alone. As we begin to do these things together, we begin, like little children learning to speak, to give the first feeble answer to the prayer of our Lord "That they may all be one!" And just as the first spoken words are thrilling experience for a child, so for us the first feeble beginnings of Christian unity constitute the ultimate in dramatic adventure.

Think of the hundreds of thousands of refugees and displaced persons who in the name of Christ have been helped by the World Council of Churches to find freedom and new homes. Is there any more moving and heartening story in the entire history of the Christian Church?

Think of the infinite variety of church activities that in years to come will grow out of the World Council's study on "Our Common Christian Responsibility Towards Areas of Rapid Social Change." The Communists know what to do in the areas of rapid social change. How about our churches? The World Council is finding the answer.

Think of the work of the great Ecumenical Institute near Geneva and what it means in the life of the Churches to have the ablest laymen from all denominations and races meeting together to consider their common faith and its relevance for the day in which they live.

These are only three of the score or more of areas in which the churches through the World Council are doing some of the things they believe God wants them to do together.

In the summer of 1957 the annual meeting of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches was held in the Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Connecticut. Among the many important decisions taken were these:

(1) To begin planning for the Third Assembly to be held in Ceylon in the winter of 1960-1961.

(2) To receive into the membership of the World Council:
Evangelical Lutheran Church, U. S. A.
Presbyterian Church, East Africa
Gereformeerde Church in Indonesia
Burma Baptist Convention
Presbyterian Church of Jamaica

(3) To commend to member churches for their study and prayerful consideration, a draft plan for joining the World Council of Churches and the International Missionary Council.

(4) To defer action on the Church of Norway's request for a reconsideration of the basis.

(5) To welcome warmly the proposal for a permanent East Asia Christian Conference and to cooperate in working toward that goal.

The Central Committee received with pleasure and gratitude reports from the Finance Committee on progress being made in the development of plans and the acquisition of property for the new headquarters buildings of the World Council in Geneva.

The ecumenical movement is, I firmly believe, one of the great works of God in our time. The Presbyterian Church, U. S., is making many notable contributions to this movement. But as the representative of the Southern Presbyterian Church on the Central Committee, there is one item on our docket which always makes me blush with shame when the time comes to discuss it in the transaction of the committee's business, and that is the amount contributed by each denomination to the annual budget of the Council. This budget runs around $450,000.00 for a world-wide enterprise of gigantic scope and significance. The money comes from the member denominations. In 1957 the accepted quota for the Presbyterian Church, U. S., was $8,293.00, and we gave $6,609.84 or less than the salary of the minister of my church in Charlottesville. Our whole denomination gives less than the salary of one minister to support one of the clearest world-wide manifestations of the work of the Spirit in the history of the Christian Church. That is why I blush with shame.

FRANCIS PICKENS MILLER

B. NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The meetings of the General Board since our last report to our General Assembly have been as follows: Williamsburg, Virginia, February 27-28, 1957; Chicago, Illinois, May 1-2, 1957; New York City, October 2-3, 1957; St. Louis, Missouri, December 6, 1957. Your chairman has attended all these meetings and has taken part in them. Other members of our delegation have attended one or more of these meetings.

The General Secretaries make it a regular custom to bring a comprehensive report at these meetings of the General Board. In this way your representatives are kept informed about the far-flung work of the Council in its various agencies and units, together with reports from various sections of the nation where the National Council is having a significant and important ministry. In addition there are reports from the various conferences and workshops of the divisions of the Council.

Noteworthy among the activities of the General Board during this past year has been the great attention given to the matter of Religious Liberty and other related matters. To be specific, there was great activity taken by the Board regarding the Martin Luther film which was banned by a television station in Chicago. There was also much activity regarding Religious Liberty and related matters touching conditions in America and especially in Colombia.

Your representatives serve on a great number of important committees in the National Council. In these places of discussion and decision we seek to take an active part and we seek to give our testimony at all times. We feel we can humbly say that the voice of our representatives is listened to with respect and on many occasions we feel there has been a moderating result of our positions and points of view. Your chairman is presently serving on the Policy and Strategy Committee, on the General Nominating Committee, on the Executive Committee of Christian Life and Work, and on the Executive Committee of International Affairs.

One of the noteworthy achievements during the past year has been the formulation of a strong statement on Evangelism. The committee which worked on this took a long time for its discussions and the formulation of its report. This report then was taken up at a rather lengthy period during a General Board meeting when groups of the representatives discussed the matter and brought back their final report. This report, entitled "The Good News of God: The Nature and Task of Evangelism," has now been printed and is commended to the Churches for their study and use.

Furthermore, in the realm of Evangelism, it is inspiring to hear of the ministry on behalf of the Churches in the National Parks of our nation. This Christian ministry last summer served 250,000 people in 24 park areas. In addition to five resident chaplains, there were 121 seminary and college students who, together with guest ministers, conducted 125 services of worship, 35 Sunday schools, 20 choirs and 40 discussion and Bible study groups weekly. We are very happy to know that through a special gift it is possible to enlarge this ministry next year.

It is the custom of the Secretaries to highlight some Division of the National Council at each of the General Board meetings. Thus, from meeting to meeting, we learn of the far-flung work of the Divisions in which all the Churches who are members of the National Council have an interest and a share. Particularly impressive has been the portrayal of the work under the Division of Home Missions. In addition to bringing in workers among the migrants who serve each year an estimated 250,000 seasonal farm workers in 30 states, there was a portrayal of the work in the urban centers of the nation, special consideration to work in churches of town and country, and strong emphasis on Indian work.

From this sample of one specific activity, let us remind the members of the General Assembly and of our churches of the following objectives and functions of the National Council:

(1) To manifest the common spirit and purpose of the co-operating Churches in carrying out their mission to the world.
(2) To do for the Churches such co-operative work as they authorize the Council to carry on in their behalf.
(3) To continue and extend the work of the member interdenominational agencies, together with such additional objects and purposes as the Churches may agree on.
(4) To encourage study of the Bible and to assist in the spread of the Christian religion.
(5) To encourage fellowship and mutual counsel concerning the spiritual life and religious activities of the Churches.
(6) To foster and encourage co-operation among the Churches.
(7) To promote co-operation among local churches and to further in communities, states, or larger territorial units the development of councils of churches and councils of church women.

(8) To establish consultative relationships with National Councils and Churches in other countries of North America.
(9) To maintain fellowship and co-operation with similar councils in other areas of the world.
(10) To maintain fellowship and co-operation with the World Council of Churches and with other international Christian organizations.

We would call attention also to the rich mine of publications, periodicals and other helpful literature which may be obtained from the Department of Publication and Services. In addition to the general publications of Information Service, Memo, The National Council Outlook, and The Religious Weekly, there are a great number of publications covering every phase of the work of the Council which bring authoritative and helpful information to our people and for the programs of our organizations.

We especially commend for the dissemination of "good information," the new booklet entitled "Working Together Through the National Council of Churches." To emphasize that the National Council is the creature of the Churches and is controlled and directed by their representatives, let me quote the following from this recent publication: "As the Council was officially created by the churches, so also is it wholly responsible to them. The governing body is the General Assembly of 677 delegated representatives, 434 clergy and 243 laymen, all named directly or approved by the member communions. In the interim between Assemblies, the supervisory body is a General Board of 254 members, 139 clergy and 115 laymen, all of whom also directly represent the member communions or are approved by them."

It will be of interest to our people to know how the money in 1956 was used. The following is a condensed summary:

1. Relief of distress, reconstruction, and understanding overseas	$6,456,290
2. Interpreted the Christian faith	1,949,302
3. Reached underprivileged and unchurched people	1,864,776
4. Taught our youth ethical values and moral conduct	1,240,919
5. Stimulated local cooperation	455,845
6. Applied Christian principles to life	459,114
7. Provided special research, survey and advisory services	163,767
8. Administered and supervised these program activities	740,544

I am sure we would also be interested in how the income was provided. The following is a condensation of the source of the money spent as just mentioned: .5% Investments; 12% Individuals, Corporations, Foundations; 19% Gross sales, earned and other; 27% Government freight refunds; 45.5% Denominations, Churches, related organizations.

Ground was broken on November 17, 1957 for the Interchurch Center on Riverside Drive at 120th Street, New York City. The next day construction of this great structure, costing nearly 20 million dollars, began. This 19 story building will house the various Departments and Divisions of the National Council, which at the present time are scattered in some eight different locations in the city. In addition, a number of denominations will move their headquarters to this center. Announcement has been made that the cornerstone will be laid on October 19, 1958.

Dr. Fred S. Buschmeyer was installed on November 1, 1957 as the General Director of the Washington Office, succeeding the late Dr. Earl F. Adams. Dr. Buschmeyer was formerly Secretary of the Congregational Christian Churches. He had also held a pastorate in Washington.

In this connection we think it in the interests of clarity to include in this report the official statement of purpose of the Washington Office, adopted by the General Board in 1952:

1. By giving prompt and authoritative notice regarding pending legislation and governmental directives and other developments in the national capital affecting the functioning of the churches and their agencies; and by securing official interpretations of legislative and administrative acts when required by the National Council.
2. By indicating proper channels for contacts in Washington and furnishing facilities for effecting such contacts when desired by the various units of the National Council or by the member churches. The Washington Office as such is not to engage in efforts to influence legislation.
3. By rendering such service as is possible to the various divisions and other units of the National Council and its member churches, and coordinating all activities in relation to governmental agencies carried on by representatives of the National Council in Washington.

The new President of the National Council, Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, visited our armed forces personnel in Alaska during the Christmas holidays. As in the case of his predecessors, he preached to our men and carried assurances of the concern and prayers of our Churches to these men and women during his ten day visit. Upon his return he reported that there are more young people in the ranks of the armed forces around the world than in the student bodies of all our American colleges put together. Based on his findings, he made a plea for better provision for the spiritual welfare of our forces, especially in isolated bases.

In addition to the contribution made by the leaders of our Boards, individuals of competence in special fields, and the members of the General Board, we would single out these as illustrative of the vital contribution our Church is making in cooperative Protestantism: Mrs. W. Murdoch MacLeod, general director of United Church Women, chosen to receive the "Church Woman of the Year" award; Dr. Frank W. Price, director, Missionary Research Library; Mr. Richard A. Farnsworth, a past vice-president of the National Council; Dr. John A. Redhead, radio and television speaker; Dr. James A. Jones, member of the Board of the Washington Office, and Dr. J. McDowell Richards, chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Southern Office of the National Council.

Your chairman sent to Mr. Robert E. Kell a large quantity of information regarding the National Council to be used by the Interchurch Committee in preparing "good information" as ordered by the last General Assembly to be distributed among the people of our churches. Your representatives hold themselves ready at all times to assist in this endeavor to make known the far-flung activities of this cooperative body in which our Church is having a significant part.

Attached is a report of the General Assembly of the National Council of Churches held in St. Louis, December 1-6, which has been prepared by Dr. Ben R. Lacy, my colleague on the General Board.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. LAND

REPORT ON THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

December 1-6, 1957

The fourth meeting of the General Assembly of the National Council of Churches was held in the Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis, Missouri, December 1-6, 1957. Careful preparation included, in addition to the program and schedule of sessions and events, the publication of a "Workbook" of 208 pages setting forth in detail the organization and scope of the National Council and the work during 1957 of the General Board, the Washington and Regional offices, and of the four Divisions, five Departments and one Commission which constitute the effective working units of the Council. The "Workbook" vividly reveals the magnitude of the task undertaken by the Council and the measure of success achieved.

A gratifying feature of this Assembly was the impact made by the Review of Reports Committees. These Committees functioned very much like the Standing Committees of our General Assembly, and indeed the plan was modeled after our Presbyterian usage. There were 21 committees and each representative was assigned to one of these. To the appropriate committee, together with consultants who could interpret same, was referred the report in the "Workbook" of the Division, Department or other unit under review. A full afternoon was set aside for the meetings of the committees, after which the report to the Assembly was consolidated by the chairman.

The meetings connected with the Assembly included Plenary Sessions and General Public Sessions held in the main auditorium, Public meetings in the Opera House, and Division meetings held in assembly rooms. To these last the general public was also invited and opportunity was given for each to attend exercises dealing with subjects of his special interest; for example, Foreign or Home Missions, Christian Education, Christian Life and Work, or Evangelism. Numerous breakfasts, luncheons and dinners were scheduled for special discussion and fellowship, such as the breakfast for the members of our own Church. A delightful social function was a reception and supper at the Art Museum tendered by the churches of St. Louis. The first impact made by the Assembly upon the Christians of the city was on Sunday morning when most of the Protestant pulpits were occupied by visiting ministers of other denominations. Considering the snowy weather the General meetings, which were characterized by notable addresses and by excellent music by the choruses of the city, were well attended.

Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg of the American Baptist Convention, pastor of the Delmar Baptist Church of St. Louis, was elected president to succeed Dr. Eugene Carson Blake. Dr. R. H. Espy of New York was elected Associate General Secretary to succeed Dr. Roswell P. Barnes. Four additional Churches were admitted to membership in the Council.

The vote on a resolution which would give greater proportionate representation to the local and state councils in the General Board and General Assembly was postponed. Our representatives, together with those of the Lutheran Church, were opposed to this resolution thinking it would lessen the influence of the churches and weaken the National Council.

Sixty members of our Church were present in one capacity or another. Twelve were representatives or alternates, eleven were consultants, two represented the press, others were accredited visitors, representatives of local councils, officials of the National Council or of agencies of our Church.

BEN R. LACY

C. COOPERATION WITH PRESBYTERIANS AND OTHER EVANGELICAL DENOMINATIONS

The Committee received the following report from its Sub-Committee, Rev. J. C. Ruffin, Chairman.

A. Cooperation with Presbyterian and Other Evangelical Denominations.

Cooperative efforts with various denominations have been described in our two previous reports to the General Assembly. These efforts are being continued.

In reply to Overture 20 referred to this Committee by the 1957 General Assembly, we recommend that we not go further at this time in exploring the possibility of union with the Reformed Church of America, but that we request the General Assembly to authorize the establishing of fraternal delegates with that Church and that we exchange fraternal delegates with their General Synod, beginning in 1958.

A letter from Mr. John W. Shoup of Elgin, Illinois, requested consultation on the matter of denominational relationships. Since this could involve our Church entering a section outside our traditional geographical boundaries, it was recommended that this matter be referred to the 1958 General Assembly.

In this year when the Presbyterian Church U.S.A., and the United Presbyterian Church are uniting, we recommend that the General Assembly convey our good wishes to the Church on the occasion of their uniting.

B. North American Section, World Presbyterian Alliance

The annual reports of the Alliance and its North American Section are appended and passed on as information to the General Assembly.

C. Fraternal Delegates

The following were named as fraternal delegates:

(1) To the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America: the Rev. Frank H. Caldwell, Louisville, Ky.; Alternate, the Rev. Wm. M. Elliott, Dallas, Tex.

(2) To the Reformed Church of America: the Rev. Felix Gear, Decatur, Ga.; Alternate, the Rev. Frank W. Price, New York.

(3) To the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church: the Rev. Warner Hall, Charlotte, N. C.; Alternate, the Rev. Henry Russell, Montgomery, Ala.

(4) To the Church of Scotland: Rev. Paul B. Freeland.

(5) To the Reformed Church of France: Rev. Paul B. Freeland.

D. COOPERATION WITH INTERDENOMINATIONAL AGENCIES

The Committee received the following report from its Sub-Committee, Rev. G. T. Gillespie, Chairman:

1. The American Bible Society

Christ has commissioned every Christian—and thus every church—to spread His Word to the ends of the earth. Obviously, no single denomination can do this alone.

In the American Bible Society, all evangelical denominations find a channel for carrying out this part of The Great Commission. By pooling and channeling our resources through this great interdenominational agency we have a means of translation, production and distribution of the Scriptures which would otherwise be impossible for any one denomination. Thus it becomes an effective agency of all the supporting churches in the program of world evangelization.

As we are all keenly aware, there is a sense of urgency in the affairs of men today. Many are confused and bewildered by the spectacular achievements of our scientific age. The hearts of people around the world are beset by uneasy fears .

The Christian Church finds in the Word of God advance notice of these world-shaking events and what they may portend; "Yet once more," says He, "I shake not the earth only, but also heaven . . . that those things which cannot be shaken may remain,." Heb. 12:26-27. And again, "Heaven and earth may pass away, but my Word shall not pass away." Matt. 24:25. Surely if ever the peoples of the world needed the light and comfort which the Bible alone can provide for troubled hearts, they need it in these troubled days.

The American Bible Society in a recent survey of World Conditions in relation to the distribution of the Word of God reports: "Never was the need greater; never was the hunger deeper; never was our opportunity more urgent."

The Advisory Council of the Society, on which our church has several representatives, has approved a spending budget for 1958 of $4,669,000. But over and above this they have recognized needs to the amount of $1,576,532, which can only be met, if there is free-will giving over and above the budget allotments, from the supporting churches and individuals.

For the Southern Presbyterian Church, the amounts budgeted and the amounts contributed for the past three years were as follows:

	1955	1956	1957
Amount budgeted	$35,000	$37,500	$40,459
Amounts contributed	33,260	39,729

The amount approved in the Assembly's budget for 1958 is $48,551, but as indicated above, it is the earnest hope that individuals and churches may be led to make free-will offerings over and above the budget to help toward meeting the unbudgeted needs in the present world emergency.

We strongly recommend that Universal Bible Sunday, December 14, 1958 be observed in all churches; that the World-wide Bible Reading Plan be commended to all of our people; and that special attention be called to the suggested Bible Society Theme for 1958, The Book That Lives.

2. The Lord's Day Alliance

In a special communication from Rev. Melvin M. Forney, General Secretary of The Lord's Day Alliance, warm appreciation is expressed for the continued support given by the Presbyterian Church U.S. to that work, and also for the constructive criticism voiced in the report of this Committee to the General Assembly of 1957.

In that connection Mr. Forney states that the whole program of the organization is being restudied by the Board of Managers, and that steps are being taken to improve and modernize the literature and the public relations procedures, in line with the suggestions submitted.

It is also reported that during the past year more work was done for pastors and local churches than ever before in the history of the organization, and that an increasing number of Presbyterian Churches, U.S., are writing to request assistance in their local problems with respect to observance of The Lord's Day.

The Budget approved by the Assembly for 1957 was $1,000. The amount actually contributed was $715. The budget approved for 1958 is $1,200.

3. Religion in American Life

This organization, popularly known by its initial letters as R I A L, in co-operation with the Advertising Clubs of America, has been active for the past eight years in trying, through the use of commercial advertising methods, to stimulate a wider interest in religion in America, and to encourage all people, irrespective of their religious preference, to attend the church or religious organization of their choice for regular worship.

The leaders of this movement give every evidence of being high type Christian laymen, and there can be no question as to the sincerity of their motive, or as to the beneficial results achieved.

The contributions of our Church to this organization for the past three years have been as follows:

1955	$ 788
1956	1,650
1957	1,244

The budget approved by the last Assembly fixes the proposed contribution for 1958 at $2,400.

The latest report submitted by the Organization indicates a decided increase in the total budget proposed for 1959, and a substantial increase in the quota suggested for the Presbyterian Church U.S.

R I A L is to be commended for the work it is doing and a representative is invited to meet with the Permanent Committee to work out methods of closer cooperation.

4. Reformation Day

By interdenominational agreement, October 26, 1958 is the Sunday designated as Reformation Day for the current year. It is earnestly recommended that pastors and sessions make special plans for the proper observance of the Day, and take advantage of the occasion to remind all of our people, and especially the young people, of the significance of the Reformation, and the great debt which modern civilization as well as the Protestant Churches owe to the leaders of the Reformed Faith.

Since the theme adopted for special study by the Church in 1958 is "The Nature and Mission of The Church," we recommend that the theme for special emphasis on Reformation Day be, "The Spiritual Mission of The Church."

In connection with the Reformation Day Observance, attention may well be called to the fact that The International Committee for the Restoration of The Calvin Audiorium in Geneva, Switzerland, has just reported that the Committee expresses its thanks to those congregations and individuals in the Presbyterian Church U.S. who have made contributions to this undertaking.

E. SPECIAL REPORT ON DISTRIBUTION OF NATIONAL COUNCIL MATERIAL

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH U.S.

and the

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The Presbyterian Church in the United States officially became a member of the National Council of Churches in 1950 through the action of the General Assembly, the highest Court of our Church.

Our General Assembly recommended that your Permanent Committee "procure and disseminate good educational material from the National Council of Churches to the Churches of our Assembly that they may be informed concerning the work of the Council." (See minutes of the Ninety-seventh General Assembly, Page 66, Recommendation 11.) Therefore, your Committee has procured from the National Council a pamphlet which we consider "good educational material" entitled, "Working Together Through the National Council of Churches." In disseminating this pamphlet, your Committee is attaching a factual and descriptive statement setting forth the function and nature of the National Council and the working relationship which exists between the various Boards of our Church and the National Council.

What Is The National Council of Churches? It is a fellowship of thirty-three independent national denominations who desire to pool their material and spiritual resources to accomplish their common tasks. The National Council is not a Church but a Council of Churches which exist independently and are members by their own deliberate choice. The Council also has no authority over member Churches, but acts in a purely advisory role. The Council makes no financial assessments, but is wholly dependent upon contributions from member Churches.

At the present time the following denominations are members of the National Council of Churches:

1. American Baptist Convention
2. National Baptist Convention of America
3. National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.
4. Seventh Day Baptist General Conference
5. Brethren, Church of the
6. Christian Churches, International Convention (Disciples of Christ)
7. Greek Archdiocese of North and South America
8. Romanian Orthodox Episcopate of America
9. Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church of America
10. Syrian Antiochian Orthodox Church
11. Ukrainian Orthodox Church of America
12. Evangelical United Brethren Church
13. Five Years Meeting of Friends
14. Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends
15. Augustana Evangelical Lutheran Church
16. American Evangelical Lutheran Church
17. United Lutheran Church of America
18. The Methodist Church
19. African Methodist Episcopal Church
20. African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church
21. Christian Methodist Episcopal Church
22. Moravian Church in America
23. Evangelical Unity of Czech Moravian Brethren in North America
24. Presbyterian Church in the U. S.
25. Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.
26. United Presbyterian Church of North America
27. Protestant Episcopal Church
28. Reformed Church in America
29. United Church of Christ

Joined the National Council during the 1957 General Assembly:

30. Polish National Catholic Church of America
31. Diocese of the Armenian Church in North America
32. Serbian Eastern Orthodox Church
33. Free Magyar Reformed Church in America

HOW DID THE NATIONAL COUNCIL COME INTO EXISTENCE? By the action of independent Churches themselves including our own Church. In 1950 a carefully drawn Constitution was officially ratified by the highest courts of the member Churches.

Prior to 1950 there were various interdenominational agencies at work in cooperative efforts for the accomplishments of common tasks. The National Council combined these former agencies into one agency. The former agencies were:

Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America
Foreign Missions Conference of North America
Home Missions Council of North America
International Council of Religious Education
Missionary Education Movement of the United States and Canada
National Protestant Council on Higher Education
United Council of Church Women
United Stewardship Council
Church World Service, Inc.
Interseminary Committee
Protestant Film Commission Protestant Radio Commission
Student Volunteer Movement

WHAT ARE THE BASIC ORGANIZATIONAL FEATURES OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES? The Council is governed by the official representatives—ministers, lay men and women—of the thirty-three denominations which comprise it. A General Assembly of 668 members appointed directly by the cooperating denominations will meet every three years. A General Board of 254 members meets quarterly as the interim supervisory body. It consists of the delegated representatives of the Churches and is responsible for the policies and programs of the Council. It reports regularly to each of the denominations and is subject to their review. Our own church has eighteen officials representing us in the National Council of Churches. At this time, January 1, 1958, they are:

Rev. B. R. Lacy, Jr.	Charles J. Currie
H. Roe Bartle	Rev. James R. Bullock
Rev. James A. Jones	Dr. Donald C. Agnew
Rev. Marshall C. Dendy	Rev. E. C. Scott
Richard A. Farnsworth	Rev. Patrick D. Miller
Mrs. T. Smith Brewer	Rev. Ferguson Wood
Rev. C. Darby Fulton	Rev. John S. Land
Judge W. O. Murray	Mrs. L. M. McCutchen
Mrs. D. R. Freeman	Rev. J. G. Patton

HOW DOES THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ACCOMPLISH ITS WORK?

1. Through four main "divisions": Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Christian Education and Christian Life and Work. The executive board of each of these divisions includes denominational executives carrying corresponding responsibilities.

2. Through "joint departments" for concern—such as evangelism, stewardship and family life—which are related to all divisions.

3. Through "central departments" and "offices" serving the total program of cooperating Churches in broadcasting and films, in public relations, in research and survey, in contacts with state and local Councils, in Church World Service, and other interests.

4. Through two general departments of United Church Women and United Church Men, in which the laity of the Churches unite their efforts along major lines of Christian activity.

Our own General Council and Boards have prepared the following statements describing their relationship to the work of the National Council of Churches.

THE GENERAL COUNCIL

Presbyterian Church U.S.

The General Council is closely associated with the National Council of Churches through the Department of Stewardship and Benevolence. This department is the continuation of the old United Stewardship Council of North America.

Through the Department of Stewardship and Benevolence, our church reaps four benefits:

1. Fellowship with the stewardship leaders of the other Churches of North America.
2. The advantage of the knowledge and experiences of over thirty churches in the field of stewardship and the exchange of ideas with their leaders.
3. The use of all stewardship material published by all of the churches of North America.
4. Financial saving in cooperative printing and visual aids. This saving amounts to more every year than our financial contribution to the Department.

Our Church also contributes more than its share of the leadership of the Department. The Executive Secretary is the immediate past Chairman of the Department: he therefore currently serves as a member of the Executive and Administrative Committees.

The Associate Secretary is also a member of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Nominating Committee of the Department.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Presbyterian Church U.S.

1. The National Council of Churches makes contributions to the work of the Presbyterian Church U.S. through the Board of Church Extension in the following areas of work:

A. Home Missions Division—Staff persons of our Board of Church Extension serve as members of the National Council's Home Missions Division, attend meetings with Home Missions people from other participating denominations, and have the benefit of all their experience and studies in this complex area of American Protestant Church concerns. This National Council Division operates through the following Departments, from each of which we derive benefits through frequent consultations and through specialized publications:

1. Town and Country Church
2. Urban Church Planning
3. Spanish American Work
4. Research and Survey

B. Bureau of Church Building—This Agency of the National Council has, over the years, provided us with much valuable data in the field of church architecture.

C. Joint Commission on Missionary Education—Useful books and studies in the area of Home Missions are always needed and our Presbyterian U.S. Board of Church Extension benefits from the use of many studies prepared by this Joint Commission. At times we cannot use them, but over the years a goodly number of fine books has been thus provided for us.

D. Evangelism Division—This has always been one of the most vigorous and valuable arms of the National Council. Our representatives take part in its studies, exchange ideas with other denominations and find much in methods and materials that can be adapted to our use.

E. Division of Christian Life and Work—This is the National Council group with which Christian Relations in our Assembly is associated.

2. The Presbyterian Board of Church Extension seeks to make a contribution to the National Council through bringing our denominational methods and viewpoints into discussions and studies in all areas of concern to us.

Our Board's representatives go to the National Council recognizing that we belong to the Reformed tradition, that we are a creedal Church and theologically conservative without apology. There are informed people in American Protestantism who feel that our influence on the side of sane conservatism has been constructive and out of all proportion to our numerical strength.

BOARD OF WORLD MISSIONS

Presbyterian Church U.S.

The Board of World Missions cooperates with and participates in the program of the National Council of Churches primarily through the Division of Foreign Missions, one of the four major Divisions of the National Council.

The Division of Foreign Missions operates essentially through two different types of intra-divisional organizations: One is concerned with specific geographical areas in which the participating boards of foreign missions serve; the second is concerned with certain functional responsibilities which the Foreign Mission agencies attempt through the Council to discharge together.

Specifically the Board of World Missions has membership in the following area organizations of the Division of Foreign Missions: The Africa Committee, The Far Eastern Office, The Committee on Cooperation in Latin America, The Joint Office for Southern Asia and the Near East, The Department of American Communities Overseas, The Committee on Cooperation with the Churches of Europe and the International Committee on Christian Literature for Africa. Also, the Board of World Missions has membership in and cooperates with the following functional committees: Radio, Visual Education and Mass Communication Committee, The Committee on World Literacy and Christian Literature, The Committee on Missionary Personnel, The Public Relations Committee and The Treasurers Committee.

The Board is also represented on the Department of Evangelism, the Joint Commission on Missionary Education, The Department of Religious Liberty, The Inter-National Affairs Committee, The Cooperative Committee on Ministry to Service Personnel in the Far East.

Another feature of the Board's association with the National Council is through the Church World Service, which as a Central Department is responsible for aid to refugees, relief assistance to indigenous churches, and the distribution of food and clothing to victims of crisis situations throughout the world.

Essentially this cooperation enables the Board to review missionary programs, to exchange ideas and material, to deal with national governments, and to maintain church relationships with national communities overseas in association with a large segment of the Protestant missionary forces in North America.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Presbyterian Church U.S.

1. Through the National Council of Churches we enter into active fellowship with other Churches in the United States.

The members of our staff receive training through conferences, camps, and schools where we meet with recognized leaders from other denominations and under some of the most capable instructors in the field of Christian Education in the nation. We receive from the Council services of their staff members for certain teaching and leadership activities in our program of work. We also receive a vast amount of information about developments in Christian Education through the services of the National Council.

2. The Commission on Christian Higher Education of the National Council of Churches provides a means by which the Presbyterian Church can coordinate its work of higher education with that of other denominations. The Church institutions, colleges and seminaries have much in common even though they serve different denominations.

Our Department of Campus Christian Life draws heavily upon the various uniting bodies which are affiliated with the National Council of Churches, such as the United Student Christian Council, Department of Campus Christian Life, the Student Volunteer Movement, the Interseminary Movement, and the Faculty Christian Fellowship. Work among students who are scattered in a multitude of institutions across our country can only be effective as the denominations have means by which they are able to cooperate.

3. Through individual and group leadership we make a contribution to the broader work of the Kingdom throughout the United States. This contribution is out of proportion to our size as a denomination, but has been made possible because of strong leaders who have represented our Church.

We are bearing witness to our view of the Scriptures as well as the central place of the Bible and an adequate theology in Christian education.

The National Council furnishes invaluable help in audio-visual materials for leadership education. What is being produced cooperatively to train leaders in Christian Education is done more economically than we could provide this by ourselves and, we believe, of an exceptionally high caliber of work.

The National Council is engaged in research along such lines as the following:

(a) How to measure the effectiveness of Christian Education.
(b) The influence of radio, television and amusements on the religious life of persons.
(c) Statistical information about church membership and Sunday school attendance, and trends in attendance.
(d) Information about population growth and how that growth will affect Sunday school enrollment, plans for new churches and Sunday schools.

Such research is proving beneficial to us in planning our program.

BOARD OF WOMEN'S WORK

Presbyterian Church U.S.

The National Council of Churches contributes to the Presbyterian Church U.S. with reference to the work of women of the church in the following areas.

1. Worship and service—Women have an opportunity to worship and serve with other Christian women in the United States on May Fellowship Day, World Community Day, and with women around the world on the World Day of Prayer. In connection with these three special days offerings are taken that go to special projects that would not otherwise be undertaken.

Certain service activities are possible in a united church effort that would not be possible otherwise because of the size or nature of the problem. Work through the United Church Women makes it possible for Presbyterian women to participate in the ministry to migrants, in penal and correctional institutions and other places which such ministry might be beyond them as a denomination.

2. Study—Through the Commission on Missionary Education there is made available to the church annually, books, teacher's guides and visual aids for missionary education that we as a single denomination could not equal in quality and quantity.

Through the Division of Christian Education, the staff of the Board of Women's work keeps abreast of developments and opportunities in adult education which would not be possible through any other existing channels.

Through workshops and institutes arranged and provided through the United Church Women, skills and understanding and experiences in Christian faith and action are made possible for Presbyterian women that are not and in most cases could not be otherwise provided.

The Presbyterian Church U.S. contributes to the National Council—with reference to women's work—in the following ways:

1. Membership in the various divisions of the National Council (United Church Women, Commission on Missionary Education, Christian Education, Home Missions, Foreign Missions), through which the purposes and thinking of the Presbyterian Church become a part of those of the Council.
2. Participation in state and local organizations as leaders and members in councils of Church women through which the impact of their ideas and strength is brought to bear on the whole community, Christian and otherwise.
3. The Board of Women's Work carries in its 1958 budget an item for the work of the General Department of United Church Women of the National Council.

ARE THE INDIVIDUAL DENOMINATIONS BOUND BY THE PRONOUNCEMENTS OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL? No. The official pronouncements of the National Council are formulated by the duly elected representatives of the Churches which make up the Council. They are discussed in open debate and represent group wisdom. Any denomination represented in the Council may dissent from the pronouncements, and the dissenting vote is made a matter of record and released to the public along with the pronouncement. Hence, we may be officially disassociated from any action with which our denominational representatives are in disagreement, and thus do not give tacit approval to it by virtue of our membership in the Council. This has been made clear in a report from the National Council of Churches published in the minutes of the Ninety-fifth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (P. 155), which reads:

> "The General Board calls to the attention of its Constituent Communions and their members that when it approves a pronouncement, it does so on the authority given to it by its Constituent Communions according to the Constitution of the National Council of Churches. It is clear, however, that this means on the one hand that the Constituent Communions or any of their members have full right and responsibility to protest and to differ when their own convictions, under the authority of the Scriptures illumined by the Holy Spirit, vary from the Council's pronouncement."

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That representatives of the various Councils and related bodies be invited to attend the annual meeting of the Permanent Committee when such attendance will facilitate the work of the Committee.
2. That these reports be adopted and that the Presbyterian Church, U.S., continue its relationship with the National and World Councils.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER R. COURTENAY, Chairman

X. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIANITY AND HEALTH

Your Permanent Committee on Christianity and Health was instructed to continue work on the assignment received from the 1956 General Assembly. This assignment specified that this committee "meet at least once each year and (be) charged with the responsibility of keeping this important area of our mission as a Church before our membership, and of providing positive help by encouraging the publication of . . . reviews of books and articles on this subject, the setting up of local and area groups and conferences which would have the subject as their concern, the encouraging of cooperation between clergy and physicians, and/or any other things which may seem to them appropriate."

The Committee on Christianity and Health held two meetings during the past year. The first was held in Gaither Hall, Montreat, North Carolina, July 1 and the second at the Presbyterian Center in Atlanta, Georgia on November 18. Both meetings were well attended.

The morning of the first of these meetings was devoted to setting up some long range objectives for the Committee. One of these objectives to which the Committee gave a high priority rating was the encouragement of closer cooperation between clergy and physicians. An invitation from the Committee on Men's Work was then read requesting our Committee to sponsor an interest group for doctors and ministers at the Miami Men's Convention, October 10-13, 1957. It was voted to accept their invitation, and the remainder of the day was spent making plans for this program.

The program was presented in Miami on October 12 in the form of a panel discussion, and was attended by 91 ministers and doctors. The hope was there expressed that each person present would initiate efforts in his own community or church looking forward to improved doctor-minister cooperation, and that thus we might help to spark a movement in which the resources of medicine and religion might be offered in a combined ministry under God to the sick. (A copy of the program for this meeting is included below.)

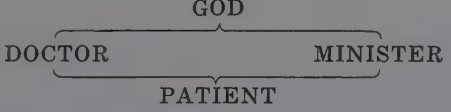
PANEL DISCUSSION FOR DOCTORS AND MINISTERS

Miami Men's Conference
Saturday, October 12, 1957
9:00-10:30 A. M.

Theme: The Physician, the Pastor, the Patient and God.

Purpose: To consider the doctor's Christian faith as related to his practice of medicine, and ways of cooperation between doctor and minister in meeting the needs of the patient. The following diagram will make clear the relationships to be explored:

Subject: The Doctor's Calling As Related to God, the Minister and the Patient.



Program: Dr. Wade H. Boggs, Jr., Presiding.

First Talk by a Physician: "Doctor and Minister Relationships" by Dr. W. T. Thompson, Jr., Chief, Medical Service, McGuire Veterans Hospital, Richmond, Virginia.

Second Talk by a Minister: "Medicine and Theology: Cooperative Specializations" by Dr. Thomas McDill, Professor of Pastoral Theology, Columbia, Seminary, Decatur, Georgia.

Panel Discussion, followed by General Discussion:

Panel Members: Dr. W. T. Thompson, Jr .(MD), Richmond, Va.
Dr. Thomas McDill (minister), Decatur, Ga.
Dr. Charles Kraemer (minister), Richmond, Va.
Dr. P. C. Elliott (MD), Nashville, Tenn.
Dr. Joseph A. Norton (MD), Little Rock, Ark.
Dr. W. A. Ward (minister), Richmond, Va.

Concluding Remarks and Closing Prayer: Dr. W. H. Boggs, Jr.

The second Committee meeting was devoted to a consideration of ways by which the values of this effort at the Miami Men's Conference might be summarized, and to the formulation of our report to the General Assembly summarizing our work on its assignment.

Not the least of the values of this Miami program was that it gave a better sense of direction to your Committee. During the next year we hope to devise some specific plans for encouraging doctor-minister conversations at the community and/or church level throughout our General Assembly. In doing this we will draw not only upon the experience gained in Miami, but also upon the results of the local and smaller meetings which we are sponsoring during the year.

In view of our agreement upon the objective to encourage closer cooperation between doctors and ministers, the need was felt for a statement of the relationship between medical science and the Christian faith which such cooperation presupposes. To be sure, Christian doctors believe there is some connection between their religion and their daily work. Yet few have tried to articulate this relationship. This needs to be done for the doctor in order that he may have a greater sense of Christian vocation in his medical practice. It needs to be done for the benefit of the doctor and the minister in order to clarify such theoretical basis for closer collaboration as may exist. It needs to be done for some of our church members who, having been misled by the teachings of extremist faith healers, mistakenly believe that the way of complete dependence on prayer and faith for healing must be set over against dependence upon medical procedures and regarded as the way of spiritual maturity. Therefore, we are including in our report a paper which undertakes to meet these needs by means of a constructive Christian approach. (This paper is of composite authorship, having been put in its final form by an executive sub-committee consisting of Dr. Thomas H. McDill, Dr. Allison Williams, Dr. Lila Bonner Miller, and Dr. Wade H. Boggs, Jr.)

HEALING FROM GOD THROUGH MEN

1. All Healing is of God

An affirmation basic to our Christian faith is that all healing is the work of God. Even though the work of God is not acknowledged, it is still true that God alone is Creator of the forces within man which make for healing.

A major presupposition of this faith is that anyone who cooperates with the process of healing is cooperating with the work of God. Failure to acknowledge this is to attribute the work of God to something or someone other than God. At the same time, acknowledgment that work of healing is work in cooperation with God will make the individual a more capable person in the work of healing.

Further, when we affirm that all healing is of God, this is not to be construed to mean sickness and death are outside the will of God. The Bible is quite clear that there are redemptive factors in suffering, and that for the Christian, death must be swallowed up in victory. This being true, the Christian must learn to seek good in suffering while healing is taking place. It follows that the failure of all efforts to accomplish physical healing does not necessarily indicate a lack of Christian faith.

A second major presupposition is derived from the biblical view of man as a unified whole. Though man may experience conflict within himself, he is still one. Therefore, cooperation with the healing process must be a ministry to the whole person. Special treatment of some part of the being may be quite necessary. For example, the direct concern may be the fracture of a limb, but though injury is sustained to the bone which is fractured, the whole being of the person suffers in pain, is distressed by inconvenience, is made anxious by complications, and the mental and spiritual attitudes of the patient will affect for weal or woe the healing process itself. Understanding cooperation between the persons in different professions who minister to the patient can help the patient achieve a mental and spiritual outlook conducive to recovery. On the other hand, conflict between such persons will lessen their effectiveness, in relation to the injured person.

Because we hold that all healing is of God, and that man is a unit, we believe in the necessity of those engaged in healing to work together as they endeavor to fulfill the responsibilities of their vocations.

2. God Heals Through the Medical Team

God has worked for the healing of the sick through physicians, medical scientists, nurses, technicians and other members of the medical team in a more marvelous way in this century than ever before. Scientific medicine is merely the application of God-given intelligence to reinforcing and supplementing the natural (God-created) healing processes.

By way of illustration, recall the great group of antibiotics popularly known as "miracle drugs." It would not be incorrect to say that a miracle from God occurs as a raging infection is treated by penicillin. When little children are saved from tuberculosis meningitis by the use of izoniazid, or when they are spared permanent disability through the polio vaccine, one can only bow and thank God. The same may be said with reference to the healing power of the cortisone family of drugs. Christian doctors who prescribe these drugs and their patients who receive benefit from them are grateful to God for their discovery and availability, and feel constrained to exclaim, "What wonders hath God wrought!"

Recall also the tremendous advances in surgical techniques and knowledge. Many tuberculosis patients discover the healing power of God when diseased areas are removed by a skilled surgeon. At a recent annual meeting of the Georgia Cancer Society in Atlanta's Biltmore Hotel, the chairman asked all who were well as a result of surgical removal of cancer to stand. Over 500 people stood up. Included in this group were many with new internal connections, some who were wearing parts of new faces, and many whose cancers had been destroyed by exact dosages of powerful and deadly rays. It seemed altogether appropriate when these recovered patients publicly expressed thanks to God for His work through dedicated men who had disciplined and trained themselves to be channels of His healing power.

One of the most important advances in the treatment of sickness is the development of modern psychosomatic medicine. This has now made it mandatory that every approach to the problem of health take into consideration the delicate interaction between the realms of the physical, emotional and mental. Not only is medical science now concerned to study the patient's body, but also his home environment, his vocational adjustments, his purposes in life. Even mental illness is regarded as a challenge to medical science as well as to psychiatry, for without taking mental health into consideration, no embracing definition of health is possible.

This development of psychosomatics alters the doctor's approach to the patient. It has made it plain that mechanical diagnostic equipment cannot be solely relied upon. In addition the physician will also study the whole patient, perhaps asking such questions as, "What is your work? How long have you been doing it? How do you like it? Have you attained the dreams you had ten years ago? Are you married? Do you have a family? Do you have a mother-in-law?" (Dicks, R. L., God and Health, p. 6.) In spite of the fact that such questions may seem strangely personal coming from a doctor, he will nevertheless ask them, if he suspects that there are problems in these areas productive of stress, for he now understands stress to be an important component of a variety of physical disorders.

The development of psychosomatics in brief means that medical science has now re-defined its boundaries in such a way as to overlap a broad area that once was regarded as the special province of religion. This change points to the feasibility and advisability of a joint effort on the part of physicians and ministers to discover how they may best combine their efforts in tending the total needs of the patient.

3. God Heals Through the Work of Christian Ministers

The Christian doctrine of man which understands people to be unified wholes reminds the minister initially that persons in his congregation over whom he has shepherding care are not divisible units of mind, soul and body. He is therefore aware that emotional disturbance prompts physical reaction and that physical disorder can upset spiritual serenity. He sees "health" as a dynamic relation of factors which together produce wholeness.

The minister readily accepts the basic truth that all healing comes from God whether the cure follows the employment of wonder drugs, or whether it follows the probing of the mind by a psychiatrist, or whether it follows his own ministrations of prayer and counseling. The minister sees God working through all of these avenues with no closed circuits apart from Him.

Moreover, the Christian minister understands that there are diversities of gifts by the same Spirit, and that God calls each individual to render service to other members of the Body of Christ in line with his own aptitudes and training. Therefore, the members of the medical team are "called of God" in just as real a sense and in the same ways as are persons who devote themselves to various kinds of church work.

As the minister recognizes the God-created wholeness of each person, he comes to see himself as co-worker with those of the medical and sister professions which concern themselves with health in its full sense. He sees God working through the marvels of medical science and through the devoted efforts of nurses and doctors. The minister recognizes that his own ministrations may facilitate the task of the physician, and that the work and techniques of the physician may contribute to the spiritual well-being of the person who is ill. Healing is therefore seen as the proper use of all God-given measures by a number of persons in diverse walks of life, to the end that the sick be restored to God-given wholeness.

4. God Heals Through the Christian Fellowship

More and more the truth is being brought home to us that those who are sick in body or in spirit are never really made whole until they find their rightful place in that redemptive fellowship which Scripture calls the Body of Christ. To lead people to find this place requires patient and abundant love, knowledge of human needs, and discernment of hidden fears and motives.

We can have such healing fellowships only in proportion as we build a true Christian brotherhood, in which each has a concern for the other, in which the strong bear the burdens of the weak, in which each is accepted as a member of the Body, in which each is enabled to find service outlets to suit his peculiar abilities, and in which each is enabled to grow toward Christian maturity.

We can have such healing fellowships only in proportion as forgiveness is practiced by the members of our churches, as ideas of retaliating injuries are replaced by good will, as grudges are surrendered, as prejudices are overcome, as fears are conquered. In proportion as the Christian message of confession, repentance, justification and sanctification is heard and heeded, healing fellowships will result, and fertile causes of disease, such as loneliness, self-centeredness, rebellion, frustration, aimlessness, hate, fear and bitterness shall be removed.

Thousands of people afflicted with alcoholism, having found their way to a cure, testify to the power of group support and therapy. The prognosis for the alcoholic who chooses to fight a lone battle is exceedingly poor. But by working together, helping one another, many have succeeded in escaping the bondage of strong drink. Back of the Alcoholics Anonymous movement is a basically Christian philosophy of fellowship. The cure not only of alcoholism but also of numerous other sicknesses waits upon the Church to give sufficient emphasis to this idea of Christian fellowship. In the whole realm of sickness and health there is no substitute for Christian compassion and understanding and the developing in the minds of those who are involved a sense of being loved and accepted and supported.

Nor should members of individual congregations fail to remember the responsibility and privilege of visiting the chronically ill and others who are confined by reason of infirmity or age. Such persons need the love and fellowship denied them because of their infirmity and without such visits they will find themselves alone, neglected and forgotten. Such visitation can prove a blessing to the one who visits and to those who are the recipients of these ministrations in the name of and for the love of Christ.

5. The Interrelatedness of All These Ways of Healing

Already the careful reader will have discovered a considerable amount of interrelatedness between the various sections of this paper. Wherever the basic Christian principle that all healing is of God is accepted, this overlapping is both inevitable and desirable. Specifically, four ways in which there are interrelationships between these approaches to health may be distinguished.

a) The Body of Christ

Ideally, the members of the medical team and of kindred professions understand themselves to be members of the Body of Christ. According to Paul's doctrine of the Church, all persons are called to be members of the same body (I Cor. 12:14 ff.), to be related to one another by love (I Cor. 13), to care for one another (I Cor. 12:25), and to cooperate with one another so that each part works together properly for the upbuilding of the Christian fellowship. (Eph. 4:11-16) All Christians, including the minister, are members of this fellowship and have a responsibility for its wholesome development and functioning.

b) Christian Vocation

All members of the Body of Christ must be challenged with the doctrine of Christian vocations. Each Christian should see his life's work as a call of God to serve the "least of these our brethren" (Matt. 25:40b) in ways that will best utilize his abilities and training. So all of us, whether members of the medical fraternity or otherwise, have an obligation to make a proper response to God's call to service.

c) Love and Knowledge

The Christian faith is not only concerned to develop virtuous disposition in people, it is equally concerned that individual Christians "make every effort to supplement . . . virtue with knowledge." (II Pet. 1:5) So the Christian engaged in the work of healing should try to keep both parts of this dual concern in proper perspective. Compassion for the sick, essential though it be, is not enough for the minister and for the doctor. Compassion must be intelligently directed according to knowledge. Thus Paul prays that "love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment." (Phil. 1:9)

d) The Christian Doctrine of Man

Now that the "machine age" in medical science is rapidly passing out of existence, and now that the psychological background of the patient is regarded as highly relevant to sickness and health, there is a change in the medical climate which brings the medical doctrine of man into close harmony with the Christian view of man. This shift away from studying the patient merely as a physiological mechanism to studying the whole patient including his social relations, his hopes and disappointments, as well as his body, is a shift that points to the need for high level professional conversations by doctors and ministers as to how they may best cooperate in a combined service under God to the patient.

BOOK REVIEWS, ARTICLES AND COURSES:

The following book reviews in the field of Christianity and Health have appeared over the signature of the chairman of your committee in recent months:

1. The Healing Power of Faith, by Will Oursler, Hawthorn Books, Inc., New York, 1957. 366 pp. $4.95. (The review of this book appeared in "The Presbyterian Outlook," November 11, 1957, p. 15.)
2. Prayer Can Change Your Life, by William R. Parker and Elaine St. Johns Dare, Prentice-Hall, Inc., Englewood Cliffs, N. J., 1957. 278 pp. $3.50. (The review of this book appeared in the Earnest Worker, November 1957, pp. 24-25.)
3. Healing: Human and Divine, by Simon Doniger, Editor. Association Press: New York, 1957. 254 pp. $3.50. (The review of the book appeared in the April 1958 issue of the Earnest Worker.)

In addition, Lila Bonner Miller, a practicing physician who has shown a major interest in the treatment of alcoholics, and a member of our Committee on Christianity and Health, wrote an article for the December 1957 issue of the Earnest Worker, entitled "Can the Church Help Alcoholics?" (pp. 1-3).

At the suggestion of our Committee, the Board of Women's Work decided to include a course on "Christianity and Health" among its offerings during the Montreat Women's Conference next July. Dr. Lila Bonner Miller, a member of our Committee on Christianity and Health, accepted their invitation to teach this course.

The Day by Day devotionals for April 20-26, 1958, submitted by the Chairman of the committee, are concerned with various aspects of the subject "Christianity and Health." These devotionals are entitled: "All Healing is From God," "Faith and Good Health," "Prayer and Good Health," "Forgiveness and Good Health," "Love and Good Health," "Medicine and the Christian Faith," and "The Importance of Health."

A course on "Christianity and Health" was taught by your committee chairman at the Quadrennial Youth Conference in Lexington, Kentucky, December 28-31, 1957. Also a series of lectures by him on "The Bible and Healing" is scheduled for the Montreat Bible Conference, August 18-20, 1958.

XI. TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

This year marks a significant anniversary in this area of the life of our Church. The General Assembly of 1938 took an official action creating Commissions on the Minister and His Work in the presbyteries, and Committees on the Minister and His Work in the synods and in the General Assembly. Many thought this to be a new concept in Presbyterian Church government. Some were openly hostile to the idea; fearful that it placed too much power in the hands of a few people. During the past twenty years much progress has been made both in people's reactions and in the way these Commissions and Committees have discharged their responsibilities.

Fitting commemoration of the twentieth birthday was observed during the 1958 Annual Meeting of the Assembly's Committee. Dr. E. C. Scott, who has served as a member of the Assembly's Committee during these twenty years, delivered the anniversary address. The Department of Ministerial Relations, Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., joined in the celebration. Thus the Assembly's Committee, in keeping with the counsel of the 1955 General Assembly, is sharing in wider avenues of cooperation with our brethren in the U.S.A. Church.

I—OFFICERS.

The officers of the Assembly's Committee for 1958 are:

Judge John A. Fulton, Chairman
Rev. J. Clyde Plexico, Jr., Vice-Chairman
Rev. John R. McAlpine, III, Member-at-Large of the Executive Committee.

II—RESOLUTION PRESENTED TO THE 1956 GENERAL ASSEMBLY BY THE REV. J. McDOWELL RICHARDS.

The above resolution is recorded on page 48 of the 1956 G.A. Minutes. It reads:

"WHEREAS it is desirable under the Presbyterian System that there be opportunity for ministers to change the field of their pastoral labors at reasonable intervals, and

"WHEREAS many ministers today are experiencing difficulty in making such changes, with the result that both the ministers and the congregations concerned are prevented from rendering their most effective service;

"THEREFORE be it resolved that this General Assembly, through its Moderator, appoint an Ad Interim Committee consisting of at least five persons to study this matter, to seek suggestions from qualified individuals throughout the Church, and to report to the next General Assembly, making such recommendations concerning our system for exchange of pastorates as it deems wise and practicable."

The Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His Work, to which the above was committed has given considerable study to the matter. A report of the study was made to the 1957 General Assembly, which is recorded on pages 177-182 of the Minutes. All of our Commissions and Committees on the Minister and His Work are cognizant of the problem. The Committee doubts that under our Presbyterian system there is any key solution except for Commissions to be aware of such situations and to be on the alert to find a solution in each individual case as it occurs. Therefore, after further study the Assembly's Committee makes no additional report.

III—RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY ATLANTA PRESBYTERY.

It has come to the attention of the Assembly's Committee that Atlanta Presbytery recently adopted the following resolution:

"That in situations involving unrest concerning the pastoral relations the Presbytery would call upon the officers of particular churches to exercise the fullest measure of caution that all efforts toward the correction of these conditions be carefully kept within the pattern of Presbyterian procedure and of Christian consideration. Specifically we would call to the attention of all officers that the pastoral office is established by action of Presbytery and can be dissolved only by that body."

RECOMMENDATIONS

(1) That Commissions on the Minister and His Work be alert to such situations in order to insure that constitutional procedures are followed.

(2) That all pastors and church officers utilize the facilities of the Commissions on the Minister and His Work of their presbytery.

IV—MINUTES OF MEETINGS OF COMMISSIONS ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK.

Apparently a few Commissions on the Minister and His Work are maintaining only single minutes of proceedings whether those Commissions are serving as committees or as commissions. The 1941 General Assembly (page 110, G.A. Minutes) adopted an action that:

"The Commission should keep accurate minutes of the actions taken by it. Some of these actions may be recommendations to Presbytery. The Commission shall make clear in its records the items which it as a Commission concludes, and those which it approves as recommendations to Presbytery for final action. The items which it concludes are presented to Presbytery for inclusion in the official Minutes of Presbytery. The action of the Presbytery on the recommendations determines whether or not these become a part of the Minutes of Presbytery. In addition to the above, there will be preliminary and tentative actions which become a part of the record of the Commission, but are not to be submitted to Presbytery, since they do not represent either final actions of the Commission to be admitted to the minutes of the Presbytery or recommendations requiring the action of the Presbytery."

RECOMMENDATION:

That the above action adopted by the 1941 General Assembly be called to the attention of each Commission on the Minister and His Work, and that the Commissions observe the practice of keeping separate minutes; (1) when they serve as committees and (2) when they serve as commissions.

V—RELATIONS BETWEEN A MINISTER AND A CHURCH.

Paragraph 126, Book of Church Order, states specifically that "the relation between a minister and a church may be that of a Pastor, Associate Pastor, Assistant Pastor, Mission Pastor, Minister of Education, Stated Supply, Temporary Supply or Occasional Supply."

RECOMMENDATION:

That the General Assembly call to the attention of ministers and churches that in our denomination there are no such titles as "interim minister" or "interim pastor."

VI—SECTION D, CHAPTER VII, "THE PRESBYTERY'S COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK," IN THE PROPOSED REVISION OF THE BOOK OF CHURCH ORDER.

The Assembly's Committee reviewed carefully the above chapter. The Committee noted with grave concern (1) the proposed change in name from a Commission on the Minister and His Work, to a Committee on the Minister and His Work and (2) the proposed limiting of its functions accordingly. Although the Assembly's Committee makes no recommendations at this time it does not approve these proposals.

VII—FREEDOM OF THE PULPIT.

The freedom of the pulpit is one of the cardinal principles of our Presbyterian heritage. It was achieved only after long and bitter struggle and like liberty itself, must be fought for continually lest the insidious forces of evil grind it down. Freedom of the pulpit must be used wisely. In these days of strain and stress there is question touching the freedom of the pulpit with regard to certain moral and social issues. It is recognized that these moral and social issues are only a part of the pattern of the whole Christian life. However, the question has caused embarrassment to some ministers as well as to some church officers.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) That the General Assembly appoint a special committee composed of commissioners to the 1958 General Assembly with instructions to prepare a statement setting forth the stand of our denomination on this subject.

(2) That if the above statement is adopted by the Assembly it shall be read to the Session and the Congregation of each church by the Clerk of the Session.

VIII—FINANCES

The Assembly's Committee submits the following financial statement. It covers the actual expenses for 1957 and the anticipated expenses for 1958.

XII. REPORTS OF TRUSTEES OF SEMINARIES

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES of the AUSTIN PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The Board of Trustees of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary submits the following report for the year 1957-58:

Ownership

The Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary is owned by the Synods of Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and controlled through trustees by these synods.

Objectives

The central function of the seminary is to train men for the parish ministry. Other areas of responsibility have been added: training of missionaries, training of Christian educational leadership, instruction in Bible to University of Texas students and through University extension courses, training leaders for Campus Christian Life, providing continuing intellectual and spiritual stimulation to active ministers and lay leaders through Library extension service, a Graduate Study program, and special convocations.

Trustees

Two changes have occurred in Board membership from Texas: B. O. Wood, retired, has been replaced by Wm. M. Elliott, Jr.; B. W. Trull, deceased, has been replaced by Hamilton E. McRae, Jr. Two changes have occurred in Board membership from Louisiana: W. L. McLeod was replaced by Albert B. Link; Morgan L. Shaw was replaced by David Crowe. No changes occurred in membership from Arkansas nor from Oklahoma. Board officers are: C. L. King, Chairman; S. C. Guthrie, vice-chairman; H. A. Anderson, secretary. John W. Smiley is Treasurer of the Seminary.

Accreditation

The seminary is accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools. It is a member of the Presbyterian Association of the South. Professors hold memberships in various learned and scholarly societies.

Faculty

Twelve men gave full time to seminary teaching during the year. Dr. Dietrich Ritschl, Ph. D., came in February for one and one-half years as Guest Professor of Biblical Theology; Dr. Wilhelm Niesel, Ph. D., serves as Guest Professor of Systematic Theology during the Spring semester. Instructors during the year included Carlyle Marney, Th. D.; John Boe, B. Music; D. A. Penick, Ph. D.; Leroy G. Kerney, M. A.; Robert Mooney, Ph. D.; James Hitt, Ph. D.; Oscar Reinmuth, Ph. D.; John Thomas, M. A.; Samuel Southard, Th. D. Edward B. Paisley, Ph. D., served as Consultant in Christian Education. John Jansen of Hanover College joins the faculty this fall as Professor of Biblical Theology. J. Donald Butler of Princeton Seminary comes as Professor of Christian Education.

Students

There were 147 students registered in seminary courses plus 98 who received instruction in Bible in the University of Texas and 42 through University extension courses.

Library

Nine months report shows 3,258 books received; 5,339 volumes catalogued against 3,678 last year; circulation: 10,780 against 9,004 last year. A microfilming machine has been added; books in the Renaissance-Reformation Library have been repaired and number 3,500. Total volumes: 37,700, plus periodicals, etc.

Buildings and Grounds

Construction was completed on an 18 apartment housing unit for married students and was used during the year. An adjacent 2½ acre tract of land was purchased by the Board during the year.

Finance

Capital Funds

The successful T. F. C. campaign of the Synod of Texas has added $346,637.83 to the resources of the seminary. This campaign was designed to produce $1,430,000 for the seminary, to be divided equally between capital improvements and endowment. $289,261.33 has been used in capital improvements and $57,376.50 thus far added to endowment. From this campaign $92,840.58 has been received of the $250,000 designated for the Lay School and has been, also, placed in endowment.

The successful campaign in the Synod of Oklahoma, designed to produce $50,000 to enable the seminary to purchase adjacent property sorely needed for expansion has added $5,050 for this purpose so far.

The Synod of Louisiana has approved a capital funds campaign for the seminary in 1959.

The Synod of Arkansas was requested to approve a capital funds campaign for the seminary. This was referred, with favorable comment, to that Synod's Council for study and recommendation.

Operating

The seminary again closed the year without deficit.

Co-operative Work

In process of formation is a Council of Southwestern Theological Schools composed of Brite College, T.S.U.; Perkins, S.M.U.; Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest; Phillips University; Southwestern Baptist and Austin Presbyterian. Its purpose is to explore areas where joint work would be beneficial to all. The Institute of Religion at Houston is an example of this type of endeavor. Other projects undertaken are the ecumenical institute at S.M.U. last summer and a summer school scheduled for Austin in 1958. A grant from the Eli Lilly Foundation, through the American Association of Theological Schools has made the exploration and study leading to the chartering of this Council.

Development

A grant from a private Foundation has made possible the immediate erection of a Convocation Hall-Classroom Building. Construction will begin soon after the completion of a new campus plan, now under way.

Respectfully submitted,

Board of Trustees

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, U. S.

I. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Columbia Theological Seminary is owned and controlled by the Synods of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, and Mississippi. Its governing body is the Board of 21 Directors who are elected by the synods and charged with responsibility for the policies of the institution. Two new Directors were elected during the year. Mr. Erst Long of Ripley, Miss. was named by the Synod of Mississippi to succeed Rev. L. A. Beckman of Ellisville; and Rev. Cecil Brearley of Myrtle Beach, S. C. was named by the Synod of South Carolina to succeed Rev. Francis B. Mayes of Columbia.

The officers of the Board of Directors are as follows:

Chairman: Dr. P. D. Miller, Atlanta, Ga.
Vice-Chairman: Dr. J. R. McCain, Decatur, Ga.
Secretary: Rev. Donald B. Bailey, Kingstree, S. C.
Treasurer and Assistant Secretary: Miss C. Virginia Harrison, Decatur, Ga.

II. FACULTY

Dr. Wade P. Huie, Jr. was elected Professor of Homiletics and his relationship with the seminary began September 1, 1957. Dr. Huie was for several years pastor of the Vineville Presbyterian Church, Macon, Ga. Also, Professor Shirley C. Guthrie, Jr. was elected at the same time as Associate Professor in the Departments of New Testament and Theology. He was formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Rusk, Texas, after completing his residence work for the Doctor of Philosophy degree at the University of Basel. The Faculty of Columbia Theological Seminary consists of its president and 12 full professors, 2 associate professors, and 7 guest professors who teach upon a part time basis.

President J. McDowell Richards is on sabbatic leave at the present time. At the last meeting of the Board of Directors he was granted leave of absence for a year after twenty-five years of faithful and effective service to Columbia Theological Seminary. He is expected to return to the work of the seminary around the first of September. A portion of his sabbatic leave is devoted to study in this country and during the summer he will travel and do further study in Europe.

III. STUDENT BODY

The enrollment of students for the past several years has taxed the facilities of the seminary to capacity and beyond. The increased number of students is a source of real gratification in the light of the needs of the Church but has made it necessary for us to seek added resources for additions to our physical equipment and to our faculty. The enrollment for this year in the various classifications recognized has been as follows:

Graduate Students	30
Seniors	71
Clinical Students	6
Middlers	70

Juniors	58
Bible Training Course	10
Special Students	2
Total	247

Twenty-three different states of the union are represented in the student body and three foreign countries. Members of the student body hold degrees from 81 different universities and colleges. Nine denominations are represented in the student body but the vast majority of our students are candidates for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. The prospects for a large enrollment for the 1958-9 school year are very encouraging at present.

IV. FINANCES

The income of Columbia Seminary for current operations during the fiscal year which ended December 31, 1957 amounted to $274,843.49. The expense of operations for the same period was $274,742.30, leaving an excess of revenue over expenses amounting to $101.19. Thus for the twenty-fifth consecutive year the seminary has operated without any deficit for current expenses. The book value of the seminary campus and equipment at the end of the year is shown in the auditors' report as $1,380,999.90, and the total endowment of the seminary was $1,541,501.77. There was an increase in the seminary's endowment during the year of $246,298.90. The campaign for $200,000.00 to endow the Peter Marshall Chair of Homiletics was successfully completed by December 31, 1957, which enabled the seminary to claim the conditional offer of $50,000.00 by an anonymous donor.

V. MINISTERS' WEEK

The Annual Ministers' Week was held in November 1957. The seminary was unusually fortunate in securing outstanding lecturers and speakers. Dr. John A. Mackay, President of Princeton Theological Seminary, delivered the Smyth Lectures on "Reality and Idolatry: A Critique of Current Christianity". Seldom has the thinking of our students been stimulated in a larger measure than by the thought provoking addresses given by Dr. Mackay. Dr. Wm. E. Elliott, Jr., pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church of Dallas, Texas, and the present Moderator of the General Assembly, preached each morning to the faculty, student body and seminary friends. He was heard with great appreciation by all. Dr. James M. Robinson, an alumnus of the seminary and at present teaching in the Candler School of Theology at Emory University, gave a most interesting series of lectures on the "Kerygma." For 1958, Ministers' Week will be held November 3-7. Dr. Marcus Barth of the Federated Theological Faculty of the University of Chicago will be the Smyth Lecturer. His subject will be "Let Preaching Be Preaching". Dr. D. P. McGeachy, Jr., pastor of the Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, Clearwater, Florida, will preach each morning. Dr. Robert F. Boyd from the General Assembly's Training School will also deliver a series of lectures.

VI. COLUMBIA FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE

Columbia Friendship Circle is composed of interested members from the five supporting synods who are united in the support of Columbia Seminary through prayer, through an annual contribution of at least $1.00 a year for some specific need of the seminary, and by presenting the cause of the Gospel ministry to promising young men in high schools and colleges. There were enrolled in this Circle last year 6,444. The total contributions last year amounted to $9,966.25. The second annual pilgrimage of the members of the Friendship Circle was conducted on April 10 with a splendid attendance. The gifts this year will go toward the building of additional married students' apartments on the seminary campus.

VI. WORLD MISSIONS CONFERENCE

On April 18-20, 1958, the students will hold their sixth Annual World Missions Conference at Rock Eagle State Park near Eatonton, Ga. This conference, which is sponsored entirely by the student body, is designed for college and high school students of the two upper classes. The expectation this year is that there will be approximately 1,000 persons in attendance from several southeastern states. An unusually good program has been arranged for the conference with the following well known speakers: Dr. H. Kerr Taylor, Associate Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Dallas, Texas; Rev. Paul Long, missionary to the Belgian Congo, Mrs. Leighton M. McCutchen, Executive Secretary of the Board of Women's Work of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., and Dr. J. Davison Philips, pastor of the Decatur Presbyterian Church, Decatur, Ga.

VII. THE SEMINARY'S DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

As an initial step in an effort to secure at least $2,500,000.00 for buildings and endowment, the seminary has just completed a financial campaign in the Synod of Florida under the able direction of Dr. Robert L. Stamper. This campaign was a joint effort in behalf of the Student Work at state institutions of higher education and of Columbia Seminary. The goal as announced was $500,000.00, of which $300,000.00 was allocated to the seminary. This campaign was highly successful and in due course funds will be available for the erection of a new dormitory. Financial campaigns in behalf of the seminary have been authorized in each of the other four supporting synods and it is expected that these will be carried forward in 1959 and 1960. Approximately half of the $2,500,000.00 which is being sought has been designated for additions to the physical plant of the seminary and half will go toward the increase of the seminary's endowment funds.

Respectfully submitted,
DONALD B. BAILEY,
Secretary

GENERAL ASSEMBLY, PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, U.S. LOUISVILLE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Louisville Seminary respectfully submits the following report for 1957-58:

I. Students

Until sufficient capital funds become available to construct new and enlarged plant facilities on our new campus, Louisville Seminary continues to function with an enrollment which is beyond its plant capacity, especially at the point of student housing. The enrollment trend in recent years is indicated in the following table:

Year:	1946	1948	1950	1952	1954	1956	1958
Total:	56	62	106	148	151	171	173

Students this year come from 27 states and one foreign country, and they represent 90 institutions previously attended. Denominationally, 151 are Presbyterian—94 U.S.A., 56 U.S., 1 U.P.; 22 are from eight other denominations. Married students number 132 and unmarried 41.

In intellectual capacity, as measured by psychological tests, in academic records, as indicated by grades, and in emotional stability and other personality characteristics indicated in psychological tests which have now been given candidates over a period of several years, there are small, but gratifying, evidences of gains in the calibre of students entering the seminary.

Fellowships were awarded to the following: R. David Kaylor, Alabama; Harry S. Hassall, Tennessee; Lewis M. Johnson, Kentucky; Jack Worthington, Tennessee; James M. Efird, North Carolina! Franc M. Guthrie, Missouri; and Wm. A. Heimach, Pennsylvania.

II. Faculty

Dr. A. B. Rhodes was on Sabbatic Leave during the first semester for study and travel in Europe and the Middle East. Dr. J. J. Murray, former pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Lexington, Va., began his work as Visiting Professor of Homiletics. Chaplain John H. Boyle began his part-time instruction in Clinical Training, succeeding Chaplain Edward S. Golden, who was called to the faculty of Princeton Seminary. Dr. George R. Edwards succeeds Dr. W. D. Chamberlain at his retirement as Professor of New Testament in June. Dr. Edwards has served as Instructor in the field and Pastor of the Peewee Valley Presbyterian Church for the past two years.

In February, the faculty book, The Church Faces the Isms was published by Abingdon Press. This book evolved out of a Senior Seminar taught by all members of the faculty for the past several years and each member of the faculty has contributed at least one chapter.

With a view to determining points at which the work of the seminary may be strengthened, the faculty has been engaged this year in a rigorous and systematic self-study under a guide provided by the American Association of Theological Schools and based on national studies of theological education popularly known as "The Blizzard Report" and "The Neibuhr Report."

III. Finances

Current Operations: The seminary has again managed to operate during the fiscal year within its income, and it is grateful to the synods for their support. The seminary year most closely related to the budget of 1959 which the synods will approve is the year 1959-60. The seminary's projected budget for that year requires an income of $264,937.44. This means an increase of 5.2% over the budget of 1957-58. Among the more significant items entering into this increase are: (1) The addition of a full-time Professor of Homiletics to enable the president to give more time to fund-raising; (2) an increase of $500 per year in faculty salaries as of July 1, 1958; (3) a more realistic house allowance, $125 per month, for those faculty members who own their own homes; (4) a retirement allowance of $800 per year to Dr. Chamberlain in order to bring his church pension up to the amount it would be if the seminary had been in position to participate in the pension plan at its beginning.

Until plant facilities can be expanded, no increase may be anticipated from student fees. It is to be hoped that endowment earnings may recover from the recession beginning in the last quarter of 1957, but at present there appear to be no grounds for anticipating an increase above those of the current year by 1959.

Consequently, the seminary must look to the benevolence budget of the Church for the 5.2% increase in income needed in 1959 to balance the budget.

Endowment Funds: The total of endowments for all purposes is $2,158,281. Additions to these funds during 1957 were $3,577.75.

Building Funds: Cash receipts, after fund-raising expenses, for the new campus and plant, as of March 1, 1958, were $1,049,887. Outstanding pledges amounted to approximately $400,000, making a total of $1,449,887 in sight in cash and pledges.

The whole project is estimated to cost nearly $4,000,000, and a minimum of $2,600,000 is needed to defray the cost of the campus and the two essential main buildings of the first stage, which constitute the least facilities with which operations of the seminary can be transferred from the present location to the new campus. Construction of the Louisville Expressway, adjacent to present seminary buildings, is expected to begin during 1958, and it is urgent that outstanding pledges be paid as soon as possible and that still additional financial support for this project of an enlarged seminary be secured.

IV. Directors

New Directors elected since the last report are: J. Donald Dinning—attorney, Elder in Anchorage Presbyterian Church; Lyman L. Dawson, V. President of Girdler Corporation, Louisville; J. Grieg Spalding, Elder in Harvey Browne Presbyterian Church, Chairman of Board, Spalding Laundry, Louisville; Walter L. Lingle, Elder in Knox Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati, V. President, Procter & Gamble Co.

FRANK H. CALDWELL
President

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY IN VIRGINIA submits the following report for the Session of 1957-1958 to the General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, U.S.:

1. STUDENT AFFAIRS

The most important part of the life of the seminary concerns the welfare of the students. The Trustees judge that this has been a year with no excessive difficulties in any direction in so far as student morale, academic progress and spiritual development are concerned.

During the session 295 students were enrolled, 237 students being undergraduates and 58 students being graduates. There are 70 candidates for the Bachelor of Divinity Degree, 20 for the Master of Theology Degree, and six for the Doctor of Theology Degree. Two members of the Senior Class, not taking the Biblical language course required for the awarding of the degree, will receive diplomas. The students come from 20 states, from 7 foreign countries and from 126 literary institutions. Fifty-five of the 85 presbyteries of the Church, five other Presbyterian bodies and three other denominations are represented in the student body.

It is interesting to note again the lowering of the median age of the seminary students. Shortly after World War II the average age of the entering classes was about twenty-eight years. Now the median age is nearer twenty-three years. At the present time 53.3 per cent of the regular students are married.

The graduates of the seminary this year will continue to go into the mainstream of service as ministers in local churches, as chaplains in the military services, as missionaries at home and abroad. Of the graduating class approximately ten will continue in graduate studies.

2. FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

The addition of two members to the faculty during the year has been of immeasurable benefit to the Seminary. The Reverend James Luther Mays, Ph.D. has begun his work as Associate Professor of Biblical Studies. The Reverend William Bean Kennedy, Ph.D. has assumed his responsibilities as Assistant Professor of Christian Education on "The Robert and Lucy Reynolds Critz Foundation."

Once again the alumni of the seminary have made it possible to bring to the Campus a visiting Professor. The Reverend Dr. John A. T. Robinson, Dean of Clare College, Cambridge University, England, has taught two courses during the spring quarter in New Testament studies. He has an international reputation as a biblical scholar, and has made a genuine contribution to the life of the whole seminary family.

The Trustees would again remind the Church of the anticipated growth in seminary enrollment and of the responsibility for providing additional faculty members. In this context the seminary is constantly in search of competent churchmen and scholars who can provide a distinguished teaching ministry and should be called to such service. The Trustees would also remind the supporters of the seminary that each additional faculty member demands that additional funds be put at the disposal of the seminary. For each man added to the faculty there should be in hand not less than $200,000 endowment.

The seminary believes that it has an obligation to assist its faculty in maintaining the excellence of its scholarship. To that end the seminary follows a carefully prescribed schedule of sabbatic leaves. The Trustees note with pride that during the year Dr. Donald G. Miller, Professor of New Testament, has been the beneficiary of a grant from the American Association of Theological Schools which has afforded him the opportunity of a year's study at the University of Basel in Switzerland. Dr. Robert W. Kirkpatrick, during his sabbatic leave, has been engaged in a survey of the effective use of radio and television as teaching techniques and as means for the proclamation of the Gospel by the pastors of churches and by the Church as a whole.

3. SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

The Reverend Claude R. Welch, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Theology, Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Connecticut, was the Sprunt Lecturer for the academic session of 1957-1958. His lectures were on the general theme, "The Reality of the Church." Auxiliary lecturers during Sprunt Lectures Week were the Reverend George A. Buttrick, D.D., Plummer Professor of Christian Morals in the Harvard Divinity School and Preacher to Harvard University; and the Right Reverend Rajah B. Manikam, D.D., Bishop of the Tamil Lutheran Church of South India. These lectures brought inspiration and challenge to the large company of students, faculty, alumni and friends who participated in the activities of the week.

For several years the seminary has sponsored conferences on Christian vocations. This year a conference for university and college students emphasized the importance of commitment to Christ in all forms of vocations. The conference for seniors in high school held forth the various types of vocations which are open to young people within the life of the Church. Seeing that the recruiting of able young men and women for church vocations is a matter of first-rate importance, the seminary is constrained to believe these conferences are significant enterprises. Approximately 175 young people participated in these two weekend conferences.

4. CONTINUING EDUCATION

More and more the seminary is convinced that it has a responsibility to make available to its alumni, and pastors generally, throughout the Church some of the continuing benefits that can be found only in the life of an educational institution. A minister cannot get enough "theological education" in three years to last him a lifetime. Therefore, the seminary is offering to pastors of its constituency, to its alumni, and to churchmen generally a program of "Continuing Education."

One aspect of this program involves courses of directed study on many aspects of the Church's life. Some thirty specific courses, prepared by members of the faculty, are administered by a member of the seminary staff known as the Director of Continuing Education, and are available for "at home study." The response to this program has encouraged us to believe that it is rendering a real service.

On the basis of a generous grant from a Foundation the seminary inaugurated this year a program which is known as "The Tower Room Scholar Program." Four ministers, active in their local churches, are brought to the seminary for a period of twelve days' residence. These men are given private studies in the Library; they meet daily with members of the faculty to review recent developments in theological literature. Each man prepares an outline of a course of study which will be for his benefit; and each man follows his course of study with the facilities of the Library at his disposal during the time of his residence. Without exception the seminary has been encouraged to continue this program in the conviction on the part of the men who have shared in it that it meets a real need for the busy pastor, who gets release for this period of time from the complexities incident to his own work in order to deepen his spiritual life and ministry by careful study.

Another aspect of the Program of Continuing Education involves the "Alumni Conference." This year the Classes of 1948 and 1953 were invited to return to the Campus for three and a half days at the conclusion of the academic term. Essentially this conference is designed to inform these graduates of the seminary of what has transpired in the last decade in biblical and theological thought. We are convinced that the prospects for this program are good, accomplishing in a brief compass some of the benefits that are accomplished by the Tower Room Program.

The Graduate School of the seminary is examining its program in the belief that by enhancing its excellence it can serve the Church in the development of a theological school of a very high order. Fifty-one students are now enrolled in the Graduate Department: 31 are candidates for the Master of Theology Degree; 20 are candidates for the Doctor of Theology Degree.

5. CONCERNING FINANCES

The seminary at the end of its fiscal year March 31, 1958 had an operating deficit of $938.66. For the fiscal year church contributions from the four synods decreased $808.00.

Throughout the nation there is a mounting concern with respect to the educational stability and prospects of our institutions. This same concern belongs to the discerning churchman. The seminary is dependent upon the liberality of churchmen to undergird and expand its important functions in the total life of the Church. From the regular benevolence funds of the church courts supporting the seminary only 16% of the necessary operational funds are received. Approximately 28% of the funds necessary are received from student fees. In this connection it must be remarked that the seminary itself must provide scholarship funds for approximately one half of the funds collected from the students. These statistics make apparent the dependence of our institution upon current contributions from individuals and churches and for additions to our capital funds.

The Trustees express their deep appreciation to all who have made possible its work during the past year. They commend themselves and the seminary to your continuing interest, and to the intercession and assistance of all who are interested in the training of men to herald the wonderful Gospel of Christ.

Respectfully submitted for the Board of Trustees,

WYNDHAM B. BLANTON, Chairman
M. W. NORFLEET, JR., Secretary

XIII. REPORT OF COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

The report of the Council on Christian Relations to the 98th General Assembly consists of two parts. The first part is entitled: "Speaking For God—The Prophetic Role of the Church"; the second part: "Current Social Problems." The Council on Christian Relations respectfully recommends:

1. That the General Assembly adopt this report with accompanying recommendations and commend the report for wide distribution and study among the churches.

SPEAKING FOR GOD—THE PROPHETIC ROLE OF THE CHURCH

Introduction

The mantle of the prophet has been worn by both minister and layman. He who wears it will submit to a drastic revision of his own and his fellows' mortal nature. He will insist upon a complete conversion of man's relationship with man. He will demand that humanity's entrenched traditions be shaken into conformity with the precepts of God. It is the prophetic strain that has kept the Gospel's demands fresh from age to age.

Yet the most difficult function of the Church to maintain is the prophetic. Establishment, success and respectability compose the heady wine that causes once rugged preachers to "prophesy no more in Israel." Historically, the prophets of the Lord have steered a course between the priestly cult on the one hand which insisted on right ritual and the soothsayers on the other whose easy ecstasy was mistaken for prophecy. Amos, for example, claimed neither the priest Amaziah, nor the sons of the prophets, as fellow servants of the true faith. The present-day priest-cult is insensitive formalism and modern soothsaying is the practice of emotionalism. On the one side prophecy will freeze in complacency and on the other it will melt in passion.

I. Israel's Prophetic Tradition

Whereas the priests were the agents of the ritual that offered atonement for sin, the prophet felt a divine compulsion to attack the sin itself, no matter what might be the consequences to himself. Because of the cutting edge of his words and the vital nerves struck, the prophet's tenure was short and his life hazardous. It was God's purpose to send him but man purposed to cut him off. Seldom did one grow old and full of his years. His message was directed toward individuals and nations, rulers and subjects, priests and people, and false prophets who cried "Peace, peace, where there was no peace."

For example, here are some of the prophets and some of their objects of concern:

Isaiah— Sodom-like shamelessness Brazenness of women
Grasping landholders
Revelry and drunkenness
Perverters of worship

	Perverters of moral distinctions
	Disbelief in a judgment
	International relations which left God and His providence out of account
Jeremiah—	Sensuous worship of fertility gods
	Social injustice
	Personal immorality
	Discrimination against aliens
	Conduct and decisions of the king
	Slavery
	Alliances against the ruling power
Ezekiel—	General cruelty and oppression
	Abnormal marital relationships
	Alliances without trust in God
Hosea—	Political corruption
	Adulterating the prescribed form of worship
	Faithless dependence on foreign aid
Amos—	Indentured slavery
	Temple prostitution
	Unchastity
	Legal oppression of the poor
	Complication of religious forms
	Landgrabbing
	Political bribery
	Sharp class distinction
Jonah—	Nationalism that suppressed evangelism
Micah—	Commercial dishonesty
	Greedy motives of judge, priest and prophet
	General violence and murder
Habukkuk—	Aggressor nations more wicked than their victims

In summary, there was no phase of living that the prophet felt to be out of his purview. He spoke on worship, home life, class consciousness, discrimination, politics, economics, sex, slavery, international affairs, evangelism.

Without exception, no matter what medium of thought they used, all the prophets decried idolatry which led to every form of civil and personal sin, and the disbelief in a day of reckoning for their moral indifference. But the prophet was not content to generalize; he spelled out each sin in painful detail. Hardly can a condition be found today that was not spoken to by the prophet. Yet if there are conditions unique to our generation the ancient prophet has given the modern prophet his precedent—there was no part of life that he considered exempt from God's surveillance and His spokesman's voice.

II. The Prophetic Office of Christ

Our Confession of Faith reads: "Christ executeth the office of a prophet in his revealing to the church in all ages, by his spirit and word, in divers ways of administration, the whole will of God, in all things concerning their edification and salvation." In his early ministry Jesus did not hesitate to express this whole will of God even though it flouted the conventional ways of men. Here are some examples of his prophetic conduct.

He took the old commandments that applied only to overt acts and revealed that they applied to the hidden motive and the guarded thought.

He ruled other laws out of date because they had been designed to accommodate hardness of heart and the harshness of the times, such as the law of retaliation and of divorce.

He exalted a disposition of peace and non-violence at a time when his attitude was considered insanity or cowardice.

He disdained all customs of discrimination based on religious piety or social prestige, finding more compatability and sincere response among the honest sinners than the artificial saints.

He gave the Sabbath back to man, whereas man had been made subordinate to the day. He judged active service on that day, such as healing, to be of more value than passive piety.

He refused to observe religious practices that had lost or never had any sensible purpose, such as the ceremonial washing of the hands.

He recognized no value in scrupulous tithing which was unaccompanied by a concern for the weightier matters of justice, mercy and faith.

He openly denounced the satisfaction with external forms of religion that never penetrated and cleansed the "extortion and rapacity" within the "inner cup" of a man.

He denounced men who combined piety with sharp business practices.

He decried showmanship in prayer and almsgiving.

He cracked a whip over the heads of racketeering merchants who were using religion for personal gain and who superimposed business on their faith rather than faith on their business.

He made it plain even to his judges that the governments of men must yield to the kingdom of God of which he himself was regent.

He sought to turn his nation from a course that would lead to war, warning that it would lead to destruction and the loss of its role as the historic people of God.

Above all, he performed the ultimate prophetic function by loving the people he chastened, staying by them, transfusing his life into them, accepting God's indictment of humanity upon his own spirit and the malice of men upon his own body. His prophetic nature brought him to the high priestly act of giving his life as a ransom for those enslaved to the sins he so positively fought. The Lord has laid upon him the iniquity of us all. Has it not always been so with The Prophet and, in a lesser sense, his prophets?

III. The Early Church

The fellowship of Christians as described in the New Testament constituted a leaven in society which sought to bring the individual and corporate life of man into conformity to the will of God. Theirs was the painful responsibility of living out the precepts of Christ that were thoroughly alien to the larger society. They had to do this in such a way as to prove that good citizens of the Kingdom made better citizens of the emperor. Thus the beloved community as a community conveyed the prophetic idea to a pagan society.

Within the Church fellowship itself so many of the problems revolved about the Jew-Gentile relationships. Paul was prompt to rebuke Peter for yielding to the pressure of those who advocated that a portion of the congregation be given an inferior status in the Church. In a most sympathetic way Paul urged Philemon to take back his runaway slave, Onesimus, and instead of punishing him accept him as a brother in Christ. Thus the Early Church did not abolish a system but it did weaken that system's moral claim by upholding the inherent worth of every individual. Through such a witness the Church was prophetic.

IV. The Church of the Reformation

The reform movement in the Church could never have been accomplished apart from dauntless men who were willing to assume the role of prophet. The servants of the Lord in their priestly ministrations could seldom see the radical departure the Church had made from its original moorings. Generations of human sediment had covered the foundations. Justification by faith and the priesthood of every believer are precious tenets that can be so easily obscured by human prestige, heavy organization, calendar observances and cold formalism. The practiced, critical eye of the prophet guards us from glorifying the structure and forgetting the function of our faith. It must be remembered that the true Reformed Church is in constant process of reformation in order that it be saved from itself and for the Kingdom of God.

V. The Present Church

The Church on earth is a mixture of the human and the divine. The Church truly is a fellowship of the redeemed, but it is also a fellowship of those in the process of being redeemed. The Church is constantly confronted with the condition of tension between God's ideal for his people and their actual behavior. A case in point is found in Paul's letter to the Christians in Corinth. He refers to them as those "called to be saints." There is no doubt concerning their redemption for they would be sustained and found "guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ." Yet they were allowing dissensions to disrupt God's purpose for them.

Only as the Church is faithful in bringing her life under the scrutiny of God may she expect to have influence in speaking to the sins of the world. It is right and proper that church courts should speak from time to time as directed by the Holy Spirit to the evils found in the life of the Church, whether they be sins of the flesh or otherwise; whether they be individual or corporate. Indeed, no area of the life of man is so near to perfection or so far removed from ecclesiastical responsibility that it should escape the catharsis of healthy criticism. Actions of the General Assembly have dealt with various evils in the life of our day. These have not been directives but they have constituted the witness of a church body united in the Body of Christ and alive to her prophetic mission.

It should be remembered that church courts are not expected to reflect the majority opinion of the denomination's membership but to interpret the will of God as they have come to understand it. The deliverances of church courts are not intended to bind the conscience; nevertheless they should be carefully considered in the light of the teachings of the Bible. In this connection we should be very grateful for our representative form of government which enables each commissioner to come to the court uninstructed by his constituency, allowing him, in this lofty setting with his fellow presbyters, to listen more carefully to the voice of God and perhaps become a part of the prophetic strain of the Church.

The fact that Christ is Lord of the conscience frees every churchman from the unwarranted authority of officials or courts. Yet it is that same Lord of the conscience that requires that we speak to each other prophetically, that some of us be delegated to draw apart and deliberate these matters of conscience, return to us with their insights, and present them to us as their conviction as God has given them to understand His will. Pronouncements by church courts on matters of conscience in no way imply compulsion. They are offered to combat moral anarchy. They are presented in the hope that many minds might freely conform to the one mind of Christ. For the Lord of the conscience is one Lord, not many. To unite in Christ is to yearn for spiritual oneness and as much agreement as is possible in all human relationships.

In her prophetic role the Church must remember two things. One, she herself is in constant need of God's forgiving grace because of her involvement in the sins common to all mankind. Only as a spirit of compassion is found in her message may we expect people to believe that the Spirit of Christ, indeed, is speaking to them through the Church. Two, the Church through her courts must not over-rate her proficiency in human affairs. In the principles of Christ she should be expert and should be able to offer the over-arching rules for every area of life. But the application of these principles to many complex details must be left to more intimate knowledge by the individual churchmen involved. The line between principle and application is an indistinct one and must be searched for with deep spiritual discernment.

The minister, likewise, should be mindful of his responsibility in speaking of contemporary evils. He should bring the teachings of Scriptures to bear upon the everyday life of his people. He must speak the truth in love, nevertheless, the truth. He may never approximate the character of Christ nor even that of the ancient prophets but he is called to follow their pattern and carry his cross. If anyone shall argue that to consider himself of the company of Christ and his prophets is presumptuous, he is right. But this is our glorious presumption!

The Church must seek to function in her prophetic role as she establishes and provides for agencies, schools and programs for teaching the Christian faith and life. Through teaching, the Church is seeking to help people become aware of themselves as the People of God, to help them understand God's will for his People, to encourage them to yield themselves to his rightful Lordship, and to develop skills for use in service to his Kingdom. This demands that careful attention be given to interpretations of God's will which have been provided by individuals and by church courts, even though the ultimate decisions concerning the will of God must be so personal that the final interpretations to be made will remain ones for the individual to make as he is led by the Holy Spirit. Because of the nature of man, the process required for teaching will always require those who teach to recognize their own humanity and their own involvement in the process of seeking to learn and to do the will of God. But this fact does not mean that those who teach are to avoid their responsibility to make available to those seeking to learn with them the interpretations which may be helpful in moving toward the goals of the teaching process. Thus, that which is prophetic, that which is capable of helping persons to know and understand the will of God, will be basic to Christian teaching.

VI. Individual Responsibility

The individual must speak against the same wrongs as the early prophets. He must come to know the Gospel message as a whole so as to know the difference between the letter of the law and the spirit of the law, and the difference between pomp and circumstance and humility and service. The church member must understand that he is the inheritor of a rich legacy born out of injustice, tempered by persecution, chilled by misapplication, heated by reformation and brought to cutting edge by conviction. He must become the tool whereby society is sculptured into the likeness of Christ. The individual member must first rid himself of the very things that he prophesies against in society or be convicted of impersonation. He himself is the prophetic instrument of the extension of the Church and care must be taken as to what and how the instrument prophesies.

In the last analysis, the local Church and its members must bear the heaviest responsibility in the prophetic role. It is in the local community that people live—where decisions must be made and positions taken. This is the place where votes are cast and leaders are elected. This is the place where people may be persecuted for the stand they take. Here the Church, through the pastor, session and congregation, must witness to her mission. Here the Church fails or becomes a bulwark for people who are really in trouble and need the help which only the Church of Christ can give.

VII. The Church and the World

Our understanding of the function of the Church in society depends upon our understanding of the relationship of the Church to the world. To understand this relationship to the world, we need to remember, among others, three truths stressed in the Scriptures. The first of these is that God is sole creator of the world and the sovereign Lord of nature and of history. A second truth found throughout the Scriptures is that the world has been corrupted by sin and therefore man needs to be redeemed from the corrupting influences of the world. A third truth is that the Church's mission is concerned not only with the salvation of individuals from the world, but also the salvation of the world itself.

The predicament of man and of the world has led to misunderstanding and tension between those who hold to a more restricted concept and those who have a more comprehensive concept of the mission of the Church to the world. In the more restricted view the Church has to do only with the salvation of individual souls, with little concern for the obligations of redeemed individuals for redeeming of the community. According to this conception, "the Church is thought of as an ark in which saved souls may find refuge from a world that is doomed to destruction. The influence of the Church on the community is restricted to the manifestation of love in private relations with individuals and in ministering to the needs of the sick and the poor." (The Church and Its Function in Society by T'Hooft and Oldham, p. 108.)

The more comprehensive concept likewise understands the mission of the Church to be the salvation of individuals but not apart from society. Thus, man can hardly pray effectively to God without recognizing his obligations to his neighbor. This concept of the Church's mission while recognizing the universal rule of Christ in the world to come rather emphasizes the urgent mission of the Church in claiming all of society for Him, here and now.

It is our conviction that, whether the kingdom of God be conceived as a goal to be realized within the temporal order, or as one to be realized in fullness only in eternity, the love of Christ and the necessity that the Christian live his life within the entanglements of society constrain the Church to be concerned with all the agencies and forces which affect human life for good or for evil. This means that the Church, in her prophetic role, is impelled to declare the will of God for every morally and spiritually significant relationship of life. For none is exempt from its application. Man does not exist in a vacuum. He lives inescapably in relationship. Jesus expects us to expand the person-to-person attitudes he taught us to fit the whole complex social pattern, involving customs, laws and organizations. There are not two gospels, a social and an individual gospel. There is one Gospel the objective of which is to redeem man and make him progressively more Christian from the innermost depth of his heart to the outermost reach of his involvements in society.

CURRENT SOCIAL PROBLEMS

Current social problems need the concern and help of the Church if they are to be solved. The attention of the churches is directed to some of these urgent problems.

I. Alcoholic Beverages

It has been estimated that 75 million people in the United States indulge in alcoholic beverages to a greater or lesser degree. This is approximately 67% of the eligible users of beverage alcohol. Of these there are 7 million who can be classified as problem drinkers and 5 million as alcoholics. When we consider the families directly affected, a conservative estimate would show that at least 30 million people are directly concerned with this difficult problem.

The American people in 1956 spent 10½ billion dollars for alcoholic beverages. This helps us to see the enormity of the problem. In the United States highway accidents are on the increase, causing thousands of casualties every year. Accidents in which beverage alcohol was a factor range from 45% to 65% of the total number, according to reliable estimates.

In view of the increased tempo of liquor advertising, mounting social pressure, the tragic loss of life on the nation's highways, the heavy expenditure for alcoholic beverages contributing to physical and moral deterioration of so many people, we recommend:

1. That the General Assembly reaffirm voluntary total abstinence as the Christian ideal toward which church members should strive.
2. That the General Assembly direct the Division of Christian Relations to convene a committee composed of able consultants to study the alcohol problem and report to the General Assembly with pertinent findings and recommendations.

II. Labor and Industry

It is our conviction that God has ordained daily work for man's welfare and happiness. Therefore, in confronting the problem of labor and industry as Christians, we must seek to discover God's will and conform our life to His will in these relationships.

The South is rapidly becoming industrialized. Its proportion of the nation's manufacturing facilities has grown from 9 per cent in 1900 to 22 per cent in 1957. There are some 33,700 manufacturing establishments in the South today. Of these, 22,000 have been located since 1939. The resulting industrial output in this period has risen from $11 billion to $62¼ billion (See 1957 Directory Edition of Manufacturers Record).

This growth in industry has meant a strengthening of the labor movement. This is symbolized in the consolidating of the CIO and the AFofL. More and more the nation's economy is being determined by the two great giants, labor and industry, around the conference table. Increasingly, policies are formed and decisions made by the top echelon in these two groups. It is important therefore for the best interests of the nation in making their decisions that the leadership of labor and industry alike should accept their responsibility to the nation. Such leadership should be quick to remove corruption and injustice wherever it is found within the organization. As long as dishonest practices obtain, whether in labor or industry, the confidence of the American people can be seriously shaken.

Many needs are yet to be met adequately, such as: (1) Proper job opportunity for minority groups; (2) Sufficient jobs for the handicapped; (3) Using the potential of those who have reached the age of retirement; (4) Leisure-time activities.

Keeping in mind the welfare of the nation and our responsibility in the family of nations we offer the following recommendations:

1. That church members be urged to confront their daily work as Christian vocation and to glorify God in it.
2. That, recognizing their responsibility for the well-being of persons in such matters as sufficient wages, health, housing and other living conditions, both industry and labor seek to deal realistically and forthrightly with injustice and corruption of any kind which would endanger the American economy and lessen the usefulness of the nation to the world.
3. That our seminaries and other educational institutions seek increasingly to acquaint students with the problems of industry and labor, and to relate them to the Christian ethic.

III. Race Relations

The past year has been marked by numerous incidents of violence due to racial tension. These incidents have usually occurred in areas where efforts have been made to obey the law of the land with regard to the desegregation of public schools, or where there have been interracial meetings. In one case a home was bombed following the publication of a book setting forth differing points of view regarding the race problem. In another case, a man was picked up at random by a mob and mutiliated after an unsuccessful effort had been made in the community to enter a child in school. A school was destroyed in a community which had begun the process of desegregation. Another city received international attention when troops were brought in to protect students in an integrated school. An interracial religious community continued to be harassed, property damaged and life endangered by unapprehended assailants. As the year came to a close, out of 3,008 biracial districts in the South 762 had been desegregated. All but 15 of these were in border states. A number of states continued to circumvent the law of the land. Some people are willing to abolish the public school system rather than comply with the law.

In the face of increasing racial tension there are signs that influential ministers and laymen are beginning to assert their Christian convictions and speak out against unAmerican and unChristian procedures. In Atlanta 80 ministers issued a clear statement including six principles which sought to arouse the conscience of responsible Christian citizens. The principles upon which the statement was based were:

1. Freedom of speech must at all costs be preserved.
2. As Americans and as Christians we have an obligation to obey the law.
3. The public school system must not be destroyed.
4. Hatred and scorn for another race, or for those who hold a position different from our own, can never be justified.
5. Communication between responsible leaders of the races must be maintained.
6. Our difficulties cannot be solved in our own strength or in human wisdom.

The statement was commended by local newspapers and generally well received. Similar statements have been issued by church groups in other communities. Some southern governors have given their support to this approach to a difficult problem. Notable and praiseworthy was the address of Governor Collins to the Men's Convention in Miami.

All laymen and ministers who have taken a stand based upon obedience to law, respect for human dignity, and freedom to enjoy the blessings of a free nation are to be commended and assured of the gratitude and prayers of the General Assembly.

As the Christian people of the South face those problems of race which now present us with an unparalleled obligation and opportunity, the General Assembly proposes for careful consideration the following principles which in its judgment should guide them:

1. All people have been created in the image of God and are to be treated as such. Therefore, we should confront problems of race against the background of a world perspective.

2. Though differing in outward appearance men are essentially one; they have fundamentally the same needs, aspirations, hopes and fears.

3. It is God's will that the law of Christ, i.e., love or good will, be operative in all human relationships.

4. To do unto others as we would have them do unto us, we must seek sympathetically and imaginatively to understand their point of view, their needs, aspirations and fears; this is a rule for individuals, groups and nations.

5. The Christian conscience cannot rest content with any legal or compulsive arrangement that brands any people as inferior; which denies them the full right of citizenship on the ground of race, color or social status; or which prevents them from developing to the fullest possible extent the potentialities with which they, as individuals, have been endowed by the Creator.

6. The recent decision of the Supreme Court regarding segregation in the Public Schools must be recognized as the law of the land, and obeyed as such until and unless it is changed by legal and constitutional methods.

7. The public school system must be preserved and strengthened. To withhold the benefits of a public school education from any child; to prevent any community by punitive means from carrying out its educational responsibility is an unwise and dangerous expedient.

8. Freedom of speech must be preserved at all costs, without the danger of economic or political reprisal for those who express opinions contrary to our own.

9. Violence, and furious or unrestrained language which may incite thereto, must be avoided; all organizations, hooded or otherwise, which seek to take the law into their own hand, and all movements which would prevent citizens from resorting to law in their own defense must be opposed.

10. The right to vote must be made secure for citizens without restrictions based on race or color, without preventive strategems which make a mockery of democratic processes.

11. Communication between responsible leaders of the two races in the South must be developed, strengthened and maintained. It is essential that individual church members seek to be led by the Spirit of Christ in their daily contacts with those of other races, and so preserve the fellowship of believers in Him as Lord and Savior.

12. To the Christian people of the South there is now given an opportunity to demonstrate the effectiveness of the Gospel in solving a difficult problem in human relations whose far-reaching effects are incalculable. God grant that we may not fail our nation or our Lord in this period of crisis.

International Relations

The cold war between the Communists and free nations has been given fresh impetus by the launching of the earth satellite. A new era has suddenly dawned upon the world following hard on the heels of the beginning of the atomic age. So the race is accelerated—almost frantically—to develop yet more fantastic weapons of offensive and defensive warfare. As the struggle goes on the other nations of the world watch, wonder and work to win the help of the great giants in making their own land safe and secure. In this struggle the voice of the Church must be heard.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT R. WILSON, Chairman
ERNEST TRICE THOMPSON, Secretary

XIV. STANDING RULES

1. ORGANIZATION

(1) The normal date for the annual meeting of the General Assembly shall be the fourth Thursday in April. The Committee on the Assembly's Office will select the place of meeting after opportunity has been given to those who wish to extend invitations. The Committee shall select places in different parts of the Church from time to time when circumstances seem to warrant it. In the event of an emergency which prevents the meeting at the place selected, the Moderator shall designate a place of meeting.

(2) The General Assembly shall be self-entertaining.

(3) The Assembly shall be opened with a sermon preached by the retiring Moderator. The Lord's Supper will be observed after the sermon at 11 o'clock a.m. Sunday.

(4) After the reading by the Stated Clerk of the roll of the commissioners present and enrolled by him, a Moderator shall be elected. Nominations for Moderator shall be received but only one speech not exceeding ten minutes in length nominating a commissioner for Moderator shall be made; and only one speech seconding a nomination not exceeding five minutes in length shall be made.

(5) After all nominations have been made and seconded, the Assembly shall proceed to the election of a Moderator in the following manner: If more than one commissioner is nominated, the election shall be by ballot. The Stated Clerk shall have suitable blank ballots prepared and cause same to be distributed among the commissioners for use in the election. The Stated Clerk shall appoint two tellers to count and tabulate the vote and report the tabulation to him. The ballots of the enrolled commissioners shall be collected and delivered to the tellers by commissioners appointed by the presiding officer for such purpose. If there are more than two nominees and no nominee receives a majority of the votes cast, a second ballot shall be called; but all of the nominees except the two receiving the largest number of votes shall be dropped on the second ballot. An election shall be declared by the Moderator when a nominee shall have received a majority of the votes cast by the commissioners present and voting. As soon as the Moderator shall have been elected, he shall assume his duties as Moderator.

(6) In the election of the Moderator the tellers shall retire to an anteroom and count the ballots, bringing back the results to the Assembly.

2. The Moderator

(1) The Moderator shall preside at all sessions of the Assembly except when he may temporarily invite a commissioner to act as Presiding Officer; he shall appoint all committees unless the Assembly otherwise prescribes; he shall call the succeeding Assembly to order and preside over its sessions until a Moderator is elected as provided by the rules in the Book of Church Order.

(2) The Moderator shall appoint five assistants, whose duty it shall be (a) to assist the Moderator in preserving decorum in the Assembly and adjoining halls; (b) to distribute reports of standing committees; (c) to cooperate in any other manner requested by the Moderator.

(3) The General Assembly recognizes the value of ad interim service by the Moderator and approves his undertaking of one or more itineraries which shall bring him before representative ecclesiastical gatherings in various parts of the Church.

(4) Where feasible, the local church, or other employing agency, is requested to grant the Moderator a leave, or leaves, of absence aggregating not more than two months for such itinerating service. The General Assembly shall provide funds to defray expenses such as: (a) Travel and entertainment on such itineraries. (b) The necessary compensation for a substitute, or substitutes, to carry on the regular duties of the Moderator's normal task, the maximum of such compensation to be at the rate of $600 per month.

(5) All invitations and arrangements relating to such itineraries shall be made through the Office of the General Assembly to the end that the Moderator's time be not dissipated, but that it may be devoted economically to the best interests of the church-at-large.

(6) The Moderator shall have the following committee assignments: Chairman of Program and Worship Commitees; Member of General Council and ex officio member of Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations.

3. Stated Clerk

(1) The Stated Clerk shall be elected for a term of three (3) years. The election shall be the first order on the morning of the second day of the Assembly. The Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly is allowed to nominate the Stated Clerk to the General Assembly with the understanding that further nominations are always in order and that this arrangement will take effect only after the vacating of the position of Stated Clerk by the present incumbent. He shall perform all the duties required of him by the Book of Church Order and by the Standing Rules of the Assembly and such other duties as may be imposed on him by the Assembly.

The General Assembly of 1955 abolished the office of Assistant Stated Clerk and the Stated Clerk was given the privilege of nominating to the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly for its approval an Assistant to the Stated Clerk.

(a) The Stated Clerk shall list all communications and present them in an orderly manner, suggesting the proper reference and, when necessary, suggesting the time for the consideration of each communication.

(b) As Stated Clerk, he shall keep the minutes of the Assembly, and be custodian of all books, papers and documents of the Assembly, and prepare and supervise the printing of the minutes and distribution of the minutes and documents required to be printed and distributed.

(c) He shall be ex officio Treasurer of the Assembly, and shall receive all funds. He shall pay out funds only on order of the Assembly. He shall make full statement of receipts and disbursements annually to the Assembly. He shall also serve as Treasurer of the General Fund and Interchurch Agencies.

(d) He shall serve on the Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His Work, conducting the work in accordance with the action of the Assembly on this subject. He shall also be ex officio member of the Permanent Judicial Committee and Permanent Committee on Interchurch Relations.

(2) The salary of the Stated Clerk shall be determined by the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly. The same rule applies to the Assistant to the Stated Clerk and all other staff members.

(3) In event the office of Stated Clerk becomes vacated for any reason, the Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly shall nominate to the Moderator a person to serve as Acting Stated Clerk, and after consideration of such nomination, the Moderator shall appoint an Acting Stated Clerk to perform the duties of the Stated Clerk until his successor has been elected and qualified to serve.

4. Blue Book

(1) All reports of permanent committees except reports printed by the various agencies, all ad interim committees and special committees and all reports of outside organizations which make an annual report to the Assembly shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly by February 25, and all overtures by February 25 in each year; provided further, no overture received by such Stated Clerk after April 10 shall be referred to or considered by such meeting of the General Assembly convening in April of that year.

(2) The Stated Clerk shall print in the Blue Book the reports of all permanent committees, except those submitting printed reports, all ad interim committees and reports of such outside bodies as make an annual report, and select committees. He shall also print the overtures, having previously classified and numbered them for presentation to the Assembly. He shall also print a full and complete docket in the Blue Book, which shall be the docket for the Assembly each year.

(3) The Stated Clerk shall prepare a manual for the benefit of new commissioners, particularly laymen, to be printed in the Blue Book. It shall include sections on (a) how the Assembly operates; (b) the most used parliamentary rules; (c) the duties and responsibilities of each standing committee; (d) hints and comments that will be helpful.

5. Standing Committees

(1) The number of standing committees shall be limited as follows: Bills and Overtures; Judicial Business; Office of the General Assembly; General Council; World Missions; Church Extension; Christian Education; Annuities and Relief; Women's Work; Interchurch Relations; Presbyterian Survey; Christian Relations; Christianity and Health; Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals and Minister and His Work.

(2) The planned docket for Friday and Saturday mornings—a total of eight hours—shall be set aside for the meetings of the Standing Committees.

(3) The Standing Committees shall be named in the following manner:

Prior to the meeting of the General Assembly the Stated Clerk shall conduct a drawing through which each commissioner shall be placed on a standing committee in as fair and equitable manner as possible. The mechanics of the operation shall be as follows:

(a) When the commissioner is elected by the presbytery, he shall fill in a printed 3 x 5 card, showing his first, second, third and fourth choices among the standing committees. (Alternates will have to accept the choice of their predecessors if the drawings have been completed.)

(b) The card shall be given to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery. (The commissioner is thus given several months in which he may study the work of his preferred committees.)

(c) Six weeks (four weeks deadline) before the General Assembly meets, the clerk of the Presbytery shall verify the correctness of the cards and mail them to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

(d) Three weeks before the Assembly, the Stated Clerk shall conduct a drawing. The total number of commissioners shall be divided by the number of committees to ascertain the number of men who will serve on each. As each name is drawn, the sequence number shall be written on a card, and the card placed in the first choice shown. When the quota is reached by any committee, the second choice on the card drawn will dictate the particular committee. If the quota for the second choice is filled, then the card shall be placed with the third choice of the particular commissioner and so on.

(e) No more than one minister and one layman from a presbytery shall be placed on a particular committee; if such occurs in the drawing the next choice shown on the card shall be honored.

(f) The drawing shall provide for equal lay and ministerial membership on the committees.

(g) The last cards drawn shall be used to fill in the quotas of the unfilled committees. The nearest quotas shall be filled first.

(h) Two weeks before the General Assembly meets, the Stated Clerk shall mail the cards back to the individual commissioners. The cards will show the sequence number in the drawing and the committee to which he is assigned.

(i) Chairmen of Standing Committees shall be appointed by the retiring Moderator.

(4) No partial report from a standing committee, except from the Committees on Judicial Business and Interchurch Relations, shall be received by the Assembly without the consent of the Assembly. All reports of committees shall be typewritten in three copies by the Assembly's stenographers; and proofread by the chairman of the committee reporting. The duties of the chairman of a committee shall not be completed until he has edited carefully his committee's report, after it is typewritten, for errors in phraseology and grammar, and shall have filed the required number of copies of the report with the Stated Clerk. The chairman of each committee shall also, after the Assembly shall have acted on the report presented by him, incorporate therein at the proper place each amendment made by the Assembly to the report.

(5) The report of a standing committee to the Assembly shall be as brief and concise as the recommendations of a committee will permit. The report shall contain a brief preamble of the questions acted on by the committee and the conclusions and recommendations of the committee. Extracts and quotations from reports of an executive committee, a permanent committee, or an ad interim committee shall be avoided except when required to make the report intelligible. Overtures shall be answered by reference to the number of the overture and a brief statement of its substance.

(6) The policy of the Assembly shall be to have official representatives of its agencies present during all Standing Committee meetings for consultative purposes, except at those times when in the judgment of the committees an "executive session" is demanded; to that end the agencies of the Assembly are instructed to have, in addition to the executives, at least one official representative present for such meetings with the committees from among the members of the boards and agencies. (1952, p. 96)

6. Budget and Authorized Expenditures

(1) The Permanent Committee on the Office of the General Assembly shall make an estimate of the probable expenses of the Assembly based upon an estimated budget of expenses submitted by the Treasurer and recommend per capita dues to cover the same.

(2) All requests or recommendations for appropriation for expenses of any organization or council which shall come to the Assembly shall be placed in the hands of this committee. It shall make a full report, recommending in detail the items for which funds are requested, which report, if adopted, the items recommended shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Assembly. A recommendation that the budget of estimated expenses submitted by the Standing Committee on the Office of the General Assembly be adopted shall carry the authority for payment of the items in said report.

(3) The audits of all boards, divisions and permanent committees, trustees and treasurer of the Assembly shall be submitted to the standing committee on this cause for approval. All proposed standing rules or changes in standing rules shall be submitted to this committee for approval before adoption by the Assembly.

The Treasurer shall pay annually without any further special orders from the Committee on the Office of the General Assembly:

(a) The expenses of the chairman of an ad interim or permanent committee in attending the Assembly shall be paid by the Assembly when the committee of which he is chairman vote that the report is of sufficient importance as to require the attendance of the chairman and when the committee shall so notify the Stated Clerk.

(b) The expenses of our representatives to the National Council of Churches (General Board and General Assembly), World Council of Churches, and World Presbyterian Alliance. The Treasurer is directed to set aside each year the amount of $2,000 for the payment of these expenses. This fund shall be cumulative.

(e) The designated funds embraced within the General Fund and Interchurch Agencies.

7. Overtures

(1) The Stated Clerk shall pass on routine overtures received by him as a matter of course. Any overtures affecting ecclesiastical rules and polity should be referred by him to the Permanent Judicial Committee prior to the meeting of the Assembly in order that the Permanent Judicial Committee may give to the standing committee considering the overtures its judgment concerning the background in polity and rules of the church with which the overtures may be concerned.

(2) Under each overture printed in the Blue Book the name of the standing committee to which it is referred as recommended by the Stated Clerk shall be published. If there is no objection, they shall be referred as a whole, as recommended, without formal vote on the part of the General Assembly.

(3) No overture will be considered by the Assembly until it has first been presented to a presbytery or a synod. If the overture is approved by a presbytery or a synod it will then come before the Assembly as an overture from that presbytery or synod. If the overture is rejected by the presbytery or the synod, it may then be presented to the Assembly, but the fact that it has been presented to a presbytery or a synod must be clearly stated on the overture.

See also Standing Rule 4 (1).

8. Listing and Referring Reports

(1) In like manner he shall list and present without reading all reports of permanent committees (except those presenting printed reports), ad interim and special committees (all of which are printed in full in the Blue Book), which shall be referred to proper standing committees or disposed of immediately as the Assembly may elect. In case these reports are to be considered directly by the Assembly, the Stated Clerk shall suggest a time on the docket when each report shall be considered.

(2) If the chairman or representative of a permanent, ad interim or special committee wishes to be heard in connection with the report, such privilege shall be limited to a statement not to exceed five minutes, and in no case shall a report which is in printed form be read in full.

(3) Secretaries of boards, divisions and others with printed reports shall present these reports directly to their respective standing committees.

(4) The annual statistical reports from the presbyteries shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk on or before February 15 of each year. The annual reports of the boards, and permanent committees shall all be bound together in a separate pamphlet for distribution, together with such other reports which the General Assembly may order to be bound with the annual reports. Synopses of these reports shall be omitted from the Appendix to the printed copy of the Minutes of the Assembly.

9. Meetings of the Assembly

(1) The Stated Clerk shall have charge of all arrangements for the meeting and entertainment of the Assembly. He shall secure, if possible, special railroad rates and accommodations and supervise all other matters for the comfort and convenience of the commissioners.

(See also Rule 1.)

10. Commissioners

(1) Items to be included in the expenses of the commissioners as chargeable to the Assembly shall be:

a. The lowest railroad fare by direct route.

b. Pullman fare.

c. Cost of meal en route.

d. Taxi fare and other incidental transportation.

e. Auto travel at four cents per mile by direct route for driver; commissioners who are passengers in car driven by another commissioner, 1 cent per mile.

f. Air travel in commercial planes at cost for distance of 400 miles or over.

(2) Presbyteries are requested to consider the advisability of electing lay commissioners for a term of two years; one-half of the commissioners to be elected each year, preferably at the fall meeting.

(3) Expense checks shall be paid to the commissioners only after attending the General Assembly through the adjournment of the concluding session. Any exception to this rule must be in the nature of an emergency, and the commissioner requesting an exception must present the case for his excuse to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly or its designated agent in such matters for ratification and consent.

11. PROGRAM COMMITTEE

(1) The Program Committee shall consist of the Moderator, the Moderator of the preceding Assembly, the Stated Clerk, and in the event the Assembly meets in a church, the pastor of the church entertaining the Assembly. This committee shall act as a Steering Committee and shall present to the Assembly each morning an order of procedure for the day.

(2) The Program Committee shall prepare a tentative docket for the General Assembly embracing all the business expected to come before the Assembly, and including all popular and inspirational features. All requests for addresses before the General Assembly shall be presented first to this committee.

(3) The Program Committee shall act as a steering committee for the Assembly and recommend necessary changes in the docket as the need arises. As far as possible all requested changes in the docket shall be presented to the Assembly through the Program Committee. Recommendations for such changes shall ordinarily be presented by the Program Committee at the beginning of the morning or afternoon sessions.

(4) The docket shall be planned by the Program Committee for a period of from three and a half to four days, excluding Sunday.

(5) The planned docket for each day shall be limited to four hours in the morning; four hours in the afternoon, and one and one-half hours in the evening, a total of nine and one-half hours.

(6) All inspirational features or addresses shall be placed on the evening program (excepting on Sunday), and the daytime be devoted entirely to business.

(7) The Assembly, having for its chief business the consideration of the interests that are vital to its own growth and development, instructs its Program Committee not to arrange for more than one speaker for each outside body which desires to be heard on any matter not vital to full and correct understanding of its own business and its relations to these bodies.

The Stated Clerk is instructed to send a copy of this action to all persons and bodies outside the Assembly who may make request for time to present their interests.

12. PRINTED MINUTES

(1) The official minutes of a court are the original minutes prepared by the Temporary Clerk or the Assistant Clerk, adopted by the court and signed by the Stated Clerk. If the Stated Clerk, before signing the original minutes discovers that the copy of these original minutes prepared by the Temporary or Assistant Clerk in typewritten or written form for use of the Stated Clerk in printing the minutes is incorrect by reason of any clerical oversight or typographical error, he shall be authorized to make such corrections as shall make the typewritten or written copy correspond in all respects with the original minutes or notes from which such typewritten or written forms was prepared.

Further, if it be discovered that in the printed copy of the minutes there are certain typographical errors which make the printed minutes of the court vary from the original minutes adopted by the court and signed by the Stated Clerk, the Stated Clerk shall give official notice through the press or through the court concerned of the typographical errors, which notice shall be sufficient authority for those possessing copies of the printed minutes to make the printed copy correspond with the original minutes.

(2) The Stated Clerk is authorized to revise the phraseology of all papers adopted by the General Assembly and to make corrections in the spelling of proper names, initials, the totals of figures and other minor changes, provided that in no case shall he so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning. The minutes, as finally approved by the General Assembly, shall in no case be altered or changed by the Stated Clerk.

(3) The Stated Clerk is authorized in printing the various reports of our seminaries, for the sake of economy, to leave out the less essential matter, and to print only the heart and substance of each report.

(4) The Stated Clerk is instructed to send a copy of the Minutes to each minister, licentiate and to the rising seniors and graduates of our theological seminaries, to the ruling elder commissioners who attend the Assembly, to the foreign missionaries whose membership is in foreign presbyteries, to all the members of the General Council, to all the Trustees of the General Assembly, to the Libraries of all our Church colleges, and to the stated clerk of each presbytery and synod.

13. General Provisions

(1) Limitation of Debate

In the consideration of any question before the Assembly, no commissioner shall speak more than once on the question until all others who desire to speak on the question have been given an opportunity to speak. Each recommendation in a committee's report shall be considered a separate question. The chairman or the member of a committee presenting a report shall have the right to speak when presenting a report, to answer interrogations addressed to him by consent of the Moderator and to conclude the debate on the pending question.

Except when the Assembly shall order otherwise, a time limit of ten minutes shall be allowed each speaker; a time limit of one hour for each side in debate.

(2) Introduction of New Matter

No motion or resolution introducing new matters not already before the various committees shall be in order later than the afternoon session of Monday, except by special permission, and all such motions and resolutions introduced prior to that time are to be referred to the appropriate committees. This is not to be interpreted as infringing upon the right to make amendments or substitutions to any report brought to the floor of the Assembly after that time.

(3) Special Financial Appeals

All Assembly agencies shall ordinarily submit to the Budget Committee of the General Council all requests that contemplate special appeals for contributions from the churches, so that the Budget Committee can study each financial responsibility in the light of the whole program and make recommendation to the Assembly. (See also "Plans for Education and Promotion," below.)

(4) Ad Interim Committees

The following rules shall govern the appointment of ad interim committees:

(a) Each overture or resolution requesting the appointment of an ad interim committee shall be referred to the appropriate standing committee.

(b) The standing committee shall recommend to the Assembly: First, whether an ad interim committee is needed; and, second, if needed, the naming of an existing agency which shall be instructed to make careful study of the question and report to the next Assembly. If it appears that the matter requires the appointment of a selected ad interim committee, the standing committee should so recommend.

(5) Permanent Committees

Members of permanent committees shall be nominated and elected in keeping with thte plan adopted in recommendation 7 on Re-organization of the Assembly's Agencies. (Refer to Minutes of the General Council for 1949, Page 135.) Members of permanent committees shall be elected for terms of three years, eligible to succeed themselves for a third term of three years, but not eligible for further re-election until the lapse of one year. (See recommendation 3, minutes for 1949, page 134.)

(6) Plans for Education and Promotion

All Assembly agencies shall submit to the Budget Committee of the General Council for its approval all plans for education and all plans for the promotion of special appeals for funds, in order that these plans and appeals may be properly harmonized and made to conform to the orders and directions of the General Assembly. The right to appeal to the General Council from any action or decision of the Budget Committee shall be allowed.

(7) Per Capita Tax

In view of the fact that expenses of the General Assembly will fluctuate so greatly due to the widely separated points where the General Assembly may meet, it becomes necessary that the General Assembly Treasurer carry an adequate balance to meet these expenses. See also 6(1).

(8) Standing Rules

These rules shall be Standing Rules and govern the procedure of each Assembly until amended or repealed. No rule shall be amended or repealed except by the concurring vote of two-thirds of the commissioners present and voting.

XV. PERMANENT JUDICIAL COMMITTEE

1. The General Assembly shall appoint a Permanent Judicial Committee consisting of nine members, at least five of whom shall be ministers. Members shall be elected to serve terms of three years. No person shall be eligible for service on this committee for more than two years in succession. All vacancies shall be filled by the General Assembly for three-years terms, except that in the case of vacancies occurring between sessions of the Assembly, they shall be filled by appointment of the Moderator of the Assembly for the unexpired terms. Four of the nine members may be ruling elders, and the nine shall represent not fewer than three synods.

2. The General Assembly shall refer to this committee for consideration and report all judicial cases coming before that body by appeal, complaint or otherwise, in the following manner: within sixty days after the adjournment of the court from which the case is taken to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall place in the hands of the chairman of the said Permanent Judicial Committee the complete records of the case, or a certified copy thereof for the use of the committee.

3. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly shall transmit to the chairman of said committee, as soon as received, copies of all overtures to the approaching Assembly touching constitutional questions or affecting changes in the Book of Church Order, for advice. That portion of the committee's report containing these advices shall be placed in the hands of the standing committees on Bills and Overtures and Judicial Business, along with the overtures.

4. The committee shall file its report by the first day of the Assembly. This report shall present to the Assembly the law at issue, or affected by all the matters referred to, together with such references as will aid and expedite a careful review of the whole matter by those charged therewith; and it may add such suggestions as, in the judgment of the committee, will assist the Assembly or its agents to arrive at just and lawful decisions.

5. This committee shall meet at the call of the chairman, and its necessary expenses shall be provided for by the General Assembly.

6. This committee may from time to time submit to the General Assembly for its approval such rules or procedures governing the trial and conduct of cases as would appear expedient to the end in view.

7. Any individual, group or court within the church seeking information on church rules or procedure may submit inquiries to the Stated Clerk who may transmit them to the Permanent Judicial Committee if he deem it necessary or desirable.

8. The Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall be an ex officio member of this committee, but without the power to vote.

XVI. INSTRUCTIONS TO STATED CLERKS

REPORTS FROM PRESBYTERIES

The General Assembly instructs the stated clerks of presbyteries as follows:

1. Secure from the Division of Publication, Board of Christian Education, Richmond, Va., the latest forms of blanks. It is a good idea to order just enough for one year, allowing a few extras for churches which may lose the set sent them. The Assembly makes frequent changes in the blanks.

2. Make the report in clear, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables. Omit all fractions of a dollar in the money columns. If it is $10.50 or less, enter $10.00; if $10.51 or more, enter $11.00. Add all columns, if possible, on adding machines. Proofread the adding machine work before mailing. Attach adding machine slips to the report. Make the vowels in the names of ministers, churches and postoffices very distinct. Printers have much difficulty with vowels which look very much alike.

3. When a church does not make a report, enter it in the listing according to postoffice; give number of ruling elders, deacons and members from the last report.

4. When a stated clerk of presbytery is ready to make out his statistical report to the General Assembly he is requested to study the report of his presbytery in the Minutes of the General Assembly for the preceding year. All of the statistical reports are uniform in arrangement and each stated clerk should use the report of his presbytery in Assembly Minutes as a pattern.

5. Fill out the statistical report blank giving list of churches according to post office. Where there is more than one church at a particular post office list those bearing numerical titles first; follow these with other churches alphabetically arranged. If a minister serves more than one church the number of churches should be indicated by the figure in parentheses opposite his name. Ministers who are not serving a church or churches in the presbytery must be listed at the bottom of the statistical report with occupation and post office. Give number of candidates. All this must be done the first thing after adjournment of the January meeting of presbytery. The Stated Clerk of the Assembly must have this list to perfect the alphabetical list for the minutes.

6. At the close of the church year the Stated Clerk of the Assembly will forward to each presbytery's stated clerk an Official Roll of the ministers and licentiates. This list must be carefully checked as to: degrees, occupation and mailing address. Immediately upon completion of this roll it should be returned to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

7. Mail to the Stated Clerk, Rev. E. C. Scott, 341-E Ponce de Leon Ave., N. E., Atlanta 8, Ga., all reports from the presbytery just as soon as they are prepared. The Standing Rule requires that all these reports shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk by February 15.

8. Mail overtures and other official communications, including a list of commissioners, at earliest possible date; otherwise, the printing of the Blue Book will be delayed. Send each overture upon a separate sheet of paper, written only on one side, duly signed by the Stated Clerk. (Read also Standing Rules 4(1) and 7, found on Pages 199, 201.)

9. Notify promptly the Stated Clerk of the Assembly when a change is made in the Stated Clerk of Presbytery.

10. Notify the Stated Clerk of the Assembly on cards supplied by him of the reception and dismission of ministers within forty-eight hours after the meeting of presbytery.

11. Stated clerks of presbyteries are instructed to send sessional statistical reports, along with presbytery's statistical report, to the office of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

REPORTS FROM SYNOD

The General Assembly hereby instructs the stated clerks of synods as follows:

(1) Notify the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly before the meeting of each Assembly of the formation or dissolution of presbyteries within the bounds of their respective synods; (2) of the times and places of the next meeting of these bodies; (3) of any changes which may be made in the stated clerk of synod. These three things should be attended to immediately on the adjournment of synod. A marked copy of the printed minutes is not an official notification. An official letter should be written covering the items mentioned above.

XVII. FORMS OF BEQUESTS

"I give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of the General Assembly and Presbyterian Foundation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Inc._____ (here insert the estate devised and bequeathed) for the use and benefit of said Church."

"I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia) (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the publication work of said Church."

"I give and bequeath to the Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee) (here name the amount of the bequest) to be used for the Foreign Mission work of said Church."

"I devise and bequeath to the Board of Annuities and Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the United States the sum of_____dollars for the cause of Ministerial Relief."

"I devise and bequeath to the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States the sum of $_____to aid candidates of said Church in preparation for the gospel ministry."

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Board of Church Extension of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Georgia) (here name the bequest) to be used for the Home Mission division of said Church."

XVIII. PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficacy of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity for divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore,

Resolved, First, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of great mercy so give the Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions and decisions as to promote His own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus in the earth.

Resolved, Second, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

(Minutes of General Assembly, 1863, p. 133.)

Part II

STATISTICAL REPORTS FROM PRESBYTERIES

IMPORTANT

Every minister and licentiate should notify the Stated Clerk of his presbytery at once of any change in his address or ecclesiastical status. The Stated Clerks of the presbyteries should transmit this information promptly to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

Corrections for the lists of ministers and licentiates and the names of the churches should be sent directly to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly. Ministers living in cities where there is free delivery and where mail is delivered at the home should always give their street address.

The names of ministers in parentheses indicate that these men are not members of the presbyteries where listed but that they are serving these churches as Pastors-Elect or as Supplies. In the former cases they are in process of being received or ordained. In the latter they will continue to hold their membership in different presbyteries.

INDEX OF CHURCHES

The General Assembly of 1930 directed that the Alphabetical List of Churches be printed in the Minutes (see page 80 of 1930 Minutes).

Explanatory Note

Churches are indexed both by name and by postoffice except for churches in cities. These will be found only under the name of the city.

Where the name of the church appears first, it is followed by the designation "Ch." or "Chapel."

It has been impossible to secure complete information as to churches which are "R. F. D." Therefore, it is certain that some churches listed under the names of small towns are located in the country.

This index is as accurate as it could be made by comparing the reports of the presbyteries with the reports from the individual churches. Where any discrepancy occurred as to postoffice, the report of the latter is used. In some instances, therefore, this index will vary as to postoffice from the statistical tables printed in the Minutes.

The date opposite a church indicates year of organization.
